Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On November 21, 2014, Upland Software, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release, a copy of which is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference, regarding the Company's acquisition of Solution Q, Inc. and its SaaS project and portfolio management application, Eclipse PPM. Eclipse is a purpose-built application for mid-market organizations seeking an easy-to-use, turnkey solution for their project management and portfolio visibility needs.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 21, 2014, Upland Software, Inc. (the Company) announced its acquisition of Solution Q, Inc. and its SaaS project and portfolio management application, Eclipse. The Company expects the Eclipse product to generate approximately $4.5 million in revenue in 2015, subject to reductions for a deferred revenue discount as a result of GAAP purchase accounting. The purchase price consideration paid in the transaction was approximately $5.8 million, and consisted of approximately $3.2 million in cash payable at closing (net of $0.4 million of cash acquired), a $0.9 million cash holdback payable eighteen (18) months following the closing (subject to indemnification claims), and 150,977 shares of the Company's common stock.

This report includes forward-looking statements covered by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Because such statements may deal with future events, they are subject to various risks and uncertainties and actual results for fiscal year 2015 and beyond could differ materially from the Company's current expectations. Forward-looking statements are identified by words such as anticipates, projects, expects, plans, intends, believes, estimates, targets, and other similar expressions that indicate trends and future events. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update forward-looking statements as a result of new information, since these statements may no longer be accurate or timely.
