Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.
Acquisition of BCD Semiconductor Manufacturing Limited

On December 26, 2012, Diodes Incorporated (the Company) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with BCD Semiconductor Manufacturing Limited, an exempted company incorporated in the Cayman Islands (BCD), and Diodes Cayman Islands Company Limited, an exempted company incorporated in the Cayman Islands and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (Merger Sub), pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into BCD, with BCD being the surviving company (the Merger). Under the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement), each ordinary share, par value $0.001 per share, of BCD (the Shares), other than Excluded Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement), including Shares represented by American Depository Shares (ADSs), will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive $1.33-1/3 in cash per Share, without interest. Each ADS represents six Shares, and other than ADSs representing Excluded Shares, each ADS will be converted into the right to receive $8.00 in cash, without interest. The aggregate consideration will be approximately $151 million. The acquisition is expected to be funded by a combination of the Company's cash resources and drawings on the Company's bank credit facilities, although the closing of the Merger is not subject to the Company obtaining any financing. The Effective Time is expected to occur late in the first quarter or early in the second quarter of 2013.

The acquisition is subject to customary conditions, including the affirmative vote of shareholders representing two-thirds or more of the Shares present and voting in person or by proxy as a single class at BCD's shareholder meeting to be held in accordance with the Cayman Companies Law, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Shares present and voting in person or by proxy at such shareholder meeting and held by shareholders other than BCD's directors and executive officers, and no more than 20% of BCD's issued and outstanding Shares have validly exercised and not effectively withdrawn or lost their rights to dissent from the Merger prior to such shareholder meeting pursuant to Section 238 of the Cayman Companies Law.

BCD's directors have agreed to unanimously recommend that BCD's shareholders vote in favor of the Merger. Nevertheless, during the 30 days following the date of the Merger Agreement, the board of BCD, directly or indirectly through any representative, may, subject to certain conditions of the Merger Agreement, participate in negotiations or discussions with any third party that has made (and not withdrawn) a bona fide, unsolicited Takeover Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) in writing that the board of BCD believes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and BCD's financial advisor, constitutes or would reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

BCD's directors have agreed to unanimously recommend that BCD's shareholders vote in favor of the Merger, and the Company has received undertakings to vote in favor of the Merger from directors and certain officers of BCD. These undertakings are irrevocable except in specified circumstances. BCD has agreed to pay the Company a fee of $6 million in certain circumstances, including in the event BCD's board of directors authorizes BCD to enter into an agreement in respect of a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement sets forth, among other things, various matters in relation to the implementation of the Merger, cooperation in relation to the Merger, the conduct of BCD's business prior to the Effective Time and solicitation of competing proposals.
