Morgan Stanley Convertible Preferred Stock to Be Voluntarily Converted

Tokyo, April 21, 2011 Since announcing and launching their strategic alliance on September 29, 2008, Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group, Inc. (Director and President: Katsunori Nagayasu) (MUFG) and Morgan Stanley (President and CEO: James P. Gorman) (Morgan Stanley) have implemented their alliance strategy globally in a wide range of businesses, including corporate finance and investment banking, retail banking and asset management.

MUFG and Morgan Stanley have agreed to voluntarily convert all of MUFG 's holding of Morgan Stanley convertible preferred stock into common stock, at a conversion rate to be adjusted pursuant to an agreement with Morgan Stanley, and contracted Transaction Agreement between the two, to further strengthen our global alliance strategy and to enhance Morgan Stanley 's capital position.

MUFG and Morgan Stanley have agreed that in connection with this conversion of preferred stock and pursuant to their alliance, MUFG will appoint two representatives to the Morgan Stanley board of directors, and they have also agreed to certain other amendments to the investor agreement between the two which will become effective upon the conversion.

Morgan Stanley is expected to become an equity-method affiliate of MUFG.

1. Common stock to be acquired upon conversion of convertible preferred stock

It has been agreed with Morgan Stanley that MUFG will receive approximately 75 million shares in addition to the number of shares it will receive upon conversion of Series B preferred stock based on previously agreed terms and conditions. As a result, MUFG will receive 385,464,097 shares of common stock in total.

MUFG 's holdings of Morgan Stanley common stock following conversion of its preferred stock, reflecting both its current holdings and the conversion, will represent approximately 22.4% of the voting rights of Morgan Stanley common stock. Morgan Stanley is expected to become an equity-method affiliate of MUFG.
