Disclaimer Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This quarterly report includes forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934) concerning Canon Inc. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively "Canon"). To the extent that statements in this quarterly report do not relate to historical or current facts, they constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the current assumptions and beliefs of Canon in light of the information currently available to them, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause Canon's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or financial position expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Canon undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements after the date of this quarterly report. Investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by Canon in its subsequent filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and its other filings.

The risks, uncertainties and other factors referred to above include, but are not limited to, foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations; the uncertainty of Canon's ability to implement its plans to localize production and other measures to reduce the impact of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations; uncertainty as to economic conditions in Canon's major markets; uncertainty of continued demand for Canon's high-value-added products; Canon's ability to continue to develop products and to market products that incorporate new technology on a timely basis, are competitively priced, and achieve market acceptance; the possibility of losses resulting from foreign currency transactions designed to reduce financial risks from changes in foreign currency exchange rates; disasters, outages or similar events; and inventory risk due to disruptions in supply chains and shifts in market demand.

(2) Description of Business

Edgar Filing: CANON INC - Form 6-K

Canon prepares quarterly consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ( U.S. GAAP ). Financial information presented in sections II. The Business is also in conformity with U.S.GAAP.

Canon (consisting of the Company, 263 consolidated subsidiaries and 10 affiliates accounted for using the equity method, collectively, the Group ) is engaged in the development, manufacture, sale and service primarily in the fields of office, imaging system, industry and others. No material change in Canon s business has occurred during the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

No additions or removals of significant group entities have occurred during the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

II. The Business

(1) Risk Factors

No material changes are recognized pursuant to the risk factors of Canon's business indicated in the Annual Securities Report (Yukashoken houkokusho) of the previous fiscal year.

(2) Significant Business Contracts Entered into in the Third Quarter of Fiscal 2013

No material contracts were entered into during the three months ended September 30, 2013.

(3) Operating Results

Looking back at the global economy in the first nine months of 2013, in the United States, although the economy continued to recover, personal spending was lacking in strength, while in Europe the economy remained sluggish owing to austere fiscal policy. In China the pace of economic growth remained weak and the economies of other emerging countries in Asia faced slow growth due to declines in local currency values. The Japanese economy continued to recover amid improvements in the export environment along with the positive effects of fiscal stimulation measures. As for the global economy overall, there were increasing signs of a slowdown amid the prolonged economic stagnation.

As for the markets in which Canon operates amid these conditions, among office multifunction devices (MFDs) although demand for monochrome models continued to shrink, color models continued to drive growth, and demand for laser printers entered a phase of moderate growth. Although demand for interchangeable-lens digital cameras showed strong growth in Japan, the expected rebound in overseas demand was delayed, while demand for digital compact cameras continued to shrink both in developed countries and emerging markets. Demand for inkjet printers followed a decreasing trend due to the slowdown in emerging economies. In the industry and others sector, demand for semiconductor lithography equipment began to pick up amid a recovery trend from suppressed capital expenditure for memory devices, while lithography equipment used in the production of flat panel displays (FPD) showed healthy market growth for mid- and small-size panels used mainly in smartphones and tablet PCs, and a gradual recovery in demand for large-size panels.

The average values of the yen during the third quarter and first nine months of the year were ¥98.91 and ¥96.92 to the U.S. dollar, respectively, year-on-year depreciations of approximately ¥20 and ¥17, and ¥131.09 and ¥127.54 to the euro, respectively, year-on-year depreciations of approximately ¥33 and ¥26.

[Third-quarter results]

Steady sales growth of MFDs and laser printers, along with efforts to increase or maintain market share through the introduction of new interchangeable-lens digital camera and inkjet printer products featuring advanced technologies, led to an increase in the third-quarter net sales of 14.2% to ¥913.1 billion from the year-ago period. The gross profit ratio for the third quarter rose 0.7 points year on year to 49.0% thanks to the effects of ongoing cost-cutting efforts along with the depreciation of the yen. Despite an increase in foreign-currency-denominated operating expenses due to the depreciation of the yen, Group-wide efforts to thoroughly reduce spending contributed to limiting the increase in operating expenses for the third-quarter to just ¥356.5 billion, an increase of 12.9% year on year. Consequently, third-quarter operating profit increased by 27.8% to ¥90.6 billion compared with the corresponding period of the previous year. Other income decreased by ¥6.9 billion for the third quarter from the year-ago period due to foreign currency exchange losses while income before income taxes increased by 17.1% year on year to ¥88.1 billion. Third-quarter net income attributable to Canon Inc. increased by 17.3% to ¥58.8 billion.

Basic net income attributable to Canon Inc. stockholders per share for the third quarter was ¥51.20, an increase of ¥8.05 compared with the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

[Nine-month results]

Despite the decreased demand for digital compact cameras and industrial equipment, steady sales growth of MFDs and laser printers, along with efforts to increase or maintain market share through the introduction of new inkjet printer products featuring advanced technologies, led to an increase in the nine months net sales 6.7% to ¥2,696.7 billion from the year-ago period. The gross profit ratio for the nine months increased by 0.4 points to 48.6%, thanks to the effects of ongoing cost-cutting efforts along with the depreciation of the yen. Despite an increase in foreign-currency-denominated operating expenses due to the depreciation of the yen, Group-wide efforts to thoroughly reduce spending contributed to limiting the increase in operating expenses for the nine months just 9.8% year on year to ¥1,066.7 billion. Operating profit for the nine months decreased by 1.0% to ¥243.7 billion owing to the large decline in the first quarter. Other income decreased by ¥3.9 billion due to foreign currency exchange losses and income before income taxes decreased 2.5% year on year to ¥247.2 billion. Net income attributable to Canon Inc. increased by 1.7% to ¥166.2 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

Basic net income attributable to Canon Inc. stockholders per share for the first nine months of 2013 was ¥144.40, a year-on-year increase of ¥5.92.

Looking at Canon's performance for the first nine months by business unit, within the Office Business Unit, within the office MFDs, sales of color models increased from the year-ago period led by the imageRUNNER ADVANCE C5200/C2200 series, while among production printing systems the imagePRESS C6010 series continued to perform steadily. As for high speed continuous feed printers and wide-format printers, sales of the Océ ColorStream 3000 series showed solid growth. With regard to laser printers, laser multifunction models recorded strong growth, contributing to a year-on-year increase in sales volume. As a result, sales for the combined first nine months of the year totaled ¥1,478.1 billion, increasing 13.6% year on year, while operating profit increased by 33.5% to ¥203.4 billion.

Within the Imaging System Business Unit, sales of the EOS 5D Mark III, 6D and 70D advanced-amateur-model interchangeable-lens digital cameras continued to grow. Furthermore, especially in Japan, the new entry-level EOS Digital Rebel SL1/T5i cameras proved popular, further contributing to sales and helping the company to maintain its top share of the global market. As for digital compact cameras, although total sales volume declined due to the market slowdown and the increasing popularity of smartphones, such high added-value products as the PowerShot SX50 HS and SX510 HS, each equipped with a high-magnification zoom lens that exceeds the capabilities of lenses offered by smartphones recorded healthy sales volume. With regard to inkjet printers, sales volume of hardware increased from the year-ago period despite the decreased demand in Asian markets, sales of consumable supplies enjoyed solid growth due to the steady expansion of inkjet printers currently in operation within the market. As a result, sales for the first nine months totaled ¥1,032.8 billion, rising 3.8% year on year, while operating profit totaled ¥141.7 billion, a decrease of 8.8% year on year.

In the Industry and Others Business Unit, within the semiconductor lithography equipment, although the sales volume of lithography equipment for memory devices increased from the previous year for the third quarter fueled by renewed investment in capital expenditure by memory manufacturers, sales volume for the first nine months was still below the corresponding year-ago period. As for FPD lithography equipment, although sales for the nine months continued to decrease, preparations for the fourth quarter sales are proceeding smoothly amid the recovery trend in investment for large-size panels. Consequently, sales for the first nine months of the year totaled ¥256.1 billion, a decrease of 14.9% year on year, while operating profit recorded a loss of ¥21.5 billion, declining by ¥36.9 billion, from the year-ago period.

First nine-month results by major geographic area are summarized as follows:

Japan

Although interchangeable-lens digital cameras showed solid growth in Japan for the nine months, net sales declined 2.4% from the year-ago period to ¥1,949.0 billion, due to a decrease in sales of industry and others. Operating profit decreased 1.9% year on year to ¥237.0 billion for the nine months.

Net sales outside Japan increased in all areas due to the solid sales growth of office MFDs and inkjet printers along with the effects of depreciation of the yen.

Americas

Despite the sales decline of digital compact cameras from the previous year due to the significant market slowdown, robust sales increase of inkjet printers including consumable supplies, along with the depreciation of the yen against the U.S. dollar, caused sales to increase for the nine months by 13.3% from the year-ago period to ¥777.1 billion. Operating profit for the nine months totaled ¥20.5 billion, an increase of 34.3% year on year.

Europe

Although the sales of interchangeable-lens digital cameras dipped due to the shift to lower-priced products as well as digital compact cameras decreased owing to shrinking market, amid the situation of increasing uncertainty in European economy, sales of inkjet printers and MFDs showed steady sales growth. As a result, along with the effect of depreciation of the yen, sales for the nine months increased by 16.1% from the same period of the previous year to ¥845.1 billion. Operating profit for the nine-month period, however, posted a loss of ¥4.8 billion due to an increase of operating expenses caused by the negative effect of the depreciation of the yen.

Asia and Oceania

Sales of interchangeable-lens digital cameras, which have been an engine for solid growth in Asia and Oceania showed slowdown in growth. In addition, sales of digital compact cameras faced harsh conditions. Inkjet printers including consumable supplies, on the other hand, showed steady sales growth. As a consequence of the above, as well as positive impact of depreciation of the yen, sales increased by 8.9% to ¥1,234.3 billion for the nine months. Operating profit in Asia and Oceania increased 21.7% to ¥53.7 billion for the nine-month period.

(3) Operating Results (continued)Cash Flows

During the first nine months of 2013, cash flows from operating activities totaled ¥343.3 billion, an increase of ¥77.5 billion compared with the corresponding period of the previous year owing to improvements in working capital through such means as increasing the collection of accounts receivable. While capital investment focused on new products, cash outflows from investing activities increased ¥52.6 billion year on year to ¥207.6 billion, as a result of an increase amount of time deposits included in short-term investments. Accordingly, free cash flow totaled ¥135.7 billion, an increase of ¥24.9 billion compared with the corresponding year-ago period. Cash outflows from financing activities recorded an outlay of ¥212.1 billion, mainly arising from the dividend payout and the repurchasing of treasury stock.

Owing to these factors, as well as the positive impact from foreign currency translation adjustments, cash and cash equivalents decreased by ¥26.2 billion to ¥640.5 billion from the end of the previous year.

Management Issues to be Addressed

No material changes or issues with respect to business operations and finances have occurred during the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

Research and Development Expenditures

Canon's research and development expenditures for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 totaled ¥228.6 billion.

Property, Plant and Equipment(1) Major Property, Plant and Equipment

There were no significant changes to the status of existing major property, plant and equipment during the first nine months of 2013.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(1) Basis of Presentation and Significant Accounting Policies(a) Basis of Presentation

The Company issued convertible debentures in the United States in May 1969 and established a program in which its American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) were traded in the U.S. over-the-counter market. Since then, under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company has prepared its annual consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ( U.S. GAAP ) and filed them with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 20-F. The Company's ADRs were listed on the NYSE in September 2000 after being quoted on NASDAQ from February 1972 to September 2000.

Canon's quarterly consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement criteria of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Certain disclosures have been omitted.

The number of consolidated subsidiaries and affiliated companies that were accounted for by the equity method basis as of September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012 are summarized as follows:

	September 30, 2013	December 31, 2012
Consolidated subsidiaries	263	275
Affiliated companies	10	9
Total	273	284

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, its majority owned subsidiaries and those variable interest entities where the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries are the primary beneficiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

(c) Recently Issued Accounting Guidance

In February 2013, the FASB issued an amendment which requires entities to provide information about the amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income by component, and to present, either on the face of the statement where net income is presented or in the notes, significant amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income by the respective line items of net income. Canon adopted this amended guidance from the quarter beginning January 1, 2013. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition. See Note 8 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

(2) Investments (continued)

Maturities of available-for-sale debt securities and fund trusts included in short-term investments and investments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets were as follows at September 30, 2013:

	Millions of yen
	Cost	Fair value
Due within one year	-	-
Due after one year through five years	9	9
Due after five years through ten years	689	688
	698	697

Realized gains and losses are determined using the average cost method and are reflected in earnings. The gross realized gains were ¥1,635 million and ¥94 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively. The gross realized losses, including write-downs for impairments that were other than temporary, were ¥2 million and ¥1,227 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively. The gross realized gains were ¥49 million and ¥1 million for the three months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively. The gross realized losses, including write-downs for impairments that were other than temporary, were nil and ¥13 million for the three months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

At September 30, 2013, substantially all of the available-for-sale securities with unrealized losses had been in a continuous unrealized loss position for less than twelve months.

Time deposits with original maturities of more than three months are ¥54,578 million and ¥28,292 million at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively, and are included in short-term investments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Aggregate cost of non-marketable equity securities accounted for under the cost method totaled ¥14,800 million and ¥14,808 million at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively. These investments were not evaluated for impairment at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively, because (a) Canon did not estimate the fair value of those investments as it was not practicable to estimate the fair value of the investments and (b) Canon did not identify any events or changes in circumstances that might have had significant adverse effects on the fair value of those investments.

CANON INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

(10) Derivatives and Hedging Activities

Risk management policy

Canon operates internationally, exposing it to the risk of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. Derivative financial instruments are comprised principally of foreign exchange contracts utilized by the Company and certain of its subsidiaries to reduce the risk. Canon assesses foreign currency exchange rate risk by continually monitoring changes in the exposures and by evaluating hedging opportunities. Canon does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading purposes. Canon is also exposed to credit-related losses in the event of non-performance by counterparties to derivative financial instruments, but it is not expected that any counterparties will fail to meet their obligations. Most of the counterparties are internationally recognized financial institutions and selected by Canon taking into account their financial condition, and contracts are diversified across a number of major financial institutions.

Foreign currency exchange rate risk management

Canon's international operations expose Canon to the risk of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. Canon uses foreign exchange contracts to manage certain foreign currency exchange exposures principally from the exchange of U.S. dollars and euros into Japanese yen. These contracts are primarily used to hedge the foreign currency exposure of forecasted intercompany sales and intercompany trade receivables that are denominated in foreign currencies. In accordance with Canon's policy, a specific portion of foreign currency exposure resulting from forecasted intercompany sales are hedged using foreign exchange contracts which principally mature within three months.

Cash flow hedge

Changes in the fair value of derivative financial instruments designated as cash flow hedges, including foreign exchange contracts associated with forecasted intercompany sales, are reported in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss). These amounts are subsequently reclassified into earnings through other income (deductions) in the same period as the hedged items affect earnings. Substantially all amounts recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) as of September 30, 2013 are expected to be recognized in earnings over the next twelve months. Canon excludes the time value component from the assessment of hedge effectiveness. Changes in the fair value of a foreign exchange contract for the period between the date that the forecasted intercompany sales occur and its maturity date are recognized in earnings and not considered hedge ineffectiveness.

Derivatives not designated as hedges

Canon has entered into certain foreign exchange contracts to primarily offset the earnings impact related to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates associated with certain assets denominated in foreign currencies. Although these foreign exchange contracts have not been designated as hedges as required in order to apply hedge accounting, the contracts are effective from an economic perspective. The changes in the fair value of these contracts are recorded in earnings immediately.

(11) Commitments and Contingent LiabilitiesCommitments

As of September 30, 2013, commitments outstanding for the purchase of property, plant and equipment approximated ¥29,320 million, and commitments outstanding for the purchase of parts and raw materials approximated ¥67,897 million.

Canon occupies sales offices and other facilities under lease arrangements accounted for as operating leases. Deposits made under such arrangements aggregated ¥13,390 million and ¥13,313 million at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively, and are included in noncurrent receivables in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Future minimum lease payments required under noncancelable operating leases are ¥22,260 million (within one year) and ¥59,179 million (after one year), at September 30, 2013.

Guarantees

Canon provides guarantees for bank loans of its employees, affiliates and other companies. The guarantees for the employees are principally made for their housing loans. The guarantees of loans of its affiliates and other companies are made to ensure that those companies operate with less financial risk.

For each guarantee provided, Canon would have to perform under a guarantee if the borrower defaults on a payment within the contract periods of 1 year to 30 years, in the case of employees with housing loans, and of 1 year to 10 years, in the case of affiliates and other companies. The maximum amount of undiscounted payments Canon would have had to make in the event of default is ¥12,316 million at September 30, 2013. The carrying amounts of the liabilities recognized for Canon's obligations as a guarantor under those guarantees at September 30, 2013 were not significant.

Canon also issues contractual product warranties under which it generally guarantees the performance of products delivered and services rendered for a certain period or term. Estimated product warranty costs are recorded at the time revenue is recognized and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses. Estimates for accrued product warranty costs are based on historical experience. Changes in accrued product warranty cost for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012 is summarized as follows:

Legal proceedings

Canon is involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. Canon has recorded provisions for liabilities when it is probable that liabilities have been incurred and the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated. Canon reviews these provisions at least quarterly and adjusts these provisions to reflect the impact of the negotiations, settlements, rulings, advice of legal counsel and other information and events pertaining to a particular case. Based on its experience, although litigation is inherently unpredictable, Canon believes that any damage amounts claimed in outstanding matters are not a meaningful indicator of Canon's potential liability. In the opinion of management, any reasonably possible range of losses from outstanding matters would not have a material adverse effect on Canon's consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

(12) Disclosures about the Fair Value of Financial Instruments and Concentrations of Credit RiskFair value of financial instruments

The estimated fair values of Canon's financial instruments at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012 are set forth below. The following summary excludes cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, finance receivables, noncurrent receivables, short-term loans, trade payables and accrued expenses for which fair values approximate their carrying amounts. The summary also excludes investments which are disclosed in Note 2.

	Millions of yen
	September 30, 2013		December 31, 2012
	Carrying amount	Estimated fair value	Carrying amount	Estimated fair value
Long-term debt, including current installments	(2,583)	(2,578)	(3,664)	(3,654)
Foreign exchange contracts:
Assets	1,159	1,159	831	831
Liabilities	(1,246)	(1,246)	(25,493)	(25,493)

The following methods and assumptions are used to estimate the fair value in the above table.

Long-term debt

Canon's long-term debt instruments are classified as Level 2 instruments and valued based on the present value of future cash flows associated with each instrument discounted using current market borrowing rates for similar debt instruments of comparable maturity. The levels are more fully described in Note 13.

Foreign exchange contracts

The fair values of foreign exchange contracts are measured based on the market price obtained from financial institutions.

Limitations of fair value estimates

Fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant market information and information about the financial instruments. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

Concentrations of credit risk

At September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, one customer accounted for approximately 19% and 18% of consolidated trade receivables, respectively. Although Canon does not expect that the customer will fail to meet its obligations, Canon is potentially exposed to concentrations of credit risk if the customer failed to perform according to the terms of the contracts.

(13) Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A three-level fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value is as follows:

- Level 1 - Inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 - Inputs are quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.
- Level 3 - Inputs are derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or value drivers are unobservable, which reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in establishing a price.

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis

The following tables present Canon's assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis consistent with the fair value hierarchy at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012.

Level 1 investments are comprised principally of Japanese equity securities, which are valued using an unadjusted quoted market price in active markets with sufficient volume and frequency of transactions. Level 2 cash and cash equivalents are valued based on market approach, using quoted prices for identical assets in markets that are not active. Level 3 investments are mainly comprised of corporate bonds, which are valued based on cost approach, using unobservable inputs as the market for the assets was not active at the measurement date.

Derivative financial instruments are comprised of foreign exchange contracts. Level 2 derivatives are valued using quotes obtained from counterparties or third parties, which are periodically validated by pricing models using observable market inputs, such as foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates, based on market approach.

The following table presents the changes in Level 3 assets measured on a recurring basis, consisting primarily of corporate bonds, for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012.

(14) Supplemental Information

Gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions, including foreign exchange contracts, and translation of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are included in other income (deductions) in the consolidated statements of income. Foreign currency exchange gains and losses were net losses of ¥6,083 million and ¥1,347 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and were ¥3,939 million losses and ¥1,986 million gains, for the three months ended September 30, 2013, and 2012, respectively.

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expenses were ¥56,629 million and ¥57,020 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and were ¥19,015 million and ¥16,026 million for the three months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Shipping and handling costs totaled ¥34,509 million and ¥27,972 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and ¥11,710 million and ¥8,841 million for the three months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of income.

Certain debt securities with original maturities of less than three months classified as available-for-sale securities of ¥89,083 million and ¥141,729 million at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively, are included in cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated balance sheets. Fair value for these securities approximates their cost.

(14) Supplemental Information (continued)

Finance receivables represent financing leases which consist of sales-type leases and direct-financing leases resulting from the sales of Canon's and complementary third-party products primarily in foreign countries. These receivables typically have terms ranging from 1 year to 8 years. Finance receivables are ¥232,482 million and ¥184,404 million at September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively. Finance receivables which are individually evaluated for impairment at September 30, 2013 and 2012 are not significant.

The activity in the allowance for credit losses is as follows:

Canon has policies in place to ensure that its products are sold to customers with an appropriate credit history, and continuously monitors its customers' credit quality based on information including length of period in arrears, macroeconomic conditions, initiation of legal proceedings against customers and bankruptcy filings. The allowance for credit losses of finance receivables are evaluated collectively based on historical experience of credit losses. An additional reserve for individual accounts is recorded when Canon becomes aware of a customer's inability to meet its financial obligations, such as in the case of bankruptcy filings. Finance receivables which are past due at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012 are not significant.
