MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

April 1, 2011

Dear Stockholder:

On January 20, 2011, Danvers Bancorp, Inc. (Danvers) and People's United Financial, Inc. (People's United) agreed to a strategic business combination in which Danvers will merge with and into People's United with People's United surviving the merger, which we refer to herein as the merger. Under the terms and conditions of the merger, the stockholders of Danvers, as of the record date, will be able to elect to receive either (i) $23.00 in cash or (ii) 1.624 shares of People's United common stock for each share of Danvers common stock, subject to proration provisions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, whereby approximately 55% of Danvers shares will be exchanged for stock and approximately 45% for cash. The value of the stock consideration will depend on the market price of People's United common stock on the effective date of the merger.

We are sending you this proxy statement/prospectus to notify you of and invite you to the special meeting of Danvers common stockholders being held to consider the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 20, 2011, which we refer to herein as the merger agreement, that Danvers has entered into with People's United, and to ask you to vote at the special meeting in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

The special meeting of stockholders of Danvers will be held at the Peabody Marriott Hotel, 8A Centennial Drive, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960 on May 13, 2011 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. You will also be asked to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, in order to solicit proxies in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

The merger cannot be completed unless, among other things, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Danvers common stock adopt the merger agreement. The board of directors of Danvers unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger is fair and in the best interests of Danvers and its stockholders, and accordingly unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, in order to solicit additional proxies in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

The attached proxy statement/prospectus, which serves as the proxy statement for the special meeting of the stockholders of Danvers and the prospectus for the shares of People's United common stock to be issued in the merger, includes detailed information about the special meeting, the merger, and the documents related to the merger. We urge you to read this entire document carefully, including the discussion of the risks related to the merger and owning People's United common stock after the merger in the section titled Risk Factors beginning on page 22. You can also obtain information about Danvers and People's United from documents that have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission that are incorporated in the proxy statement/prospectus by reference.

Shares of People's United common stock are listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol PBCT. Shares of Danvers common stock are listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol DNBK. On March 31, 2011, the last practicable trading day prior to the date of the attached proxy statement/prospectus, the last sales price of People's United common stock was $12.58 per share and the last sales price of Danvers common stock was $21.42 per share. A chart showing the value of cash and common stock merger consideration at various hypothetical closing sale prices of People's United common stock is provided on page 2 of this document. You should obtain current market quotations for both People's United common stock and Danvers common stock.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card or by submitting a proxy through the Internet or by telephone as described on the enclosed instructions as soon as possible to make sure your shares are represented at the special meeting. If you submit a properly signed proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting. The failure to vote by submitting your proxy or attending the special meeting and voting in person will have the same effect as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement.

Danvers' board of directors unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, in order to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Sincerely,

Kevin T. Bottomley
Chairman of the Board,

President and Chief Executive Officer

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON MAY 13, 2011

A special meeting of stockholders of Danvers Bancorp, Inc. will be held at the Peabody Marriott Hotel, 8A Centennial Drive, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960, on May 13, 2011 at 10:00 a.m., local time, for the following purposes:

2. to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting, to adopt the merger agreement.

The proposed merger of Danvers with and into People's United is more fully described in the attached document, which you should read carefully and in its entirety before voting.

The board of directors of Danvers has established the close of business on March 31, 2011 as the record date for the special meeting. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the meeting. If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other nominee, please follow the instructions furnished to you by such record holder with these materials. If you do not vote in person or by proxy, the effect will be a vote against adoption of the merger agreement.

The Danvers board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. In addition, the Danvers board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies for the adoption of the merger agreement.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus. It does not contain all of the information that may be important to you. We urge you to read carefully the entire document and the other documents to which this proxy statement/prospectus refers in order to fully understand the merger and the related transactions. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 98. Each item in this summary refers to the page of this proxy statement/prospectus on which that subject is discussed in more detail.

The Companies (Page 29)

People's United

People's United is the holding company of People's United Bank. At December 31, 2010 People's United had total consolidated assets of $25 billion, nearly 340 branches and more than 500 ATMs. A diversified financial services company founded in 1842, People's United provides consumer, commercial, insurance, retail investment and wealth management and trust services to personal and business banking customers. The address of People's United's principal executive offices is 850 Main Street, Bridgeport, Connecticut 06604, and its telephone number is (203) 338-7171.

Danvers

Danvers, a Delaware corporation organized in 2007, is a registered bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 by virtue of its ownership of Danversbank, a Massachusetts-chartered stock savings bank headquartered in Danvers, Massachusetts. Originally founded in 1850 as a Massachusetts-chartered mutual savings bank, Danversbank's business consists primarily of taking deposits and making loans to its customers, including commercial and industrial loans, commercial real estate loans, owner-occupied residential mortgages and consumer loans, and investing in a variety of investment securities.

At December 31, 2010, Danvers had total consolidated assets of $2.9 billion, loans of $1.8 billion, deposits of $2.1 billion, and stockholders equity of $285 million.

Danvers' principal executive offices are located at One Conant Street, Danvers, Massachusetts 01923, and its telephone number is (978) 777-2200.

The Merger (Page 35)

The proposed merger is of Danvers with and into People's United, with People's United as the surviving corporation in the merger. The merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. Please carefully read the merger agreement as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

What Danvers Stockholders Will Receive in the Merger (Page 73)

Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of Danvers common stock (other than shares owned directly or indirectly by People's United or Danvers (which will be cancelled) and other than those shares with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn, if any, which we collectively refer to as the excluded shares) will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder of each such share, either $23.00 in cash or 1.624 shares of People's United common stock, subject to proration in the circumstances described below. In the event of proration, a Danvers stockholder may receive a portion of the merger consideration in a form other than that which such stockholder elected.

Table of Contents

The value of the stock consideration is dependent upon the value of People's United common stock and therefore will fluctuate with the market price of People's United common stock. Accordingly, any change in the price of People's United common stock prior to the merger will affect the market value of the stock consideration that Danvers stockholders will receive as a result of the merger, as follows:

Value of One Share of People's United Common Stock ($)	Value Received in Exchange for Each Share of Danvers Common Stock
	Cash Consideration ($)	Stock Consideration ($)
16.00	23.00	25.98
15.50	23.00	25.17
15.00	23.00	24.36
14.50	23.00	23.55
14.159 *	23.00	22.99
14.00	23.00	22.74
13.50	23.00	21.92
13.00	23.00	21.11
12.50	23.00	20.30
12.00	23.00	19.49

* Average closing price of People's United stock for the 10 trading days immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement. Based on the $12.58 closing price of People's United common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on March 31, 2011, the last practicable trading day prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, a Danvers stockholder will receive shares of People's United common stock having a value of approximately $20.43 for each share of Danvers common stock that is exchanged for People's United common stock.

The examples above are illustrative only. The value of the stock consideration that a Danvers stockholder will receive for each Danvers share that is exchanged for stock will be based on the closing price of People's United common stock on the effective date of the merger. The actual closing price may be outside the range of the amounts set forth above, and as a result the actual value of the stock consideration may not be shown in the above table.

A Danvers stockholder may specify different elections with respect to different shares that such stockholder holds. For example, a Danvers stockholder who owns 100 shares of Danvers common stock may make a cash election with respect to 50 shares and a stock election with respect to the other 50 shares.

The total number of shares of People's United common stock that will be issued in the merger is approximately 18,450,115, based on the number of shares of Danvers common stock outstanding on March 31, 2011 and the aggregate amount of cash that will be paid in the merger is fixed at $214,490,732. The total amount of Danvers common stock that will be converted into cash in the merger is fixed at 9,325,684 shares. All other shares of Danvers common stock will be converted into shares of People's United common stock (other than shares to be cancelled). As a result, if the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which cash elections are made plus the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn exceeds 9,325,684, Danvers stockholders electing cash will have the cash consideration proportionately reduced and will receive a portion of their consideration in shares of People's United common stock, despite their election. If the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which cash elections are made plus the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn is less than 9,325,684, Danvers stockholders electing no preference or who do not make an effective election and/or Danvers stockholders electing shares of People's United common stock will receive all or a portion of their consideration in cash, despite their election.

What Holders of Danvers Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Awards Will Receive in the Merger (Page 76)

Edgar Filing: People's United Financial, Inc. - Form 424B3

Each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of Danvers common stock that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will fully vest and be cancelled at the effective time of the merger, and each option holder will be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to (1) the number of Danvers shares subject to that holder's option(s) multiplied by (2) the excess, if any, of $23.00 over the per-share exercise price of that holder's option(s).

At the effective time of the merger, all of the then outstanding Danvers restricted stock awards will fully vest, and all of the related shares will be converted in the merger into the right to receive the same merger consideration as all other outstanding shares of Danvers common stock are entitled to receive in the merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (Page 63)

People's United will account for the merger as a purchase for financial reporting purposes.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page 60)

The merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code. Therefore, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a result of the merger, a U.S. holder of shares of Danvers common stock generally will only recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash (if any) received as part of the merger consideration and will recognize gain or loss if such holder received the entirety of its consideration in cash or with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of People's United common stock.

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P., Financial Advisor to Danvers (Page 41)

On January 20, 2011, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, rendered to the Danvers board its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing that, as of such date, the consideration to be received in the merger was fair to Danvers stockholders from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached to this document as Annex B. Danvers shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. Sandler O'Neill's written opinion is addressed to the board of directors of Danvers and is directed only to the fairness of the merger consideration to Danvers stockholders from a financial point of view. The written opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Danvers to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation to any Danvers stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote at the special meeting with respect to the merger, the form of consideration a stockholder should elect in the merger or any other matter.

Recommendation of Danvers Board of Directors (Page 41)

Danvers board of directors has determined that the merger is fair and in the best interests of Danvers and its stockholders. The Danvers board of directors unanimously recommends that Danvers stockholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting.

Interests of Danvers Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (Page 53)

Danvers executive officers and directors may have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Danvers stockholders. These interests include the vesting in full of outstanding equity compensation awards and rights to continued indemnification and insurance coverage by People's United after the merger for acts or omissions occurring before the merger. The Danvers board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in its decision to approve the merger agreement.

People's United Board of Directors after the Merger (Page 60)

People's United has agreed that it will cause Kevin T. Bottomley, the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Danvers, to be appointed to the People's United board of directors to the class of directors with a term expiring in 2013 at the effective time of the merger. If Mr. Bottomley is not serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of Danvers at the effective time of the merger, People's United will instead cause such other director of Danvers designated by Danvers and reasonably acceptable to People's United to be appointed to the People's United board of directors.

No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions (Page 82)

Danvers has agreed not to initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate the submission of any proposals from third parties regarding acquiring Danvers or its businesses. In addition, Danvers has agreed not to engage in discussions or negotiations with or provide confidential information to a third party regarding acquiring Danvers or its businesses. However, if Danvers receives an unsolicited acquisition proposal from a third party prior to the date of the special meeting of Danvers stockholders, Danvers may participate in discussions with, or provide confidential information to, such third party if, among other steps, the Danvers board of directors concludes in good faith that the proposal is or is reasonably likely to result in a financially superior proposal to the merger.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (Page 63)

Completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is subject to various regulatory approvals, including approval from the Office of Thrift Supervision, which we refer to as the OTS, and various state regulatory authorities. Prior to the date of this proxy statement, People's United and Danvers have filed with regulatory authorities all of the required applications and notices necessary to complete the merger. In addition, the completion of the merger is subject to the expiration of certain waiting periods and other requirements. Although we do not know of any reason why we would not be able to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will receive them.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (Page 85)

As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on a number of mutual conditions being satisfied or waived, including:

the approval of Danvers stockholders; receipt of all regulatory approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the expiration or termination of all statutory waiting periods; and the absence of any law or order prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the merger.

Each of People's United's and Danvers' obligations to complete the merger is also separately subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including:

the other party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement being true and correct, subject to the materiality standards contained in the merger agreement;

material compliance of the other party with its covenants; and receipt by each party of a legal opinion from its respective counsel that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Additionally, the obligation of People's United to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the receipt of all regulatory approvals required to complete the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank.

Edgar Filing: People's United Financial, Inc. - Form 424B3

People's United and Danvers cannot be certain of when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived or whether or not the merger will be completed.

Danversbank Charitable Foundation (Page 85)

The parties have also agreed that the board of directors of the Danversbank Charitable Foundation shall remain unchanged for three years following the effective time of the merger (except as described in the following sentence) and that all proceeds disbursed by the Danversbank Charitable Foundation will be disbursed within the sole discretion of the foundation's board of directors. The parties further agreed that People's United will have the right to appoint two additional individuals to the board of directors of the Danversbank Charitable Foundation and that Kevin T. Bottomley will be Chairman of the board of directors of the foundation for three years following the effective time of the merger. People's United has also agreed to make certain charitable contributions in Danvers' market area for a period of three years after the effective time of the merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 85)

People's United and Danvers can agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if Danvers stockholders have adopted the merger agreement. Also, either of People's United or Danvers can terminate the merger agreement if:

a governmental entity which must grant a regulatory approval that is a condition to the merger denies such approval and such action has become final and non-appealable;

a governmental entity issues a final non-appealable order enjoining or prohibiting the merger;

the merger is not completed by September 30, 2011 (other than because of a breach of the merger agreement by the party seeking termination);

the other party breaches the merger agreement in a manner that would entitle the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement the right not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of the breaching party to cure, if curable, the breach within 30 days of written notice of the breach, and the party seeking to terminate is not then in material breach of the merger agreement; or Danvers stockholders fail to adopt the merger agreement at the Danvers special meeting.

Additionally, People's United may terminate the merger agreement if:

any governmental entity which must grant an approval for the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank has denied approval of such merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable;

any government entity issues a final non-appealable order enjoining or prohibiting the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank;

Danvers' board of directors has failed to recommend the merger to Danvers stockholders or has withdrawn, modified or qualified in a manner adverse to People's United its recommendation of the merger;

Danvers has failed to call and hold a special meeting of Danvers stockholders;

Danvers has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations described under The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions, beginning on page 82, in any respect adverse to People's United;

Danvers negotiates or authorizes the conduct of negotiations (and 10 days have elapsed without such negotiations being discontinued) with a third party regarding an acquisition proposal other than the merger; or a tender or exchange offer for 15% or more of the outstanding Danvers common stock is commenced and the Danvers board of directors recommends that Danvers stockholders tender their shares or otherwise fails to recommend that Danvers stockholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within 10 business days of the commencement of the offer.

Danvers may also terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of People's United common stock for a specified period prior to closing is less than $11.33 and People's United common stock underperforms a specified peer-group index by more than 20%, provided that People's United will have the option to increase the amount of People's United common stock to be provided to Danvers stockholders, in which case no termination will occur.

Termination Fee (Page 87)

Danvers has agreed to pay to People's United a termination fee of $19,725,000 if the merger agreement is terminated under the circumstances specified in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on page 87.

Amendment or Waiver of Merger Agreement Provisions (Page 88)

People's United and Danvers may jointly amend the merger agreement and each of People's United and Danvers may waive its right to require the other party to comply with particular provisions of the merger agreement. However, People's United and Danvers may not amend the merger agreement after Danvers stockholders adopt the merger agreement if the amendment would legally require further approval by Danvers stockholders without first obtaining such further approval.

People's United may also change the structure of the merger, as long as any such change does not alter or change the amount or kind of merger consideration to be provided under the merger agreement, materially impede or delay completion of the merger, or adversely affect the anticipated tax consequences to Danvers stockholders in the merger.

Danvers will hold its special meeting of common stockholders on May 13, 2011, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Peabody Marriott Hotel, 8A Centennial Drive, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960. At the special meeting you will be asked to vote for the adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to approve adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of adoption of the merger agreement.

You can vote at the Danvers special meeting of common stockholders if you owned Danvers common stock at the close of business on March 31, 2011. As of that date, there were approximately 20,686,592 shares of Danvers common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, approximately 1,401,241 of which, or 6.62%, were owned beneficially or of record by directors and officers of Danvers. You can cast one vote for each share of Danvers common stock that you owned on that date.

Appraisal Rights (Page 67)

Under Delaware law, Danvers stockholders of record who do not vote in favor of the merger and properly make a demand for appraisal will be entitled to exercise appraisal rights and obtain payment in cash for the judicially determined fair value of their shares of Danvers common stock in connection with the merger if the merger is completed. The relevant provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, which we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the DGCL, are included as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Differences Between Rights of People's United and Danvers Stockholders (Page 91)

As a result of the merger, some or all of the holders of Danvers common stock will become holders of People's United common stock. Following the merger, Danvers stockholders will have different rights as stockholders of People's United than as stockholders of Danvers due to the different provisions of the governing documents of People's United and Danvers. For additional information regarding the different rights as stockholders of People's United than as stockholders of Danvers, see Comparison of Stockholder Rights beginning on page 91.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following questions and answers are intended to address briefly some commonly asked questions regarding the merger and the special meeting. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a stockholder. To better understand these matters, and for a description of the legal terms governing the merger, you should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes, as well as the documents that have been incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/ prospectus?

A: People's United and Danvers have agreed to the acquisition of Danvers by People's United under the terms of an agreement and plan of merger that is described in this proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex A. In order to complete the merger, Danvers stockholders must vote to adopt the merger agreement. Danvers will hold a special meeting of its stockholders to obtain this approval. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting of Danvers stockholders, and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials for the special meeting allow you to vote your shares of Danvers common stock without attending the special meeting in person.

We are delivering this proxy statement/ prospectus to you as both a proxy statement of Danvers and a prospectus of People's United. It is a proxy statement because the Danvers board of directors is soliciting proxies from its stockholders to vote on the approval of the merger agreement at a special meeting of stockholders, and your proxy will be used at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. It is a prospectus because People's United will issue People's United common stock to the Danvers common stockholders who receive stock consideration in the merger and this prospectus contains information about that common stock.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: Danvers' stockholders are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

to adopt the merger agreement between People's United and Danvers; and to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: In the proposed merger, Danvers will merge with and into People's United, with People's United being the surviving corporation. Simultaneously with the merger, Danversbank will be merged with and into People's United Bank, with People's United Bank as the surviving entity.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: Danvers stockholders will be entitled to elect to receive merger consideration of either $23.00 in cash or 1.624 shares of People's United common stock for each outstanding share of Danvers common stock (other than excluded shares) held at the time of the merger. However, the form of merger consideration you actually receive may differ from the form of consideration you elect to receive. This is because the total amount of Danvers common stock that will be converted into cash in the merger is fixed at 9,325,684 shares. As a result,

Edgar Filing: People's United Financial, Inc. - Form 424B3

if the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which cash elections are made plus the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn is more or less than

9,325,684, Danvers stockholders may receive a portion of their consideration in a form other than what they elected, despite their election. The value of the stock consideration is dependent upon the value of People's United common stock and therefore will fluctuate with the market price of People's United common stock. Accordingly, any change in the price of People's United common stock prior to the merger will affect the market value of the stock consideration that Danvers stockholders will receive as a result of the merger.

Q: What are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of shares of Danvers common stock?

A: The merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Therefore, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a result of the merger, a U.S. holder of shares of Danvers common stock generally will only recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash received (if any) as part of the merger consideration but will recognize gain or loss (1) if such holder received the entirety of its consideration in cash and (2) with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of People's United common stock. See The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 60.

Q: Will I be able to trade the shares of People's United common stock that I receive in the merger?

A: You may freely trade the shares of People's United common stock issued in the merger, unless you are an affiliate of People's United as defined by Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Affiliates consist of individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or under the common control with People's United and include the executive officers and directors and may include significant stockholders of People's United.

Q: What will happen to shares of People's United common stock in the merger?

A: Nothing. Each share of People's United common stock outstanding will remain outstanding as a share of People's United common stock.

Q: What are the conditions to completion of the merger?

A: The obligations of People's United and Danvers to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain closing conditions contained in the merger agreement, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals, tax opinions and adoption of the merger agreement by Danvers stockholders.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We will complete the merger when all of the conditions to completion contained in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, including obtaining customary regulatory approvals and the adoption of the merger agreement by Danvers stockholders at the special meeting. While we expect the merger to be completed in the second quarter of 2011, because fulfillment of some of the conditions to completion of the merger is not entirely within our control, we cannot assure you of the actual timing.

Q: When is this proxy statement/prospectus being mailed?

Edgar Filing: People's United Financial, Inc. - Form 424B3

A: This proxy statement/prospectus and the proxy card are first being sent to Danvers stockholders on or about April 8, 2011.

Q: What stockholder approvals are required to complete the merger?

A: For Danvers, the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Danvers common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to adopt the merger agreement. For People's United, no approval of stockholders is needed and no vote will be taken.

Table of Contents

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting of stockholders of Danvers will be held at the Peabody Marriott Hotel, 8A Centennial Drive, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960 on May 13, 2011 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Q: What will happen at the special meeting?

A: At the special meeting, Danvers stockholders will consider and vote upon the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. If, at the time of the special meeting, there are not sufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement, we may ask you to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, so that we can solicit additional proxies.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: All holders of Danvers common stock who held shares at the close of business on the record date (March 31, 2011) are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting provided that such shares remain outstanding on the date of the special meeting.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the special meeting?

A: The presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Danvers common stock entitled to vote constitutes a quorum for the special meeting.

Q: Does the Danvers board of directors recommend voting in favor of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. After careful consideration, the Danvers board of directors unanimously recommends that Danvers stockholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: Are there any risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote for adoption of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. You should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth in the section in this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including its annexes. It contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, People's United and Danvers. After you have read and considered this information, you should complete and sign your proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope or submit a proxy through the Internet or by telephone as soon as possible so that your shares of Danvers common stock will be represented and voted at the special meeting.

Edgar Filing: People's United Financial, Inc. - Form 424B3

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, bank or other nominee, will my broker, bank or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker, bank or other nominee will not vote your shares of Danvers common stock unless you provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote. You should instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares by following the instructions provided by the broker, bank or nominee with this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: How will my shares be represented at the special meeting?

A: At the special meeting, the officers named in your proxy card will vote your shares in the manner you requested if you properly signed and submitted your proxy. If you sign your proxy card and return it without indicating how you would like to vote your shares, your proxy will be voted as the Danvers board of directors recommends, which is (1) FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and (2) FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting.

Table of Contents

Q: What if I fail to submit my proxy card or to instruct my broker, bank or other nominee?

A: If you fail to properly submit your proxy card or to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares of Danvers common stock and you do not attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, your shares will not be voted. This will have the same effect as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. Although the Danvers board of directors requests that you return the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus, all Danvers stockholders are invited to attend the special meeting. Stockholders of record on March 31, 2011 can vote in person at the special meeting. If your shares are held in street name, you must obtain a proxy from the record holder to vote your shares in person at the special meeting.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have submitted my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time after you have submitted your proxy card and before your proxy is voted at the special meeting.

You may deliver a written notice bearing a date later than the date of your proxy card to the secretary of Danvers, stating that you revoke your proxy.

You may sign and deliver to the secretary of Danvers a new proxy card relating to the same shares and bearing a later date.

You may properly cast a new vote through the Internet or by telephone at any time before the closure of the Internet and telephone voting facilities.

You may attend the special meeting and vote in person, although attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

You should send any notice of revocation or your completed new proxy card, as the case may be, to Danvers at the following address:

Danvers Bancorp, Inc.

One Conant Square

Danvers, Massachusetts 01923

Attn: Michael W. McCurdy, Secretary

If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee to change your voting instructions.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares after the record date but before the special meeting?

A: The record date of the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting and the date that the merger is expected to be completed. If you sell or otherwise transfer your Danvers shares after the record date but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting (provided that such shares remain outstanding on the date of the special meeting), but you will not have the right to receive the merger consideration to be received by Danvers stockholders in the merger. In order to receive the merger consideration, you must hold your shares through completion of the merger.

Q: What do I do if I receive more than one proxy statement/prospectus or set of voting instructions?

A: If you hold shares directly as a record holder and also in street name or otherwise through a nominee, you may receive more than one proxy statement/prospectus and/or set of voting instructions relating to the special meeting. These should each be voted and/or returned separately in order to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Table of Contents

Q: How do I make an election as to the form of merger consideration I wish to receive?

A: If you wish to elect the type of merger consideration you receive in the merger, you should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the form of election, which is being separately mailed to Danvers stockholders following the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus. You will need to properly complete, sign and date the form of election and transmittal materials and return them to the exchange agent, Mellon Investor Services LLC, at the address given in the materials, prior to the election deadline. If your shares of Danvers common stock are represented by certificates, those certificates will need to be returned along with your completed election form. The election deadline will be the later of the date of the Danvers special meeting and the date that Danvers and People's United believe to be as near as practicable to five business days prior to the anticipated date for the completion of the merger, although this may change if agreed to by People's United and Danvers. People's United will issue a press release announcing the election deadline. If you do not submit a properly completed and signed form of election to the exchange agent by the election deadline, you will have no control over the type of merger consideration you may receive and, consequently, may receive only cash, only People's United common stock or a combination of cash and People's United common stock in the merger. If you hold shares in street name, you must follow your broker's instructions to make an election.

Q: Can I elect to receive cash consideration with respect to a portion of my Danvers shares and People's United common stock with respect to the rest of my Danvers shares?

A: Yes. A Danvers stockholder may specify different elections with respect to different shares that such stockholder holds. For example, a Danvers stockholder who owns 100 shares of Danvers common stock may make a cash election with respect to 50 shares and a stock election with respect to the other 50 shares.

Q: Are Danvers stockholders entitled to seek appraisal or dissenters' rights if they do not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. Under Delaware law, holders of shares of Danvers common stock that meet certain requirements will have the right to dissent from the merger and obtain payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of Danvers common stock, as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, rather than the merger consideration. To exercise appraisal rights, Danvers stockholders must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by Delaware law. These procedures are summarized under the section entitled "The Merger Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 67. In addition, the text of the applicable appraisal rights provisions of Delaware law is included as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. You will receive a form on which you can elect the type of consideration you would prefer to receive as a result of the merger, which will include instructions for surrendering your stock certificates in order to make an effective election. If you do not surrender your stock certificates as part of the election process, then after the merger is complete you will receive separate written instructions for surrendering your shares of Danvers common stock in exchange for the merger consideration. In the meantime, you should retain your stock certificates because they are still valid. Please do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy card.

Q: Where can I find more information about the companies?

A: You can find more information about People's United and Danvers from the various sources described under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 98.

Q: Will a proxy solicitor be used?

A: Yes. Danvers has engaged Phoenix Advisory Partners to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting and Danvers estimates it will pay Phoenix Advisory Partners a fee of approximately $7,500. Danvers has also agreed to reimburse Phoenix Advisory Partners for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with the proxy solicitation and to indemnify Phoenix Advisory Partners against certain losses, costs and expenses. In addition, Danvers' officers and employees may request the return of proxies by telephone or in person, but no additional compensation will be paid to them.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

- (7) The tangible equity ratio is the ratio of (i) tangible stockholders' equity (total stockholders' equity less goodwill and other acquisition-related intangibles) (the numerator) to (ii) tangible assets (total assets less goodwill and other acquisition-related intangibles) (the denominator). Tangible book value per share is calculated by dividing tangible stockholders' equity by common shares outstanding.
- (8) Regulatory capital ratios presented are for People's United Bank and, as such, do not reflect the additional capital residing at People's United Financial, Inc. for periods subsequent to 2006.
- (9) Calculation excludes acquired loans which represent the acquisition-date portfolios in People's United's 2010 acquisitions that are accounted for as loan pools. Originated loans represent all loans other than acquired loans. Including acquired loans and acquired non-performing loans at December 31, 2010, non-performing loans were 3.45% of total loans and non-performing assets were 3.77% of total loans, REO and repossessed assets.

- (5) The acquisition of Beverly by Danvers and the attendant acquisition accounting considerations are the reasons that the reserve represents a lower percentage of non-performing loans and total loans.

UNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The table on the following page presents, for both People's United and Danvers, historical information with respect to earnings, dividends and book value on a per share basis. The table also presents preliminary pro forma information for both companies on a per share basis. The preliminary pro forma information was prepared as if the merger had become effective on December 31, 2010.

The preliminary pro forma information assumes total merger consideration of approximately $493 million, consisting of approximately (i) $214.5 million in cash and 18,510,448 shares of People's United common stock to be paid or issued to holders of Danvers common stock upon completion of the merger, and (ii) $16.5 million to be paid to cancel outstanding options to purchase shares of Danvers common stock. The number of shares of People's United common stock was calculated based on the number of shares of Danvers common stock outstanding on January 20, 2011 and the average closing price of People's United of $14.159 for the 10-day period ended January 19, 2011, the last trading day before the announcement of the merger. Using those assumptions, the value of the merger consideration to be received in exchange for one share of Danvers common stock would have been $23.00 and each share of Danvers common stock not exchanged for that amount in cash would have been exchangeable for 1.624 shares of People's United common stock.

The preliminary pro forma equivalent per share information shown for Danvers in the following table was obtained by multiplying the pro forma per share amounts shown for People's United by the exchange ratio of 1.624. The actual number of shares to be issued by People's United in the merger will also depend on the number of shares of Danvers common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger.

The preliminary pro forma financial information includes estimated adjustments to record Danvers' assets and liabilities at their respective fair values based on People's United's management's best estimate using the information available at this time. The preliminary pro forma adjustments may be revised as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. The final allocation of the purchase price will be determined after the merger is completed and after the completion of a final analysis to determine the fair values of Danvers' tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities as of the closing date. The final purchase price adjustments may differ materially from the preliminary pro forma adjustments. Increases or decreases in the fair value of certain balance sheet amounts and other items of Danvers as compared to the information presented in this document may change the amount of the purchase price allocated to goodwill and other assets and liabilities and may impact the statement of income due to adjustments in yield and/or amortization of adjusted assets and liabilities.

It is anticipated that the merger will provide People's United with financial benefits, such as possible expense efficiencies and revenue enhancements, among other factors, although no assurances can be given that these benefits will actually be achieved. The impact of these benefits has not been reflected in the preliminary pro forma financial information. As required, the preliminary pro forma financial information includes adjustments that give effect to events that are directly attributable to the merger and factually supportable. As a result, any planned adjustments affecting the balance sheet, income statement, or shares of common stock outstanding subsequent to the assumed merger completion date have not been included.

The preliminary pro forma financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the financial results of the combined companies had the merger actually been completed as of or at the beginning of each period presented nor does it indicate future results for any interim or full-year period.

The market value of the People's United common stock to be issued in exchange for shares of Danvers common stock upon the completion of the merger will not be known at the time of the Danvers special meeting. The above tables show only historical comparisons. Because the market prices of People's United common stock and Danvers common stock will likely fluctuate prior to the merger, these comparisons may not provide meaningful information to Danvers stockholders in determining whether to adopt the merger agreement. Stockholders are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for People's United common stock and Danvers common stock and to review carefully the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 98.

The holders of People's United common stock receive dividends as and when declared by People's United's board of directors out of statutory surplus or from net profits. Following the completion of the merger, subject to approval and declaration by People's United's board of directors, People's United expects to continue paying quarterly cash dividends on a basis consistent with past practice. The current annualized rate of distribution on a share of People's United common stock is $0.62 per share.

The merger agreement permits Danvers to continue to pay regular quarterly cash dividends with record and payment dates consistent with past practice prior to completion of the merger.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the caption "Information Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" on page 27, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote for adoption of the merger agreement.

Because the market price of People's United common stock will fluctuate, Danvers stockholders who receive stock consideration will not know until the effective time of the merger the value of the consideration they will receive in the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Danvers common stock, other than excluded shares, will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of, at the option of the holder of such share, either cash or shares of People's United common stock. Because the per share stock consideration is fixed at 1.624 shares of People's United common stock, the market value of the People's United common stock to be issued in the merger will depend upon the market price of People's United common stock. This market price may vary from the closing price of People's United common stock on the date the merger was announced, on the date that this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed to Danvers stockholders and on the date of the Danvers special meeting. Accordingly, at the time of the Danvers special meeting, Danvers stockholders who receive stock consideration will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the value of the stock consideration they would be entitled to receive upon completion of the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of People's United common stock and for shares of Danvers common stock.

The market price of People's United common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of People's United or Danvers currently.

The businesses of People's United and Danvers differ and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations and market prices of common stock of each of People's United and Danvers. For a discussion of the businesses of People's United and Danvers and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 98.

Danvers stockholders may receive a form of consideration different from what they elect.

While each Danvers stockholder may elect to receive cash or People's United common stock in the merger, the total number of shares of Danvers stock that may be exchanged for cash consideration is fixed. As a result, if the total cash elections by Danvers stockholders plus the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn are greater, or less, than the total number of shares that may be exchanged for cash, you may receive a different form of consideration than you elect and you may receive a pro rata amount of cash and People's United common stock.

In order to make an election you must submit your shares of Danvers common stock, and you will then not be able to sell those shares unless you revoke your election prior to the election deadline.

If you are a Danvers stockholder and want to make a cash or stock election, you will have to deliver your stock certificates (or follow the procedures for guaranteed delivery) and a properly completed and signed form of election to the exchange agent. Since the actual election deadline is not currently known, People's United will issue a press release announcing the date of the election deadline as promptly as practicable following the determination of the deadline. For further details on the determination of the election deadline, see "The Merger Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates; Dividends; Withholding; Form of Election" beginning on page 65 of this document. The election deadline will be the later of the day of the Danvers special meeting and the date the parties believe to be as near as practicable to five business days before the completion of the merger. You will not be able to sell any shares of Danvers common stock that you have delivered as part of your election unless you revoke your election before the election deadline by providing written notice to the exchange agent. In the time between delivery of your shares and the closing of the merger, the trading price of Danvers common stock or People's United common stock may fluctuate, and you might otherwise want to sell your shares of Danvers common stock to gain access to cash, make other investments, or reduce the potential for a decrease in the value of your investment.

The date that you will receive your merger consideration depends on the completion date of the merger, which is uncertain. The completion date of the merger might be later than expected due to unforeseen events, such as delays in obtaining regulatory approvals.

The failure to successfully integrate Danvers' business and operations in the expected time frame may adversely affect People's United's future results.

The success of the merger will depend, in part, on the combined company's ability to realize the anticipated benefits from combining the businesses of People's United and Danvers. However, to realize these anticipated benefits, the businesses of People's United and Danvers must be successfully combined. If the combined company is not able to achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

People's United and Danvers have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, as well as the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies, any or all of which could adversely affect People's United's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees after the merger or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. Integration efforts between the two companies will also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of People's United and Danvers.

The tax consequences of the merger to a Danvers stockholder will be dependent upon the merger consideration received.

The tax consequences of the merger to a Danvers stockholder will depend upon the merger consideration that the stockholder receives. A Danvers stockholder generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the conversion of shares of Danvers common stock solely into shares of People's United common stock. However, a Danvers stockholder generally will be taxed if he, she, or it receives cash in exchange for shares of Danvers common stock or for any fractional share of People's United common stock. For a detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the merger to Danvers stockholders generally, see the section in this document titled "The Merger" Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 60. Each Danvers stockholder should consult his, her, or its own tax advisors as to the effect of the merger as applicable to the Danvers stockholder's particular circumstances.

The merger agreement limits Danvers' ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that make it more difficult for Danvers to sell its business to a party other than People's United. These provisions include a general prohibition on Danvers' solicitation of any acquisition proposal or offer for a competing transaction, the requirement that Danvers pay a termination fee of $19,725,000 if the merger agreement is terminated in specified circumstances and the requirement that Danvers submit the adoption of the merger agreement to a vote of Danvers' stockholders even if the board of directors of Danvers changes its recommendation in favor of the approval of the merger agreement in a manner adverse to People's United. See "The Merger Agreement" No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions" and "The Merger Agreement" Termination of the Merger Agreement" Termination Fee" beginning on pages 82 and 87, respectively.

Table of Contents

These provisions might discourage a third party that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Danvers from considering or proposing that acquisition, even if that party were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share value than the current proposed merger consideration. Furthermore, a potential competing acquiror may propose to pay a lower per share price to Danvers stockholders than it might otherwise have proposed to pay because of Danvers' obligation, in connection with termination of the merger agreement under certain circumstances, to pay People's United a $19,725,000 termination fee.

The merger agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the merger may not be completed.

The merger agreement is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to complete the merger. Those conditions include: adoption of the merger agreement by Danvers stockholders, regulatory approvals, absence of orders prohibiting the completion of the merger, effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of their covenants and agreements, and the receipt by both parties of legal opinions from their respective tax counsels.

In addition, Danvers may choose to terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of People's United common stock during the five trading day period ending on the trading day immediately preceding the date of receipt of all required regulatory approvals is less than $11.33 and People's United common stock underperforms a specified peer-group index by more than 20%. Any such termination would be subject to the right of People's United to increase the amount of People's United common stock to be provided to Danvers stockholders pursuant to the formula prescribed in the merger agreement. See "The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement" beginning on page 85 for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the merger agreement could be terminated.

Lawsuits challenging the merger have been filed against Danvers, the Danvers board of directors and People's United, and an adverse judgment in such lawsuits or any future similar lawsuits may prevent the merger from becoming effective or from becoming effective within the expected timeframe.

Danvers, the Danvers board of directors and People's United are named as defendants in two purported class action lawsuits, one consolidated action in the Court of Chancery in the State of Delaware and one in the Superior Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, challenging the proposed merger and seeking, among other things, to enjoin the defendants from completing the merger on the agreed-upon terms and rescission of the merger to the extent it has been completed. See "The Merger Litigation Relating to the Merger" beginning on page 70.

One of the conditions to the closing of the merger is that no order, injunction or decree or other order (whether temporary or permanent) that prohibits the completion of the merger be in effect. If any plaintiff were successful in obtaining an injunction prohibiting the Danvers or People's United defendants from completing the merger on the agreed upon terms, then such injunction may prevent the merger from becoming effective or from becoming effective within the expected timeframe.

Danvers stockholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management of the combined organization.

Danvers' stockholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Board of Directors of Danvers and on other matters affecting Danvers. Upon the completion of the merger, each Danvers stockholder that receives shares of People's United common stock will become a stockholder of People's United with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than the stockholder's percentage ownership of Danvers. It is expected that the former stockholders of Danvers as a group will receive shares in the merger constituting less than 5.0% of the outstanding shares of People's United common stock immediately after the merger. Because of this, Danvers' stockholders will have significantly less influence on the management and policies of People's United than they now have on the management and policies of Danvers.

Danvers directors and executive officers have financial interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Danvers stockholders.

In considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that Danvers executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Danvers stockholders generally. These interests include the vesting in full of outstanding Danvers equity compensation awards and rights to continued indemnification and insurance coverage by People's United after the merger for acts or omissions occurring before the merger. See The Merger Interests of Danvers Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 53 for a discussion of these financial interests.

The fairness opinion obtained by Danvers from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the fairness opinion.

Sandler O'Neill, Danvers financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger, has delivered to the board of directors of Danvers its opinion dated as of January 20, 2011. The opinion of Sandler O'Neill stated that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the consideration to be received in the merger was fair to the Danvers stockholders from a financial point of view. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date of the opinion, including changes to the operations and prospects of People's United or Danvers, changes in general market and economic conditions or regulatory or other factors. Any such changes, or changes in other factors on which the opinion is based, may materially alter or affect the relative values of People's United and Danvers.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from governmental entities that may delay the date of completion of the merger or impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on People's United.

Before the merger may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from the OTS and other governmental authorities. Satisfying the requirements of these governmental entities may delay the date of completion of the merger. In addition, these governmental entities, including the OTS, may include conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. While People's United and Danvers do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would result in a material adverse effect on People's United, there can be no assurance that they will not, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of People's United following the merger, any of which might have a material adverse effect on People's United following the merger. People's United is not obligated to complete the merger if the regulatory approvals received in connection with the completion of the merger include any conditions or restrictions that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on People's United, but People's United could choose to waive this condition.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively impact the stock prices and future businesses and financial results of People's United and Danvers.

If the merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of People's United and Danvers may be adversely affected and People's United and Danvers will be subject to several risks, including the following:

Danvers may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay People's United a termination fee of $19,725,000 under the merger agreement;

People's United and Danvers will be required to pay certain costs relating to the merger, whether or not the merger is completed, such as legal, accounting, financial advisor and printing fees;

under the merger agreement, Danvers is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the merger which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies; and matters relating to the merger may require substantial commitments of time and resources by People's United and Danvers management, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that may have been beneficial to People's United and Danvers as independent companies, as the case may be.

In addition, if the merger is not completed, People's United and/or Danvers may experience negative reactions from the financial markets and from their respective customers and employees. People's United and/or Danvers also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the merger or to enforcement proceedings commenced against People's United or Danvers to perform their respective obligations under the merger agreement. If the merger is not completed, People's United and Danvers cannot assure their stockholders that the risks described above will not materialize and will not materially affect the business, financial results and stock prices of People's United and/or Danvers.

The shares of People's United common stock to be received by Danvers stockholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from shares of Danvers common stock.

Following completion of the merger, Danvers stockholders will no longer be stockholders of Danvers. Danvers stockholders who receive shares of People's United in the merger will instead be stockholders of People's United. There will be important differences between your current rights as a Danvers stockholder and the rights to which you will be entitled as a People's United stockholder. See Comparison of Stockholder Rights beginning on page 91 for a discussion of the different rights associated with People's United common stock and Danvers common stock.

At the special meeting, Danvers stockholders as of the record date will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

1. to adopt the merger agreement, pursuant to which Danvers will merge with and into People's United, with People's United being the surviving corporation; and
2. to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies, if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting, to adopt the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the Danvers Board of Directors

THE DANVERS BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND FOR THE PROPOSAL TO ADJOURN THE MEETING, IF NECESSARY.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of Danvers common stock at the close of business on the record date of March 31, 2011 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Danvers special meeting, provided that such shares remain outstanding on the date of the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 20,686,592 shares of Danvers common stock outstanding, held of record by 1,210 stockholders. Each holder of Danvers common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Danvers common stock owned as of the record date.

Quorum; Vote Required

A quorum of Danvers stockholders is necessary to hold a valid meeting. If the holders of at least a majority of the total number of the outstanding shares of Danvers common stock entitled to vote are represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, a quorum will exist. Danvers will include proxies marked as abstentions in determining the number of shares present at the special meeting. Broker non-votes will not be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of Danvers common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to adopt the merger agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement. A majority of the votes properly cast is required to approve one or more adjournments to the special meeting.

Share Ownership of Management

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of Danvers and their affiliates collectively owned 1,401,241 shares of Danvers common stock, or approximately 6.62% of Danvers' outstanding shares. Danvers currently expects that each of its directors and executive officers and their affiliates will vote their shares of Danvers common stock FOR adoption of the merger agreement, although none of them has entered into an agreement requiring them to do so.

When considering the Danvers board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that the executive officers and directors of Danvers have financial interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of stockholders of Danvers. See "The Merger," "Interests of Danvers' Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger," beginning on page 53.

If you hold your shares of Danvers common stock in "street name," meaning in the name of a bank, broker or other nominee who is the record holder, you must either direct the record holder of your shares of Danvers common stock how to vote your shares or obtain a proxy from the record holder to vote your shares in person at the special meeting.

If you fail to properly submit your proxy card or to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares of Danvers common stock and you do not attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, your shares will not be voted. This will have the same effect as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement.

How to Revoke Your Proxy

If you are a Danvers stockholder, you may revoke your proxy at any time by taking any of the following actions before your proxy is voted at the special meeting:

delivering a written notice bearing a date later than the date of your proxy card to the secretary of Danvers, stating that you revoke your proxy;

Table of Contents

signing and delivering to the secretary of Danvers a new proxy card relating to the same shares and bearing a later date;

casting a new vote through the Internet or by telephone at any time before the closure of the Internet and telephone voting facilities; or attending the special meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy. You should send any notice of revocation or your completed new proxy card, as the case may be, to Michael W. McCurdy, Secretary, at the following address:

Danvers Bancorp, Inc. One Conant Street Danvers, Massachusetts 01923

If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee to change your vote.

Voting in Person

If you are a Danvers stockholder and plan to attend the Danvers special meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the special meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to vote at the special meeting, you must obtain a proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee in order to vote your shares.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, Danvers requests that you complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope, or submit a proxy through the Internet or by telephone as described in the instructions accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus. This will not prevent you from voting in person at the special meeting but will assure that your vote is counted if you are unable to attend.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Only shares affirmatively voted for adoption of the merger agreement, including shares represented by properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions, will be counted as votes FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

Brokers who hold shares of Danvers common stock in street name for a customer who is the beneficial owner of those shares may not exercise voting authority on the customer's shares with respect to the actions proposed in this document without specific instructions from the customer. Proxies submitted by a broker that do not exercise this voting authority are referred to as broker non-votes. If your broker holds your Danvers stock in street name, your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker with this document.

Accordingly, you are urged to mark and return the enclosed proxy card to indicate your vote, or fill out the voter instruction form, if applicable.

Abstentions will be included in determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting. Broker non-votes will not be included in determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as voting against adoption of the merger agreement.

Participants in the Danversbank Employee Stock Ownership Plan and Danvers 401(k) plan

If you own shares of Danvers common stock in the Danversbank Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the ESOP) and/or in Danvers 401(k) plan, your shares will be voted solely by the trustee of the ESOP and/or Danvers 401(k) plan pursuant to the terms of each plan and the instructions received by the trustee from the plan participants. The respective plan trustee will not disclose the confidential voting directions of any individual participant or beneficiary to Danvers. If you own shares of Danvers common stock in the ESOP and/or Danvers 401(k) plan, you will receive a separate letter explaining the voting process with respect to such shares and you will be provided with instructions on how to direct the trustee to vote those shares.

Proxy Solicitation

If you are a Danvers stockholder, the enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Danvers board of directors. Danvers will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies to be voted at the special meeting, except that Danvers and People's United have each agreed to share equally the costs of preparing, printing, filing and mailing this document, other than attorneys' and accountants' fees which will be paid by the party incurring the expense. Following the original mailing of the proxies and other soliciting materials, Danvers and its agents also may solicit proxies by mail, telephone, facsimile or in person. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or other employees of Danvers for making these solicitations. Danvers has retained a proxy solicitation firm, Phoenix Advisory Partners, LLC, to aid it in the solicitation process. Danvers will pay Phoenix Advisory Partners a fee of approximately $7,500 plus expenses. Danvers intends to reimburse persons who hold Danvers common stock of record but not beneficially, such as brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, for their reasonable expenses in forwarding copies of proxies and other soliciting materials to, and requesting authority for the exercise of proxies from, the persons for whom they hold the shares.

This proxy statement/prospectus and the proxy card are first being sent to Danvers stockholders on or about April 8, 2011.

Stock Certificates

If you are a Danvers stockholder, you should not send in any certificates representing Danvers common stock. Following the completion of the merger, you will receive separate instructions for the exchange of your certificates representing Danvers common stock.

Proposal to Approve Adjournment of the Special Meeting

Danvers is also submitting a proposal for consideration at the special meeting to authorize the named proxies to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting if there are not sufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting. Even though a quorum may be present at the special meeting, it is possible that Danvers may not have received sufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement by the time of the special meeting. In that event, Danvers would need to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies. The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment of the special meeting for purposes of soliciting additional proxies to obtain the requisite stockholder approval to adopt the merger agreement. Any other adjournment of the special meeting (e.g., an adjournment required because of the absence of a quorum) would be voted upon pursuant to the discretionary authority granted by the proxy card. If the special meeting is adjourned for 30 days or less, Danvers is not required to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date for the special meeting.

The proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Danvers common stock present or represented at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. The Danvers board of directors retains full authority to the extent set forth in Danvers' bylaws and Delaware law to adjourn the special meeting for any other purpose, or to postpone the special meeting before it is convened, without the consent of any Danvers stockholders.

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains material information about the merger. The discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement and financial advisor opinion attached as annexes to this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read carefully this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement and financial advisor opinion attached as annexes to this proxy statement/prospectus, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

On January 20, 2011, the People's United board of directors and the Danvers board of directors approved the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides for the acquisition by People's United of Danvers through a merger of Danvers with and into People's United, with People's United as the surviving corporation. Simultaneously with the merger, Danversbank will be merged with and into People's United Bank, with People's United Bank as the surviving entity.

Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of Danvers common stock (other than excluded shares) will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder of each such share, either $23.00 in cash or 1.624 shares of People's United common stock. A Danvers stockholder may specify different elections with respect to different shares that such stockholder holds. The value of the per share stock consideration is dependent upon the value of People's United common stock and therefore will fluctuate with the market price of People's United common stock. Danvers stockholders may elect the form of consideration, but their elections are subject to a proration mechanism such that approximately 55% of Danvers shares will be exchanged for shares of People's United common stock and approximately 45% will be exchanged for cash.

See The Merger Agreement, beginning on page 72, for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement.

Background of the Merger

Since its conversion to a public company on January 9, 2008, the board of directors and senior management of Danvers have regularly evaluated its business plan and its available strategic options, including, but not limited to, opportunities for organic growth, de novo branching or acquisitions of branches or other institutions. As a result of this ongoing evaluation, Danvers has successfully executed a variety of strategic initiatives including opening five de novo branches in the last three years and completing the acquisition of Beverly National Corporation. In addition, during this time Danvers has reviewed a variety of potential strategic acquisitions and further organic market expansion.

Continuing into 2010, in connection with its regular consideration of strategic options, Danvers' board of directors considered several assessments by Endicott Financial Advisors, L.L.C. (Endicott), Danvers' investment banker since 2000, and presentations by Danvers' executives regarding Danvers' financial performance and return to stockholders, stock trading patterns and trends in the financial marketplace, including merger and acquisition activity, both locally and nationwide. In addition, from time to time, Danvers' legal counsel advised the board of directors on its fiduciary obligations to the stockholders of Danvers in connection with the implementation of Danvers' business plan and in consideration of potential strategic transactions.

Danvers' Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Kevin T. Bottomley, has also from time to time received informal inquiries and discussed generally with investment bankers and senior management of other banking institutions the possibility of strategic transactions as a way to enhance stockholder value.

In June 2010, members of Danvers' management team participated in Danvers' annual strategic off-site meeting, with representatives from Endicott and legal counsel, to review market conditions, industry trends and strategic considerations for Danvers, including acquisitions and potential affiliations with other institutions. At that time, legal counsel reminded the Danvers board of directors and management that for the three years following conversion to stock form, regulations promulgated by the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks restrict a potential acquiror's ability to make an offer to acquire Danvers in a strategic transaction.

Mr. Bottomley was contacted by, and on September 13, 2010 met with, the chief executive officer of Bank A, a publicly held financial institution, where they discussed their institutions' respective commitments to building stockholder value and serving their communities. The chief executive officer of Bank A discussed its franchise, and whether, at the appropriate time, Danvers might be willing to explore a potential affiliation with the institution. Mr. Bottomley indicated that any party interested in acquiring Danvers would have to comply with the Massachusetts banking regulations noted above for the balance of the three-year post-conversion period. The meeting concluded by agreeing that any further discussions should focus on how a potential combination would maximize long-term stockholder value and provide benefits to customers, communities and employees of Danvers. Mr. Bottomley notified J. Michael O'Brien, the lead director of the Danvers board of directors, of this discussion on September 15, 2010.

On September 28, 2010, Mr. Bottomley and the chief executive officer of Bank A met again to discuss generally the concept of a possible strategic transaction. No specific price or terms were discussed at the meeting. Mr. Bottomley discussed this meeting with the executive committee of the Danvers board of directors on October 1, 2010. The executive committee instructed Mr. Bottomley to continue to report on any further discussions and unsolicited inquiries, consistent with the restrictions imposed by the Massachusetts banking regulations on an acquisition of Danvers within three years following its conversion to stock form, about a possible future transaction.

During the first half of October 2010, Danvers received an oral indication from the chief executive officer of Bank A regarding the potential valuation metrics for a strategic combination transaction and certain proposed post-transaction governance matters, including board seats and the potential employment of members of Danvers' senior management. Bank A's valuation metrics indicated that the consideration paid to Danvers stockholders in a potential transaction would be at least $20.00 per share, but would not greatly exceed that amount.

During a special meeting of the board of directors of Danvers held on October 22, 2010, Mr. Bottomley briefed the board regarding his discussions with Bank A. At this meeting, the Danvers board of directors discussed with the representatives from Endicott the state of the banking industry and acquisition prices generally prevailing in the market and Danvers' position relative to its peers. The Danvers board of directors also received an overview of the financial condition of Bank A, a general assessment of the potential consideration, proposed post-transaction governance and an assessment of Bank A's ability to complete a transaction on terms acceptable to Danvers. A representative of Hogan Lovells US LLP (Hogan Lovells) reviewed the fiduciary obligations of Danvers' board of directors to the stockholders of Danvers in connection with the board of directors' consideration of whether Danvers should remain independent or agree to pursue discussions with Bank A regarding a potential business combination transaction, as well as the continuing applicability of the three year post-conversion restriction on the acquisition of Danvers under Massachusetts banking regulations. At the conclusion of the meeting, Danvers' board of directors directed Mr. Bottomley to continue his discussions with Bank A and requested legal counsel to provide further advice regarding the contemplation of a potential transaction with Bank A in light of the restrictions imposed by the Massachusetts banking regulations.

On October 26, 2010, Mr. Bottomley met with the chief executive officer of Bank A to continue to discuss the potential strategic transaction and was provided additional information with respect to Bank A's views as to the potential governance and operating plans of the combined company. Mr. Bottomley indicated to the chief executive officer of Bank A that the proposed operating plans of the combined company needed to be further developed to better reflect Danvers' contribution to the merged enterprise. Mr. Bottomley and the Bank A chief executive officer agreed to discuss further at a future date. On October 29, 2010, Mr. Bottomley notified Mr. O'Brien of this meeting with Bank A.

Based on the discussions with Mr. O'Brien, on November 9, 2010, Bank A was notified that based on the terms of the potential transaction as proposed by Bank A, including the potential governance and operating plans of the combined company, further discussions were not warranted at that time. The Danvers executive committee was informed of this action shortly thereafter.

On November 9, 2010, John P. Barnes, President and Chief Executive Officer of People's United, initiated contact with Mr. Bottomley and the two met on November 23, 2010 to discuss their respective organizations, and in general terms, whether Danvers would consider a possible business combination.

On December 8, 2010, Mr. Bottomley, Mr. Barnes and other members of senior management of both Danvers and People's United met to discuss the range of potential synergies between the two companies.

On December 10, Mr. Barnes spoke by telephone with Mr. Bottomley to request guidance on the terms of a transaction that Danvers might consider acceptable in a possible business combination. Based upon prior board discussions and advice from Endicott, Mr. Bottomley provided some general guidance to Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Bottomley and Mr. Barnes met again on December 13, 2010. No specific pricing information was discussed at this meeting, but they reviewed in general terms the structure of a potential transaction, including target valuations of recent comparable transactions and the post-transaction status of Danversbank and its management.

On December 17, 2010, Danvers' board of directors was apprised by management of the discussions with and interest of People's United in a potential transaction.

On December 21, 2010, Endicott met with Keefe, Bruyette and Woods, Inc. (KBW), People's United's financial advisor, at which meeting KBW indicated People's United's preliminary pricing methodology and potential valuation of Danvers. Subject to satisfactory completion of due diligence and other factors, KBW presented a valuation of Danvers that it was recommending to its client, People's United, which would have resulted in proposed merger consideration of $20.50 per share. The financial advisors continued their discussions of potential transaction terms through December 22, 2010, including the post-transaction status of Danversbank, its management and the combined entity's board of directors. Upon completion of these conversations, on December 22, 2010, Danvers notified People's United that it was not interested in a potential combination at the proposed amount of per share merger consideration suggested by KBW.

On December 24, 2010, People's United orally proposed to resume discussions about a potential transaction reflecting revised pricing, which would result in an increased merger consideration of $22.50 per share, and a 50% stock and 50% cash mix. People's United indicated that it would be interested in engaging in formal discussions and negotiating a definitive agreement as soon as possible following the third anniversary of Danvers' mutual-to-stock conversion.

Throughout late 2010, with the intent to continue implementing Danvers' independent business plan, Danvers continued to explore potential opportunities for growth such as acquisitions and organic expansion. In this regard, on December 28, 2010, Mr. Bottomley met with the chief executive officer of a financial institution regarding the potential acquisition of such institution by Danvers. Mr. Bottomley determined that such a transaction would be unlikely in the near future.

On December 29, 2010, the executive committee of the Danvers board of directors met to discuss the further interest of and discussions with People's United. Mr. Bottomley provided an overview of Danvers' business, reviewed the background and status of discussions with People's United and discussed the strategic benefits and risks associated with a potential business combination with People's United.

On or around December 30, 2010, Mr. Bottomley was contacted again by the chief executive officer of Bank A regarding the possibility of further exploring a transaction between the two institutions based on a more developed proposal regarding the potential pricing parameters, governance and operations of the combined company. Mr. Bottomley instructed Endicott to provide Bank A's investment banker with selective relevant financial information that would facilitate Bank A's further financial analysis of a possible transaction with Danvers.

On January 6, 2011, the Danvers board of directors met with Danvers' management and representatives of Endicott and legal counsel, Hogan Lovells. The Danvers board of directors discussed, among itself and with its advisors, a number of matters, including Danvers' current business and prospects as an independent company, industry trends, other possible merger candidates and the preliminary interest from People's United and Bank A. As a result of its desire to investigate whether other parties might be interested in a combination with Danvers given that two potential interested parties had come forward without solicitation, the Danvers board of directors authorized Endicott to contact two additional institutions on its behalf to determine whether they would be interested in conducting discussions regarding a potential business combination transaction following the third anniversary of its mutual-to-stock conversion. The Board, with advice from Endicott, selected the additional institutions to be contacted (Bank B and Bank C) based on their likely interest in a transaction, their potential geographic and business compatibility, their demonstrated sophistication in acquisition transactions and their potential ability to complete a transaction on an expedited basis following the three-year anniversary of the mutual-to-stock conversion so the competitive interest of People's United would not be lost. Endicott provided both Bank B and C selected financial information necessary for completing their preliminary analysis of a potential combination with Danvers. Bank B indicated that it was not interested in exploring a potential transaction at this time. Bank C indicated that it was interested in exploring a potential transaction and Endicott provided general guidance to Bank C as to the terms that Danvers might consider acceptable in a possible business combination (which guidance was based on the pricing and other terms previously discussed with Bank A and People's United) so that Bank C could further evaluate its interest.

On January 7, 2011, the CEO of a fourth publicly-held financial institution, Bank D, contacted Mr. Bottomley and expressed interest in exploring a possible business combination with Danvers and provided preliminary indications as to potential pricing and other possible terms. Bank D's investment banker contacted Endicott, who supplied selected financial information necessary for completing their preliminary analysis of a potential combination with Danvers.

On January 8, 2011, Bank C indicated that it was not interested in a potential transaction with Danvers based on the pricing guidance provided by Endicott.

On January 10, 2011, certain Danvers executive officers met with representatives of Bank D to discuss a possible business combination and potential pricing and other terms. Also on that date, Danvers and People's United executed a confidentiality agreement in anticipation of Danvers providing confidential business information to People's United. On January 11, 2011, certain Danvers executive officers met telephonically with the chief financial officer of Bank A to further discuss a potential business combination and the potential terms thereof.

Between January 10, 2011 and January 12, 2011, Endicott confirmed with the investment bankers of People's United, Bank A and Bank D each institutions' preliminary oral indication of interest and certain other information necessary for the Danvers board of directors to make a decision as to which party or parties it should authorize further discussions with. The relative amounts of merger consideration proposed, each in the form of at least 50% stock with the remainder in cash, were (i) $23.00 per share from People's United, (ii) $22.00 to $23.50 per share from Bank A depending on the outcome of certain due diligence investigations and other factors, and (iii) $23.00 per share from Bank D.

On January 13, 2011, the board of directors of Danvers held a regular meeting with members of management and representatives of Endicott and Hogan Lovells. Endicott discussed with the board the informal indications of interest from Bank A, Bank D and People's United. For comparative purposes, Danvers management, with advice from Endicott, estimated that $23.00 per share was the most likely outcome of the range of merger consideration being proposed by Bank A. The board of directors considered, in addition to the amount and form of per share merger consideration proposed by each potential merger partner, a range of factors including, but not limited to, the strategic compatibility with Danvers of each of the potential merger partners, the likely prospects of the combined company following the transaction, the strength of the common stock of each of the potential merger partners including the effects of the transaction on the book value per share of each potential merger partner, and the ability of each potential partner to successfully complete a transaction, including whether the transaction would be subject to the vote of the acquiror's stockholders. Ultimately, the board of directors determined that the amount and form of merger consideration being offered by People's United, together with the strength of People's United's business and management platforms and the strategic compatibility of Danvers' existing business with that of People's United, represented the best value for Danvers' stockholders. As a result, following the presentations and discussions, the board of directors authorized Danvers' management to proceed with the due diligence process and to commence negotiations with People's United regarding a definitive agreement for a potential transaction. In addition, during this meeting, the Danvers board of directors convened an executive session of independent directors chaired by the lead director to specifically discuss matters pertaining to management.

Following this meeting, Bank A and Bank D were informed that Danvers was not interested in pursuing a transaction with them at this time. Neither Bank A nor Bank D contacted Danvers or its representatives subsequently to discuss a potential increase in the merger consideration or otherwise alter the terms of a potential business combination transaction with Danvers.

Additionally, on January 13, 2011, People's United and Danvers entered into a confidentiality agreement in anticipation of People's United providing confidential business information to Danvers. Danvers and People's United exchanged due diligence request lists on that date as well. Beginning the weekend of January 14, 2011 and over the next several days, representatives of both People's United and Danvers reviewed documents and other business information of each company. Counsel for People's United circulated a first draft of the transaction documents to Hogan Lovells for review.

During the days following the January 13 meeting of the Danvers board of directors, discussions were held between Mr. Bottomley and Mr. Barnes with regard to the amount and form of merger consideration. As a result of these discussions, People's United proposed paying up to 55% of the merger price in People's United common stock, with the balance to be paid in cash.

On January 16, 2011, Danvers and Hogan Lovells provided their initial comments to People's United on the draft merger agreement. Over the course of the following days, the parties and their respective legal counsel and financial advisors worked to finalize the terms of the merger agreement. The parties also finalized related agreements confirming, substantially unchanged, the treatment of pre-existing severance arrangements for certain senior executives of Danvers.

On January 17, 2011, Danvers engaged Sandler O'Neill to provide a fairness opinion to its board of directors. Sandler O'Neill was engaged in addition to Endicott due to its familiarity with Danvers from prior capital markets transactions in which Sandler O'Neill acted as Danvers financial advisor.

On January 20, 2011, the Danvers board of directors met to consider the merger agreement, the proposed merger consideration per share, and the proposed agreements with certain senior executives of Danvers. In attendance were representatives of Endicott, Sandler O'Neill, and Hogan Lovells and members of senior management of Danvers. Endicott made a presentation to the board concerning the business terms of the merger, including a draft of the presentation that People's United intended to share with the investment community following the announcement of the transaction. Sandler O'Neill delivered an oral opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing) to the Danvers board of directors that in its opinion, as of that date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its written opinion, the consideration to be received by Danvers' stockholders in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Danvers' stockholders. Hogan

Lovells reviewed the merger agreement and answered questions from the board of directors. Following a complete review from outside advisors and a discussion with management, the Danvers board of directors unanimously determined that the merger was advisable and that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement were fair to and in the best interests of Danvers and its stockholders, and voted to approve the merger agreement.

Following the meetings of the boards of directors of Danvers and People's United, the parties executed the merger agreement and certain executives of Danvers entered into settlement agreements (related to pre-existing severance arrangements) and one consulting arrangement effective contingent upon the completion of the merger. Subsequent to the close of the NASDAQ Global Select Market on January 20, 2011, Danvers and People's United issued a joint press release announcing the transaction.

Danvers' Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and related transactions, the Danvers board of directors consulted with senior management, its financial advisors, and its legal counsel and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

its knowledge of Danvers' business, markets, financial condition, results of operations and prospects;

a review of People's United's business, operations, financial condition, earnings, stock performance and prospects, taking into account the results of its due diligence review of People's United;

the strategic alternatives believed to be reasonably available to Danvers; results that could be expected to be obtained by Danvers if it continued to operate independently, and the likely benefits to stockholders of such course, as compared with the value of the merger consideration being offered by People's United;

the enhanced future prospects of the combined company compared to those that Danvers was likely to achieve on a stand-alone basis, including the projected market capitalization and market position of the combined entity and the compatibility of Danvers' and People's United's business activities, such as both companies' experience in commercial and industrial lending;

the possible effects of the proposed merger on Danvers' employees and customers, as well as on the communities in which Danvers and the Danversbank Charitable Foundation operate; the structure of the merger and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the $23.00 per share value of the consideration and the ability of stockholders to elect the form of consideration to be received, subject to the approximately 55% stock and approximately 45% cash composition of the aggregate merger consideration;

the presentations of management and Endicott Financial Advisors LLC regarding the strategic advantages and disadvantages of combining with People's United, including People's United's knowledge of the markets in which Danvers operates, the significant opportunities for cost savings in the transaction, and People's United's commitment to the communities in which they operate;

the merger consideration offered, its premium to market and comparability with respect to other premiums, and the belief of the Danvers board of directors that People's United stock represents an investment in a well-capitalized institution which should result in long-term value and increased liquidity for Danvers stockholders;

the terms of the merger agreement and related transactions, including the representations and warranties of the parties, the covenants, the consideration, the benefits to Danvers employees, as well as employee and executive termination benefits, and the termination fee to be paid by Danvers under certain circumstances;

the fact that the transaction is expected to be tax-free to Danvers stockholders to the extent that they receive People's United common stock in exchange for their shares of Danvers common stock;

the oral opinion of Sandler O'Neill (which was subsequently confirmed in writing), financial advisor to Danvers, that, as of January 20, 2011 and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the written opinion, the consideration to be received in the merger was fair to the Danvers stockholders from a financial point of view, as more fully described under Opinion of Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P., Financial Advisor to Danvers beginning on page 41;

the ability of People's United to pay the merger consideration without needing to condition the merger on obtaining additional sources of financing; the challenges of combining the two companies generally, including the likelihood of a successful integration of the companies and differences in cultures and business management philosophies, and People's United's past experience in this regard;

the ability of both institutions to complete the merger and the likelihood of receiving necessary regulatory approvals in a timely fashion;

the possible effects on Danvers should the parties fail to complete the merger, including the possible effects on the price of Danvers common stock, and the associated business and opportunity costs;

the right to terminate the merger agreement if, subject to People's United's ability to make a compensating adjustment to the exchange ratio, the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of People's United common stock for the five consecutive trading days preceding the date on which all required regulatory approvals required for the merger have been obtained or waived is less than $11.33 per share and People's United common stock underperforms the KBW Regional Bank Index index by more than 20%; and that Danvers officers and directors may have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Danvers stockholders. See Interests of Danvers Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger, beginning on page 53.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Danvers board is not intended to be exhaustive, but does set forth the principal factors considered by the board. Based on the factors described above, the Danvers board of directors determined that the merger with Danvers would be advisable and in the best interests of Danvers stockholders and unanimously approved the merger agreement and related transactions contemplated by those documents. In view of the wide variety and complexity of factors considered by the Danvers board in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the board did not consider it practical, and did not attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision and did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any factor, was favorable or unfavorable to the ultimate determination of the board. Rather, the Danvers board made its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to and the investigation conducted by it. In considering the factors discussed above, individual directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Recommendation of the Danvers Board of Directors

The Danvers board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends that Danvers stockholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P., Financial Advisor to Danvers

By letter dated January 17, 2011, Danvers retained Sandler O'Neill as an independent financial advisor to render an opinion as to the fairness to the Danvers stockholders, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the Danvers stockholders in connection with the merger. Sandler O'Neill, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. Sandler O'Neill did not act as Danvers' financial advisor in connection with the merger, nor was it asked to solicit any alternative potential buyers of the Company. Sandler O'Neill also did not participate in the negotiation of the form or amount of the consideration to be received in the merger or the terms of the merger agreement.

At the January 20, 2011 meeting at which the Danvers board of directors considered and approved the merger agreement, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the board its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing that, as of such date, the consideration to be received in the merger was fair to Danvers stockholders from a financial point of view. Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's Fairness Opinion Committee. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. Danvers stockholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion and was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, that date. Events occurring or information available after that date could materially affect its opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of its opinion. The opinion was directed to the Danvers board of directors and is directed only to the fairness of the merger consideration to Danvers stockholders from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of Danvers to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation to any Danvers stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote at the special meeting with respect to the merger, the form of consideration a stockholder should elect in the merger or any other matter.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

the merger agreement;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Danvers provided by Danvers that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of People's United that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

internal financial projections for Danvers for the year ending December 31, 2011 as provided by senior management of Danvers; publicly available earnings estimates for People's United for the years ending December 31, 2011 and 2012 as discussed with senior management of People's United;

the pro forma financial impact of the merger on People's United, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and other synergies as determined by the senior management of People's United and discussed with Danvers' management;

a comparison of certain financial information for Danvers and People's United with similar institutions for which publicly available information was available;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry, to the extent publicly available;

the current market environment and the banking environment in particular, and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Table of Contents

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of Danvers' senior management the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Danvers and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of People's United regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of People's United.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for Danvers as provided by and/or reviewed with senior management of Danvers and publicly available earnings estimates for People's United. Sandler O'Neill also used in its analyses (i) certain projections of share repurchases provided by Danvers' management in its stand-alone analyses for Danvers and (ii) certain projections of transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments and expected cost savings prepared by and/or reviewed with the senior managements of Danvers or People's United. With respect to those projections and estimates, the respective managements of Danvers and People's United confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that those projections and estimates reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective managements of the future financial performance of Danvers and People's United, respectively, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such financial projections or estimates or the assumptions on which they were based.

In performing its reviews and analyses and in rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all the financial and other information that was publicly available, that was available from third-party vendors or that was provided by and/or reviewed with Danvers or People's United or their respective representatives and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion. Sandler O'Neill further relied on the assurances of the senior management of each of Danvers and People's United that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Danvers or People's United or any of their subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor was Sandler O'Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill did not review any credit files or make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Danvers or People's United, and with Danvers' consent, Sandler O'Neill assumed that the respective allowances for loan losses for Danvers and People's United were adequate to cover any such losses.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Danvers or People's United since the date of the most recent financial statements reviewed by Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Danvers and People's United will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement are true and correct, that each party to the merger agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreement and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement will not be waived. Finally, with Danvers' consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice Danvers has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to the Danvers board of directors, but is a summary of material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Danvers or People's United and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Danvers or People's United and the companies to which they are being compared.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Danvers, People's United and Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the Danvers board of directors at its January 20, 2011 meeting. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Danvers' common stock or People's United's common stock or the prices at which Danvers' or People's United's common stock may be sold at any time.

Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for the purpose of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Danvers' board of directors at the January 20, 2011 board meeting. Sandler O'Neill's analyses and opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Danvers' board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the Danvers board of directors with respect to the fairness of the merger.

Summary of Proposal. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. Based upon the cash consideration of $23.00 per share and the implied value of the stock consideration based upon the ten-day average closing price of People's United common stock on January 19, 2011 of $14.16 per share and a fixed exchange ratio of 1.624, and assuming 55% of Danvers' shares are converted into People's United common stock and the remaining 45% are converted into cash in the merger, Sandler O'Neill calculated an implied transaction value of $23.00 per share. Based upon preliminary financial information for Danvers for the twelve months ended December 31, 2010, Sandler O'Neill calculated the following ratios:

Net Present Value Analysis. Sandler O'Neill performed an analysis that estimated the present value per common share of Danvers assuming Danvers performed in accordance with earnings and growth projections reviewed with and confirmed by management of Danvers. The analysis also assumed that Danvers cash dividend remained at $0.16 annually through 2013 and that the company repurchased 800,000 shares of its common stock annually. To approximate the terminal value of Danvers common stock at December 31, 2013, Sandler O'Neill applied price to earnings multiples ranging from 12.0x to 20.0x, chosen based on a review of trading multiples of common stocks of comparable institutions using market prices as of January 19, 2011. The dividend income streams and terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 14.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Danvers common stock. This range was approximately 2% below to 3% above a calculated discount rate of 11.05%, which was determined based on the following: (1) an assumed risk-free rate of 3.39% (equivalent to the 10-year U.S. Treasury note yield on January 18, 2011); (2) an equity risk premium of 6.4% (the 60-year equity risk premium as published in the 2010 Ibbotson Valuation Yearbook); (3) a size premium of 3.99% (Ibbotson size premium for companies with market capitalizations between $1 million and $432 million); and (4) an industry premium of (2.73%) (Ibbotson industry premium for savings institutions). In addition, to illustrate the impact of variations in the earnings performance of Danvers, Sandler O'Neill performed a similar analysis assuming net income ranged from 25% under management's projections to 25% over management's projections, using a discount rate of 11.05% for this analysis. Finally, the terminal value of Danvers common stock at December 31, 2013 was calculated by applying price to tangible book values multiples ranging from 125% to 225%, chosen based on a review of trading multiples of common stocks of comparable institutions using market prices as of January 19, 2011. As illustrated in the following tables, this analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share for Danvers common stock of $9.31 to $17.44 when applying the price to earnings multiples to management's projections, $7.65 to $20.52 when applying the earnings multiples to the income variation analysis, and $13.27 to $26.93 when applying the price to tangible book value multiples.

Sandler O'Neill also performed an analysis that estimated the present value per common share of People's United assuming that People's United performed in accordance with consensus analyst earnings estimates for 2011 and 2012 and projected long term growth rates in 2013. The analysis also assumed that People's United's cash dividend remained at $0.62 annually through 2013. To approximate the terminal value of People's United common stock at December 31, 2013, Sandler O'Neill applied price to earnings multiples ranging from 12.0x to 20.0x, chosen based on a review of trading multiples of common stocks of comparable institutions using market prices as of January 19, 2011. The dividend income streams and terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 14.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of People's United common stock. This range was approximately 2% below to 3% above a calculated discount rate of 10.78%, which was determined based on the following: (1) an assumed risk-free rate of 3.39% (equivalent to the 10-year U.S. Treasury note yield on January 18, 2011); (2) an equity risk premium of 6.4% (the 60-year equity risk premium as published in the 2010 Ibbotson Valuation Yearbook); (3) the one-year weekly beta of People's United's common stock as of January 19, 2011 of 0.834; and (4) an industry premium of 2.05% (Ibbotson industry premium for depository institutions). In addition, to illustrate the impact of variations in the earnings performance of People's United, Sandler O'Neill performed a similar analysis assuming net income ranged from 25% under analyst estimates to 25% over analyst estimates, using a discount rate of 10.78% for this analysis. In addition, the terminal value of People's United common stock at December 31, 2013 was calculated by applying price to tangible book values multiples ranging from 150% to 250%, chosen based on a review of trading multiples of common stocks of comparable institutions using market prices as of January 19, 2011. As illustrated in the following tables, this analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share for People's United common stock of $7.60 to $13.27 when applying the price to earnings multiples to the analyst estimates, $6.56 to $15.44 when applying the earnings multiples to the income variation analysis, and $11.04 to $19.84 when applying tangible book value multiples.

In connection with its analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Danvers board of directors how the present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions. Sandler O'Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming the following: (1) the merger closes on June 30, 2011; (2) 55% of the outstanding shares of Danvers common stock are converted into People's United common stock at the exchange ratio of 1.624 and 45% of the outstanding shares of Danvers common stock are converted into cash at $23.00 per share; (3) all outstanding Danvers options are surrendered for a cash payment in an amount equal to the spread value between the exercise price of the option and the $23.00 per share cash consideration; (4) the pre-tax opportunity cost of the cash portion of the consideration was 2.00%; (5) after-tax transaction costs and expenses would total approximately $44 million; (6) People's United would be able to achieve cost savings of approximately 38% of Danvers' non-interest expense base; and (7) various purchase accounting adjustments, including a credit mark-to-market value adjustment on Danvers' loan portfolio of approximately 1.5% of Danvers' gross loan portfolio. Based upon these assumptions, Sandler O'Neill's analysis indicated that the merger would be approximately 11% accretive to People's United's 2012 estimated earnings per share, the first full year following completion of the transaction, and approximately 4.6% dilutive to People's United's tangible book value per share upon the closing of the transaction. The analysis also indicated that People's United's tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio at closing would be in excess of 12%.

From the perspective of a Danvers stockholder that receives People's United common stock in the merger, the analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to such stockholder's earnings per share (excluding transaction expenses in 2011), dividends per share and tangible book value per share in 2011 and 2012.

In connection with this analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Danvers board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Danvers has agreed to pay Sandler O'Neill a fee of $300,000 for rendering its opinion, no portion of which is contingent upon completion of the merger. Danvers has also agreed to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Sandler O'Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees, agents, and controlling persons against certain expenses and liabilities, including liabilities under securities laws.

Sandler O'Neill has, in the past, provided certain investment banking services to Danvers and has received compensation for such services, most recently in connection with Danvers' conversion from mutual holding company to stock holding company in January 2008. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Danvers and People's United and their affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the debt or equity securities of Danvers and/or People's United or their affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Nonpublic Financial Projections Provided to the Danvers' Financial Advisor. Danvers does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose forecasts or internal projections as to their future performance, earnings or other results due to the unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for Danvers as provided by and/or reviewed with senior management of Danvers for the purpose of preparing its financial analyses used in rendering its fairness opinion, as described in this proxy statement/prospectus under the heading "Opinion of Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P., Financial Advisor to Danvers" beginning on page 41. A summary of these projections is included in this proxy statement/prospectus solely because such projections were made available to Sandler O'Neill as described in the preceding sentence.

At the time the financial projections were prepared, the projections represented the best estimates and judgments of Danvers' management and, to the best of management's knowledge and belief, the future financial performance of Danvers. While the financial projections set forth below were prepared in good faith, no assurance can be given regarding future events. Although presented with numeric specificity, the financial projections reflect numerous estimates and assumptions that may not be realized and are subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the control of Danvers. In light of the foregoing, as well as the uncertainties inherent in any financial projections, Danvers stockholders are cautioned not to unduly rely on these financial projections as a predictor of future operating results or otherwise.

The financial projections of Danvers included in this proxy statement/prospectus were prepared by, and were the responsibility of, Danvers management. Neither Danvers independent registered public accounting firm nor any other independent accounting firm examined, compiled or performed any procedures with respect to these financial projections and, accordingly, no opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability is expressed with respect to such financial projections.

The estimates and assumptions underlying the financial projections set forth below involve judgments at the time the projections were prepared with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive, regulatory and financial market conditions and future business decisions. In any event, these estimates and assumptions may not be realized and are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and regulatory uncertainties, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of Danvers. In addition, these financial projections represent Danvers' evaluation at the time the projections were prepared of its future financial performance on a stand-alone basis, and without reference to the proposed merger or transaction-related costs or benefits. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the projected results would be realized or that actual results would not differ materially from those presented in the financial projections. The inclusion of these financial projections should not be interpreted as an indication that Danvers considers this information a reliable prediction of future results, or that the projections would be the same if prepared as of the date of this document, and this information should not be unduly relied on for that purpose.

Endicott's Relationship

Endicott has acted as financial advisor to the board of directors of Danvers in connection with the merger and will receive a fee equal to 1% of the aggregate value of the merger consideration minus the $300,000 payable by Danvers to Sandler O'Neill in connection with the fairness opinion. For purposes of determining the amount of the fee, the value of the stock component of the merger consideration is calculated based on the average closing price of People's United's common stock for the five trading days ending five days prior to the completion of the merger. Of this fee, one-quarter became payable upon the execution of the merger agreement and three-quarters is contingent upon the completion of the merger. If the merger had been completed on March 30, 2011, Endicott would have been entitled to fees of approximately $4.3 million, of which approximately $3.1 million would be contingent upon completion of the merger. Danvers has also agreed to reimburse Endicott for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Endicott and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees, agents, and controlling persons against certain expenses and liabilities, including liabilities under securities laws. Endicott has, in the past, provided certain financial advisory services to Danvers and has received compensation for such services.

Interests of Danvers' Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the Danvers' board of directors' recommendation to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that Danvers' executive officers and directors might have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Danvers' stockholders generally. The Danvers' board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the merger agreement.

Share Ownership

As of March 31, 2011, the record date for the special meeting of Danvers' stockholders, the directors and executive officers of Danvers may be deemed to be the beneficial owners of 1,401,241 shares, representing 6.62% of the outstanding shares of Danvers common stock.

Board Positions and Compensation

Upon completion of the merger, People's United will cause Kevin T. Bottomley, the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Danvers, to be appointed to the board of directors of People's United to the class of directors with a term expiring in 2013. This appointment will be effective as of the effective time of the merger.

Table of Contents

Mr. Bottomley will be compensated for his service on the board of directors of People's United in accordance with the policies of People's United.

Future Services to People's United and People's United Bank

Mr. Bottomley, Mr. O'Neil and Mr. McCurdy have each entered into a consulting agreement with People's United and People's United Bank that will become effective at the time of completion of the merger. Mr. Bottomley's consulting agreement was entered into at the time of the signing of the merger agreement and Mr. O'Neil's and Mr. McCurdy's consulting agreements were entered into on February 28, 2011 and March 31, 2011, respectively. If the merger is not completed, the consulting agreements will be null and void ab initio and of no force and effect. All three consulting agreements are in substantially the same form.

Mr. Bottomley's consulting agreement has a two-year term and Mr. O'Neil's and Mr. McCurdy's consulting agreements each have a six month term, in each case commencing on the closing date of the merger. During the consulting period, Mr. Bottomley, Mr. O'Neil and Mr. McCurdy will provide consulting and advisory services to People's United and its affiliates. Mr. Bottomley will receive consulting fees for these services at a rate of $200,000 per year and Mr. O'Neil and Mr. McCurdy will receive total consulting fees of $50,000 and $75,000, respectively, in each case paid in monthly installments. In addition, as of the closing date of the merger, Mr. Bottomley will receive ownership and title of the automobile to which he has been granted exclusive access prior to the effective time of the merger.

If, during the applicable term of the consulting agreements, the consulting arrangement is terminated by People's United without cause (as defined in the consulting agreements) or due to the death of the applicable executive, Mr. Bottomley or his estate, Mr. O'Neil or his estate, or Mr. McCurdy or his estate, as applicable, will be entitled to receive the balance of his consulting fees for the remainder of the term of the agreement. If, during the respective terms of the consulting agreements, Mr. Bottomley's, Mr. O'Neil's or Mr. McCurdy's consulting agreement is terminated for cause, People's United's obligations to pay any remaining consulting fees pursuant to the terminated agreement will cease immediately.

As a condition to receiving the benefits described above, Mr. Bottomley, Mr. O'Neil and Mr. McCurdy have agreed not to disclose any confidential information related to People's United, People's United Bank or their affiliates that is not generally known to the public, unless required to do so pursuant to applicable law or a subpoena or court order.

Settlement of Equity Based Awards in the Merger

Stock Options. At the time Danvers entered into the merger agreement, its directors and certain of its officers held options to purchase shares of Danvers common stock granted pursuant to the Danvers Bancorp, Inc. 2008 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, which we refer to as the Danvers 2008 Incentive Plan. Under the terms of the merger agreement, all such options that are outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, whether or not vested and exercisable, will become fully vested and exercisable immediately prior to such time. At the effective time of the merger, all outstanding stock options will be cancelled and holders will be entitled to receive from People's United a cash payment, less any required withholdings, equal to the number of shares of Danvers common stock subject to such stock options, multiplied by the amount, if any, by which the per share amount of $23.00 exceeds the exercise price of the stock options.

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth the value that the executive officers and directors of Danvers will receive in connection with the merger as a result of the accelerated vesting and cancellation of the stock options as described above.

Restricted Stock. At the time Danvers entered into the merger agreement, its directors and certain of its officers held shares of restricted stock granted under the Danvers 2008 Incentive Plan. Under the terms of the merger agreement, all unvested shares of restricted stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will vest at the effective time, with the result that such shares of restricted stock will become vested rights to receive the merger consideration on the same terms as all other outstanding shares of Danvers common stock.

The following table sets forth the value that the executive officers and directors of Danvers will receive in connection with the merger as a result of the accelerated vesting of the restricted stock as described above. The estimated cash values below assume all shares are exchanged for a cash payment of $23.00 per share. The actual value of the merger consideration will depend on the price of People's United common stock on the closing date and the form of consideration received by the grantees in exchange for their shares of restricted stock.

Settlement Agreements

In connection with the merger, People's United, People's United Bank, Danvers and Danversbank entered into settlement agreements with each of Kevin T. Bottomley, James J. McCarthy, John J. O'Neil and L. Mark Panella pursuant to which each executive will receive the payments and benefits provided under his settlement agreement in satisfaction of all rights to payments and benefits under the executive's individual employment agreement and the Danversbank Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the "SERP"), as applicable. In connection with the merger, rights to most of these payments and benefits would have otherwise been triggered absent the settlement agreement. Upon the closing of the merger, each settlement agreement specifies that the executive will execute a release of claims against People's United, People's United Bank, Danvers and Danversbank.

The terms of each settlement agreement are substantially similar, except as noted below. Under the settlement agreements Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy, O'Neil and Panella will receive, as severance, lump sum payments equal to (i) $2,538,777, $1,325,250, $1,281,303 and $965,328, respectively, (ii) an amount equal to a pro rata portion of the executive's target cash annual bonus for calendar year 2011 and (iii) a gross-up for any excise taxes imposed on the executive under Section 4999 of the Code as a result of the merger. The amount of the gross-up for any excise taxes imposed on the executive under Section 4999 of the Code is subject to adjustment pursuant to the terms of each executive's employment agreement, but is expected to be approximately $4,030,620, $1,740,337, $1,769,714 and $1,283,447, respectively, assuming a merger closing on June 30, 2011.

Each of Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy, O'Neil and Panella will also receive a lump sum payment in satisfaction of all rights to payments and benefits under the SERP, as described below, equal to $5,489,034, $2,151,910, $2,267,753 and $1,508,890 respectively.

In addition, in satisfaction of the obligations contained in each executive's employment agreement, the executives and their dependents will receive continued group health, dental and vision insurance coverage for thirty-six months, with the executive paying the same share of any premiums the executive was paying as an employee of Danvers.

In order for each executive to pay the remaining premiums due on the long-term care insurance policies maintained for the benefit of the executive and the executive's spouse, Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy, O'Neil and Panella will also receive lump sum payments on the closing date equal to $103,512, $110,447, $99,257 and $103,507, respectively. The settlement agreements for Messrs. McCarthy, O'Neil and Panella also provide that these executives will receive ownership and title of the company-provided automobile utilized by the executive immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

Danvers has provided supplemental executive retirement benefits for Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy, O'Neil and Panella through the SERP. Under the SERP, Danvers provides Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy, O'Neil and Panella with an annual benefit payable for 15 years upon retirement and after attaining age 65 equal to a fixed percentage of the average compensation of their highest three calendar years within the final five calendar years of their employment, reduced by the sum of the benefits payable under Danvers' pension plan, the bank-funded benefits under Danvers' 401(k) plan and 50 percent of Social Security benefits. The fixed percentage is 75 percent in the case of Mr. Bottomley, 65 percent for Messrs. McCarthy and O'Neil and 60 percent for Mr. Panella. In lieu of payments over 15 years, all participants have previously elected to receive their benefit in a lump sum payment.

In connection with the merger, Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy, O'Neil and Panella would have been entitled to receive lump sum payments under the SERP equal to approximately $5,489,040, $2,151,910, $2,267,753 and $1,508,890, respectively. Under the settlement agreements described above, Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy,

Table of Contents

O Neil and Panella have agreed to accept the lump sum distributions specified in their respective settlement agreements in full satisfaction of all rights to payments or benefits under the SERP.

Change in Control Agreements

Danvers has entered into a change in control agreement with Michael W. McCurdy. Under the agreement, in the event that within 12 months after a change in control, the definition of which includes the completion of the merger, Danversbank, Danvers or their successors terminates Mr. McCurdy's employment without cause (as defined in the change in control agreement) or if Mr. McCurdy voluntarily resigns with good reason (as defined in the agreement), Mr. McCurdy will receive a lump sum payment in the amount equal to three times the sum of (a) his annual base salary and (b) the greater of his target cash bonus for the year of termination or his highest cash bonus earned in the preceding three years, subject to the limitations imposed by Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). The agreement also provides for continued health, dental and vision insurance coverage for 36 months following Mr. McCurdy's termination of employment. Mr. McCurdy could receive aggregate compensation and benefits equal to approximately $989,436 under his change in control agreement, subject to the limitations imposed by Section 280G of the Code.

In addition, Danvers has entered into change in control agreements with nine other executives. These agreements provide that in the event that within 12 months after a change in control, the definition of which includes the completion of the merger, Danversbank, Danvers or their successors terminates the executive's employment without cause (as defined in the agreements) or if the executive voluntarily resigns with good reason (as defined in the agreements), the executive will receive a lump sum payment in an amount equal to between one and three times the sum of (a) the executive's annual base salary and (b) the greater of the executive's target cash bonus for the year of termination or his highest cash bonus earned in the preceding three years, subject to the limitations imposed by Section 280G of the Code. The agreements also provide for continued health, dental and vision insurance coverage for between twelve and thirty-six months following termination of employment. If triggered, these agreements could provide up to $3,023,728 in aggregate compensation and benefits to these nine individuals, subject to the limitations imposed by Section 280G of the Code.

Severance Pay Plan

Danvers maintains the Danvers Bancorp, Inc. Change in Control Severance Pay Plan (the Severance Pay Plan), which provides severance benefits to employees and officers of Danvers and/or Danversbank who are not covered by a separate employment or letter agreement that otherwise provides for severance. If an employee or officer covered under the Severance Pay Plan is terminated other than for cause (as defined in the Severance Pay Plan), due to death or by the employee or officer with good reason (as defined in the Severance Pay Plan) during the one year period following a change in control, the definition of which includes the completion of the merger, such employee or officer is entitled to a lump sum payment equal to two to four weeks' salary (based on the employee's or officer's position/title) multiplied by the employee's or officer's whole years of service; provided, that in no event will the severance payment be equal to less than four weeks salary or more than fifty-two weeks salary. All payments under the Severance Pay Plan are subject to reduction to the extent they would exceed the amount that may be deducted by Danvers or its affiliates pursuant to section 280G of the Code.

Employee Stock Ownership Plan

Danversbank sponsors the ESOP, in which executives are eligible to participate. In connection with the formation of the ESOP, Danvers made a loan to the ESOP, the proceeds of which were used to purchase shares of Danvers common stock. Shares owned by the ESOP that have not been allocated to the accounts of ESOP participants are pledged as collateral for the ESOP loan. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Danvers will terminate the ESOP and file with the Internal Revenue Service an application for a determination letter on the ESOP upon the consummation of the merger. Upon the termination of the ESOP, any unvested benefits thereunder shall immediately vest. Upon the receipt of a favorable determination letter for termination of the ESOP from the Internal Revenue Service, the account balances in the ESOP will be distributed to participants and beneficiaries in accordance with applicable law and the ESOP. In connection with the termination of the ESOP, and prior to any final distribution to participants, the trustee of the ESOP will utilize funds in the ESOP suspense account resulting from the exchange of unallocated shares for the merger consideration to repay the outstanding loan to the ESOP, and any remaining amounts in the ESOP suspense account will be allocated to the accounts of ESOP participants and beneficiaries in accordance with applicable law and the ESOP. As of December 31, 2010, the ESOP held approximately 1,213,290 unallocated shares of Danvers common stock in the suspense account as collateral for the ESOP loan and the outstanding principal balance of the loan to the ESOP was approximately $12,815,058. Assuming an ESOP termination in 2011 and a $23 per share value, it is anticipated that approximately $15,090,612 will be allocated to the accounts of ESOP participants and beneficiaries in connection with the termination of the ESOP.

ESOP Restoration Plan

Danversbank has also established the Danversbank ESOP Restoration Plan to provide benefits to selected officers whose benefits under the ESOP are limited by applicable tax limits. The amount of benefits is limited to the amount that would have been provided under the ESOP but for the application of the tax limits. Benefits are payable in cash to participants upon their termination of employment. It is anticipated that the amounts to be paid under this plan will total approximately $315,636, $16,212 and $6,679 for Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy and O'Neil respectively. As a result of the early payment due to the merger, Messrs. Bottomley, McCarthy and O'Neil will receive approximately $238,291, $12,239 and $5,042 in excess of the amounts that were already accrued.

Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan

Danvers maintains the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan of Danvers Bancorp, Inc., which allows directors to defer either a percentage or a specified amount of their cash or equity compensation. Deferred amounts are generally paid on a date specified by the participant at the time of deferral. Upon the occurrence of a change in control event, the definition of which includes the completion of the merger, each participant will receive a lump sum distribution equal to the balance in his or her account.

Indemnification and Insurance

Under the terms of the merger agreement, People's United has agreed that it will, from and after the closing of the merger, indemnify and hold harmless all directors and officers of Danvers and its subsidiaries in their capacities as such, against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement to the fullest extent such persons would be entitled to such indemnification under applicable law and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Danvers as in effect on the date of the merger agreement.

People's United has also agreed that for six years after the merger's effective date, People's United will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the persons serving as officers and directors of Danvers to be covered with respect to claims arising from facts or events that existed or occurred at or prior to the effective time of the merger by directors' and officers' liability insurance policies. The insurance policies are to provide at least the same coverage and amounts and contain terms and conditions that are not in the aggregate less advantageous to the beneficiaries than Danvers' current policy, subject to specified cost limitations. The obligations of People's United may also be satisfied by prepaid insurance policies under certain circumstances.

People's United's Reasons for the Merger

People's United's reasons for entering into the merger agreement include:

the opportunity to further extend People's United's footprint in the Massachusetts geographic market;

the opportunity to use Danvers' branch network as a platform for further growth in People's United's retail and commercial lines of business; and the opportunity to invest a portion of People's United's excess capital in a transaction expected to be immediately accretive to operating earnings.

The board of directors of People's United approved the merger agreement after People's United senior management discussed with the board of directors a number of factors, including those described above and the business, assets, liabilities, results of operations, financial performance, strategic direction and prospects of Danvers. The People's United board of directors did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. The People's United board of directors viewed its position as being based on all the information and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different information and factors.

People's United's Board of Directors after the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, it is expected that the People's United board of directors will be composed of 12 members. In addition to the individuals serving on the People's United board of directors immediately before the effective time of the merger, People's United has agreed that it will cause Kevin T. Bottomley, the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Danvers, to be appointed to the People's United board of directors to the class of directors with a term expiring in 2013 at the effective time of the merger. If Mr. Bottomley is not serving as Chief Executive Officer of Danvers at the effective time of the merger, People's United will instead cause such other director of Danvers designated by Danvers and reasonably acceptable to People's United to be appointed to the People's United board of directors.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following summary describes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Danvers common stock. The following summary is based upon the Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Tax considerations under state, local and foreign laws, or federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax, or federal laws applicable to alternative minimum taxes, are not addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus.

an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion addresses only those holders of Danvers common stock that hold their Danvers common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of Danvers common stock in light of their individual circumstances or to holders of Danvers common stock that are subject to special rules, such as:

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership holds Danvers common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

The actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within our control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Accordingly, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences will be as follows:

no gain or loss will be recognized by People's United or Danvers as a result of the merger;

except as discussed below with respect to cash received instead of a fractional share of People's United common stock, under Receipt of Cash Consideration Only and Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of People's United Common Stock, no gain or loss will be recognized by U.S. holders who exchange all of their Danvers common stock solely for People's United common stock pursuant to the merger;

gain (but not loss) will be recognized by U.S. holders of Danvers common stock who receive shares of People's United common stock and cash in exchange for shares of Danvers common stock pursuant to the merger, in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the People's United common stock and cash received by a U.S. holder of Danvers common stock exceeds such U.S. holder's basis in its Danvers common stock and (2) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder of Danvers common stock (except with respect to U.S. holders who receive the entirety of their consideration in cash, which is discussed below under Receipt of Cash Consideration Only and Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of People's United Common Stock);

the aggregate basis of the People's United common stock received by a U.S. holder of Danvers common stock in the merger (including fractional shares of People's United common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be the same as the aggregate basis of the Danvers common stock for which it is exchanged, decreased by the amount of cash received in the merger (other than cash received instead of fractional share interests in People's United common stock), and increased by the amount of gain recognized on the exchange, other than with respect to cash received instead of fractional share interests in People's United common stock (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain or as dividend income, as discussed below under Additional Considerations Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend); and the holding period of People's United common stock received in exchange for shares of Danvers common stock (including fractional shares of People's United common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will include the holding period of the Danvers common stock for which it is exchanged.

If a U.S. holder of Danvers common stock acquired different blocks of Danvers common stock at different times or at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of Danvers common stock, and the cash and shares of People's United common stock received will be allocated pro rata to each such block of stock. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of People's United common stock received in the merger.

At the time a U.S. holder makes a cash or stock election pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, such U.S. holder will not know whether, and to what extent, the proration provisions of the merger agreement might alter the mix of consideration such U.S. holder will receive. As a result, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to such U.S. holder will not be ascertainable with certainty until such U.S. holder knows the precise amount of cash and People's United common shares that such U.S. holder will receive in the merger.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt by Danvers and People's United of legal opinions from Hogan Lovells US LLP and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, respectively, each dated as of the closing date of the merger, that for U.S. federal income tax purposes the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on certain assumptions and on representation letters provided by Danvers and People's United to be delivered at the time of closing. Although the merger agreement allows each of People's United and Danvers to waive this condition to closing, neither People's United nor Danvers currently anticipates doing so. Neither of the tax opinions will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service. Neither People's United nor Danvers intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger and there is no guarantee that the Internal Revenue Service will treat the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Taxation of Capital Gain

Except as described under Additional Considerations Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend below, gain that U.S. holders of Danvers common stock recognize in connection with the merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such U.S. holders have held (or are treated as having held) their Danvers common stock for more than one year as of the date of the merger. For U.S. holders of Danvers common stock that are non-corporate holders, long-term capital gain generally will be taxed at a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15%.

Additional Considerations* *Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend

All or part of the gain that a particular U.S. holder of Danvers common stock recognizes could be treated as dividend income rather than capital gain if (1) such U.S. holder is a significant stockholder of People's United or (2) such U.S. holder's percentage ownership, taking into account constructive ownership rules, in People's United after the merger is not meaningfully reduced from what its percentage ownership would have been if it had received solely shares of People's United common stock rather than a combination of cash and shares of People's United common stock in the merger. This could happen, for example, because of ownership of additional shares of People's United common stock by such holder, ownership of shares of People's United common stock by a person related to such holder or a share repurchase by People's United from other holders of People's United common stock. The Internal Revenue Service has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a minority stockholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain as opposed to dividend treatment. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon the particular circumstances of a holder of Danvers common stock, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, holders of Danvers common stock should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential tax consequences of the merger to them.

Receipt of Cash Consideration Only and Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of People's United Common Stock

A U.S. holder of Danvers common stock who receives the entirety of his or her consideration in the form of cash will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her Danvers common stock. In addition, a U.S. holder of Danvers common stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of People's United common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by People's United. As a result, such U.S. holder of Danvers common stock will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her fractional share interest as set forth above. The gain or loss recognized by the U.S. holders described in this paragraph will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the U.S. holder's holding period for the relevant shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

You are urged to consult with your own tax advisors about the particular tax consequences of the merger to you, including the effects of U.S. federal, state or local, or foreign and other tax laws.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Payments of cash to a U.S. holder of Danvers common stock pursuant to the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

A U.S. holder of Danvers common stock who receives People's United common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each U.S. holder of Danvers common stock who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a significant holder that receives People's United common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return setting forth such holder's basis in the Danvers common stock surrendered and the fair market value of the People's United common stock and cash received in the merger. A significant holder is a holder of Danvers common stock, who, immediately before the merger, owned at least 5% of the outstanding stock of Danvers.

This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences to you of the merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The merger will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting with People's United treated as the acquiror. Under this method of accounting, Danvers' assets and liabilities will be recorded by People's United at their respective fair values as of the closing date of the merger and added to those of People's United. Any excess of purchase price over the net fair values of Danvers' assets and liabilities will be recorded as goodwill. Any excess of the fair value of Danvers' net assets over the purchase price will be recognized in earnings by People's United on the closing date of the merger. Financial statements of People's United issued after the merger will reflect these values, but will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Danvers prior to the merger. The results of operations of Danvers will be included in the results of operations of People's United beginning on the effective date of the merger.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

People's United and Danvers have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain the regulatory approvals necessary or advisable to complete the merger.

Table of Contents

Office of Thrift Supervision. In order to consummate the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank, People's United Bank must receive the approval of the OTS under the Bank Merger Act. In making its determination, the OTS must consider, among other factors, the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and resulting institutions, and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The OTS must also consider the records of Danversbank and People's United Bank in meeting the needs of the community under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1997, as amended, and it must take into consideration the conformity of the proposed transaction to applicable law, regulation and supervision policies. In addition, the OTS cannot approve a transaction if it will result in a monopoly or otherwise substantially lessen competition in a manner inconsistent with applicable law.

Danversbank and People's United Bank may not complete the transaction before 30 calendar days following the OTS's approval of the transaction or, if the OTS has not received any adverse comments from the Attorney General of the United States concerning the competitive effect of the transaction, such shorter period of time as the OTS may permit, with the concurrence of the Attorney General, that does not end sooner than 15 calendar days following the OTS's approval.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. People's United and People's United Bank must obtain from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York acting on delegated authority, a waiver from the application requirements of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, prior to consummating the merger and the bank merger.

State Regulatory Filings. Before the completion of the merger, the Massachusetts Board of Bank Incorporation must approve the petition for People's United to acquire Danvers for purposes of Massachusetts law. Additionally, People's United Bank must receive the approval of its application to the Massachusetts Division of Banks for the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank. Under Massachusetts law, the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks may authorize an acquisition of a state bank by an out-of-state acquirer, provided that (1) the laws of the jurisdiction in which the acquirer has its principal place of business expressly authorize, under conditions no more restrictive than those imposed by Massachusetts law, a Massachusetts bank to exercise like authority; (2) the target Massachusetts bank has been in existence for a period of three years or more; and (3) the acquirer will not control more than thirty percent of the total insured deposits in Massachusetts following the acquisition. The Commissioner has authority to waive certain statutory requirements if he determines that economic conditions warrant granting such waiver.

Similarly, the Massachusetts Board of Bank Incorporation must approve a company's petition to become a bank holding company, as defined under Massachusetts law, and to acquire another financial institution. The Board's decision is based on a finding of whether competition among banking institutions will be unreasonably affected and whether public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the acquisition. In making such determination, the Board considers a showing of net new benefits, such as initial capital investments, job creation plans, consumer and business services, and commitments to maintain and open branch offices within the Massachusetts bank's delineated local community. The Board must also receive (1) notice from the Massachusetts Housing Partnership Fund that arrangements have been made satisfactory to the fund for the acquirer to make 0.90 percent of its assets located in Massachusetts available for call by the fund for a period of ten years for the purpose of providing loans to the fund for financing qualified low- and moderate-income housing acquisition or ownership programs; and (2) written assurances from the acquirer that a resident of Massachusetts will occupy a position of an executive officer in the acquired Massachusetts bank or any successor institution for so long as such acquirer controls the institution. Finally, the acquirer must maintain, for a period of two years, an asset base in the acquired institution equal to or greater than the total assets of such institution on the date of acquisition, unless such requirement is waived by the Commissioner if, in his judgment, economic conditions warrant a waiver.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates; Dividends; Withholding; Form of Election

Conversion and Exchange of Shares. The conversion of shares of Danvers common stock (other than excluded shares) into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. As promptly as reasonably practicable after completion of the merger, the exchange agent will exchange certificates and book-entry shares representing shares of Danvers common stock for the merger consideration, without interest, to be received in the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Mellon Investor Services LLC will be the exchange agent in the merger and will receive your form of election, exchange certificates and book-entry shares for the merger consideration and perform other duties as explained in the merger agreement.

If any People's United shares are to be issued, or cash payment made, in a name other than that in which the Danvers stock certificates or book-entry shares surrendered in exchange for the merger consideration are registered, the person requesting the exchange must pay any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of the new People's United shares or the payment of the cash consideration in a name other than that of the registered holder of the Danvers stock certificate or book-entry shares surrendered, or must establish to the satisfaction of People's United or the exchange agent that any such taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

Form of Election. The form of election and related transmittal materials are being mailed to Danvers stockholders separately following the mailing of this document. The form of election and related documents will allow you to make cash or stock elections or a combination of both. You will also be able to make a no preference election. This will have no effect on the type of merger consideration you receive. However, if you deliver certificates representing your Danvers shares in connection with making this election, the exchange agent will be able to process your exchange when the merger is complete without having to send you a second transmittal letter and wait for you to deliver your Danvers shares following completion of the merger.

Unless otherwise agreed to in advance by People's United and Danvers, the election deadline will be 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the later of (1) the date of the special meeting of Danvers stockholders and (2) the date that People's United and Danvers agree is as near as practicable to five business days prior to the expected closing date. People's United will issue a press release announcing the date of the election deadline as promptly as practicable after the election deadline is determined.

If you wish to elect the type of merger consideration you will receive in the merger, you should carefully review and follow the instructions that will be set forth in the form of election. Stockholders who hold their shares of Danvers common stock in street name or through a bank, broker or other nominee should follow the instructions of the bank, broker or other nominee for making an election with respect to such shares of Danvers common stock. Shares of Danvers common stock as to which the holder has not made a valid election prior to the election deadline will be treated as though the holder had not made an election.

To make a valid election, you must submit a properly completed form of election, together with stock certificates (if applicable) or a properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery, so that it is actually received by the exchange agent at or prior to the election deadline in accordance with the instructions on the form of election. Neither People's United nor the exchange agent is under any obligation to notify you of any defect in a form of election.

A form of election will be properly completed only if accompanied by certificates (or a properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery) representing all shares of Danvers common stock covered by the form of election and which are represented by certificates (or an affidavit as to the loss, theft or destruction and appropriate and customary indemnification, as will be described in the form of election). If you cannot deliver your stock certificates to the exchange agent by the election deadline, you may deliver a notice of guaranteed delivery promising to deliver your stock certificates, as will be described in the form of election, so long as (1) the guarantee of delivery is from a firm which is a member of any registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States and (2) the actual stock certificates are in fact delivered to the exchange agent by the time set forth in the guarantee of delivery.

Generally, an election may be revoked or changed, but only by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised form of election. If an election is revoked, or the merger agreement is terminated, and any certificates have been transmitted to the exchange agent, the exchange agent will promptly return those certificates to the stockholder who submitted those certificates. Danvers stockholders will not be entitled to revoke or change their elections following the election deadline. As a result, if you have made elections (including no preference elections), you will be unable to revoke your elections or sell your shares of Danvers common stock during the interval between the election deadline and the date of completion of the merger.

Shares of Danvers common stock as to which the holder has made a valid no preference election will be deemed non-election shares. Shares of Danvers common stock as to which the holder has not made a valid election prior to the election deadline, including as a result of revocation, will also be deemed non-election shares. If it is determined that any purported cash election or stock election was not properly made, the purported election will be deemed to be of no force or effect and the holder making the purported election will be deemed not to have made an election for these purposes, unless a proper election is subsequently made on a timely basis.

A holder of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights (as described in the following section) have been properly demanded and perfected and not withdrawn or lost may not make an election with respect to those same shares, and any purported election with respect to such shares will be invalid and will be disregarded. In addition, an election made by a holder of Danvers common stock which was valid when submitted will be deemed to have been withdrawn and will be disregarded if the holder subsequently demands and perfects appraisal rights with respect to those same shares.

Letter of Transmittal. As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will send a letter of transmittal to those persons who were record holders of shares of Danvers common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and who did not make a valid election. This mailing will contain instructions on how to surrender Danvers shares in exchange for the merger consideration the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement. Holders of Danvers common stock that hold their shares in certificated form will be required to return, along with surrendered certificates, a letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may be required pursuant to such instructions, to be entitled to receive the merger consideration pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. However, holders of Danvers common stock who hold their shares in book-entry form (rather than through a certificate representing Danvers common stock) will not be required to deliver a certificate or an executed letter of transmittal to the exchange agent in order to receive the merger consideration that the holder is entitled to receive pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

If you hold your shares in certificated form, do not submit your Danvers stock certificates for exchange now. You will receive transmittal instructions from the exchange agent at a later date. Please be sure to read and follow the transmittal instructions when you receive them.

If a certificate for Danvers common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the consideration properly payable under the merger agreement upon receipt of appropriate evidence as to that loss, theft or destruction, appropriate evidence as to the ownership of that certificate by the claimant, and, if requested by People's United or the exchange agent, appropriate and customary indemnification.

Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of People's United common stock will be issued to any holder of Danvers common stock upon completion of the merger. For each fractional share that would otherwise be issued, People's United will pay cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the fractional share interest to which such stockholder would otherwise be entitled multiplied by the closing price of People's United common stock as reported on NASDAQ Global Select Market on the last trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the merger.

Dividends and Distributions. Until shares of Danvers common stock are surrendered for exchange, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time of the merger with respect to shares of People's United common stock into which Danvers shares may have been converted will accrue but will not be paid. People's United will pay to former Danvers stockholders any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest, only after they have duly surrendered their shares. At and after the effective time of the merger, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Danvers of any Danvers shares. If shares of Danvers common stock are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the applicable merger consideration into which such shares have been converted pursuant to the merger agreement.

Withholding. People's United or the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the merger consideration otherwise payable to any Danvers stockholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any provision of any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that People's United or the exchange agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the stockholders in respect of whom such deduction and withholding were made.

Appraisal Rights

In connection with the merger, record holders of Danvers common stock who comply with the procedures summarized below will be entitled to appraisal rights if the merger is completed. Under Section 262 of the DGCL, which we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus as Section 262, as a result of completion of the merger, holders of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly demanded and perfected and not withdrawn or lost are entitled, in lieu of receiving the merger consideration, to have the fair value of their shares at the effective time of the merger (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) judicially determined and paid to them in cash together with a fair rate of interest, if any, unless the Delaware Court of Chancery in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, by complying with the provisions of Section 262. Danvers is required to send a notice to that effect to each stockholder not less than 20 days prior to the special meeting. This proxy statement/prospectus constitutes that notice to you.

The following is a brief summary of Section 262, which sets forth the procedures for demanding statutory appraisal rights. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262, a copy of the text of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. The following summary does not constitute any legal or other advice nor does it constitute a recommendation that stockholders exercise their appraisal rights under Section 262.

Any holder of Danvers common stock who wishes to exercise appraisal rights, or who wishes to preserve such holder's right to do so, should review the following discussion and Annex C carefully because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the loss of appraisal rights. Moreover, because of the complexity of the procedures for exercising the right to seek appraisal of shares of Danvers common stock, Danvers believes that if a stockholder considers exercising such rights, such stockholder should seek the advice of legal counsel.

A stockholder who desires to exercise appraisal rights must (1) not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and (2) deliver in the manner set forth below a written demand for appraisal of the stockholder's shares to the Secretary of Danvers before the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting at which the proposal to adopt the merger agreement will be submitted to the stockholders.

Only a holder of record of Danvers common stock is entitled to demand an appraisal of the shares registered in that holder's name. A demand for appraisal must be executed by or for the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as the stockholder's name appears on the certificates representing shares or on the stock records of Danvers in the case of shares that are not represented by certificates. If shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, such demand must be executed by the fiduciary. If shares are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand must be executed by all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent of two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose that, in exercising the demand, the agent is acting as agent for the record owner. In addition, the stockholder must continuously hold the shares of record from the date of making the demand through the effective time of the merger since appraisal rights will be lost if the shares are transferred prior to the effective time of the merger.

A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares as a nominee for others may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the shares held for all or less than all beneficial owners of shares as to which the holder is the record owner. In that case, the written demand must set forth the number of shares covered by the demand. Where the number of shares is not expressly stated, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares outstanding in the name of the record owner.

Beneficial owners who are not record owners and who intend to exercise appraisal rights should instruct the record owner to comply strictly with the statutory requirements with respect to the exercise of appraisal rights before the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting. A holder of shares held in street name who desires appraisal rights with respect to those shares must take such actions as may be necessary to ensure that a timely and proper demand for appraisal is made by the record owner of the shares. Shares held through brokerage firms, banks and other financial institutions are frequently deposited with and held of record in the name of a nominee of a central security depository, such as Cede & Co., The Depository Trust Company's nominee. Any holder of shares desiring appraisal rights with respect to such shares who held such shares through a brokerage firm, bank or other financial institution is responsible for ensuring that the demand for appraisal is made by the record holder. The stockholder should instruct such firm, bank or institution that the demand for appraisal must be made by the record holder of the shares, which might be the nominee of a central security depository if the shares have been so deposited.

As required by Section 262, a demand for appraisal must be in writing and must reasonably inform Danvers of the identity of the record holder (which might be a nominee as described above) and of such holder's intention to seek appraisal of such shares.

Stockholders of record who elect to demand appraisal of their shares must mail or deliver their written demand to: Danvers Bancorp, Inc., One Conant Street, Danvers, Massachusetts, 01923, Attention: Michael W. McCurdy, Secretary. The written demand for appraisal should specify the stockholder's name and mailing address, the number of shares owned, and that the stockholder is demanding appraisal of his or her shares. The written demand must be received by Danvers prior to the special meeting. Neither voting (in person or by proxy) against, abstaining from voting on or failing to vote on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement will alone suffice to constitute a written demand for appraisal within the meaning of Section 262. In addition, the stockholder must not vote its shares of common stock in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. Because a proxy that does not contain voting instructions will, unless revoked, be voted in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, it will constitute a waiver of the stockholder's right of appraisal and will nullify any previously delivered written demand for appraisal. Therefore, a stockholder who votes by proxy and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must vote against the merger agreement or abstain from voting on the merger agreement.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, but not thereafter, either the surviving corporation in the merger or any stockholder who has timely and properly demanded appraisal of such stockholder's shares and who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 and is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of all stockholders who have properly demanded appraisal. People's

United, as the surviving corporation in the merger, has no obligation, and no present intention, to file such a petition. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, any holder of Danvers common stock who has complied with the requirements for exercise of appraisal rights will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving corporation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. The statement must be mailed within ten days after a written request therefor has been received by the surviving corporation or within ten days after the expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal, whichever is later. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of Danvers common stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the surviving corporation the statement described in this paragraph.

If a petition for an appraisal is timely filed by a holder of shares of Danvers common stock and a copy thereof is served upon the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then be obligated within 20 days to file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached. After notice to the stockholders as required by the court, the Delaware Court of Chancery is empowered to conduct a hearing on the petition to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and who have become entitled to appraisal rights thereunder. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require the stockholders who demanded payment for their shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceeding; and if any stockholder fails to comply with the direction, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to the stockholder.

If a petition for an appraisal is timely filed, after a hearing on such petition, the Delaware Court of Chancery will determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights and thereafter will appraise the shares owned by those stockholders, determining the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with interest to be paid, if any, upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining fair value, the Delaware Court of Chancery is to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., et al., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the considerations that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that "proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered and that [f]air price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company." The Delaware Supreme Court stated that in making this determination of fair value the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts which were known or which could be ascertained as of the date of merger which throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. The Delaware Supreme Court construed Section 262 to mean that "elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered." However, the Delaware Supreme Court noted that Section 262 provides that fair value is to be determined "exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger."

Stockholders considering seeking appraisal should bear in mind that the fair value of their shares determined under Section 262 could be more than, the same as, or less than the merger consideration they are entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they do not seek appraisal of their shares, and that opinions of investment banking firms as to fairness from a financial point of view are not necessarily opinions as to fair value under Section 262. Although Danvers believes that the merger consideration is fair, no representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, and stockholders should recognize that such an appraisal could result in a determination of a value higher or lower than, or the same as, the merger consideration. Neither People's United nor Danvers anticipate offering more than the applicable merger consideration to any Danvers stockholder exercising appraisal rights, and reserve the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that for purposes of Section 262, the fair value of a share of Danvers common stock is less than the applicable merger consideration.

The cost of the appraisal proceeding (which do not include attorneys' fees or the fees and expenses of experts) may be determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and charged upon the parties as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder seeking appraisal rights, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by such stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts utilized in the appraisal proceeding, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. In the absence of such a determination of assessment, each party bears its own expenses.

From and after the effective time of the merger, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights shall be entitled to vote any shares subject thereto for any purpose or receive dividends or other distributions thereon (except dividends or other distributions payable to the stockholders of record at a date prior to the effective time of the merger).

At any time within 60 days after the effective time of the merger, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party may withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and accept the cash and/or shares of People's United common stock to which the stockholder is entitled pursuant to the merger agreement by delivering to the surviving corporation a written withdrawal of the demand for appraisal. After this period, the stockholder may withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and accept the cash and/or People's United common stock to which the stockholder is entitled to pursuant to the merger only with the written consent of the surviving corporation in the merger. If no petition for appraisal is filed with the Delaware Court of Chancery within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, stockholders' rights to appraisal shall cease and all stockholders shall be entitled only to receive the cash and/or shares of People's United common stock as provided for in the merger agreement. Inasmuch as the parties to the merger agreement have no obligation to file such a petition, and have no present intention to do so, any stockholder who desires that such petition be filed is advised to file it on a timely basis. No petition timely filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding appraisal shall be dismissed as to any stockholders without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and that approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just; provided, however, that any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party may withdraw his, her or its demand for appraisal and accept the merger consideration offered pursuant to the merger agreement within 60 days after the effective time of the merger. If the surviving corporation in the merger does not approve a request to withdraw a demand for appraisal when that approval is required, or, except with respect to any stockholder who withdraws such stockholder's right to appraisal in accordance with the second sentence of this paragraph, if the Delaware Court of Chancery does not approve the dismissal of an appraisal proceeding, the stockholder will be entitled to receive only the appraised value determined in any such appraisal proceeding, which value could be less than, equal to or more than the consideration being offered pursuant to the merger agreement.

The foregoing is a brief summary of Section 262 that sets forth the procedures for demanding statutory appraisal rights. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262, a copy of the text of which is attached hereto as Annex C. Failure to comply with all the procedures set forth in Section 262 will result in the loss of a stockholder's statutory appraisal rights.

Litigation Relating to the Merger

Michael Rubin, Steven M. Knudsen, and Ralph E. Swift, each alleged Danvers stockholders, filed putative class actions on February 1, 2, and 14, 2011, respectively, allegedly on behalf of all Danvers stockholders against Danvers, the Danvers board of directors, and People's United. The Rubin and Knudsen actions were filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery and were consolidated into one action on February 18, 2011, under the caption In re Danvers Bancorp Inc. Shareholders Litigation, C.A. No. 6162-VCS. The Swift action was filed in Massachusetts Superior Court, Suffolk County, and was transferred to the Business Litigation Session on February 17, 2011, under the caption Swift v. Bottomley et al., Civ. A. No. 11-0575-BLS2. The Delaware plaintiffs filed a consolidated amended complaint on March 10, 2011, and the Massachusetts plaintiff filed an amended complaint on March 9, 2011.

Table of Contents

The amended complaints generally allege, among other things, that (i) the Danvers board of directors breached its fiduciary duties by approving the Merger Agreement at an unfair price and through an unfair process and by agreeing to preclusive deal protection devices, including a termination fee and no-solicitation provisions and (ii) the transaction unfairly benefits certain members of the Danvers board of directors, including the chief executive officer, to the disadvantage of other Danvers stockholders. The amended complaints also allege that People's United and Danvers aided and abetted the Danvers board of directors' purported breach of its fiduciary duties.

The amended complaints further allege that this proxy statement is deficient in that it fails to disclose certain information. Plaintiffs allege that this proxy statement should include additional disclosure regarding, among other things: (i) free cash flow projections for 2011-2015 for Danvers; (ii) the underlying methodologies, projections, key inputs and multiples relied upon and observed by Sandler O'Neill in its fairness opinion; (iii) services provided by, and reasons for the retention of, Endicott and Sandler O'Neill; (iv) the solicitation process, including discussions with and consideration of bids made by other potential acquirers; (v) discussions between Danvers and its advisors, on the one hand, and People's United and its advisors, on the other hand, and (vi) the Danvers board's decision to approve the proposed transaction.

The amended complaints seek, among other relief, injunctive relief, damages and attorneys' fees.

Danvers, the Danvers board of directors and People's United believe that the allegations in the amended complaints are without merit and intend to vigorously defend both actions.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This section of the document describes the material terms of the merger agreement. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference and attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that may be important to you. You are urged to read the full text of the merger agreement.

Structure

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, and in accordance with Delaware law, at the completion of the merger, Danvers will merge with and into People's United. People's United will be the surviving corporation in the merger and will continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Delaware. Upon completion of the merger, the separate corporate existence of Danvers will terminate.

Each share of People's United common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will remain issued and outstanding as one share of common stock of People's United, and each share of Danvers common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger (other than excluded shares) will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder of each such share, either $23.00 in cash or 1.624 shares of People's United common stock, as described below. See Consideration to be Received in the Merger.

The certificate of incorporation of People's United will be the certificate of incorporation of the combined company, and the bylaws of People's United will be the bylaws of the combined company. See Comparison of Stockholder Rights beginning on page 91.

The merger agreement provides that People's United may change the method of effecting the business combination between People's United and Danvers; however, no such change will alter or change the amount or kind of merger consideration to be provided under the merger agreement, materially impede or delay completion of the merger, or adversely affect the anticipated tax consequences to Danvers stockholders in the merger.

Effective Time and Timing of Closing

The merger will be completed and become effective when People's United and Danvers file the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. However, People's United and Danvers may agree to a later time for completion of the merger and specify that time in the certificate of merger in accordance with Delaware law. The closing of the merger will take place on the third business day after the conditions to the merger have been satisfied or waived, or on such other date as People's United and Danvers may agree.

People's United and Danvers anticipate that the merger will be completed during the second quarter of 2011. However, completion of the merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required regulatory approvals or in satisfying any other conditions to the merger. There can be no assurances as to whether, or when, People's United and Danvers will obtain the required approvals or complete the merger.

People's United's Board of Directors after the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, it is expected that the People's United board of directors will be composed of 12 members. In addition to the individuals serving on the People's United board of directors immediately before the effective time of the merger, People's United has agreed that it will cause Kevin T. Bottomley, the current Chief Executive Officer of Danvers, to be appointed to the People's United board of directors to the class of directors with a term expiring in 2013 at the effective time of the merger. If Kevin T. Bottomley is not serving as Chief Executive Officer of Danvers at the effective time of the merger, People's United will instead cause such other director of Danvers designated by Danvers and reasonably acceptable to People's United to be appointed to the People's United board of directors.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of Danvers common stock (other than excluded shares) will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder of each such share, either $23.00 in cash or 1.624 shares of People's United common stock. A Danvers stockholder may specify different elections with respect to different shares that such stockholder holds. The value of the per share stock consideration is dependent upon the value of People's United common stock and therefore will fluctuate with the market price of People United common stock. Danvers stockholders may elect the form of consideration, but their elections are subject to a proration mechanism such that approximately 55% of Danvers shares will be exchanged for shares of People's United common stock and approximately 45% will be exchanged for cash, as described below.

The form of election will be mailed to Danvers stockholders as promptly as reasonably practicable following the mailing of the proxy statement/prospectus in definitive form relating to the special meeting of Danvers stockholders to be held to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement. Danvers stockholders must return their properly completed and signed form of election to the exchange agent prior to the election deadline.

Danvers stockholders may specify different elections with respect to different shares of Danvers common stock held by such stockholder (for example, if such stockholder has 100 shares of Danvers common stock, such stockholder could make a cash election with respect to 50 shares and a stock election with respect to the other 50 shares).

If a Danvers stockholder does not return the form of election by the election deadline, improperly completes or does not sign the form of election or fails to accompany the election with the Danvers stock certificate(s) to which such election relates (or a properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery), such stockholder will be deemed not to have made an election. Stockholders not making an election may be paid in cash and/or shares of People's United common stock depending on, and after giving effect to, the proration adjustments described below.

No fractional shares of People's United common stock will be issued to any holder of Danvers common stock upon completion of the merger. For each fractional share that would otherwise be issued People's United will pay cash in an amount equal to the fractional share interest to which such stockholder would otherwise be entitled multiplied by the closing price of People's United common stock as reported on NASDAQ Global Select Market on the last trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the merger.

Proration

The total number of shares of People's United common stock that will be issued in the merger is approximately 18,450,115, based on the number of shares of Danvers common stock outstanding on March 31, 2011, and the aggregate amount of cash that will be paid in the merger is fixed at $214,490,732. The total amount of Danvers common stock that will be converted into cash in the merger is fixed at 9,325,684 shares. All other shares of Danvers common stock will be converted into shares of People's United common stock (other than shares to be cancelled). As a result, if the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which cash elections are made plus the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn exceeds 9,325,684, Danvers stockholders electing cash will have the cash consideration proportionately reduced and will receive a portion of their consideration in shares of People's United common stock, despite their election. If the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which cash elections are made plus the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn is less than 9,325,684, Danvers stockholders electing no preference or who do not make an effective election and/or Danvers stockholders electing shares of People's United common stock will receive all or a portion of their consideration in cash, despite their election.

Table of Contents

Adjustment if cash election is oversubscribed. Stock may be issued to Danvers stockholders who make cash elections if the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which cash elections are made plus the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn exceeds 9,325,684. We refer to the total number of Danvers common stock that will be converted into cash in the merger, or 9,325,684 shares, as the Cash Conversion Number. This is a fixed number that will not change regardless of the results of the election process. The total number of shares of Danvers common stock for which valid cash elections are made plus the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn is referred to as the Cash Election Number. If the Cash Election Number exceeds the Cash Conversion Number, then:

a Danvers stockholder making a stock election, a no preference election, no election or an invalid election will receive the stock consideration for each share of Danvers common stock as to which the stockholder made a stock election, a no preference election, no election or an invalid election; and a Danvers stockholder electing cash will receive:

cash consideration for a number of shares of Danvers common stock equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of Danvers common stock for which such stockholder made a valid cash election by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount by which (x) the Cash Conversion Number exceeds (y) the aggregate number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn (which we sometimes refer to as dissenting shares) determined as of the effective time, and the denominator of which is the total number of shares for which valid cash elections have been made (exclusive of dissenting shares); and the stock consideration for the remaining shares of Danvers common stock for which the stockholder made a cash election.

Example if cash election is oversubscribed:

The Cash Conversion Number is fixed at 9,325,684 and will not change regardless of the assumptions set forth below or the actual results of elections.

Assuming that:

Danvers stockholders have made cash elections with respect to 10,000,000 shares of Danvers common stock, and there are no dissenting shares,

then a Danvers stockholder making a cash election with respect to 1,000 shares of Danvers common stock would receive the cash consideration for approximately 932 shares of Danvers common stock ($1,000 \times (9,325,684 - 0) \div 10,000,000$) and the stock consideration with respect to the remaining 68 shares of Danvers common stock.

The proration adjustment will be different if there are dissenting shares and the cash election is oversubscribed. Assuming that:

Danvers stockholders have made cash elections with respect to 10,000,000 shares of Danvers common stock, and there are 300,000 dissenting shares,

Edgar Filing: People's United Financial, Inc. - Form 424B3

then a Danvers stockholder making a cash election with respect to 1,000 shares of Danvers common stock would receive the cash consideration with respect to approximately 902 shares of Danvers common stock ($1,000 \times (9,325,684 - 300,000) \div 10,000,000$) and the stock consideration with respect to the remaining 98 shares of Danvers common stock.

Table of Contents

Adjustment if cash election is undersubscribed. Cash may be paid to stockholders who make stock elections if the Cash Election Number is less than the Cash Conversion Number. The amount by which the Cash Election Number is less than the Cash Conversion Number is referred to as the Shortfall Number. If the cash election is undersubscribed, then all Danvers stockholders making a cash election will receive the cash consideration for all shares of Danvers common stock as to which they made a cash election. Danvers stockholders making a stock election, Danvers stockholders who make a no preference election or make no election and Danvers stockholders who fail to make a valid election will receive cash and/or shares of People's United common stock based in part on whether the Shortfall Number is less or greater than the number of non-election shares, as described below.

Scenario 1: Cash Election Number is less than the Cash Conversion Number and Shortfall Number is Less than or Equal to Number of Non-Election Shares. If the Shortfall Number is less than or equal to the number of non-election shares, then:

a Danvers stockholder making a stock election will receive the stock consideration for each share of Danvers common stock as to which the stockholder made a stock election; and a Danvers stockholder who made a no preference election or made no election or who did not make a valid election with respect to any of his, her or its shares will receive:

the cash consideration for a number of shares of Danvers common stock equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of non-election shares held by such Danvers stockholder by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall Number, and the denominator of which is the total number of non-election shares; and the stock consideration with respect to the remaining non-election shares held by such stockholder.

Example of scenario 1:

The Cash Conversion Number is fixed at 9,325,684 and will not change regardless of the assumptions set forth below or the actual results of elections. The proration adjustment will not be affected by the number of dissenting shares when the cash election is undersubscribed.

Assuming that:

the Cash Election Number (the sum of the number of shares of Danvers common stock for which cash elections have been made plus the number of dissenting shares) is 8,000,000, and

Danvers stockholders have made stock elections with respect to 9,000,000 shares of Danvers common stock, and there are 20,723,743 shares of Danvers common stock outstanding,

then the Shortfall Number (the Cash Conversion Number minus the Cash Election Number) is 1,325,684, and the number of non-election shares (equal to (a) the number of shares of Danvers common stock outstanding minus (b) (i) the Cash Election Number plus (ii) the number of shares of Danvers common stock for which stock elections have been made) is 3,723,743

which is greater than the Shortfall Number, and therefore, a Danvers stockholder that has made a no preference election or has not made an election with respect to 1,000 shares of Danvers common stock would receive the cash consideration with respect to approximately 357 shares of Danvers common stock ($1,000 \times 1,325,684 \div 3,723,743$) and the stock consideration with respect to the remaining 643 shares of Danvers common stock.

Table of Contents

Scenario 2: Cash Election Number is less than the Cash Conversion Number and Shortfall Number Exceeds Number of Non-Election Shares. If the Shortfall Number exceeds the number of non-election shares, then:

a Danvers stockholder who made a no preference election or who made no election or who has not made a valid election will receive the cash consideration for each share of Danvers common stock for which he, she or it made a no preference election or who made no election or did not make a valid election; and a Danvers stockholder making a stock election will receive:

the cash consideration for a number of shares of Danvers common stock equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of Danvers common stock with respect to which the stockholder made a stock election by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is equal to the amount by which (x) the Shortfall Number exceeds (y) the number of non-election shares, and the denominator of which is equal to the total number of stock election shares; and stock consideration with respect to the remaining shares of Danvers common stock held by such stockholder as to which the stockholder made a stock election.

Example of scenario 2:

The Cash Conversion Number is fixed at 9,325,684 and will not change regardless of the assumptions set forth below or the actual results of elections. The proration adjustment will not be affected by the number of dissenting shares when the cash election is undersubscribed.

Assuming that:

the Cash Election Number (the sum of the number of shares of Danvers common stock for which cash elections have been made plus the number of dissenting shares) is 8,000,000, and

Danvers stockholders have made stock elections with respect to 12,000,000 shares of Danvers common stock, and there are 20,723,743 shares of Danvers common stock outstanding,

then

the Shortfall Number (the Cash Conversion Number minus the Cash Election Number) is 1,325,684, and the number of non-election shares (equal to (a) the number of shares of Danvers common stock outstanding minus (b) (i) the Cash Election Number plus (ii) the number of shares of Danvers common stock for which stock elections have been made) is 723,743 which is less than the Shortfall Number, and therefore, a Danvers stockholder that has made a stock election with respect to 1,000 shares of Danvers common stock would receive the cash consideration with respect to approximately 51 shares of Danvers common stock ($1,000 \times (1,325,684 - 723,743) \div 12,000,000$) and the stock consideration with respect to the remaining 949 shares of Danvers common stock.

Stock Options and Other Stock-Based Awards

Edgar Filing: People's United Financial, Inc. - Form 424B3

Each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of Danvers common stock granted under Danvers stock option and incentive plans that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will fully vest and be cancelled at the effective time of the merger, and each option holder will be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to (1) the number of Danvers shares subject to that holder's option(s) multiplied by (2) the excess, if any, of the per share amount over the per-share exercise price of that holder's option(s), less any required withholding taxes. The per share amount is $23.00.

Table of Contents

Under the terms of the merger agreement, at the effective time of the merger, all restricted stock awards that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective time that were granted under Danvers' stock plans will fully vest, and all of the related shares will be treated as outstanding Danvers shares for all purposes under the merger agreement, including for purposes of the holders' right to receive the same merger consideration as all other shares of Danvers common stock are entitled to receive in the merger as described above under "Consideration to be Received in the Merger."

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains generally customary representations and warranties of People's United and Danvers relating to their respective businesses. For purposes of determining the satisfaction of the closing conditions relating to each party's representations and warranties as described under "Conditions to Complete the Merger" below, subject to certain exceptions, each party's representations and warranties will be deemed to be true and correct in all respects unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, results or would reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the party making the representations and warranties. For purposes of the merger agreement, "material adverse effect" means with respect to People's United or Danvers, as the case may be, any fact, circumstance, event, change, effect, development or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate with all other facts, circumstances, events, changes, effects, developments or circumstances, (1) has had or would be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of such party and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, or (2) prevents or materially delays or materially impairs, or that would reasonably be expected to prevent, materially delay or materially impair, such party's ability to perform its obligations under the merger agreement or consummate the merger on a timely basis. However, in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred with respect to clause (1) above, there will be excluded any effect on the referenced party the cause of which is:

any change after January 20, 2011 in laws, rules or regulations of general applicability or published interpretations by governmental entities, in generally accepted accounting principles or in regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks, savings associations and their holding companies generally;

the announcement of the merger agreement and the actions contemplated by the merger agreement or any action of either People's United, Danvers, or their respective subsidiaries required to be taken under the merger agreement;

changes in national or international political or social conditions (including the engagement by the United States in hostilities), or the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack upon or within the United States or any of its territories, possessions or diplomatic or consular offices or upon any military installation, equipment or personnel of the United States, but only to the extent that such changes do not have a disproportionate impact on such party and its subsidiaries as measured relative to other banks, savings associations and their holding companies; or any changes after January 20, 2011 in general economic conditions in the United States affecting banks, savings associations and their holding companies generally (including interest rates), but only to the extent that such changes (including changes in interest rates) do not have a disproportionate impact on such party and its subsidiaries as measured relative to other banks, savings associations and their holding companies.

The merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties made by and to People's United and Danvers. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the contract between People's United and Danvers and are subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by People's United and Danvers in connection with negotiating its terms. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specified date, may be subject to contractual standards of materiality different from what may be viewed People's United has agreed in the merger agreement that, prior to the completion of the merger, except as expressly contemplated or permitted by the merger agreement or as required by law, it will not, without the prior written consent of Danvers, (1) amend its certificate of incorporation or bylaws in a manner that would materially and adversely affect the economic benefits of the merger to Danvers' stockholders or (2) knowingly take any action that is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions to the merger not being satisfied.

Stockholders' Meeting and Duty to Recommend

Danvers has agreed to hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable following the effectiveness of the registration statement with respect to People's United common stock to be issued in the merger for the purpose of obtaining stockholder adoption of the merger agreement.

Danvers' board of directors has agreed (1) to recommend the adoption of the merger agreement by Danvers stockholders and (2) not to withdraw, modify or qualify its recommendation in any manner adverse to People's United, or take any action or make any other public statement in connection with the Danvers stockholder meeting, or in reference to an acquisition proposal (as defined below), inconsistent with its recommendation. In the event that Danvers engages in any of the activities described in clause (2) above, then Danvers' board of directors may submit the merger agreement to Danvers' stockholders without recommendation, in which event the board of directors of Danvers may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to the Danvers' stockholders to the extent required by law.

However, if Danvers complies with its non-solicitation obligations described under "No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions," Danvers may engage in any of the activities described in clause (2) above if Danvers' board of directors, based on the advice of its outside counsel, determines in good faith that failure to take such action would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, and Danvers may engage in any of the activities described in clause (2) above in response to an acquisition proposal if in addition to satisfying the foregoing requirements:

the acquisition proposal was unsolicited and Danvers' board of directors concludes in good faith that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal (as defined below) after giving effect to all of the adjustments that may be offered by People's United;

Danvers notifies People's United, at least five business days in advance, of its intention to take such action, specifies the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal (including the identity of the person making such proposal) and furnishes to People's United a copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreement and other material documents; and prior to taking such action, Danvers negotiates, and causes its financial and legal advisors to negotiate, in good faith with People's United (to the extent People's United desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement such that the acquisition proposal no longer constitutes a superior proposal.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term "acquisition proposal" means any inquiry, proposal or offer relating to any direct or indirect:

acquisition, purchase or sale of a business, deposits or assets that constitute 15% or more of the consolidated business, revenues, net income, assets (including stock of Danvers' subsidiaries) or deposits of Danvers and its subsidiaries;

merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, reorganization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Danvers or any of its subsidiaries; or purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer (including a self-tender offer) for, securities of Danvers or any of its subsidiaries that would result in any person (or the stockholders of such person) beneficially owning 15% or more of the equity or total voting power of Danvers, any of its subsidiaries or the surviving parent entity in such transaction.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term "superior proposal" means a bona fide written acquisition proposal to acquire a majority of the total voting power of Danvers that Danvers' board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and receiving the advice of its outside counsel, taking into account timing and all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal and the person making the proposal:

is more favorable to Danvers' stockholders, from a financial point of view, than the merger with People's United; and is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed.

No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions

Danvers has agreed that it, its subsidiaries and it and its subsidiaries' respective officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates and representatives (including any investment bankers, attorneys or accountants) will not, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate (including by way of providing information) any inquiries, proposals or offers or any other efforts or attempts that constitute or may reasonably be expected to lead to any acquisition proposal;

have any discussions with or provide any nonpublic information to any person relating to an acquisition proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an acquisition proposal;

approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal;

approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding, merger agreement, asset or share purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any acquisition proposal; or enter into any agreement or agreement in principle requiring, directly or indirectly, Danvers to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the merger or breach its obligations under the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

However, if Danvers receives an unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal after the date of the merger agreement, Danvers may engage in discussions with, or provide nonpublic information to, the person making the acquisition proposal if and only to the extent that:

the special meeting of Danvers stockholders has not occurred;

Danvers' board of directors concludes in good faith that such acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal;

prior to providing any nonpublic information, Danvers enters into a confidentiality agreement with the person making the acquisition proposal on terms no less favorable to Danvers than those specified in the confidentiality agreement between Danvers and People's United;

Danvers contemporaneously provides to People's United any non-public information concerning Danvers or its subsidiaries provided to the party making the acquisition proposal which was not previously provided to People's United; and

Danvers' board of directors concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel) that failure to take such actions would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Danvers has also agreed to:

advise People's United promptly (within 24 hours) following receipt of any acquisition proposal, or any inquiry which could reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, describing the material terms thereof (including the identity of the person making such acquisition proposal);

keep People's United apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations and the status and terms thereof (including providing People's United with a copy of all material documentation and correspondence) on a reasonably current basis; and notify People's United orally and in writing within 24 hours after entering into discussions or negotiations with another person in connection with an acquisition proposal, or providing non-public information or data to another person in connection with an acquisition proposal.

Employee Matters

People's United has agreed that, with respect to the employees of Danvers and its subsidiaries at the effective time of the merger, among other things:

on or as soon as practicable following the effective time of the merger, such employees shall become eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans sponsored or maintained by People's United or People's United Bank, as applicable, to the same extent and on the same terms (or, on more favorable terms) as similarly situated employees of People's United Bank. Until such time, Danvers employees will continue to participate in Danvers benefit plans (excluding equity-based plans) in which each such Danvers employee participated before the effective time of the merger on the same (or more favorable) terms as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. However, under the merger agreement, neither People's United nor any of its subsidiaries will be required to make any grants to any Danvers employee under any equity-based People's United benefit plans, as such grants are completely discretionary; and, People's United is not required to allow Danvers' employees to participate in any People's United defined benefit pension plan;

give such employees credit for service with Danvers or its subsidiaries for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting, entitlement to benefits and vacation entitlement (but not for accrual of benefits under any People's United benefit plan, including any post-retirement welfare benefit plan) to the extent such employees would have received credit under a comparable plan maintained by Danvers or, in the absence of any comparable plan, under Danvers' 401(k) plan; however, service with Danvers or its subsidiaries will not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits;

Table of Contents

give such employees the same credit for service with Danvers or its subsidiaries for the purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any pre-existing condition limitations with respect to any People's United benefit plan as employees would receive if such service had been with People's United;

each People's United benefit plan shall waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under the applicable Danvers benefit plan; and such employees shall be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding Danvers or any subsidiary benefit plan during the same period for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments, out-of-pocket maximums and similar payments as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the People's United benefit plan during the applicable plan year.

In addition, People's United's board of directors, or a committee of non-employee directors thereof, will adopt a resolution providing that the receipt by certain Danvers officers and directors of shares of People's United common stock to be issued in connection with the merger and subject to Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is intended to be exempt from liability pursuant to Section 16(b).

All provisions contained in the merger agreement with respect to employees, officers, directors, consultants and independent contractors are included for the sole benefit of Danvers and People's United and shall not create any right (1) in any other person, including Danvers benefit plans or any beneficiary thereof or (2) to continued employment with People's United or any of its affiliates.

Indemnification and Insurance

People's United has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless all past and present officers and directors of Danvers and its subsidiaries in their capacities as such against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement to the fullest extent such persons would be entitled to such indemnification under the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Danvers as in effect on the date of the merger agreement and permitted by applicable law.

The merger agreement provides that People's United will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the persons serving as officers and directors of Danvers immediately prior to the effective time to be covered for a period of six years after completion of the merger by Danvers' current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, or policies of at least the same coverage and amount and containing terms and conditions that are not in the aggregate less advantageous than the current policy, subject to specified cost limitations.

Additional Agreements

People's United and Danvers have also agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to:

take all actions necessary, proper or advisable under the merger agreement and applicable law to consummate the merger as soon as practicable; and promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation to obtain the consent, approval and authorization of all third parties and governmental entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the merger.

The merger agreement also contains covenants relating to cooperation in the preparation of this proxy statement/prospectus and additional agreements relating to, among other things, access to information, notice of specified matters, public announcements and the listing of People's United common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Danversbank Charitable Foundation

The parties have also agreed that the board of directors of the Danversbank Charitable Foundation shall remain unchanged for three years following the effective time of the merger (except as described in the following sentence) and that all proceeds disbursed by the Danversbank Charitable Foundation will be disbursed within the sole discretion of the foundation's board of directors. The parties further agreed that People's United will have the right to appoint two additional individuals to the board of directors of the Danversbank Charitable Foundation and that Kevin T. Bottomley will be Chairman of the board of directors of the foundation for three years following the effective time of the merger. People's United has also agreed to make certain charitable contributions in Danvers' market area for a period of three years after the effective time of the merger.

Conditions to Complete the Merger

Conditions to Both Parties' Obligations. The obligations of People's United and Danvers to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

the adoption of the merger agreement by Danvers stockholders;

the receipt of all regulatory approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (other than the regulatory approvals required to complete the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank) and the expiration or termination of all statutory waiting periods;

the effectiveness of the registration statement with respect to the People's United common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act and the absence of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement or proceedings initiated or threatened by the Securities and Exchange Commission for that purpose; and the absence of any order, injunction or decree issued by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing consummation of the merger or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the absence of any law, statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, award, writ, decree or injunction enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental entity which prohibits or makes illegal the consummation of the merger.

Conditions to Each Party's Obligations. The obligations of each party to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the other party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement being true and correct, subject to the materiality standard contained in the merger agreement, and the performance by the other party in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement; and the receipt by the party of a legal opinion from its counsel, dated the closing date, to the effect that the merger will be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Conditions to People's United's Obligations. The obligations of People's United to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the receipt of all regulatory approvals required to complete the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank, with People's United Bank as the surviving entity, including without limitation the approval of the Office of Thrift Supervision, and the expiration or termination of all statutory waiting periods.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

General

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the merger by mutual written consent of People's United and Danvers, or by either People's United or Danvers if:

any governmental entity which must grant a requisite regulatory approval denies approval of the merger and such denial becomes final and non-appealable;

any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has issued a final non-appealable order enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger;

the merger is not completed on or before September 30, 2011, provided that neither People's United nor Danvers may terminate the merger agreement for this reason if its failure to perform or observe its covenants and agreements has resulted in the failure of the merger to occur on or before that date;

the other party is in breach of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement and the breach would prevent satisfaction by the other party of the relevant closing condition and the breach, if curable, is not cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach (and the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement); or

Danvers stockholders fail to adopt the merger agreement at the Danvers special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by People's United if:

any governmental entity which must grant an approval for the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank has denied approval of such merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable;

any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has issued a final nonappealable order enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the merger of Danversbank with and into People's United Bank;

(1) Danvers' board of directors has failed to recommend the merger to Danvers stockholders or withdrawn, modified or changed in a manner adverse to People's United its recommendation of the merger (or has taken any action or made any statement in connection with the Danvers stockholder meeting or otherwise inconsistent with its recommendation), (2) Danvers has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations in any respect adverse to People's United, (3) Danvers' board of directors has failed to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of Danvers stockholders or (4) Danvers, its subsidiaries or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives (including investment bankers, attorneys or accountants) negotiates or authorizes the conduct of negotiations (and 10 days have elapsed without such negotiations being discontinued) with a third party regarding an acquisition proposal other than the merger; or a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of the outstanding Danvers common stock is commenced and Danvers' board of directors recommends that Danvers stockholders tender their shares or otherwise fails to recommend that Danvers stockholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within 10 business days of the commencement of the offer.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by Danvers, if the Danvers board of directors so determines by the vote of a majority of its members, in the event that the average closing price of People's United common stock during the five trading day period ending on the trading day immediately preceding the date of receipt of all required regulatory approvals is less than $11.33 and People's United common stock underperforms the KBW Regional Bank Index by more than 20%. If the Danvers board of directors exercises the termination right described in the preceding sentence, People's United will have the option to increase the amount of People's United common stock to be provided to Danvers stockholders such that the implied value of the exchange ratio would be equivalent to the minimum implied value that would have avoided triggering the termination right described above. If People's United elects to increase the exchange ratio pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur.

Effect of Termination

In the event the merger agreement is terminated as described above, the merger agreement will become void and none of People's United, Danvers, any of their respective subsidiaries or any of their officers or directors will have any liability under the merger agreement, except that:

both People's United and Danvers will remain liable for any willful and material breach of the merger agreement (other than the payment of punitive damages); and designated provisions of the merger agreement, including the payment of fees and expenses, the confidential treatment of information, and, if applicable, the termination fee described below, will survive the termination.

Termination Fee

The merger agreement provides that Danvers will be required to pay a termination fee of $19,725,000 to People's United in the following circumstances:

if People's United terminates the merger agreement because (1) Danvers' board of directors has failed to recommend the merger to Danvers stockholders or withdrawn, modified or changed in a manner adverse to People's United its recommendation of the merger (or has taken any action or made any statement in connection with the Danvers stockholder meeting or otherwise inconsistent with its recommendation), (2) Danvers has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations in any respect adverse to People's United, (3) Danvers' board of directors has failed to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of Danvers stockholders or (4) Danvers, its subsidiaries or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives (including investment bankers, attorneys or accountants) negotiates or authorizes the conduct of negotiations (and 10 days have elapsed without such negotiations being discontinued) with a third party regarding an acquisition proposal other than the merger;

if People's United terminates the merger agreement as a result of the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of the outstanding Danvers common stock for which Danvers' board of directors recommends that Danvers stockholders tender their shares or otherwise fails to recommend that Danvers stockholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer with 10 business days of the commencement of the offer; or if People's United terminates the merger agreement because Danvers is in breach of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement and the breach would prevent satisfaction by People's United of the relevant closing condition and the breach, if curable, is not cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach (and People's United is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement) and an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to Danvers' senior management or board of directors at any time prior to such termination;

The merger agreement provides that Danvers will be required to pay a termination fee of $19,725,000 to People's United in the following circumstances if Danvers or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates an acquisition proposal, within 12 months after such termination:

if either party terminates the merger agreement due to the failure of Danvers stockholders to adopt the merger agreement at the Danvers special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof and an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to Danvers' senior management or board of directors at any time prior to the Danvers special meeting; or if either party terminates the merger agreement because the merger was not completed by September 30, 2011 without a vote of the Danvers stockholders at the Danvers special meeting having occurred and an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to Danvers senior management or board of directors at any time prior to such termination.

Table of Contents

For purposes of determining whether the termination fee is payable as described in the immediately preceding paragraph, the term acquisition proposal has the meaning described above under Stockholders Meeting and Duty to Recommend, except that the references to 15% or more in the definition of acquisition proposal will be deemed to be references to 50% or more.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

Amendment

People's United and Danvers may amend the merger agreement by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors. However, after the approval of the merger agreement by the Danvers stockholders, no amendment will be made which by law requires further approval by Danvers stockholders without such further approval.

Extension; Waiver

At any time prior to the completion of the merger, People's United and Danvers, to the extent legally allowed, may:

extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party under the merger agreement;

waive any inaccuracies in the other party's representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement; and waive the other party's compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Fees and Expenses

All costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring such expense, except with respect to the termination fee described under Termination of the Merger Agreement Termination Fee and except that expenses incurred in connection with printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus and in connection with notices or other filings with any governmental entities under any laws shall be shared equally by People's United and Danvers.

Specific Performance

People's United and Danvers have agreed that they are each entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of the merger agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of the merger agreement, this being in addition to any other remedy to which the parties are entitled at law or in equity.

Restrictions on Ownership

The Change in Bank Control Act provides that no person, acting directly or indirectly or through or in concert with one or more other persons, may acquire control of a savings institution unless the Office of Thrift Supervision has been given 60 days prior written notice. The Home Owners' Loan Act provides that no company may acquire control of a savings institution without the prior approval of the Office of Thrift Supervision. Any company that acquires such control becomes a savings and loan holding company subject to registration, examination and regulation by the Office of Thrift Supervision. Pursuant to federal regulations, control of a savings institution is conclusively deemed to have been acquired by, among other things, the acquisition of more than 25% of any class of voting stock of the institution or the ability to control the election of a majority of the directors of an institution. Moreover, control is presumed to have been acquired, subject to rebuttal, upon the acquisition of more than 10% of any class of voting stock, or of more than 25% of any class of stock of a savings institution, where certain enumerated control factors are also present in the acquisition.

These restrictions do not apply to the acquisition of a savings institution's capital stock by one or more tax-qualified employee stock benefit plans, provided that the plans do not have beneficial ownership of more than 25% of any class of equity security of the savings institution.

People's United's certificate of incorporation provides that certain provisions of the certificate of incorporation may not be altered, amended, repealed or rescinded without the affirmative vote of either (1) not less than a majority of the authorized number of directors and, if one or more interested shareholders (as defined in People's United's certificate of incorporation) exist, by not less than a majority of the disinterested directors (as defined in People's United's certificate of incorporation); or (2) the holders of not less than two-thirds of the total votes eligible to be cast by the holders of all outstanding shares of People's United capital stock entitled to vote thereon and, if the alteration, amendment, repeal, or rescission is proposed by or on behalf of an interested shareholder or a director who is an affiliate or associate (each as defined in People's United's certificate of incorporation) of an interested shareholder, by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than a majority of the total votes eligible to be cast by holders of all outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon not beneficially owned by an interested shareholder or an affiliate or associate thereof. Amendment of the provision of People's United's certificate of incorporation relating to business combinations (as defined in People's United's certificate of incorporation) must also be approved by either (a) a majority of the disinterested directors; or (b) the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the total number of votes eligible to be cast by the holders of all outstanding shares of the voting stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class, together with the affirmative vote of not less 50% of the total number of votes eligible to be cast by the holders of all outstanding shares of the voting stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors not beneficially owned by any interested shareholder or affiliate or associate thereof, voting together as a single class.

at any meeting of the entire board of directors by the vote of two-thirds of the members of the entire board. People's United's certificate of incorporation also provides that any bylaw made by the board of directors may be altered, amended, rescinded or repealed in accordance with the terms of the bylaw by the holders of two-thirds of the capital stock entitled to vote on such matter at any annual meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose. Both People's United's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that provisions of the bylaws that contain supermajority voting requirements may not be altered, amended, repealed or rescinded without a vote of the board of directors or holders of capital stock entitled to vote on the matter that is not less than the supermajority specified in such provision.

Danvers. Danvers' certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that the board of directors may amend or repeal the bylaws by majority vote, and that the stockholders may amend or repeal the bylaws, at an annual or special meeting, with approval by 75% of the capital stock entitled to vote on such amendment or repeal. If the board of directors recommends the amendment or repeal, however, holders of only a majority of capital stock entitled to vote is necessary to approve the amendment or repeal.

Right to Call Special Meeting of Stockholders

Under the DGCL, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by (1) the board of directors or (2) any other person authorized to do so in the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws.

People's United. People's United's bylaws authorize the calling of a special meeting of stockholders only by the chief executive officer or the president or by resolution of at least three-fourths of the directors then in office.

Danvers. Danvers' certificate of incorporation authorizes only the board of directors to call a special meeting of stockholders by resolution of at least a majority of the directors then in office, subject to the rights, if any, of preferred stockholders.

Stockholder Nominations and Proposals

People's United. The certificate of incorporation requires a stockholder who intends to nominate a candidate for election to the board of directors at an annual stockholders' meeting to give not less than 120 days' notice in advance of the annual stockholders' meeting to the secretary. This advance notice provision requires a stockholder who wishes to nominate any person for election as a director to provide certain information to People's United concerning the nominee and the proposing stockholder. Similarly, People's United's bylaws generally require a stockholder who intends to raise new business at an annual meeting to give not less than 90 days' notice in advance of the anniversary of the prior year's annual meeting to the corporate secretary if such annual meeting is to be held within 30 days prior to, on the anniversary of, or after the anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting. In the event that the annual meeting is held at a time other than within the time periods set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, notice by the stockholder would be considered timely if delivered no later than the tenth day following the date on which notice of such meeting is given to the stockholder. This advance notice provision requires a stockholder who desires to raise new business to provide certain information to People's United concerning the nature of the new business, the stockholder and the stockholder's interest in the matter.

Danvers. Danvers' bylaws require advance notice for stockholder nominations and proposals. In order to be properly considered at a meeting, notice of stockholder nominations and proposals must be received by the corporation no less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary of the preceding annual meeting. In the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days before or delayed by more than 60 days after such anniversary, notice by the stockholder would be considered timely if delivered no later than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. If the board of directors is enlarged and Danvers does not make a public announcement naming all nominees at least 85 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding annual meeting, then a stockholder's notice will be timely with respect to new director nominees if it is delivered to Danvers no later than 10 days after the corporation makes such public announcement.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

Under the DGCL, a corporation is prohibited from engaging in any business combination with an interested stockholder or any entity if the transaction is caused by the interested stockholder for a period of three years from the date on which the stockholder first becomes an interested stockholder. There is an exception to the three-year waiting period requirement if:

prior to the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the board of directors approves the business combination or the transaction in which the stockholder became an interested stockholder;

upon the completion of the transaction in which the stockholder became an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owns at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation other than shares held by directors who are also officers and certain employee stock plans; or the business combination is approved by the board of directors and by the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting stock not owned by the interested stockholder at a meeting.

The DGCL defines the term "business combination" to include transactions such as mergers, consolidations or transfers of 10% or more of the assets of the corporation. The DGCL defines the term "interested stockholder" generally as any person who (together with affiliates and associates) owns (or in certain cases, within the past three years did own) 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation. A corporation can expressly elect not to be governed by the DGCL's business combination provisions in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws, but People's United and Danvers have not done so.

People's United. The certificate of incorporation of People's United requires the approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of People's United's outstanding shares of voting stock, together with the affirmative vote of at least 50% of the outstanding shares of voting stock not beneficially owned by an "interested shareholder" (as defined in People's United's certificate of incorporation) to approve certain "business combinations" (as defined in People's United's certificate of incorporation) and related transactions with an "interested shareholder" that would result in People's United or its subsidiaries being merged into or with another corporation or securities of People's United being issued in a transaction that would permit control of People's United to pass to another entity, or similar transactions having the same effect. Approval by the holders of at least two-thirds of People's United's shares is required in connection with any business combination except (1) in cases where the proposed transaction has been approved in advance by a majority of those members of the board of directors who are unaffiliated with the "interested shareholder" and were directors prior to the time when the interested shareholder became an "interested shareholder"; or (2) if the proposed transaction meets certain conditions set forth in People's United certificate of incorporation which are designed to afford the stockholders a fair price in consideration for their shares in which case, if a stockholder vote is required, approval of only a majority of the outstanding shares of voting stock would be sufficient. The term "interested shareholder" is generally defined in People's United's certificate of incorporation to include any person or entity (subject to certain exceptions) which owns beneficially or controls, directly or indirectly, 15% or more of the outstanding shares of People's United voting stock.

Danvers. Danvers' certificate of incorporation requires the affirmative vote by the holders of 75% of the voting stock entitled to vote in the election of directors, in order to approve the following types of transactions, unless a majority of disinterested directors approve the transaction and the fair market value test and other conditions described in the certificate of incorporation are met:

a merger or consolidation with any interested stockholder (defined to include, among other things, a person who owns at least 10% of the voting power of the then outstanding voting stock) or any other corporation which is, or would be after such merger, an affiliate of an interested stockholder; or

a sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition (in one transaction or a series of transactions) to or with any interested stockholder, or any affiliate of any interested stockholder, of any assets having an aggregate fair market value equaling or exceeding 25% or more of the combined assets of Danvers and its subsidiaries; or the issuance or transfer by Danvers or any subsidiary (in one transaction or a series of transactions) of any securities of Danvers or any subsidiary to any interested stockholder or any affiliate of any interested stockholder in exchange for cash, securities or other property (or a combination thereof) having an aggregate fair market value equaling or exceeding 25% of the combined fair market value of the outstanding common stock of Danvers and its subsidiaries, except for any issuance or transfer pursuant to an employee benefit plan of Danvers or any subsidiary; or the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of Danvers proposed by or on behalf of an interested stockholder or any affiliate of any interested stockholder; or a reclassification of securities (including any reverse stock split), or recapitalization of Danvers, or any merger or consolidation of Danvers with any of its subsidiaries or any other transaction (whether or not with or into or otherwise involving an interested stockholder) which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of any class of equity or convertible securities of Danvers or any subsidiary which is directly or indirectly owned by any interested stockholder or any affiliate of any interested stockholder.

An interested stockholder, as defined in Danvers' certificate of incorporation, is (1) the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 10% or more of the voting stock of Danvers, (2) an affiliate of Danvers at any time within the two-year period immediate prior to the date in question, or (3) an assignee of any shares owned by an interested stockholder within the two-year period immediately prior to the date in question.

Stockholder Approval of a Merger

Under the DGCL, a merger must be approved by the board of directors and by a majority (unless the certificate of incorporation requires a higher percentage) of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote. However, no vote of stockholders of a constituent corporation surviving a merger is required (unless the corporation provides otherwise in its certificate of incorporation) if (1) the merger agreement does not amend such constituent corporation's certificate of incorporation, (2) each share of stock of such constituent corporation outstanding immediately before the merger is to be an identical outstanding or treasury share of the surviving corporation after the merger and (3) the number of shares to be issued by the surviving corporation in the merger does not exceed 20% of the shares of such constituent corporation outstanding immediately before the merger.

People's United. People's United's certificate of incorporation provides for a greater vote only in the case of a business combination involving an interested shareholder (as defined in People's United's certificate of incorporation, as discussed above).

Danvers. Danvers' certificate of incorporation provides for a greater vote by the holders of 75% of the voting stock entitled to vote in the election of directors to approve the types of transactions discussed above, unless a majority of disinterested directors approve the transaction and the market test and other conditions described in the certificate of incorporation are met.

Limitations on Ownership

People's United. People's United's certificate of incorporation and bylaws do not provide for any limitations on ownership of People's United common stock.

Table of Contents

Danvers. Under Danvers' certificate of incorporation, no record owner of any Danvers common stock which is beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by a person who beneficially owns in excess of 10% of the then- outstanding shares of Danvers common stock, is entitled or permitted to any vote in respect of the shares held in excess of such 10% limit. The number of votes which may be cast by a record owner of Danvers common stock beneficially owning shares in excess of the 10% limit is a number equal to the total number of votes which a record owner of all Danvers common stock beneficially owned by such person would be entitled to cast, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares of such class or series which are both beneficially owned by such person and owned of record by such record owner and the denominator of which is the total number of shares of Danvers common stock beneficially owned by such person owning shares in excess of the 10% limit.

WHEREAS, Acquiror and the Company have agreed to enter into a business combination transaction pursuant to which the Company will merge with and into Acquiror, with Acquiror surviving the merger (the Merger) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, the respective boards of directors of each of Acquiror and the Company have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and stockholders to consummate the Merger and related transactions provided for herein; and

WHEREAS, for United States federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and this Agreement is intended to be, and is hereby, adopted as a plan of reorganization within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-2(g).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, representations, warranties and agreements contained herein, subject to the conditions set forth herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

1.1. The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), at the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.2), the Company shall merge with and into Acquiror, whereupon the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease. Acquiror shall be the surviving corporation (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Surviving Company) in the Merger, and shall continue its corporate existence under the Laws (as defined in Section 4.3(b)) of the State of Delaware.

1.2. Effective Time. On the Closing Date (as defined in Section 1.4), the Company and Acquiror shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing a certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger) with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, in such form as required by, and executed in accordance with, the relevant provisions of the DGCL and the Merger shall become effective upon such filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such later date or time specified in the Certificate of Merger (such time as the Merger becomes effective is referred to herein as the Effective Time).

1.3. Effects of the Merger. At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects set forth in the DGCL.

1.4. Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at 10:00 a.m., Eastern time on (i) the date that is the third Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VIII hereof, other than conditions which by their terms are to be satisfied at Closing or (ii) such other date or time as the parties may mutually agree (the date on which the Closing occurs, the Closing Date). The Closing shall be held at the offices of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, 425 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017, unless another place is agreed upon in writing by the parties. For purposes of this Agreement, a Business Day shall mean any day that is not a Saturday, a Sunday or other day on which banking organizations in Massachusetts are required or authorized by Law to be closed.

1.5. Certificate of Incorporation. The certificate of incorporation, as amended, of Acquiror, as in effect as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Company following the Merger until thereafter amended in accordance with the provisions thereof and of applicable Law.

1.6. Bylaws. The bylaws, as amended, of Acquiror, as in effect as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Company until thereafter amended in accordance with the provisions thereof, of the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Company and of applicable Law.

1.7. Directors of the Surviving Company. Except as otherwise contemplated by Section 1.9, the directors of Acquiror immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors of the Surviving Company as of the Effective Time, each to hold office in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Company, until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed (as the case may be) and qualified, or their earlier death, resignation or removal.

1.8. Officers of the Surviving Company. The officers of Acquiror immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Company as of the Effective Time, each to hold office in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Company, until their respective successors are duly appointed, or their earlier death, resignation or removal.

1.9. Company Director Designee. Upon completion of the Closing, Acquiror shall cause the current Chief Executive Officer of the Company (or, if such person is not serving in such office at such time, such other director of the Company designated by the Company and reasonably acceptable to Acquiror) to be appointed to the board of directors of the Surviving Company to the class of directors with a term expiring in 2013, effective as of the Effective Time.

ARTICLE II

CONSIDERATION

2.1. Effect on Company Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the Company or the holder of any shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Common Stock):

(a) All shares of Company Common Stock that are (i) owned directly by the Company as treasury stock or (ii) owned directly by Acquiror (other than, in the case of clause (ii), shares in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like for the benefit of customers or shares held in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted) shall be cancelled and retired and no shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Acquiror (Acquiror Common Stock), cash or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor. All shares of Company Common Stock that are owned by any wholly owned Subsidiary (as defined in Section 4.1(b)) of the Company or by any wholly owned Subsidiary of Acquiror, other than shares in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like for the benefit of customers or shares held in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted, shall remain outstanding as shares of the Surviving Company, and no shares of Acquiror Common Stock, cash or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(b) Subject to Sections 2.1(e), 2.1(f), 2.2, 2.3 and 3.3(f), each share of Company Common Stock, except for shares of Company Common Stock owned by the Company or Acquiror (other than shares in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like for the benefit of customers or shares held in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted), shall be converted, at the election of the holder thereof, in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3.1, into the right to receive the following, without interest:

(i) for each share of Company Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive cash has been effectively made and not revoked or deemed revoked pursuant to Article III (a Cash Election), the right to receive in cash from Acquiror an amount (the Cash Consideration) equal to the Per Share Amount (collectively, the Cash Election Shares);

(ii) for each share of Company Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive Acquiror Common Stock has been effectively made and not revoked or deemed revoked pursuant to Article III (a Stock Election), the right to receive from Acquiror the number of shares of Acquiror Common Stock (the Stock Consideration) as is equal to the Exchange Ratio (collectively, the Stock Election Shares); and

(iii) for each share of Company Common Stock other than shares as to which a Cash Election or a Stock Election has been effectively made and not revoked or deemed revoked pursuant to Article III (collectively, the Non-Election Shares), the right to receive from Acquiror such Stock Consideration and/or Cash Consideration as is determined in accordance with Section 2.3.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement:

(i) Exchange Ratio shall mean 1.624.

(ii) Per Share Amount shall mean $23.00.

(iii) The Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration are sometimes referred to herein collectively as the Merger Consideration

(d) All of the shares of Company Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Article II shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time, and each certificate previously representing any such shares of Company Common Stock (each a Certificate and collectively, Certificates) shall thereafter represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration and/or cash in lieu of fractional shares, into which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate have been converted pursuant to this Section 2.1 and Section 3.3(f), as well as any dividends to which holders of Company Common Stock become entitled in accordance with Section 3.3(c).

(e) If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Acquiror Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Exchange Ratio.

(f) If either the tax opinion referred to in Section 8.2(c) or the tax opinion referred to in Section 8.3(c) cannot be rendered (as reasonably determined, in each case, by the counsel charged with giving such opinion) as a result of the Merger potentially failing to satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Code, then Acquiror shall reduce the Cash Conversion Number (as defined in Section 2.3(a)) to the minimum extent necessary to enable the relevant tax opinions to be rendered.

2.2. Dissenting Shares.

(a) Shares of Company Common Stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which are held by holders who have not voted in favor of or consented to the Merger and who are entitled to demand and have properly demanded their rights to be paid the fair value of such shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (the Dissenting Shares) shall not be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, and the holders thereof shall be entitled to only such rights as are granted by Section 262 of the DGCL. If any such stockholder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn, waived or lost such right prior to the Election Deadline (as defined in Section 3.1), each of such holder's shares of Company Common Stock shall thereupon be deemed to be Non-Election Shares for all purposes of this Agreement, unless such stockholder shall thereafter otherwise make a timely election under this Agreement. If any holder of Dissenting Shares shall have so failed to perfect or effectively withdrawn or lost such stockholders' right to dissent from the Merger after the Election Deadline, each of such holder's shares of Company Common Stock shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into and to have become, as of the Effective Time, the right to receive the consideration received with respect to Non-Election Shares.

Table of Contents

(b) The Company shall give Acquiror (i) prompt notice of any notice received by the Company of intent to demand the fair value of any shares of Company Common Stock, withdrawals of such notices and any other instruments or notices served pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL and (ii) the opportunity to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to the exercise of appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Acquiror, (A) make any payment or other commitment with respect to any such exercise of appraisal rights, (B) offer to settle or settle any such rights or (C) waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for appraisal or timely take any other action to perfect appraisal rights in accordance with the DGCL.

2.3. Proration.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, the total number of shares of Company Common Stock (including Company Restricted Shares) to be converted into Cash Consideration pursuant to Section 2.1 (which for this purpose shall be deemed to include the Dissenting Shares determined as of the Effective Time) (the Cash Conversion Number) shall be 9,325,684. All other shares of Company Common Stock shall be converted into Stock Consideration (other than shares of Company Common Stock to be cancelled as provided in Section 2.1(a)).

(b) As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, Acquiror shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Exchange Agent (as defined herein) to effect the allocation among holders of Company Common Stock of rights to receive the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration as follows:

(i) If the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock with respect to which Cash Elections shall have been made (which, for this purpose, shall be deemed to include the Dissenting Shares determined as of the Effective Time) (the Cash Election Number) exceeds the Cash Conversion Number, then all Stock Election Shares and all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration, and Cash Election Shares of each holder thereof will be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration in respect of that number of Cash Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Cash Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount by which (1) the Cash Conversion Number exceeds (2) the number of Dissenting Shares determined as of the Effective Time, and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Cash Election Shares (with the Exchange Agent to determine, consistent with Section 2.3(a), whether fractions of Cash Election Shares shall be rounded up or down), with the remaining number of such holder's Cash Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration; and

(ii) If the Cash Election Number is less than the Cash Conversion Number (the amount by which the Cash Conversion Number exceeds the Cash Election Number being referred to herein as the Shortfall Number), then all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and the Non-Election Shares and Stock Election Shares shall be treated in the following manner:

(A) If the Shortfall Number is less than or equal to the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Stock Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration, and the Non-Election Shares of each holder thereof shall convert into the right to receive the Cash Consideration in respect of that number of Non-Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Non-Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall Number and the denominator of which is the total number of Non-Election Shares (with the Exchange Agent to determine, consistent with Section 2.1(a), whether fractions of Non-Election Shares shall be rounded up or down), with the remaining number of such holder's Non-Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration; or

(B) If the Shortfall Number exceeds the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration, and the Stock Election Shares of each holder thereof shall convert into the right to receive the Cash Consideration in respect of that number of Stock Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount by which (1) the Shortfall Number exceeds (2) the total number of Non-Election Shares, and the denominator of which is the total number of Stock Election Shares (with the Exchange Agent to determine, consistent with Section 2.1(a), whether fractions of Stock Election Shares shall be rounded up or down), with the remaining number of such holder's Stock Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration.

2.4. No Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, neither certificates nor scrip for fractional shares of Acquiror Common Stock shall be issued in the Merger. Each holder of Company Common Stock who otherwise would have been entitled to a fraction of a share of Acquiror Common Stock shall receive in lieu thereof cash (without interest) in an amount determined by multiplying the fractional share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled (after taking into account all shares of Company Common Stock owned by such holder at the Effective Time to be converted into Acquiror Common Stock) by the closing price of Acquiror Common Stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (NASDAQ) as reported on the NASDAQ website (or such other source as may be mutually agreed to by Acquiror and the Company), on the last trading day immediately preceding the Closing Date. No such holder shall be entitled to dividends, voting rights or any other rights in respect of any fractional share.

2.5. Acquiror Common Stock; Acquiror Preferred Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of Acquiror Common Stock and each share of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Acquiror (the Acquiror Preferred Stock), if any, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain an issued and outstanding share of Acquiror Common Stock or Acquiror Preferred Stock, as the case may be, and shall not be affected by the Merger.

2.6. Treatment of Options and Other Stock Based Awards. (a) At the Effective Time, each option to purchase shares of Company Common Stock (a Company Option) issued pursuant to any Company Stock Incentive Plan (as defined in Section 2.6(c)), that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether or not vested and exercisable, shall become fully vested and exercisable immediately prior to, and shall be cancelled at, the Effective Time, and the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive from Acquiror an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of (x) the Per Share Amount over (y) the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Option, with the aggregate amount payable rounded up to the nearest cent, and (ii) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Option as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, less any required withholding taxes (the Option Consideration).

(b) At the Effective Time, all unvested shares of Company Common Stock granted by the Company under any Company Stock Incentive Plan in the form of restricted stock awards (Company Restricted Stock) that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, as of the Effective Time, become a vested right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 2.1(c), as if the holder of any such Company Restricted Stock, were, immediately prior to the Effective Time, a holder of Company Common Stock.

(c) The 2008 Stock Option and Incentive Plan and the Employee Stock Ownership Plan (collectively, the Company Stock Incentive Plans) and any other plan, program or arrangement providing for the issuance or grant of any other interest in respect of the capital stock of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof shall terminate as of the Effective Time, and the Company shall ensure that following the Effective Time no holder of any equity-based right shall have any right to acquire equity securities of the Company or the Surviving Company other than under the Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan.

2.7. Reservation of Right to Revise Structure. Acquiror may at any time change the method of effecting the business combination contemplated by this Agreement if and to the extent that it deems such a change to be desirable (including by providing for the merger of the Company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Acquiror); provided, however, that no such change shall (A) alter or change the amount or kind of the consideration to be issued to holders of Company Common Stock as Merger Consideration, (B) materially impede or delay consummation of the Merger or (C) adversely affect the federal income tax treatment of holders of Company Common Stock in connection with the Merger. In the event Acquiror elects to make such a change, the parties agree to execute appropriate documents to reflect the change.

2.8. Withholding Rights. Each of the Exchange Agent (as defined in Section 3.1), Acquiror or any of Acquiror's Subsidiaries shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any payment otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to such payment under all applicable Tax (as defined in Section 4.10(n)) Laws. To the extent that amounts are so deducted or withheld, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the recipient of the payment in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

2.9. Certain Adjustments. The Exchange Ratio shall be subject to appropriate adjustments from time to time after the date of this Agreement in the event that, subsequent to the date of this Agreement but prior to the Effective Time, the outstanding Acquiror Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities through any reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other like changes in Acquiror's capitalization.

2.10. Bank Merger. (a) Simultaneously with the Merger, Danversbank shall be merged with and into People's United Bank (the Bank Merger). People's United Bank shall be the surviving entity in the Bank Merger and shall continue its corporate existence.

(b) As soon as practicable after the execution of this Agreement and prior to the filing of applications for regulatory approval, Acquiror shall cause People's United Bank, and the Company shall cause Danversbank, to enter into an Agreement of Merger providing for the Bank Merger (the Bank Merger Agreement). The Bank Merger Agreement shall be in a form to be specified by Acquiror and reasonably approved by the Company (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

ARTICLE III

EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES FOR MERGER CONSIDERATION

3.1. Election Procedures. Each holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock (Holder) shall have the right, subject to the limitations set forth in this Article III, to submit an election in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) Each Holder may specify in a request made in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.2 (herein called an Election) (i) the number of shares of Company Common Stock owned by such Holder with respect to which such Holder desires to make a Stock Election and (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock owned by such Holder with respect to which such Holder desires to make a Cash Election.

(b) Acquiror shall prepare a form reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Form of Election) which shall be mailed to record holders of Company Common Stock so as to permit those holders to exercise their right to make an Election prior to the Election Deadline.

(c) Acquiror shall cause the Form of Election to be sent to holders of record as promptly as reasonably practicable following the time of mailing of a proxy statement in definitive form relating to the meeting of the stockholders of the Company to be held to vote on the adoption of this Agreement (the Proxy Statement/Prospectus) to the holders of record of Company Common Stock for purposes of the Company Stockholders Meeting, or on such other date as the Acquiror and Company shall mutually agree, and thereafter from time to time as the Company may reasonably request until three days prior to the Election Deadline.

(d) Any Election shall have been made properly only if the Person authorized to receive Elections and to act as exchange agent under this Agreement, which Person shall be selected by Acquiror and reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Exchange Agent), pursuant to an agreement (the Exchange Agent Agreement) entered into prior to the mailing of the Form of Election to Company shareholders, shall have received, by the Election Deadline, a Form of Election properly completed and signed and accompanied by Certificates to which such Form of Election relates or by an appropriate customary guarantee of delivery of such Certificates, as set forth in such Form of Election, from a member of any registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States; provided that such Certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent by the time required in such guarantee of delivery. Failure to deliver shares of Company Common Stock covered by such a guarantee of delivery within the time set forth on such guarantee shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made Election, unless otherwise determined by Acquiror, in its sole discretion. For shares of Company Common Stock held in book entry form, Acquiror shall establish procedures for delivery of such shares, which procedures shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company. In the event that a shareholder of the Company has provided a notice of intent to demand fair value (a Notice of Dissenter's Intent) pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL, any Election submitted by such shareholder prior to submission of such Notice of Dissenter's Intent shall be deemed withdrawn, and any Election submitted by such shareholder after submission of such Notice of Dissenter's Intent (unless such Notice of Dissenter's Intent shall have theretofore been withdrawn) shall be deemed invalid.

(e) As used herein, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, Election Deadline means 5:00 p.m. New York City time on the later of (1) the date of the meeting of the Company shareholders pursuant to Section 7.3 and (2) the date that Acquiror and the Company shall agree is as near as practicable to five (5) business days prior to the expected Closing Date. Acquiror shall issue a press release informing the Company's shareholders of the Election Deadline as promptly as practicable following the determination thereof.

(f) Any Company shareholder may, at any time prior to the Election Deadline, change or revoke his or her Election by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised Form of Election. Subject to the terms of the Exchange Agent Agreement, if Acquiror shall determine in its reasonable discretion that any Election is not properly made with respect to any shares of Company Common Stock (neither Acquiror nor the Company nor the Exchange Agent being under any duty to notify any shareholder of any such defect), such Election shall be deemed to be not in effect, and the shares of Company Common Stock covered by such Election shall, for purposes hereof, be deemed to be Non-Election Shares, unless a proper Election is thereafter timely made.

(g) Any Company shareholder may, at any time prior to the Election Deadline, revoke his or her Election by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline or by withdrawal prior to the Election Deadline of his or her Certificates, or of the guarantee of delivery of such Certificates, previously deposited with the Exchange Agent. All Elections shall be automatically deemed revoked, and all Certificates shall be promptly returned to the Company's shareholders, upon receipt by the Exchange Agent of written notification from Acquiror or the Company that this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with Article IX or that this Agreement has been amended by the parties to so provide in connection with a new election period.

(h) Subject to the terms of the Exchange Agent Agreement, Acquiror, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall have the right to make all determinations, not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, governing (i) the validity of the Forms of Election and compliance by any Company shareholder with the Election procedures set forth herein, (ii) the manner and extent to which Elections are to be taken into account in making the determinations prescribed by Section 2.3, (iii) the issuance and delivery of shares of Acquiror Common Stock into which shares of Company Common Stock are converted in the Merger and (iv) the method of payment of cash for shares of Company Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiror Common Stock.

3.2. Deposit of Merger Consideration. At or prior to the Effective Time, Acquiror shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent, (i) shares of Acquiror Common Stock sufficient to deliver, and Acquiror shall instruct the Exchange Agent to timely deliver, the aggregate Stock Consideration, and (ii) immediately available funds equal to the aggregate Cash Consideration (together with, to the extent then determinable, any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 2.3(f)) (collectively, the Exchange Fund) and Acquiror shall instruct the Exchange Agent to timely pay the Cash Consideration, and such cash in lieu of fractional shares, in accordance with this Agreement.

3.3. Delivery of Merger Consideration.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of Certificate(s) which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Common Stock whose shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.1 and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor who did not properly complete and submit an Election Form, (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to Certificate(s) shall pass, only upon delivery of Certificate(s) (or affidavits of loss in lieu of such Certificate(s))) (the Letter of Transmittal) to the Exchange Agent and shall be substantially in such form and have such other provisions as shall be prescribed by the Exchange Agent Agreement and (ii) instructions for use in surrendering Certificate(s) in exchange for the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor in accordance with Section 3.3(f) upon surrender of such Certificate and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.3(c).

(b) Upon surrender to the Exchange Agent of its Certificate(s), accompanied by a properly completed Form of Election or a properly completed Letter of Transmittal, a holder of Company Common Stock will be entitled to receive, promptly after the Effective Time, the Merger Consideration (elected or deemed elected by it, subject to, and in accordance with Sections 2.1 and 2.3) and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor in respect of the shares of Company Common Stock represented by its Certificate(s). Until so surrendered, each such Certificate shall represent after the Effective Time, for all purposes, only the right to receive, without interest, the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor upon surrender of such Certificate in accordance with, and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to, this Article III.

(c) No dividends or other distributions with respect to Acquiror Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to shares of Acquiror Common Stock that such holder would be entitled to receive upon surrender of such Certificate and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 2.4 until such holder shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Article III. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Article III, such holder thereof entitled to receive shares of Acquiror Common Stock shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, with a record date after the Effective Time and which theretofore had become payable with respect to whole shares of Acquiror Common Stock issuable to such holder in respect of such Certificate.

(d) If the payment of the Merger Consideration is to be made to a person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor, it shall be a condition of payment that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the person requesting such payment shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any applicable stock transfer or other Taxes or shall establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Taxes have been paid or are not payable.

(e) At and after the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Company of the shares of Company Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration as provided in this Article III.

(f) Any portion of the property deposited with the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 3.2 that remains unclaimed by the stockholders of the Company for nine (9) months after the Effective Time shall be paid, at the request of Acquiror, to or as directed by Acquiror. Any stockholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this Article III shall thereafter look only to Acquiror for payment of the Merger Consideration and unpaid dividends and distributions on the Acquiror Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of Company Common Stock held by such stockholder at the Effective Time as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, none of Acquiror, the Company, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of Company Common Stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

(g) In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Acquiror, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Acquiror or one of its Subsidiaries may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Prior to the execution of this Agreement, the Company has delivered to Acquiror a letter listing, among other things, items the disclosure of which is necessary or appropriate either in response to an express disclosure requirement contained in a provision hereof or as an exception to one or more representations and warranties contained in this Article IV or to one of the negative covenants contained in Article VI (the Company Disclosure Letter), it being understood and agreed that each item in a particular section of the Company Disclosure Letter applies only to such section, any section or subsection specifically referenced or cross-referenced and to any other section to which its relevance is reasonably apparent. The Company hereby represents and warrants to Acquiror that, other than with respect to Section 4.8, except as disclosed or specifically incorporated by reference in the Company Reports (as defined in Section 4.5(a)) filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement and on or after January 1, 2010 (excluding any disclosures set forth in any risk factor section thereof or any other disclosures included in such filings that are cautionary, predictive or forward looking in nature):

4.1. Corporate Organization. (a) The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware. The Company is duly registered as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System promulgated thereunder. The Company has all requisite corporate power and authority to own, lease or operate all of its properties, rights and assets and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted, and is duly licensed or qualified to do business in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted by it or the character or location of the properties, rights and assets owned, leased or operated by it makes such licensing or qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. As used in this Agreement, the term Material Adverse Effect means, with respect to the Company, Acquiror or the Surviving Company, as the case may be, any fact, circumstance, event, change, effect, development or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate with all other facts, circumstances, events, changes, effects, developments or occurrences, (x) has had or would be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of such party and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or (y) that prevents or materially delays or materially impairs, or that would reasonably be expected to

- 7.1. Regulatory Matters. (a) Acquiror and the Company shall cooperate in preparing and promptly cause to be filed with the SEC the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Form S-4. Each of Acquiror and the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to have the Form S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing and to keep the Form S-4 effective as long as is necessary to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, and the Company shall mail or deliver the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to its stockholders as promptly as practicable after the Form S-4 is declared effective. Acquiror and the Company shall, as promptly as practicable after receipt thereof, provide the other party with copies of any written comments and advise the other party of any oral comments with respect to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4 received from the SEC. Each party shall cooperate and provide the other party with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Form S-4 prior to filing such with the SEC.

(b) Subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, Acquiror and the Company agree to cooperate with each other and use reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger and the Bank Merger) and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and Governmental Entities.

(c) Acquiror and the Company shall, upon request, furnish each other with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the preparation of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the Form S-4 or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Acquiror, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Acquiror and the Company shall make any necessary filings with respect to the Merger under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder.

(d) Acquiror and the Company shall promptly advise each other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Entity whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement which causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval or Bank Merger Approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed or conditioned.

7.2. Access to Information. (a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, the Company shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel and other representatives of Acquiror access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, commitments and records (including Tax Returns and work papers of independent auditors), and to its officers, employees, accountants, counsel and other representatives, in each case in a manner not unreasonably disruptive to the operation of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries, and, during such period, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make available to Acquiror (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of the federal securities laws or federal or state banking, lending, financing or leasing or consumer finance or protection Laws (other than reports or documents which the Company is not permitted to disclose under applicable Law) and (ii) all other information concerning its business, properties and personnel as Acquiror may reasonably request. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the institution in possession or control of such information or contravene any Law applicable to the institution in possession or control of such information. The parties hereto will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) Acquiror shall hold all information furnished by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives pursuant to Section 7.2(a) in confidence to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, dated January 10, 2011, between Acquiror and the Company (the Confidentiality Agreement).

(c) No investigation by any of the parties or their respective representatives shall constitute a waiver of or otherwise affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the others set forth herein.

7.3. Stockholder Approval. (a) The Company shall duly take all lawful action to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable following the date upon which the Form S-4 becomes effective (the Company Stockholders Meeting) for the purpose of obtaining the Required Company Vote and, subject to Section 7.3(b), shall take all lawful action to solicit the adoption of this Agreement by such stockholders. The board of directors of the Company shall recommend adoption of this Agreement by the stockholders of the Company (the Company Recommendation) in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and shall not directly or indirectly (x) withdraw, modify or qualify in any manner adverse to Acquiror such recommendation or (y) take any other action or make any other public statement in connection with the Company Stockholders Meeting, or in reference to an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in Section 7.4(b)), that is inconsistent with such recommendation (any action or public statement described in clause (x) or (y) being referred to as a Change in Company Recommendation), except as and to the extent expressly permitted by Section 7.3(b). Notwithstanding any Change in Company Recommendation, this Agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of the Company at the Company Stockholders Meeting for the purpose of voting on the adoption of this Agreement and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve the Company of such obligation; provided, however, that if the board of directors of the Company shall have effected a Change in Company Recommendation, then the board of directors of the Company may submit this Agreement to the Company's stockholders without recommendation (although the resolutions adopting this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the board of directors of the Company may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to the Company's stockholders in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Form S-4 or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by applicable Law.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, the Company and its board of directors shall be permitted to effect a Change in Company Recommendation if and only to the extent that:

(i) it has complied in all material respects with Section 7.4,

(ii) its board of directors, based on the advice of its outside counsel, determines in good faith that failure to take such action would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, and

(iii) if the Company's board of directors intends to effect a Change in Company Recommendation following and as a result of an Acquisition Proposal, (A) such Acquisition Proposal was unsolicited and the Company's board of directors has concluded in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined in Section 7.4(c)) after giving effect to all of the adjustments which may be offered by Acquiror pursuant to clause (C) below, (B) the Company has notified Acquiror in writing, at least five (5) Business Days in advance, of its intention to effect a Change in Company Recommendation (the Notice Period), specifying the material terms and conditions of any such Superior Proposal (including the identity of the party making such Superior Proposal) and furnishing to Acquiror a copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreements with the party making such Superior Proposal and all other material documents and (C) during the Notice Period, and in any event, prior to effecting such a Change in Company Recommendation, the Company has negotiated, and has caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate, with Acquiror in good faith (to the extent Acquiror desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal.

In the event of any material revisions to the Superior Proposal, the Company shall be required to deliver a new written notice to Acquiror and to again comply with the requirements of this Section 7.3(b) with respect to such new written notice, except that the Notice Period shall be reduced to three (3) Business Days.

7.4. Acquisition Proposals. (a) From the date hereof until the Effective Time or, if earlier, the date on which this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Article IX, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and its Subsidiaries' respective officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates and representatives (including any investment bankers, attorneys or accountants retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate (including by way of providing information) the submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers (whether firm or hypothetical) or any other efforts or attempts that constitute or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) have any discussions with or provide any confidential information or data to any person relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal (other than discussions or requests for and receipt of information to ascertain the terms of any such Acquisition Proposal), (iii) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal, (iv) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding, merger agreement, asset or share purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal, (v) enter into any agreement or agreement in principle requiring, directly or indirectly, the Company to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby or breach its obligations hereunder, or (vi) publicly propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.4(a), in the event that the Company receives an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal after the date of this Agreement and the Company's board of directors concludes in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, the Company may, and may permit its Subsidiaries and its and their officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates and representatives to, prior to (but not after) the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, take any action described in clause (ii) above to the extent that its board of directors concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel) that failure to take such actions would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, however, that prior to providing (or causing to be provided) any confidential information or data permitted to be provided pursuant to this sentence, the Company shall have entered into a written confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to the Company than the Confidentiality Agreement; and provided, further, that the Company shall contemporaneously provide Acquiror with any non-public information concerning the Company or its Subsidiaries provided to such person which was not previously provided to Acquiror (or its representatives).

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Proposal means any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person (other than Acquiror or any of its Subsidiaries) relating to any direct or indirect (i) acquisition, purchase or sale of a business, deposits or assets that constitute 15% or more of the consolidated business, revenues, net income, assets (including stock of the Company's Subsidiaries) or deposits of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (ii) merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or (iii) purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer (including a self-tender offer) for, securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that, if consummated, would result in any person (or the stockholders of such person) beneficially owning securities representing 15% or more of the equity or total voting power of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or the surviving parent entity in such transaction.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal means a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal to acquire, directly or indirectly, a majority of the total voting power of the Company (or a majority of the total voting power of the resulting or surviving entity of such transaction or the ultimate parent of such resulting or surviving entity), which the board of directors of the Company concludes in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and receiving the advice of its outside counsel, taking into account timing and all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal (including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation), (i) is more favorable to the stockholders of the Company from a financial point of view than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms proposed.

(d) The Company will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of this Agreement with any persons other than Acquiror with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, will use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal, including by requiring the other parties thereto to promptly return or destroy any confidential information previously furnished by or on behalf of the Company thereunder, and will not waive or amend any provision of any such agreement. The Company will promptly (and in all events within 24 hours) following receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any inquiry which could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal advise Acquiror of the material terms thereof (including the identity of the person making such Acquisition Proposal), and will keep Acquiror apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations and the status and terms thereof (including providing Acquiror with a copy of all material documentation and correspondence relating thereto) on a reasonably current basis. Without limiting the foregoing, the Company shall notify Acquiror orally and in writing within 24 hours after it enters into discussions or negotiations with another person regarding an Acquisition Proposal, executes and delivers a confidentiality agreement with another person in connection with an Acquisition Proposal, or provides non-public information or data to another person in connection with an Acquisition Proposal.

(e) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent the Company or its board of directors from complying with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2(a)(2)-(3) promulgated under the Exchange Act with respect to an Acquisition Proposal; provided, that such Rules will in no way eliminate or modify the effect that any action pursuant to such Rules would otherwise have under this Agreement; and provided, further, that any such disclosure (other than a stop, look and listen or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act) shall be deemed to be a Change in Company Recommendation unless the board of directors of the Company expressly and concurrently reaffirms the Company Recommendation.

7.5. Reasonable Best Efforts. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of Acquiror and the Company shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts (i) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements which may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in Article VIII hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other party to obtain) any consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and any other third party which is required to be obtained by the Company or Acquiror or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In furtherance of the foregoing, to the extent that any consents of, or notices to, third parties are required under any contract, lease or agreement to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain such consents or provide such notice prior to the Effective Time.

(b) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of Acquiror and the Company agrees to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, as soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby, including using reasonable best efforts to (i) lift or rescind any injunction or restraining order or other order adversely affecting the ability of the parties to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and (ii) defend any litigation seeking to enjoin, prevent or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or seeking material damages.

7.6. Employees: Employee Benefit Plans.

(a) On or as soon as practicable following the Effective Time, the Company Employees who are employees of the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company at the Effective Time (the Covered Employees) shall become eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans sponsored or maintained by Acquiror or People's United Bank, as applicable (excluding equity-based plans and defined benefit pension plans) (the Acquiror Plans) in which similarly situated employees of Acquiror or People's United Bank, as applicable, participate, to the same extent as similarly situated employees of Acquiror or People's United Bank, as applicable, so participate (it being understood that inclusion of Company Employees in such employee benefit plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans). Until such time, such Company Employees shall continue to participate in the Plans (excluding equity-based Plans and any Company Common Stock fund feature of the Company's 401(k) Plan) in which each such Company Employee participated before the Effective Time on the same terms as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time); provided, however, that (i) nothing contained herein shall require Acquiror or any of its Subsidiaries to make any grants to any Company Employee under any equity-based plans, it being understood that any such grants are completely discretionary and (ii) nothing contained herein shall require a Company Employee's participation in Acquiror's or any of its Subsidiaries' defined benefit pension plan.

(b) With respect to each Acquiror Plan, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting, entitlement to benefits and vacation entitlement (but not for accrual of benefits under any Acquiror Plan, including any post-retirement welfare benefit plan of Acquiror), service by a Covered Employee with the Company or any Subsidiary shall be recognized to the same extent such service was recognized immediately prior to the Effective Time under a comparable Plan in which such Covered Employee was a participant immediately before the Effective Time, or if there is no such comparable employee benefit plan, to the same extent such service was recognized under the Company 401(k) Plan immediately prior to the Effective Time to the extent applicable; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. For purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any pre-existing condition limitations with respect to any Acquiror Plan, service by a Covered Employee with the Company or any Subsidiary shall be treated as service with the Acquiror or People's United Bank, as applicable, to the same extent as would apply had such service been rendered to Acquiror or People's United Bank; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in duplication of benefits. Each Acquiror Plan shall waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under the applicable Plan. The Company Employees shall be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding Company or any Subsidiary benefit plan during the same period for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Acquiror Plan during the applicable plan year.

(c) The Company may grant retention bonuses to such Company Employees and in such amounts, as may be determined by the Company in its discretion (up to an aggregate maximum amount), and the Company or its Subsidiary may pay such retention bonuses, in each such case as set forth in Section 7.6(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter.

(d) During the one-year period commencing as of the Effective Date, Acquiror and its Subsidiaries shall honor, with respect to Company Employees employed as of the Effective Time, the Company Change in Control Severance Pay Plan (the Company Severance Pay Plan) as in effect as of the date of this Agreement and disclosed in Section 4.11(a) of the Company Disclosure Letter in connection with the termination of employment of any Company Employee (excluding any employee who is party to an employment agreement, change-in-control agreement or any other agreement which provides for severance payments), in such amounts, at such times and upon such conditions as set forth in the Company Severance Pay Plan.

(e) The Company and its Subsidiaries shall continue to accrue annual cash bonuses for Company Employees in the ordinary course consistent with both past practices and subject to the provisions set forth in Section 7.6(e) of the Company Disclosure Letter as they pertain to the 2011 Annual Bonus Program (the 2011 Annual Bonuses). Not less than three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall determine, in its reasonable discretion, consistent with its ordinary course of business past practices, those Company Employees who shall receive 2011 Annual Bonuses for the period January 1, 2011 through the Closing Date and, for each such employee, the amount of the 2011 Annual Bonus for such period; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of all 2011 Annual Bonuses shall not exceed the amount accrued through the Closing Date on the financial statements of the Company in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence, subject to the aggregate maximum amount set forth in Section 7.6(e) of the Company Disclosure Letter. At the Closing, or as soon as practicable thereafter but in any event not later than the Effective Time, the Company or its Subsidiaries shall pay the 2011 Annual Bonus amounts to such Company Employees and in the amounts as determined by the Company in accordance with and subject to the foregoing provisions (inclusive of the applicable provisions of Section 7.6(e) of the Company Disclosure Letter).

(f) Acquiror shall honor, in accordance with their terms, all compensation, employment, severance, change-in-control, and deferred compensation obligations of the Company and its Subsidiaries as set forth on Section 4.14(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter. Without limiting the scope of the immediately preceding sentence, Acquiror agrees that those Company Employees with employment agreements to which the Company is a party that are set forth on Section 7.6(f) of the Company Disclosure Letter shall terminate employment immediately following the Effective Time and be entitled to receive such severance payments as are determined in accordance with a settlement agreement the terms of which are set forth on Section 7.6(f) of the Company Disclosure Letter.

(g) Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time, the Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan shall be terminated immediately prior to and effective as of the Effective Time (all shares held by the Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan shall be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration), a portion of the unallocated shares held by the Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan will be sold and the proceeds of such sale applied to the repayment of all outstanding Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan indebtedness, and the balance of the unallocated shares and any other assets remaining unallocated shall be allocated and distributed to participants in the Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan (subject to the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service), as provided for in the Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan, unless otherwise required by applicable law (it being understood that such Plan shall not be terminated effective at the Effective Time if such Plan is not compliant with applicable Laws). Prior to the Effective Time, Company, and following the Effective Time, Acquiror shall use their respective commercially reasonable best efforts in good faith to obtain the favorable determination letter referenced above (including, but not limited to, making such changes to the Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan and the proposed allocations as may be requested by the Internal Revenue Service as a condition to its issuance of a favorable determination letter). Company and following the Effective Time, Acquiror, will adopt such amendments to the Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan as may be reasonably required by the Internal Revenue Service as a condition to granting such favorable determination letter on termination.

(h) The Company and Acquiror acknowledge and agree that all provisions contained herein with respect to employees, officers, directors, consultants and independent contractors are included for the sole benefit of the Company and Acquiror and shall not create any right (i) in any other person, including Plans or any beneficiary thereof or (ii) to continued employment with Acquiror or any of its affiliates.

7.7. Indemnification: Directors and Officers Insurance. (a) From and after the Effective Time, in the event of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, in which any person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (the Indemnified Parties) is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors or was prior to the Effective Time serving at the request of any such party as a director, officer, employee, trustee or partner of another corporation, partnership, trust, joint venture, employee benefit plan or other entity (a list of the directors and officers of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries who are serving, as of the date of this Agreement, in any such capacity with another corporation, partnership, trust or other enterprise, and a description of the nature of such service, is set forth in Section 7.7(a) of the Company Disclosure Letter) or (ii) this Agreement, or any of the transactions contemplated hereby and all actions taken by an Indemnified Party in connection herewith, in each case in his or her capacity as a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, whether in any case asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time, Acquiror shall cause the Surviving Company to indemnify and hold harmless, as and to the fullest extent provided in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Company as in effect on the date of this Agreement and permitted by applicable Law, each such Indemnified Party against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses in advance of the final disposition of any claim, suit, proceeding or investigation to each Indemnified Party upon receipt of an undertaking, from such Indemnified Party to repay such advanced expenses if it is determined by a final and nonappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that such Indemnified Party was not entitled to indemnification hereunder), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any such actual or threatened claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 7.7, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify Acquiror in writing thereof, provided, that the failure to so notify shall not affect the obligations of Acquiror under this Section 7.7 except (and only) to the extent such failure to notify materially prejudices Acquiror.

(b) For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, Acquiror shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the persons serving as officers and directors of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time to be covered by the directors' and officers' liability insurance policy or policies maintained by Acquiror or one of its Subsidiaries (provided, that Acquiror's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy or policies provide at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are, in the aggregate, not materially less advantageous to such directors and officers of the Company than the terms and conditions of the existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy of the Company) with respect to claims arising from facts or events that existed or occurred at or prior to the Effective Time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will Acquiror be required to expend, in the aggregate and on an annual basis, an amount in excess of 200% of the annual premiums currently paid by the Company for such insurance, which current premiums are set forth in Section 7.7(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter (the Insurance Amount), and if Acquiror is unable to maintain or obtain the insurance called for by this Section 7.7(b) for an amount per year equal to or less than the Insurance Amount, Acquiror shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as may be available for the Insurance Amount. The provisions of this Section 7.7(b) shall be deemed to have been satisfied if prepaid policies have been obtained by Acquiror or by the Company with Acquiror's prior written consent, which policies provide the persons covered by the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy immediately prior to the Effective Time with coverage for a period of not less than six (6) years after the Effective Time with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred at or prior to the Effective Time. If such prepaid policies have been obtained by the Company prior to the Effective Time with Acquiror's consent, Acquiror shall maintain such policies in full force and effect and continue to honor all obligations thereunder.

7.9. Financial Statements and Other Current Information. As soon as reasonably practicable after they become available, but in no event more than 30 days after the end of each calendar month ending after the date of this Agreement, the Company shall furnish to Acquiror (a) consolidated and consolidating financial statements (including balance sheets, statements of operations and stockholders' equity) of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries as of and for such month then ended, (b) internal management financial control reports showing actual financial performance against plan and previous period and (c) any reports provided to the board of directors of the Company or any committee thereof relating to the financial performance and risk management of the Company. 7.12. Stockholder Litigation. The Company shall give Acquiror the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against the Company and/or its directors relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and no such settlement shall be agreed to without Acquiror's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

7.13. Exemption from Liability. Assuming that the Company delivers to Acquiror the Section 16 Information reasonably in advance of the Effective Time, the board of directors of Acquiror, or a committee of Non-Employee Directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act), shall reasonably promptly thereafter and in any event prior to the Effective Time adopt a resolution providing that the receipt by the Company Insiders of Acquiror Common Stock (including any securities convertible into or exercisable for, or any rights, warrants or options to acquire Acquiror Common Stock) in exchange for shares of Company Common Stock (including any securities convertible into or exercisable for, or any rights, warrants or options to acquire Company Common Stock) pursuant to the transactions contemplated hereby and to the extent such securities are listed in the Section 16 Information provided by the Company to Acquiror prior to the Effective Time, are intended to be exempt from liability pursuant to Section 16(b) under the Exchange Act such that any such receipt shall be so exempt. Section 16 Information shall mean information accurate in all respects regarding the Company Insiders, the number of shares of Company Common Stock held by each such Company Insider and the number and description of the derivative securities held by each such Company Insider. Company Insiders shall mean those officers and directors of the Company who are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and who are listed in the Section 16 Information.

7.15. Charities.

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

9.1. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) by mutual consent of Acquiror and the Company in a written instrument;

(b) (i) by either Acquiror or the Company if (x) any Governmental Entity which must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the Merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or (y) any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final nonappealable order enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (other than the Bank Merger); or (ii) by Acquiror, if (x) any Governmental Entity which must grant a Bank Merger Approval has denied approval of the Bank Merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or (y) any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final nonappealable order enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Bank Merger;

(c) by either Acquiror or the Company if the Effective Time shall not have occurred on or before September 30, 2011 (the End Date), unless the failure of the Effective Time to occur by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(d) by either Acquiror or the Company (provided, that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if the other party shall have breached (i) any of the covenants or agreements made by such other party herein or (ii) any of the representations or warranties made by such other party herein, and in either case, such breach (x) is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the Closing and (y) would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Article VIII hereof;

(e) by either Acquiror or the Company if the Required Company Vote shall not have been obtained at the Company Stockholders Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof;

(f) by Acquiror if (i) the board of directors of the Company shall have failed to recommend the Merger and the adoption of this Agreement by the stockholders of the Company, or shall have effected a Change in Company Recommendation, or shall have taken any other action or made any other statement in connection with the Company Stockholders Meeting or otherwise inconsistent with such recommendation (or shall have resolved to take any of the foregoing actions), whether or not permitted under this Agreement, (ii) the Company shall have materially breached the terms of Section 7.4 in any respect adverse to Acquiror, (iii) the Company shall have materially breached its obligations under Section 7.3 by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Company Stockholders Meeting in accordance with Section 7.3 or (iv) the Company, its Subsidiaries or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives (including any investment bankers, attorneys or accountants retained by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) negotiates or authorizes the conduct of negotiations (and ten (10) days have elapsed without such negotiations being discontinued) with a third party (it being understood and agreed that negotiate shall not be deemed to include the request and receipt of information from any person that submits an Acquisition Proposal or discussions regarding such information for the sole purpose of ascertaining the terms of such Acquisition Proposal) regarding an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger; or

(g) by Acquiror if a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock is commenced (other than by Acquiror or a Subsidiary thereof), and the board of directors of the Company recommends that the stockholders of the Company tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such stockholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within the ten (10) business day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act.

(h) by the Company, if the board of directors of the Company so determines by the vote of a majority of its members, in the event that, as of the Determination Date, both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) the Average Determination Price shall be less than 80% of the Acquiror Starting Price; and

(ii) (A) the number obtained by dividing the Average Determination Price by the Acquiror Starting Price (such number, the Acquiror Ratio) is less than (B) the number obtained by dividing the Final Index Price by the Initial Index Price and subtracting 0.20 from such quotient (such number, the Index Ratio).

If the Company elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 9.1(h), it shall give written notice to Acquiror not later than the end of the third Business Day next following the Determination Date. During the five Business Day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Acquiror may, at its option, increase the Exchange Ratio to a number equal to the lesser of (x) a quotient (rounded to the nearest one-ten-thousandth), the numerator of which is equal to the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and the Index Ratio, and the denominator of which is equal to the Acquiror Ratio, or (y) a quotient (rounded to the nearest one-ten-thousandth), the numerator of which is the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect), the Acquiror Starting Price and 0.80, and the denominator of which is the Average Determination Price. If Acquiror makes an election contemplated by the preceding sentence within such five Business Day period, it shall give prompt written notice to the Company of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio, whereupon no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 9.1(h) and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified), and any references in this Agreement to Exchange Ratio shall thereafter be deemed to refer to the Exchange Ratio as adjusted pursuant to this Section 9.1(h).

If the outstanding shares of common stock of Acquiror or any company belonging to the Index shall be changed into a different number of shares by reason of any stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of the Agreement and the Determination Date, the prices for the common stock of such company will be appropriately adjusted.

For purposes of this Section 9.1(h), the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Acquiror or the Company as provided in Section 9.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, and none of Acquiror, the Company, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever hereunder, or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, except that (i) Sections 7.2(b) and this 9.2, and Article X, shall survive any termination of this Agreement and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, neither Acquiror nor the Company shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful and material breach of any provision of this Agreement; provided, that in no event shall any party hereto be liable for any punitive damages. For purposes of this Agreement, willful and material breach shall mean a material breach that is a consequence of an act undertaken by the breaching party with the knowledge (actual or constructive) that the taking of such act would, or would be reasonably expected to, cause a breach of this Agreement.

(b) The Company shall pay Acquiror (as consideration for termination of Acquiror's rights under this Agreement), by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the sum of $19,725,000 (the Termination Payment) if this Agreement is terminated as follows:

(ii) if this Agreement is terminated by (A) Acquiror pursuant to Section 9.1(d), (B) by either Acquiror or the Company pursuant to Section 9.1(e) or (C) by either Acquiror or the Company pursuant to Section 9.1(c) without a vote of the stockholders of the Company contemplated by this Agreement at the Company Stockholders Meeting having occurred, and in any such case an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company shall have been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to the senior management or board of directors of the Company (or any person shall have publicly announced, or otherwise communicated or made known to the senior management or board of directors of the Company, an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an Acquisition Proposal) at any time after the date of this Agreement and on or prior to the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, in the case of clause (B), or the date of termination, in the case of clauses (A) or (C), if within 12 months after such termination the Company or any of its Subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates a transaction contemplated by, any Acquisition Proposal (whether or not the same one as made prior to the date of such Company Stockholders Meeting or termination, as the case may be), then the Company shall pay the entire Termination Payment on the date of such execution or consummation, provided, however, that for the purpose of this clause (y), all references in the definition of Acquisition Proposal to 15% or more shall instead refer to 50% or more .

(c) The Company and Acquiror agree that the agreements contained in Section 9.2(b) are integral parts of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that such amounts do not constitute a penalty. If the Company fails to pay Acquiror the amounts due under such Section 9.2(b) within the time periods specified in such section, the Company shall pay the costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) incurred by Acquiror in connection with any action, including the filing of any lawsuit, taken to collect payment of such amounts, together with interest on the amount of any such unpaid amounts at the prime lending rate prevailing during such period as published in the New York City edition of the The Wall Street Journal, calculated on a daily basis from the date such amounts were required to be paid until the date of actual payment.

9.3. Amendment. Subject to compliance with applicable Law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the stockholders of the Company; provided, however, that after any such approval, no amendment shall be made which by Law requires further approval by such stockholders without such further approval. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

9.4. Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

Each of Acquiror and the Company irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any and all rights to trial by jury in connection with any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Each of Acquiror and the Company further irrevocably consents to the service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement by the mailing of copies thereof by registered mail, postage prepaid, to such party at its address specified pursuant to Section 10.3, such service of process to be effective upon acknowledgment of receipt of such registered mail.

(c) Each of Acquiror and the Company expressly acknowledges that the foregoing waivers are intended to be irrevocable under the laws of the State of New York and of the United States of America; provided, that consent by Acquiror and the Company to jurisdiction and service contained in this Section 10.7 is solely for the purpose referred to in this Section 10.7 and shall not be deemed to be a general submission to said courts or in the State of New York other than for such purpose.

10.8. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid, illegal or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity, legality or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction, and if any provision of this Agreement is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, in all cases so long as neither the economic nor legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is affected in any manner materially adverse to any party or its stockholders. Upon any such determination, the parties shall negotiate in good faith in an effort to agree upon a suitable and equitable substitute provision to effect the original intent of the parties.

10.9. Publicity. Acquiror and the Company shall consult with each other before issuing any press release or making any public statement with respect to this Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior consent of the other party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior consent of the other party (but after prior consultation, to the extent practicable in the circumstances) issue such press release or make such public statement as may upon the advice of outside counsel be required by Law or the rules and regulations of NASDAQ. Without limiting the preceding sentence, Acquiror and the Company shall cooperate to develop all public announcement materials and make appropriate management available at presentations related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as reasonably requested by the other party. In addition, the Company and its Subsidiaries shall (a) consult with Acquiror regarding communications with customers, stockholders, prospective investors and employees related to the transactions contemplated hereby, (b) provide Acquiror with stockholder lists of the Company from time to time as requested by Acquiror and (c) allow and facilitate Acquiror contact with stockholders of the Company and other prospective investors.

10.10. Assignment; Third Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of any party hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 7.7 hereof, this Agreement (including the documents and instruments referred to herein) is not intended to confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder.

10.11. Construction. This Agreement and any documents or instruments delivered pursuant hereto or in connection herewith shall be construed without regard to the identity of the person who drafted the various provisions of the same. Each and every provision of this Agreement and such other documents and instruments shall be construed as though all of the parties participated equally in the drafting of the same. Consequently, the parties acknowledge and agree that any rule of construction that a document is to be construed against the drafting party shall not be applicable either to this Agreement or such other documents and instruments.

10.12. Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that the provisions contained in this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, without the posting of any bond, to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof (including consummation of the Merger), this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy.

ANNEX B

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

January 20, 2011

Board of Directors

Danvers Bancorp, Inc.

One Conant Street

Danvers, MA 01923

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Danvers Bancorp, Inc. ("Danvers") and People's United Financial, Inc. ("People's") have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated January 20, 2011 (the "Agreement"), pursuant to which Danvers will merge with and into People's (the "Merger"). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, upon consummation of the Merger, each share of Danvers common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than certain shares specified in the Agreement (the "Danvers Common Stock"), will be converted, at the election of the holder thereof, into the right to receive (i) cash in the amount of $23.00 per share, without interest (the "Cash Consideration"), or (ii) 1.624 shares of People's common stock (the "Stock Consideration" and, together with the Cash Consideration, the "Merger Consideration"), subject to the election and proration provisions in the Agreement that provide, generally, that approximately 55% of the total number of shares of Danvers Common Stock will be converted into the Stock Consideration and approximately 45% will be converted into the Cash Consideration. The other terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement, and capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Danvers Common Stock.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) the Agreement; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Danvers that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of People's that we deemed relevant; (iv) internal financial projections for Danvers for the year ending December 31, 2011 as provided by senior management of Danvers; (v) publicly available earnings estimates for People's for the years ending December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2012 as discussed with senior management of People's; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on People's, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and other synergies as determined by the senior management of People's and discussed with Danvers management; (vii) a comparison of certain financial information for Danvers and People's with similar institutions for which publicly available information is available; (viii) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry, to the extent publicly available; (ix) the current market environment and the banking environment in particular; and (x) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Danvers the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Danvers and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of People's regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of People's.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by Danvers or People's or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of the senior management of each of Danvers and People's that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to undertake, and have not undertaken, an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Danvers or People's or any of their subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals or reviewed any credit files. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Danvers or People's and have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for Danvers and People's are adequate to cover such losses.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for Danvers as provided by senior management of Danvers and publicly available earnings estimates for People's. Sandler O'Neill also used in its analyses certain projections of transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments and expected cost savings which were prepared by and/or reviewed with the senior managements of Danvers or People's. With respect to those projections and estimates, the respective managements of Danvers and People's confirmed to us that those projections and estimates reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective managements of the future financial performance of Danvers and People's, respectively, and we assumed that such performance would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such financial projections or estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Danvers or People's since the date of the most recent financial statements reviewed by us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Danvers and People's will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Agreement and that the conditions precedent in the Agreement will not be waived. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice Danvers has obtained from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We are expressing no opinion herein as to the prices at which the common stock of Danvers and People's may trade at any time.

We have been engaged by you solely for the purpose of rendering this opinion. We were not asked to and we did not solicit any alternative potential buyers of the Company, nor did we participate in the negotiation of the Merger Consideration or the Agreement. We will receive a fee for rendering this opinion, no portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Danvers has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Danvers and People's and their affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and/or debt securities of Danvers and People's and/or their respective affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

This Opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Danvers in connection with its consideration of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Danvers as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Agreement or the form of consideration such shareholder should elect in the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to holders of Danvers Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Danvers to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Danvers or the effect of any other transaction in which Danvers might engage. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director, or employee, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. Our opinion is not to be quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in a registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement or in any other document, nor shall this opinion be used for any other purposes, without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion, as of the date hereof, that the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Danvers Common Stock is fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

ANNEX C SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in 1 or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 255, § 256, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in § 251(f) of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 or § 267 of this title is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting (or such members who received notice in accordance with § 255(c) of this title) with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228, § 253, or § 267 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
