Pricing Supplement dated May 8, 2013 to the

Preliminary Prospectus Supplement dated May 6, 2013 of Commercial Metals Company

This Pricing Supplement relates only to the securities described below and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement. The information in this Pricing Supplement supplements the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement and supersedes the information in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement only to the extent it is inconsistent with the information contained in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement. Capitalized terms used in this Pricing Supplement but not defined have the meanings given them in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement.

The aggregate principal amount of notes to be issued in the offering has been increased from $300,000,000 to $330,000,000. The entire amount of additional net proceeds received as a result of this increase will be used for general corporate purposes. As a result, all corresponding references in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement relating to the aggregate principal amount of the notes offered should be increased by $30,000,000.

Use of Proceeds:

The net proceeds from this offering, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us, are estimated to be approximately $325 million. We intend to use the net proceeds from this offering to fund the repurchase of any and all of our outstanding 2013 notes in the tender offer and consent solicitation described in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement under the heading Prospectus Supplement Summary Recent Development, and to redeem any remaining 2013 notes that are not tendered following the expiration of the tender offer and consent solicitation, in each case together with accrued interest, any applicable premium payments and expenses related thereto. We intend to use the remainder of the net proceeds from this offering for general corporate purposes.

Extended Close:

We expect to deliver the notes against payment therefor on or about May 20, 2013, which will be the eighth business day following the date of the pricing of the notes. Under Rule 15c6-1 of the Exchange Act, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in three business days, unless the parties to a trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade notes on the date of pricing or the next four succeeding business days will be required, by virtue of the fact that the notes initially will settle in T+8, to specify alternative settlement arrangements to prevent a failed settlement.

This communication is intended for the sole use of the person to whom it is provided by us.

* Note: A securities rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to review, revision, suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. An explanation of the significance of ratings may be obtained from the rating agencies. Generally, rating agencies base their ratings on such material and information, and such of their own investigations, studies and assumptions, as they deem appropriate. The rating of the notes should be evaluated independently from similar ratings of other securities.

Changes to the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement:

Under the heading Summary Historical Consolidated Financial Data of the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement, the last sentence of footnote (2) appearing on page S-13 to the table provided therein is hereby amended and restated as follows:

After giving pro forma effect to the issuance and sale of the notes and the repurchase of all of our $200.0 million outstanding aggregate principal amount of the 2013 notes pursuant to the tender offer and consent solicitation described above under Prospectus Supplement Summary Recent Development, the ratios of earnings to fixed charges for the six months ended February 28, 2013 and the fiscal year ended August 31, 2012 would have been 2.80x and 2.76x, respectively.
