Shareholders Rights Plan

On December 2, 2010, the shareholders of Open Text Corporation (the Company) approved the continuation, amendment and restatement of the shareholders rights plan (the Amended Rights Plan) that the Company and Computershare Investor Services Inc. originally entered into as of December 6, 2007.

The Amended Rights Plan continues (with the changes described below) a right (which may only be exercised if a person acquires control of 20% or more of the Company's common shares) for each shareholder, other than the person that acquires 20% or more of the common shares, to acquire additional common shares at one-half of the market price at the time of exercise. The primary objectives of the Amended Rights Plan are to ensure that, in the context of a bid for control of the Company through an acquisition of the common shares, the Company's Board of Directors has sufficient time to assess alternatives for maximizing shareholder value as it considers in its judgment to be in the best interests of the Company, including: continued implementation of the Company's long-term strategic plans, as these may be modified by the Company from time to time; to provide adequate time for competing bids to emerge; to ensure that shareholders have an equal opportunity to participate in such a bid and to give them adequate time to properly assess the bid; and lessen the pressure to tender typically encountered by a securityholder of an issuer that is subject to a bid.

The changes to the Amended Rights Plan approved by the Company's shareholders on December 2, 2010 are as follows:

The recitals contained in the introduction to the Amended Rights Plan have been revised to clarify that the alternatives available to the Board of Directors to maximize shareholder value in the context of a bid for the Company may include, among other things, the continued implementation of the Company's long-term strategic plans.

The provisions of the Amended Rights Plan which address the effective date and shareholder review of the Amended Rights Plan have been revised to specify the shareholder approval required to continue the Amended Rights Plan in 2013 by any stock exchange on which the common shares may then be listed. The Amended Rights Plan provides that (i) if required by the rules and regulations of any stock exchange on which the common shares are then listed, at or prior to the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company in 2013, provided that a Flip-in Event (as defined in the Amended Rights Plan) has not occurred prior to such time, the Board of Directors shall submit a resolution ratifying the continued existence of the Amended Rights Plan to all holders of common shares for their consideration and, if thought advisable, approval; and (ii) if such approval is not required by the rules and regulations of any stock exchange on which the common shares are then listed, at or prior to the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company in 2013, provided that a Flip-in Event has not occurred prior to such time, the Board of Directors shall submit a resolution ratifying the continued existence of the Amended Rights Plan to the Independent Shareholders (as defined in the Amended Rights Plan) for their consideration and, if thought advisable, approval.

A provision has been added to the Amended Rights Plan to confirm that nothing in the Amended Rights Plan is to be construed so as to suggest or imply that the Board of Directors shall not be entitled to recommend that the shareholders reject or accept any take-over bid or take any action in respect of a take-over bid or otherwise that the Board of Directors believes is necessary or appropriate in the exercise of its fiduciary duties.

The definition of Stock Acquisition Date has been amended to allow the Board of Directors to determine, whenever appropriate, a later time for the deemed occurrences of said event. This amendment is consistent with (i) shareholder rights plans of other issuers; and (ii) other provisions of the Amended Rights Plan, including the determination by the Board of Directors, whenever appropriate, of the Separation Time.

Amendments of an administrative nature have been incorporated into the Amended Rights Plan to address compliance with privacy laws and anti-money laundering or anti-terrorist legislation.

The Amended Rights Plan will remain in force until the earlier of the Termination Time (the time at which the right to exercise rights shall terminate pursuant to the Amended Rights Plan) and the termination of the annual meeting of the shareholders in the year 2013 unless at or prior to such meeting the Company's shareholders ratify the continued existence of the Amended Rights Plan, in which case the Amended Rights Plan would expire at the earlier of the Termination Time and the termination of the 2016 annual meeting of the Company's shareholders.

A copy of the Amended Rights Plan is attached as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

The information set forth in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated into this Item 3.03 by reference.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 2, 2010, the shareholders of the Company approved certain amendments to the by-laws of the Company (the "By-laws"). The amendments are intended to clarify the By-laws with respect to the following matters: the powers and duties of officers and the delegation of an officer's duties; the indemnification of directors, officers and certain other individuals as permitted by law; the registration of share transfers so as to facilitate share transfers in the book-entry systems of the Company's transfer agent; the quorum requirement for shareholder meetings; and conforming references to notices given by electronic means to the definition of an "electronic document" under the Canada Business Corporations Act. The Board of Directors do not consider the amendments to the By-laws to be material and the amendments do not impact the substantive rights of the Company's common shares.

A copy of the By-laws is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
