The Offering of Notes

On February 11, 2011, MF Global Holdings Ltd. (the Company) completed an offering of $287.5 million principal amount of its 1.875% Convertible Senior Notes due 2016 (which includes $37.5 million principal amount of Convertible Senior Notes sold pursuant to an option granted by the Company to the underwriters) (the Notes). The Notes were sold pursuant to the Company's shelf registration statement on Form S-3ASR (Registration No. 333-162119), as supplemented by the final prospectus supplement filed with the SEC on February 8, 2011 (the final prospectus supplement). The closing of the offering of the Notes (including the Notes subject to the underwriters' option, which was exercised in full) occurred on February 11, 2011.

The Notes were issued pursuant to an Indenture (the Base Indenture), as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture (the Supplemental Indenture and together, the Indenture), each dated as of February 11, 2011, between the Company and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee. The Notes are initially convertible into approximately 27,735,585 shares of the Company's common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the Common Stock), subject to anti-dilution adjustments and certain make-whole adjustments upon specified corporate events.

The Indenture, the Notes and the offering are described in the final prospectus supplement. Copies of the Base Indenture, the Supplemental Indenture (including the Form of Note included therein) and the underwriting agreement relating to the Notes are filed as exhibits to this Current Report.

Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions and Warrant Transactions

On February 7, 2011, the Company entered into privately negotiated convertible bond hedge transactions (together, the Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions) with each of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, as agent for JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, London Branch, Citibank, N.A., Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., as agent for Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch and Goldman Sachs & Co. (the Counterparties). The Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions cover, subject to anti-dilution adjustments, approximately 27,735,585 shares of the Company's common stock (the Common Stock), which is the same number of shares initially issuable upon conversion of the Notes, and are expected to reduce the potential dilution with respect to the Common Stock and/or reduce the Company's exposure to potential cash payments that may be required to be made by the Company upon conversion of the Notes.

On February 7, 2011, the Company also entered into privately negotiated warrant transactions (together, the Warrant Transactions) generally relating to the same initial number of shares of Common Stock (subject to anti-dilution adjustments) with each of the Counterparties. The warrants have an initial strike price equal to $14.2275, or 75% above the closing price of the Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange on February 7, 2011. The Company may, subject to certain conditions, settle the warrants in cash or on a net-share basis. The Warrant Transactions could have a dilutive effect with respect to the Common Stock or, if the Company so elects, obligate the Company to make cash payments to the extent that the market price per share of Common Stock exceeds the applicable strike price of the Warrant Transactions on any expiration date of the warrants.

The notional size of each of the Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions and Warrant Transactions was automatically increased on February 8, 2011 upon the underwriters' exercise of their option to purchase additional Notes to correspond in the aggregate to the number of shares of Common Stock initially issuable upon conversion of all the Notes, including the additional Notes. The share amount indicated above reflects this increase.

The Company used approximately $27.5 million of the net proceeds from the offering of the Notes to pay the cost of the Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions (after such cost was partially offset by the aggregate proceeds of approximately $36.5 million to the Company from the Warrant Transactions). The remaining net proceeds of the offering, totalling approximately $251.4 million (before expenses), are to be used to repay a portion of the outstanding borrowings under the Company's liquidity facility, with the remainder to be used for general corporate purposes.

The Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions and the Warrant Transactions are separate transactions, each entered into by the Company with the Counterparties, are not part of the terms of the Notes, and will not change any holders' rights under the Notes. Holders of the Notes will not have any rights with respect to the Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions or Warrant Transactions.

The Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions and Warrant Transactions are described in the final prospectus supplement. Copies of the confirmations relating to the Convertible Bond Hedge Transactions and the Warrant Transactions are attached as exhibits to this Current Report.
