SAN DIEGO July 25, 2011 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/

Leap Wireless International, Inc. (NASDAQ: LEAP), a leading provider of innovative, value-driven wireless communications services, today announced that Egan-Jones Proxy Services, an independent proxy advisory firm, has joined Glass Lewis & Co. in recommending that stockholders vote in favor of all of Leap's nominees at the Company's annual meeting on July 28th, and against the nominees proposed by Pentwater Capital Management.

In making its recommendation, Egan Jones said:

We believe that support for the management ballot is merited and is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. In arriving at that conclusion, we have considered the following factors:

- 1. Our belief that the dissident's plans as so far described are less likely to improve the Company's shareholder value than the plans of management.*
- 2. We are not convinced that election of the dissident's slate of nominees to the Company's board of directors would work to the benefit of the shareholders.*

The management nominees appear qualified and we recommend a vote FOR this Proposal on the WHITE proxy card provided by the management.

We are pleased that two independent advisory firms, having carefully analyzed the facts, have now recommended in favor of our nominees, said Doug Hutcheson, Leap's president and chief executive officer. We believe their recommendations support our view that Pentwater has not put forward a single idea that the Board hasn't either implemented or initiated with significantly more depth. Pentwater has never asked to speak to our Board or management team to discuss its operational proposals and we believe this is because they simply don't have anything new to propose. This is not surprising to us, given Pentwater's short-term approach to investing and inexperience with running a public company. In our view, electing Pentwater's nominees to Leap's Board puts all other Leap stockholders' investment at risk. Leap recommends that stockholders vote FOR all of the Company's proposals on the WHITE proxy card. The Company urges stockholders to discard any gold proxy card they have received from Pentwater.
