Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Purchase and Sale Agreement

On December 10, 2018, CBS Broadcasting Inc. (the Seller), a subsidiary of CBS Corporation (CBS), entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Television City Equity, LLC (the Buyer), a Delaware limited liability company affiliated with Hackman Capital Partners, and First American Title Insurance Company, as escrow agent. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, and upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, the Buyer will acquire the Seller's real property located at 7800 Beverly Blvd in Los Angeles, California, known as CBS Television City® (the Real Property), and certain other assets (together with the Real Property, the Property) relating to the studio production operations conducted by the Seller at the Real Property (the Transferred Operations), including rights to use certain CBS trademarks as described below, certain leases and contracts with third parties and certain equipment used in the Transferred Operations, for a purchase price of $750,000,000, subject to certain closing adjustments (collectively, the Transaction). The Buyer will assume certain liabilities with respect to the Property and the Transferred Operations. The Seller will make its employees who work in the Transferred Operations available to an affiliate of the Buyer through December 31, 2019, and an affiliate of the Buyer will commit to offer employment to such employees as of January 1, 2020, pursuant to an employee matters agreement to be effective upon the closing of the Transaction. CBS will retain certain operations conducted at the Real Property by CBS and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the Retained Operations).

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, at the closing of the Transaction the Seller and the Buyer (or one of its affiliates) will enter into certain other agreements, including a participation agreement, a target cash flow agreement, intellectual property license agreements, a lease and a services agreement. Under the participation agreement, if within a specified timeframe the Buyer develops the Real Property in excess of a specified square footage, the Seller will be entitled to certain payments. Under the target cash flow agreement, if during the 5-year period following the closing of the Transaction the Buyer's cash flow relating to the Property and the Transferred Operations is below a specified target, the Seller will be required to make certain payments to the Buyer, subject to a cap. Under the intellectual property license agreements, the Seller will license to the Buyer certain rights to use the trademarks CBS Eye Logo® and Television City® and certain related intellectual property of Seller used in connection with the Property and the Transferred Operations. Pursuant to the lease, the Seller will lease from the Buyer certain office and other space located at the Real Property for the Retained Operations. Pursuant to the services agreement, the Seller will provide the Buyer with certain transition services with respect to the Transferred Operations.

The Buyer and the Seller have made customary representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Agreement also contains customary covenants and agreements, including, among other things, with respect to the conduct of the Property and the Transferred Operations during the interim period between the execution of the Purchase Agreement and closing of the Transaction, and the efforts of the parties to cause the Transaction to be completed, including actions which may be necessary to cause the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act).

The Purchase Agreement provides that the consummation of the Transaction is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions, including, among others, the: (i) expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act, (ii) absence of any law or order prohibiting the consummation of the Transaction, (iii) irrevocable commitment by the title insurers to issue to the Buyer at closing the title policy relating to the Real Property, (iv) accuracy of the respective parties' representations and warranties, both as of the date of the Purchase Agreement and as of the date of closing of the Transaction, subject to certain materiality thresholds, and (v) material compliance with covenants by the respective parties. The Purchase Agreement also contains limitations on the Seller's liability with respect to certain breaches of the Purchase Agreement, including certain survival periods and other customary limitations.

The Purchase Agreement contains certain customary termination rights for both the Buyer and the Seller, including, among others, the right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if (i) the Transaction has not been consummated on or before January 31, 2019 (subject to a right of the Seller under certain circumstances to adjourn the closing to a later date) or (ii) under certain conditions, there has been a breach of certain representations and warranties or a failure to perform certain covenants by the other party.

Upon execution of the Purchase Agreement, the Buyer placed into escrow a $35,000,000 deposit toward the purchase price. The Purchase Agreement provides that, subject to certain exceptions, the Seller's recourse against the Buyer if the Transaction is not consummated will be limited to the amount of this deposit.

CBS expects the Transaction to be completed by early 2019.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the Transaction contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement has been included, and the Purchase Agreement is being filed, to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the Purchase Agreement. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about CBS, the Seller, their respective subsidiaries and affiliates or their respective businesses. The Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties by each of the applicable parties to the Purchase Agreement, which were made only for purposes of the Purchase Agreement and as of specified dates. The representations, warranties and covenants in the Purchase Agreement were made (i) solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement, (ii) may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, (iii) may be made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Purchase Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts and (iv) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of CBS, Seller or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in CBS' public disclosures.
