Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously disclosed on February 2, 2018, Cenveo, Inc. (the Company) together with certain of its affiliates filed voluntary petitions (the Chapter 11 Cases) under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the Bankruptcy Code) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.

On February 2, 2018, the Company received a letter from the Listing Qualifications Department of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (NASDAQ) notifying the Company that as a result of the Chapter 11 Cases, and in accordance with NASDAQ Listing Rules 5101, 5110(b) and IM-5101-1, NASDAQ has determined that the Company's Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock) will be delisted from NASDAQ. Accordingly, unless the Company requests an appeal of this determination, trading of the Common Stock will be suspended at the opening of business on February 13, 2018, and a Form 25-NSE will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which will remove the Common Stock from listing and registration on NASDAQ.

The Company is contemplating its decision to appeal NASDAQ's determination. If the Company does not appeal the staff's determination, the Company expects that its units will be eligible to be quoted on the OTC Pink operated by the OTC Markets Group Inc. (the OTC Pink). To be quoted on the OTC Pink, a market maker must sponsor the security and comply with SEC Rule 15c2-11 before it can initiate a quote in a specific security. The OTC Pink is a significantly more limited market than NASDAQ, and the quotation of the Common Stock on the OTC Pink may result in a less liquid market available for existing and potential stockholders and could further depress the trading price of the Common Stock. There can be no assurance that any public market for the Common Stock will exist in the future or that the Company or its successor will be able to relist the Common Stock on a national securities exchange.

Cautionary Note Regarding the Chapter 11 Cases

The Company's stockholders are cautioned that it is likely that the Company's stockholders will receive nothing in exchange for its common stock upon the Company's emergence from bankruptcy and the common stock will have no value and that trading in securities of the Company during the pendency of the Chapter 11 cases will be highly speculative and will pose substantial risks. It is possible the Company's outstanding securities may be cancelled and extinguished upon confirmation of a restructuring plan by the Bankruptcy Court. In such an event, the Company's stockholders and other security holders would not be entitled to receive or retain any cash, securities or other property on account of their cancelled securities. Trading prices for the Company's common stock and other securities may bear little or no relation to actual recovery, if any, by holders thereof in the Company's Chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, the Company urges extreme caution with respect to existing and future investments in its securities.

These and other important factors may cause our actual results, performance, or achievements to differ materially from any future results, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements.
