Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Effective as of March 19, 2015, MGM Resorts International (the Company) amended Article I, Sections 5 and 8 of the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaw Amendment) to adopt a majority voting standard for the election of directors in uncontested elections. The new majority voting standard provides that to be elected in an uncontested election, a director nominee must receive a majority of the votes cast in the election such that the number of shares properly cast for the nominee exceeds the number of votes properly cast against that nominee. In contested elections where the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, the voting standard will continue to be a plurality of votes cast.

In connection with the Bylaw Amendment, the Company also amended Section II of its Corporate Governance Guidelines to require an incumbent director who fails to receive the required number of votes in an uncontested election to tender his or her resignation to the Board. The Corporate Governance Guidelines, as amended, provide that the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) will assess the appropriateness of such nominee continuing to serve as a director and will recommend to the Board the action to be taken with respect to such tendered resignation. The Corporate Governance Guidelines require that the Board publicly disclose its decision and rationale with respect to the tendered resignation within 90 days following certification of the stockholder vote.

The foregoing descriptions of the amendments to the Amended and Restated Bylaws and the Corporate Governance Guidelines do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Amended and Restated Bylaws, as amended, that are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated by reference herein, and to the Corporate Governance Guidelines, as amended, which are available on the Company's website at www.mgmresorts.com/corporategovernance under the caption Corporate Governance Guidelines. Except to the extent explicitly stated herein, the information on the Company's website is not incorporated herein by reference.
