Item 8.01 Other Events

On January 31, 2015, pursuant to that certain Amended and Restated Master Acquisition Agreement dated November 14, 2014 (the "Master Acquisition Agreement") with Barco NV, a corporation formed under the laws of Belgium ("Barco Belgium" and together with all of its subsidiaries, "Barco"), Barco Inc., a corporation formed under the laws of Delaware ("Barco USA") and Barco Integrated Solutions NV, a corporation formed under the laws of Belgium (collectively with Barco Belgium and Barco USA, the "Sellers") Esterline Technologies Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Esterline"), acquired the defense, aerospace and training businesses of the Sellers through the purchase of certain assets and the equity of certain direct and/or indirect subsidiaries of Barco Belgium for a total consideration of 150 million euros (approximately USD $175 million). Esterline financed the Barco acquisition primarily using international cash reserves, with the balance funded by borrowings under its existing credit facility.

There was no material relationship between Esterline (or any officer, director or affiliate of either Esterline, or any associate of any such officer or director) and Barco and any of the equity holders of Barco.

The press release regarding the Barco acquisition should be read in conjunction with the note regarding forward-looking statements, which is included in the press release, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
