ITEM 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On December 11, 2015, Genesee & Wyoming Inc. (G&W) issued a press release that provided a fourth quarter 2015 business update, noting that metallic ores shipments in its Australian Operations were lower than expected due to the suspension of rail shipments from a customer manganese mine in November.

On December 15, 2015, OM Holdings Limited (ASX: OMH) (OM), the parent company to the manganese customer, announced that as a result of the ongoing and significant fall in the price of manganese it has temporarily suspended mining operations at its Bootu Creek Manganese Project (Bootu Creek) served by Genesee & Wyoming Inc. s Australian subsidiary, GWA (North) Pty Limited (GWA). Year to date through October 2015, GWA carried 9,100 carloads of manganese ore from Bootu Creek, generating approximately A$18.6 million in freight revenues (or approximately US$13.6 million, at current exchange rates of approximately A$1.00 = US$0.73). As of October 31, 2015, GWA had a A$4.5 million receivable (US$3.3 million at current exchange rates) outstanding that it intends to collect from OM pursuant to a parent company guarantee incorporated in the rail freight contract. GWA does not expect to record additional revenue associated with Bootu Creek for the remainder of 2015. GWA will only record additional revenues if and when rail shipments recommence from the Bootu Creek mine.

The information contained in this Item 7.01 shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or incorporated by reference in any filing under the Exchange Act or the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.
