Disclaimer Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This quarterly report includes forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934) concerning Canon Inc. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively "Canon"). To the extent that statements in this quarterly report do not relate to historical or current facts, they constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the current assumptions and beliefs of Canon in light of the information currently available to them, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause Canon's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or financial position expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Canon undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements after the date of this quarterly report. Investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by Canon in its subsequent filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and its other filings.

The risks, uncertainties and other factors referred to above include, but are not limited to, foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations; the uncertainty of Canon's ability to implement its plans to localize production and other measures to reduce the impact of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations; uncertainty as to economic conditions in Canon's major markets; uncertainty of continued demand for Canon's high-value-added products; Canon's ability to continue to develop products and to market products that incorporate new technology on a timely basis, are competitively priced, and achieve market acceptance; the possibility of losses resulting from foreign currency transactions designed to reduce financial risks from changes in foreign currency exchange rates; disasters, outages or similar events; and inventory risk due to disruptions in supply chains and shifts in market demand.

(2) Description of Business

Canon prepares quarterly consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP). Financial information presented in sections II. The Business is also in conformity with U.S.GAAP.

Canon (consisting of the Company, 253 consolidated subsidiaries and 10 affiliates accounted for using the equity method, collectively, the Group) is engaged in the development, manufacture, sale and service primarily in the fields of office, imaging system, industry and others. No material change in Canon's business has occurred during the six months ended June 30, 2014.

No additions or removals of significant group entities have occurred during the six months ended June 30, 2014.

II. The Business

(1) Risk Factors

No material changes are recognized pursuant to the risk factors of Canon's business indicated in the Annual Securities Report (Yukashoken houkokusho) of the previous fiscal year.

(2) Significant Business Contracts Entered into in the Second Quarter of Fiscal 2014

No material contracts were entered into during the three months ended June 30, 2014.

(3) Operating Results

Looking back at the global economy in the first half of 2014, in the United States, although the economy has recovered steadily from the impact of the major cold wave that struck the country at the beginning of the year, the improvement has yet to stimulate consumer spending. In Europe, although uncertainty remained due to the political unrest in Ukraine, the economies of Germany and the U.K. have realized moderate recoveries. China and other emerging countries realized modest economic growth. As for Japan, the economy continued to grow gradually despite the rebound following the rush in demand leading up to the hike in the country's consumption tax. As a result, overall global economic growth during the first half continued to be sluggish.

As for the markets in which Canon operates amid these conditions, demand for office multifunction devices (MFDs) and laser printers remained firm. Demand for interchangeable-lens digital cameras decreased in Japan, due to the increase in the consumption tax, while demand overseas showed signs of recovery in China. As for digital compact cameras, demand continued to shrink in both developed countries as well as emerging markets. Looking at the overall market for inkjet printers, demand declined from the previous year. In the industry and others sector, a rebound in capital investment for both image sensors and memory devices led to a pickup in demand for semiconductor lithography equipment, while demand for lithography equipment used in the production of FPD recovered for large-size panels.

The average values of the yen during the second quarter and first half of the year were ¥102.13 and ¥102.40 to the U.S. dollar, respectively, year-on-year depreciations of approximately ¥3 and ¥6, and ¥139.94 and ¥140.35 to the euro, respectively, year-on-year depreciations of approximately ¥11 and ¥14.

[Second-quarter results]

During the second quarter, sales of MFDs remained firm while sales of industrial equipment increased significantly. Conversely, demand for digital compact cameras continued to shrink while net sales of inkjet printers decreased owing to the increase in consumption tax in Japan. Consequently, second-quarter net sales decreased 4.1% year on year to ¥926.8 billion. The gross profit ratio for the second quarter rose 2.8 points year on year to 52.2% thanks to a shift in production to highly profitable high-added-value products and improved factory utilization realized through optimized production, along with the depreciation of the yen. Despite an increase in foreign-currency-denominated operating expenses due to the weaker yen, Group-wide efforts to thoroughly reduce spending contributed to a 1.6% reduction in operating expenses year on year to ¥373.0 billion. As a result, operating profit increased by 12.4% to ¥110.5 billion. Other income (deductions) increased by ¥5.9 billion due to foreign currency exchange gains while income before income taxes increased by 18.3% year on year to ¥117.0 billion. Net income attributable to Canon Inc. increased by 21.6% to ¥80.8 billion.

Basic net income attributable to Canon Inc. stockholders per share for the second quarter was ¥72.61, an increase of ¥14.93 compared with the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

[First-half results]

During the first half, sales of MFDs remained firm while sales of industrial equipment increased significantly compared with those during the severe market conditions faced in the corresponding period of the previous year. Demand for digital compact cameras during the first six months of the year period continued to shrink. As for inkjet printers, despite solid growth in Japan owing to the rush in demand prior to the consumption tax hike, competition in overseas markets has intensified. Consequently, benefitting from the positive effects of favorable currency exchange rates, first-half net sales increased 0.6% year on year to ¥1,795.1 billion. The gross profit ratio for the first half rose 2.6 points to 51.0% from the year-ago period thanks to a shift in production to highly profitable high-added-value products and improved factory utilization through optimized production along with the depreciation of the yen. Despite an increase in foreign-currency-denominated operating expenses due to the depreciation of the yen, Group-wide efforts to thoroughly reduce spending contributed to limiting the increase in operating expenses to just ¥721.8 billion, an increase of 1.6% year on year for the first six months. Consequently, operating profit for the first half of the year increased by 26.2% to ¥193.2 billion. Other income decreased by ¥3.0 billion for the first half from the year-ago period due to foreign currency exchange gains while income before income taxes increased 23.3% year on year to ¥196.2 billion. First-half net income attributable to Canon Inc. increased by 19.6% to ¥128.5 billion due to the decrease in the tax rate because of the early repeal of the special reconstruction corporate tax.

Basic net income attributable to Canon Inc. stockholders per share for the first half was ¥114.47, a year-on-year increase of ¥21.30.

Looking at Canon's first-half performance by business unit, within the Office Business Unit, sales of color office MFDs, led by strong demand for the imageRUNNER ADVANCE C5200 series, remained at the same level as the year-ago period. As for high-speed continuous-feed printers and wide-format printers, sales of the Océ ColorStream 3000 series showed solid growth. Among laser printers, color multifunction models recorded healthy growth. As a result, in addition to the positive effects of favorable currency exchange rates, sales for the combined first six months of the year totaled ¥1,031.7 billion, a year-on-year increase of 4.8%, while operating profit totaled ¥160.6 billion, increasing 17.8%.

Within the Imaging System Business Unit, although sales volume of interchangeable-lens digital cameras declined owing to a delayed economic recovery, the advanced-amateur-model EOS 70D realized healthy growth, enabling Canon to maintain the top share in such major regional markets as Europe, the U.S. and Japan. As for digital compact cameras, despite a decline in total sales volume due to the contraction of the market and the increasing popularity of smartphones, sales of high-added-value models, featuring high image quality and high-magnification zoom capabilities recorded solid growth, maintaining high market shares. As for inkjet printers, while sales volume declined from the same period of the previous year, sales of consumables remained at the same level. As a result, sales for the first six months totaled ¥625.2 billion, decreasing 8.6% year on year, while operating profit totaled ¥93.0 billion, an increase of 9.7% year on year.

In the Industry and Others Business Unit, with regard to semiconductor lithography equipment, ongoing investment by memory device manufacturers in response to healthy growing demand for smartphones and tablets led to increased first-half unit sales of lithography equipment while a recovery in investment for large-size panels, which had been restricted until now, boosted unit sales of FPD lithography equipment. Consequently, sales for the first half of the year totaled ¥185.1 billion, growing 15.0% year on year, while operating profit posted a loss of ¥10.1 billion owing to Canon's upfront investment, an improvement of ¥3.3 billion from the year-ago period.

First-half results by major geographic area are summarized as follows:

Japan

Despite fluctuations in demand prior to and following the consumption tax increase, net sales in Japan for the first half increased 0.1% from the year-ago period to ¥1,258.8 billion thanks to a steady recovery in overall demand. First-half operating profit increased 17.2% year on year to ¥188.1 billion.

Americas

Although the U.S. economy recovered gradually from the major cold wave, net sales for the first half decreased by 6.6% from the year-ago period to ¥483.3 billion owing to the delayed recovery in the interchangeable-lens digital camera market and the contraction of the digital compact camera market. Operating profit for the first half totaled ¥8.8 billion, a decrease of 22.0% year on year.

Europe

Although Germany and the U.K. have realized moderate economic recoveries, a turnaround in demand for office multifunction devices and interchangeable-lens digital cameras has been delayed. Therefore, net sales for the first half decreased by 1.7% from the same period of the previous year to ¥559.6 billion. Operating profit for the first half, however, totaled ¥5.4 billion owing to efforts to curtail spending.

Asia and Oceania

While there have been some signs of an economic recovery in China, a turnaround in demand for digital compact cameras and inkjet printers has been delayed. As a consequence, net sales decreased by 5.3% to ¥747.4 billion for the first six months. Operating profit for the first half, however, increased 11.5% to ¥32.9 billion thanks to cost savings.

Cash Flows

During the first half of 2014, cash flow from operating activities totaled ¥294.5 billion, an increase of ¥76.6 billion compared with the previous year owing to the increase in profit and the change in trade receivables and trade payables. Although capital investment focused on new products, cash flow used in investing activities increased ¥2.8 billion year on year to ¥142.1 billion as a result of an increase in the amount of time deposits included in short-term investments. Accordingly, free cash flow for the first half totaled ¥152.4 billion, an increase of ¥73.8 billion compared with the corresponding year-ago period.

Cash flow from financing activities recorded an outlay of ¥176.4 billion, mainly arising from the dividend payout and the repurchasing of treasury stock.

Owing to these factors, as well as the impact of foreign currency translation adjustments, cash and cash equivalents decreased by ¥44.2 billion to ¥744.7 billion from the end of the previous year.

Management Issues to be Addressed

No material changes or issues with respect to business operations and finances have occurred during the six months ended June 30, 2014.

Research and Development Expenditures

Canon's research and development expenditures for the six months ended June 30, 2014 totaled ¥151.7 billion.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(1) Basis of Presentation and Significant Accounting Policies(a) Basis of Presentation

The Company issued convertible debentures in the United States in May 1969 and established a program in which its American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) were traded in the U.S. over-the-counter market. Since then, under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company has prepared its annual consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) and filed them with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 20-F. The Company's ADRs were listed on the NYSE in September 2000 after being quoted on NASDAQ from February 1972 to September 2000.

Canon's quarterly consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement criteria of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Certain disclosures have been omitted.

The number of consolidated subsidiaries and affiliated companies that were accounted for by the equity method basis as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 are summarized as follows:

	June 30, 2014	December 31, 2013
Consolidated subsidiaries	253	257
Affiliated companies	10	11
Total	263	268

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, its majority owned subsidiaries and those variable interest entities where the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries are the primary beneficiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

(c) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued a new accounting standard related to revenue from contracts with customers. This standard requires an entity to recognize revenue when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016 and is required to be adopted by Canon from the first quarter beginning January 1, 2017. Early adoption is not permitted. This standard may be applied retrospectively to each prior reporting period presented or retrospectively with the cumulative effect of initially applying this standard recognized at the date of initial application. Canon has not selected a transition method and is currently evaluating the effect that the adoption of this standard will have on its consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

(2) Investments (continued)

Maturities of available-for-sale debt securities included in investments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets were as follows at June 30, 2014:

	Millions of yen
	Cost	Fair value
Due after one year through five years	10	10
Due after five years	798	810
	808	820

Realized gains and losses are determined using the average cost method and are reflected in earnings. The gross realized gains were ¥2,328 million and ¥1,586 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The gross realized losses, including write-downs for impairments that were other than temporary, were ¥14 million and ¥2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The gross realized gains were ¥2,328 million and ¥608 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The gross realized losses, including write-downs for impairments that were other than temporary, were ¥14 million and ¥2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

At June 30, 2014, substantially all of the available-for-sale securities with unrealized losses had been in a continuous unrealized loss position for less than twelve months.

Time deposits with original maturities of more than three months are ¥76,966 million and ¥47,914 million at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively, and are included in short-term investments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Aggregate cost of non-marketable equity securities accounted for under the cost method totaled ¥3,735 million and ¥14,794 million at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively. These investments were not evaluated for impairment at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively, because (a) Canon did not estimate the fair value of those investments as it was not practicable to estimate the fair value of the investments and (b) Canon did not identify any events or changes in circumstances that might have had significant adverse effects on the fair value of those investments.

(10) Derivatives and Hedging Activities

Risk management policy

Canon operates internationally, exposing it to the risk of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. Derivative financial instruments are comprised principally of foreign exchange contracts utilized by the Company and certain of its subsidiaries to reduce the risk. Canon assesses foreign currency exchange rate risk by continually monitoring changes in the exposures and by evaluating hedging opportunities. Canon does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading purposes. Canon is also exposed to credit-related losses in the event of non-performance by counterparties to derivative financial instruments, but it is not expected that any counterparties will fail to meet their obligations. Most of the counterparties are internationally recognized financial institutions and selected by Canon taking into account their financial condition, and contracts are diversified across a number of major financial institutions.

Foreign currency exchange rate risk management

Canon's international operations expose Canon to the risk of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. Canon uses foreign exchange contracts to manage certain foreign currency exchange exposures principally from the exchange of U.S. dollars and euros into Japanese yen. These contracts are primarily used to hedge the foreign currency exposure of forecasted intercompany sales and intercompany trade receivables that are denominated in foreign currencies. In accordance with Canon's policy, a specific portion of foreign currency exposure resulting from forecasted intercompany sales are hedged using foreign exchange contracts which principally mature within three months.

Cash flow hedge

Changes in the fair value of derivative financial instruments designated as cash flow hedges, including foreign exchange contracts associated with forecasted intercompany sales, are reported in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss). These amounts are subsequently reclassified into earnings through other income (deductions) in the same period as the hedged items affect earnings. Substantially all amounts recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) as of June 30, 2014 are expected to be recognized in earnings over the next twelve months. Canon excludes the time value component from the assessment of hedge effectiveness. Changes in the fair value of a foreign exchange contract for the period between the date that the forecasted intercompany sales occur and its maturity date are recognized in earnings and not considered hedge ineffectiveness.

Derivatives not designated as hedges

Canon has entered into certain foreign exchange contracts to primarily offset the earnings impact related to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates associated with certain assets denominated in foreign currencies. Although these foreign exchange contracts have not been designated as hedges as required in order to apply hedge accounting, the contracts are effective from an economic perspective. The changes in the fair value of these contracts are recorded in earnings immediately.

(11) Commitments and Contingent LiabilitiesCommitments

As of June 30, 2014, commitments outstanding for the purchase of property, plant and equipment approximated ¥38,779 million, and commitments outstanding for the purchase of parts and raw materials approximated ¥79,294 million.

Canon occupies sales offices and other facilities under lease arrangements accounted for as operating leases. Deposits made under such arrangements aggregated ¥13,166 million and ¥13,448 million at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively, and are included in noncurrent receivables in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Future minimum lease payments required under noncancelable operating leases are ¥22,924 million (within one year) and ¥56,314 million (after one year), at June 30, 2014.

Guarantees

Canon provides guarantees for bank loans of its employees, affiliates and other companies. The guarantees for the employees are principally made for their housing loans. The guarantees of loans of its affiliates and other companies are made to ensure that those companies operate with less financial risk.

For each guarantee provided, Canon would have to perform under a guarantee if the borrower defaults on a payment within the contract periods of 1 year to 30 years, in the case of employees with housing loans, and of 1 year to 5 years, in the case of affiliates and other companies. The maximum amount of undiscounted payments Canon would have had to make in the event of default is ¥10,565 million at June 30, 2014. The carrying amounts of the liabilities recognized for Canon's obligations as a guarantor under those guarantees at June 30, 2014 were not significant.

Canon also issues contractual product warranties under which it generally guarantees the performance of products delivered and services rendered for a certain period or term. Estimated product warranty costs are recorded at the time revenue is recognized and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses. Estimates for accrued product warranty costs are based on historical experience. Changes in accrued product warranty cost for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013 is summarized as follows:

Legal proceedings

Canon is involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. Canon has recorded provisions for liabilities when it is probable that liabilities have been incurred and the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated. Canon reviews these provisions at least quarterly and adjusts these provisions to reflect the impact of the negotiations, settlements, rulings, advice of legal counsel and other information and events pertaining to a particular case. Based on its experience, although litigation is inherently unpredictable, Canon believes that any damage amounts claimed in outstanding matters are not a meaningful indicator of Canon's potential liability. In the opinion of management, any reasonably possible range of losses from outstanding matters would not have a material adverse effect on Canon's consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

(12) Disclosures about the Fair Value of Financial Instruments and Concentrations of Credit RiskFair value of financial instruments

The estimated fair values of Canon's financial instruments at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 are set forth below. The following summary excludes cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, finance receivables, noncurrent receivables, short-term loans, trade payables and accrued expenses for which fair values approximate their carrying amounts. The summary also excludes investments which are disclosed in Note 2.

	Millions of yen
	June 30, 2014		December 31, 2013
	Carrying amount	Estimated fair value	Carrying amount	Estimated fair value
Long-term debt, including current installments	(2,170)	(2,168)	(2,693)	(2,693)
Foreign exchange contracts:
Assets	1,831	1,831	254	254
Liabilities	(263)	(263)	(14,945)	(14,945)

The following methods and assumptions are used to estimate the fair value in the above table.

Long-term debt

Canon's long-term debt instruments are classified as Level 2 instruments and valued based on the present value of future cash flows associated with each instrument discounted using current market borrowing rates for similar debt instruments of comparable maturity. The levels are more fully described in Note 13.

Foreign exchange contracts

The fair values of foreign exchange contracts are measured based on the market price obtained from financial institutions.

Limitations of fair value estimates

Fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant market information and information about the financial instruments. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

Concentrations of credit risk

At June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, one customer accounted for approximately 18% and 15% of consolidated trade receivables, respectively. Although Canon does not expect that the customer will fail to meet its obligations, Canon is potentially exposed to concentrations of credit risk if the customer failed to perform according to the terms of the contracts.

(13) Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A three-level fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value is as follows:

- Level 1 - Inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 - Inputs are quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.
- Level 3 - Inputs are derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or value drivers are unobservable, which reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in establishing a price.

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis

The following tables present Canon's assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis consistent with the fair value hierarchy at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013.

Level 1 investments are comprised principally of Japanese equity securities, which are valued using an unadjusted quoted market price in active markets with sufficient volume and frequency of transactions. Level 2 cash and cash equivalents are valued based on market approach, using quoted prices for identical assets in markets that are not active. Level 3 investments are mainly comprised of corporate bonds, which are valued based on cost approach, using unobservable inputs as the market for the assets was not active at the measurement date.

Derivative financial instruments are comprised of foreign exchange contracts. Level 2 derivatives are valued using quotes obtained from counterparties or third parties, which are periodically validated by pricing models using observable market inputs, such as foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates, based on market approach.

The following table presents the changes in Level 3 assets measured on a recurring basis, consisting primarily of corporate bonds, for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013.

(14) Supplemental Information

Gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions, including foreign exchange contracts, and translation of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are included in other income (deductions) in the consolidated statements of income. Foreign currency exchange gains and losses were net losses of ¥7,655 million and ¥2,144 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively, and were ¥1,848 million and ¥5,326 million, for the three months ended June 30, 2014, and 2013, respectively.

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expenses were ¥32,834 million and ¥37,614 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively, and were ¥21,546 million and ¥27,011 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Shipping and handling costs totaled ¥23,491 million and ¥22,799 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively, and ¥11,641 million and ¥12,033 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively, and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of income.

Certain debt securities with original maturities of less than three months classified as available-for-sale securities of ¥134,077 million and ¥183,078 million at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively, are included in cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated balance sheets. Fair value for these securities approximates their cost.

(14) Supplemental Information (continued)

Finance receivables represent financing leases which consist of sales-type leases and direct-financing leases resulting from the sales of Canon's and complementary third-party products primarily in foreign countries. These receivables typically have terms ranging from 1 year to 6 years. Finance receivables are ¥244,460 million and ¥231,116 million at June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively. Finance receivables which are individually evaluated for impairment at June 30, 2014 and 2013 are not significant.

The activity in the allowance for credit losses is as follows:

Six months ended June 30, 2014

Millions of yen

Balance at December 31, 2013	7,323

Canon has policies in place to ensure that its products are sold to customers with an appropriate credit history, and continuously monitors its customers' credit quality based on information including length of period in arrears, macroeconomic conditions, initiation of legal proceedings against customers and bankruptcy filings. The allowance for credit losses of finance receivables are evaluated collectively based on historical experience of credit losses. An additional reserve for individual accounts is recorded when Canon becomes aware of a customer's inability to meet its financial obligations, such as in the case of bankruptcy filings. Finance receivables which are past due at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 are not significant.

(15) Segment Information

Canon operates its business in three segments: the Office Business Unit, the Imaging System Business Unit, and the Industry and Others Business Unit, which are based on the organizational structure and information reviewed by Canon's management to evaluate results and allocate resources.

The primary products included in each segment are as follows:

Office Business Unit: Office multifunction devices (MFDs) / Laser multifunction printers (MFPs) / Laser printers / Digital production printing systems /

High speed continuous feed printers / Wide-format printers / Document solutions

Imaging System Business Unit: Interchangeable lens digital cameras / Digital compact cameras / Digital camcorders / Digital cinema cameras / Interchangeable lenses /

Inkjet printers / Large-format inkjet printers / Commercial photo printers /

Image scanners / Multimedia projectors / Broadcast equipment / Calculators

Industry and Others Business Unit: Semiconductor lithography equipment / FPD (Flat panel display) lithography equipment /

Digital radiography systems / Ophthalmic equipment /

Vacuum thin-film deposition equipment/

Organic LED (OLED) panel manufacturing equipment/ Die bonders /

Micromotors / Network cameras / Handy terminals / Document scanners

The accounting policies of the segments are substantially the same as the accounting policies used in Canon's quarterly consolidated financial statements. Canon evaluates performance of, and allocates resources to, each segment based on operating profit.
