Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 30, 2012, EverBank, a federal savings association and a wholly owned subsidiary of EverBank Financial Corp (the Company), entered into a Stock and Asset Purchase Agreement and a Tax Matters Agreement with General Electric Capital Corporation (GECC) (collectively the Purchase Agreement) pursuant to which the Company agreed to purchase all of the issued and outstanding stock of Business Property Lending, Inc. (BP), a wholly owned subsidiary of GECC, for approximately $2.51 billion in cash, which amount will be adjusted for changes in the book value of BP's assets between signing and closing (the Transaction). At the time of the closing of the Transaction, BP will own GECC's platform for originating and servicing commercial real estate loans for essential use properties owned or leased by small and midsize businesses. The Transaction is currently expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2012 (the Closing), subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals and the satisfaction of certain other customary closing conditions.

The purchase price will be funded through a combination of the Company's cash on hand and existing available borrowing facilities. The acquisition will include approximately $2.44 billion of performing business lending loans selected by the Company, the origination and servicing platforms, 108 employees and servicing rights relating to $3.1 billion of loans securitized by GECC. Following the Transaction, BP will become a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of the Company.

The Company and GECC also have each made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Purchase Agreement, including covenants with respect to the conduct of the BP business during the interim period between the execution of the Purchase Agreement and the Closing. GECC has also made certain additional customary covenants, including not to solicit or initiate discussions with a third party, engage in negotiations or provide any non-public information concerning alternative business combination transactions with respect to BP and its business.

In addition to a customary indemnity for breaches of representations and warranties and covenants, the Purchase Agreement also provides that GECC will indemnify the Company for losses incurred in connection with pre-Closing matters. Certain of the indemnification obligations of each party are subject to deductible amounts and caps and other limitations on liability. The Purchase Agreement provides certain customary termination rights for both parties.

The representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement are the product of negotiations between the parties thereto and are for their sole benefit. Any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the parties thereto in accordance with the Purchase Agreement without notice or liability to any other person. In some instances, the representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement may be qualified by disclosures made by the parties, may be made only as of a particular date or dates, may be subject to more recent developments which may not be reflected in the Purchase Agreement or the Company's other public disclosures, may represent an allocation among the parties thereto of risks associated with particular matters regardless of the knowledge of any of the parties thereto, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, such representations and warranties may not describe the actual facts or circumstances as of the date of the Purchase Agreement or as of any other date and should not be relied upon.

The foregoing summary of the Purchase Agreement and the Transaction does not purport to be a complete description and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Stock and Asset Purchase Agreement and the Tax Matters Agreement, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and Exhibit 2.2 and which are incorporated herein in their entirety by reference.
