Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 10, 2011, NeuStar, Inc. (Neustar or Parent), Tumi Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), Targus Information Corporation, a Delaware corporation (TARGUSinfo or Company), and Michael M. Sullivan, solely in his capacity as the initial Stockholder Representative, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement).

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants, and includes a representation that Company is not a telecommunication service provider. The consummation of the merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the Hart Scott Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended; and (ii) absence of a material adverse effect on Company. If the conditions in the Merger Agreement are met and the parties proceed to closing, Merger Sub will merge with and into Company, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and Company will continue as the surviving corporation (the Merger), wholly-owned by Parent.

Promptly after the closing of the Merger, the equityholders of Company will receive aggregate cash consideration of $650 million less (i) adjustments to take into account the cash-out of certain existing Company stock options and the roll-over of certain other Company stock options into Parent stock options; (ii) Company indebtedness that is not repaid prior to the closing or that is repaid by Parent; (iii) change of control, severance and termination payments due in connection with the Merger that are not paid prior to the closing, (iv) Company transaction expenses, and (v) funds deposited in escrow accounts, as described in more detail below. The cash consideration is also subject to a working capital adjustment, as well as adjustments to take into account the amount of cash in Company at closing and certain tax benefits derived from compensation expense related to payments on Company shares and Company stock options at closing. The Merger Agreement provides that $40 million of the merger consideration payable to the stockholders of Company will be deposited in a separate indemnity escrow fund at closing and will be available to satisfy Parent s indemnification claims for breaches of the Merger Agreement. An additional $3 million and $500,000 of the merger consideration payable to the equityholders of Company will be deposited into separate reserve escrow funds and used for purchase price adjustments and the reimbursement of certain costs and expenses of the Stockholder Representative, respectively. The funds in the indemnity escrow fund will remain in escrow for a one-year period (unless claims are pending at such time), after which remaining proceeds will be distributed to the stockholders of Company.

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary termination rights for Parent and Company and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, Parent may be required to pay Company a termination fee of $45 million.

The above description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreement. The representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made for the purpose of, among other things, allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement and should not be viewed or relied upon as a disclosure of factual information relating to Parent or Company. Furthermore, these representations and warranties were made only as of specific dates, are subject to materiality and knowledge qualifications, and are qualified by certain disclosures between the parties. The Merger Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The proceeds from such facilities will be used, if necessary, to (i) fund a portion of the cash consideration in the Merger, (ii) repay existing indebtedness of Parent and Company, (iii) pay the fees and expenses incurred in connection with the acquisition and (iv) provide for the ongoing working capital and general corporate needs of Parent. The commitment is subject to customary conditions, including but not limited to the consummation of the acquisition, the absence of a material adverse effect with respect to Parent and the negotiation of definitive financing documentation.
