Acorn International Regains Compliance with NYSE Continued Listing Standard for Minimum Share Price

SHANGHAI, China, January 6, 2016 Acorn International, Inc. (NYSE: ATV) (Acorn or the Company) today announced that it has regained compliance with the minimum share price standard required by the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) for continued listing of the Company s American depositary shares (ADS) (each representing twenty of Acorn s ordinary shares).

As previously disclosed, the NYSE notified the Company on September 15, 2015 that it was not in compliance with the NYSE s continued listing standard because the average closing price of the ADSs had been below US$1.00 over a consecutive 30-trading-day period.

On January 5, 2016, the NYSE notified Acorn that it had cured its non-compliance with the NYSE s minimum share price standard and regained compliance with the NYSE s continuing listing standards by virtue of the fact that the average closing price of the ADSs for the 30-trading days ended December 31, 2015 was above US$1. The ADSs will continue to be traded on the NYSE, subject to Acorn s continued compliance with all applicable NYSE requirements.
