The following message was sent to Valeant employees on April 22, 2014:

Subject: An Important Message from the CEO

Dear Colleagues;

Earlier today, Valeant made an offer to combine with Allergan, Inc. for $48.30 in cash and 0.83 shares of Valeant common stock for each Allergan share. The press release we issued this morning is available on our website at <http://ir.valeant.com/investor-relations/news-releases/default.aspx>.

As many of you know, Allergan is a multi-specialty health care company with a leading portfolio of products across ophthalmology, neurology, aesthetics, medical dermatology, breast implants and urologics. Some of its leading products includes: BOTOX®, JUVÉDERM® line of products, LATISSE®, LUMIGAN® and RESTASIS®. By joining our portfolios, the combined company would have a #2 position in global eye health, a leading portfolio in dermatology and the most comprehensive aesthetics portfolio in the industry.

We firmly believe that a combination of Valeant and Allergan would provide significant benefits to patients and physicians around the world, as well as creating extraordinary value for both Valeant and Allergan shareholders by establishing an unrivaled platform with leading positions in ophthalmology, dermatology, aesthetics, dental and the emerging markets. Together, we would be able to capitalize on the inherent strengths and complementary portfolios of our two companies while applying Valeant's unique operating model to a combined set of terrific assets. Unfortunately, Allergan has not been willing to privately discuss a value-creating transaction and so we chose to take our proposal directly to Allergan's shareholders by announcing it publicly. We are hopeful that we will be able to sit down with Allergan and negotiate quickly, but we can make no assurances about when or if this transaction will be completed. However, we are committed to pursuing this combination and intend to take all steps necessary to complete the transaction.

We expect that both you, and Valeant's customers and vendors, may have a lot of questions about this news and what it means for Valeant and Allergan. Please keep in mind that we are limited in what we can say about a potential combination at this point and please refrain from speculating. The best thing we can do is to stay focused on our day-to-day responsibilities and avoid being distracted. We are off to a strong start in 2014 and we do not want to lose that momentum.

We will, of course, keep you apprised of any significant developments. Thank you for your continued hard work and dedication.

Sincerely,

Mike Pearson
