PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

Introduction

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the stockholders of record of IDT Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the “Company” or “IDT”) as of the close of business on February 18, 2011, in connection with the solicitation by the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board of Directors”) of proxies for use in voting at the Company’s Special Meeting of Stockholders (the “Special Meeting”). The Special Meeting will be held on Monday, March 28, 2011 at 10:30 a.m., local time, at Hampton Inn & Suites Newark Riverwalk Hotel, 100 Passaic Ave, Harrison, New Jersey 07029. The shares of the Company’s Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Common Stock”), Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Class A Common Stock”), and Class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Class B Common Stock”), present at the Special Meeting or represented by the proxies received by telephone, Internet or mail (properly marked, dated and executed) and not revoked, will be voted at the Special Meeting. This Proxy Statement is being mailed to the Company’s stockholders starting around March [___], 2011.

Solicitation and Voting Procedures

This solicitation of proxies is being made by the Company. The solicitation is being conducted by mail and by e-mail, and the Company will bear all attendant costs. These costs will include the expense of preparing and mailing proxy materials for the Special Meeting and any reimbursements paid to brokerage firms and others for their expenses incurred in forwarding the solicitation materials regarding the Special Meeting to the beneficial owners of the Company’s Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. The Company may conduct further solicitations personally, by telephone or by facsimile through its officers, directors and employees, none of whom will receive additional compensation for assisting with the solicitation.

The close of business on Friday, February 18, 2011 has been fixed as the record date (the “Record Date”) for determining the holders of shares of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting. As of the close of business on the Record Date, the Company had [22,989,923] shares entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, consisting of [1,812,121] shares of Common Stock, [3,272,326] shares of Class A Common Stock and [17,905,476] shares of Class B Common Stock.

Stockholders are entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock, three votes for each share of Class A Common Stock and one-tenth of one vote for each share of Class B Common Stock held by them. The holders of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will vote together as a single body and also as separate classes with respect to the Amendment (as described below), but otherwise as a single body on all other matters presented to the stockholders.

How do I Vote?

You can vote either in person at the Special Meeting or by proxy without attending the meeting.

Beneficial holders of the Company's Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as of the Record Date whose stock is held of record by another party should receive voting instructions from their bank, broker or other holder of record. If a stockholder's shares are held through a nominee and the stockholder wants to vote at the meeting, such stockholder must obtain a proxy from the nominee record holder authorizing such stockholder to vote at the Special Meeting.

Stockholders of record should receive a paper copy of our proxy materials and may vote by following the instructions on the proxy card that is included with the proxy materials. As set forth on the proxy card, there are three convenient methods for holders of record to direct their vote by proxy without attending the Special Meeting: by telephone, on the Internet or by mail. To vote by phone, call the toll-free telephone number on the proxy card (1-800-PROXIES), and to vote by Internet, visit www.voteproxy.com. To vote by mail, mark, date and sign the enclosed proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided. Holders of record may also vote by attending the Special Meeting and voting by ballot.

All shares for which a proxy has been duly executed and delivered (by telephone, Internet or mail) and not revoked will be voted at the Special Meeting. If a stockholder of record signs and returns a proxy card but does not give voting instructions, the shares represented by that proxy will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors. If any other matters are properly presented at the Special Meeting for consideration and if you have voted your shares by Internet, telephone, or mail, the persons named as proxies will have the discretion to vote on those matters for you. On the date of filing this Proxy Statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), the Board of Directors did not know of any other matter to be raised at the Special Meeting.

How Can I Change My Vote?

A stockholder of record can revoke his, her or its proxy at any time before it is voted at the Special Meeting by delivering to the Company (to the attention of Joyce J. Mason, Esq., Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary) a written notice of revocation or by executing a later-dated proxy by telephone, Internet or mail, or by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person.

If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker, or other nominee, you must obtain a proxy executed in your favor from the holder of record (that is, your bank, broker, or nominee) to be able to vote at the Special Meeting.

Quorum and Vote Required

The presence at the Special Meeting of a majority of the voting power of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (voting together and also as separate classes), either in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Special Meeting. Abstention votes and any broker non-votes (i.e., votes withheld by brokers on non-routine proposals in the absence of instructions from beneficial owners) will be counted as present or represented at the Special Meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power, as well as a majority of the voting power of each separate class, represented at the Special Meeting will be required for the approval of the amendment and restatement of the Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the “Amendment”). This means that the number of votes cast “for” the Amendment must exceed the number of votes cast “against” the Amendment in total and in each class. Abstentions are not counted as votes “for” or “against” the Amendment.

Under New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) rules, without voting instructions from the beneficial owner, brokers may not vote shares on non-routine matters. The Amendment is a non-routine matter. In the absence of voting instructions from the beneficial owner, a broker non-vote may occur. In the event of a broker non-vote or an abstention with respect to any proposal coming before the Special Meeting, the shares represented by the relevant proxy will not be deemed to be present and entitled to vote on those proposals for the purpose of determining the total number of shares of which a majority is required for adoption, having the practical effect of reducing the number of affirmative votes required to achieve a majority vote for such matters by reducing the total number of shares from which a majority is calculated.

How Many Votes Are Required to Approve Other Matters?

Unless otherwise required by law or the Company’s Bylaws, the affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power, as well as a majority of the voting power of each separate class, represented at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote will be required for other matters that may properly come before the meeting.

Stockholders Sharing the Same Address

We are sending only one copy of this Proxy Statement to stockholders of record who share the same last name and address, unless they have notified the Company that they want to continue to receive multiple copies. This practice, known as “householding,” is designed to reduce duplicate mailings and printings and postage costs. However, if any stockholder residing at such address wishes to receive a separate Proxy Statement in the future, he or she may contact Joyce J. Mason, Esq., Corporate Secretary, IDT Corporation, 520 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey 07102, or by phone at (973) 438-1000, and we will promptly forward to such stockholder a separate Proxy Statement. The contact information above may also be used by members of the same household currently receiving multiple copies of the Proxy Statement in order to request that only one set of materials be sent in the future.

The information in the following table is based on the reports filed with the SEC as of the date of the filing of this Proxy Statement, but, due to the timing of the filing of this Proxy Statement, may not reflect in all instances the changes in ownership which resulted from the consummation of the Exchange Offer, pursuant to which 1,916,547 shares of Common Stock were exchanged for 1,916,547 shares of Class B Common Stock.

PROPOSED BUSINESS FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING

AMENDMENT OF IDT'S EXISTING SECOND RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CONVERT AND RECLASSIFY OUTSTANDING SHARES OF COMMON STOCK INTO CLASS B
COMMON STOCK

AND REVISE AND ELIMINATE PROVISIONS OF THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
RELATED TO THE COMMON STOCK
AND REVISE PROVISION RELATING TO DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS OF CASH AND PROPERTY

Our Board of Directors has approved our Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Third Restated Certificate") that would, if approved at the Special Meeting and filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, convert and reclassify each outstanding share of Common Stock into one share of Class B Common Stock, as well as revise and eliminate certain provisions of our existing Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation relating to the Common Stock and revise the provision relating to dividends and distributions of cash and property, including stock of another company. In accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law, our Board is submitting the proposed Third Restated Certificate for the approval of our stockholders, as described in more detail below.

The primary purpose for the proposed Amendment is the elimination of our Common Stock by converting the Common Stock into Class B Common Stock, which will result in our having only a single class of publicly traded stock. We refer to this throughout this proxy statement as the "conversion."

The text of the proposed Third Restated Certificate, marked to show changes to our current Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation, is included as Annex A to this document.

BACKGROUND OF THE CONVERSION

We currently have three classes of common stock outstanding – Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. The powers, privileges, preferences and relative participating, optional or other special rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are identical in all respects except for certain voting and conversion rights and restrictions on transferability. The holders of Class A Common Stock are entitled to three votes per share, the holders of Class B Common Stock are entitled to one-tenth of a vote per share, and the holders of Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share. Class A Common Stock is subject to certain limitations on transferability that do not apply to Class B Common Stock and Common Stock. Each share of Class A Common Stock may be converted into one share of Common Stock, at any time, at the option of the holder. Following the effecting of the Amendment, if approved by our stockholders, and the conversion of the Common Stock into Class B Common Stock thereby, each share of Class A Common Stock will be convertible into one share of Class B Common Stock, instead of Common Stock.

As of January 31, 2011, following the consummation of the Exchange Offer described below, there were 1,812,121 shares of Common Stock outstanding held by 217 holders of record, 3,272,326 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding held by six holders of record, all of which are beneficially owned by Howard S. Jonas, and 17,905,476 shares of Class B Common Stock outstanding held by 108 holders of record. As of that date, the outstanding Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common stock represented approximately 7.9%, 14.2% and 77.9%, respectively, of our shares of outstanding common stock, and approximately 13.5%, 73.2% and 13.3%, respectively, of the total voting power of the outstanding common stock.

The Exchange Offer

On December 2, 2010, we commenced a tax-free exchange offer (the “Exchange Offer”), pursuant to which holders of shares of our Common Stock had the opportunity to exchange their shares of Common Stock for shares of our Class B Common Stock on a one-for-one basis. The Exchange Offer was conditioned on at least 1,115,970 shares of Common Stock, which represented the majority of the shares of Common Stock held by stockholders of IDT, other than IDT’s affiliates (including, but not limited to, Howard Jonas, its other directors and officers and their affiliates), having been validly tendered and not properly withdrawn by such unaffiliated stockholders of IDT (the “Minimum Condition”). On January 18, 2011, the Exchange Offer expired with 1,916,547 shares of Common Stock having been tendered and not properly withdrawn, meeting the Minimum Condition. Mr. Jonas did not tender any of his shares of Common Stock in the Exchange Offer. Following the consummation of the Exchange Offer, there remained 1,812,121 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding.

Certain Effects of the Exchange Offer and Conversion

Effect on Ownership Structure of IDT and the Voting Power of Mr. Jonas

Mr. Jonas has agreed to ensure that his voting power will not increase due to the Exchange Offer and the conversion. During the pendency of the Exchange Offer and Recapitalization, this was and will continue to be accomplished through an agreement, whereby Mr. Jonas agrees not to exercise certain voting power of shares of Class A Common Stock over which he exercises voting control, to the extent that it would result in his exercising more than 76.1% of the total voting power of all outstanding capital stock of IDT, which was the voting power of shares of our capital stock over which Mr. Jonas exercised voting control immediately prior to the commencement of the Exchange Offer. The shares of Common Stock controlled by Mr. Jonas will be automatically converted and reclassified into shares of Class B Common Stock in the conversion. In addition, Mr. Jonas, promptly following the conversion, if it is approved and effected, will exchange 1,698,000 shares of Class A Common Stock (which is entitled to three votes per share) for shares of Class B Common Stock so that, following all such steps, the voting power of shares of our capital stock over which Mr. Jonas exercises voting control will remain the same as it was immediately prior to the commencement of the Exchange Offer.

As of January 31, 2011, Mr. Jonas directly and indirectly beneficially owned 1,491,713 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately 82.3% of the outstanding Common Stock (and 93.7% assuming conversion of all 3,272,326 shares of Class A Common Stock held by Mr. Jonas into Common Stock) and 1,825,339 shares of Class B Common Stock, representing approximately 10.2% of the outstanding Class B Common Stock, and 3,272,326 shares of Class A Common Stock representing, 100% of the outstanding Class A Common Stock, together representing approximately 85.6% of the combined voting power of all of our outstanding equity securities (which voting power is restricted by agreement until the Recapitalization is completed). In connection with Mr. Jonas’ agreement to ensure that his voting power will not increase due to the Exchange Offer and the Recapitalization, promptly following the conversion, Mr. Jonas will exchange 1,698,000 shares of Class A Common Stock (which is entitled to three votes per share) for shares of Class B Common Stock so that, following the conversion and such exchange his percentage voting power will remain at 76.1%, the same as it was immediately prior to the Exchange Offer. Upon the effecting of the conversion and the exchange by Mr. Jonas, the voting power agreement by Mr. Jonas will be immediately terminated and no longer be in effect.

Immediately following the conversion, if it is approved and effected, and upon the subsequent exchange of 1,698,000 shares of Class A Common Stock for Class B Common Stock in order to maintain the voting power of shares of our capital stock over which he exercises voting control at 76.1% of the total voting power of all our outstanding capital stock, Mr. Jonas will directly and indirectly beneficially own no shares of Common Stock, 5,015,052 shares of Class

B Common Stock, representing approximately 2.3% of the outstanding Class B Common Stock, and 1,574,326 shares of Class A Common Stock, representing, 100% of the outstanding Class A Common Stock, together representing approximately 76.1% of the combined voting power of all of our outstanding equity securities.

Mr. Jonas has indicated that he intends to vote all shares of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock over which he exercises voting control in favor of the Amendment.

Interests of IDT Directors/Executive Officers

Except for Mr. Jonas, none of our directors and named executive officers own shares of Common Stock.

Effects on Listing, Registration and Status of IDT Common Stock

Upon the effecting of the conversion there would no longer be any Common Stock, and we would seek to have it delisted from the NYSE and apply to the SEC to terminate its registration under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

Capital Structure of Genie Energy

Our management has been authorized by our Board of Directors to pursue a spin-off involving our Genie Energy division, whereby the ownership of such business segment will be distributed to our then stockholders of record on a pro rata basis, and which will likely result in changes to the composition of our Board of Directors and the movement of certain assets to Genie prior to the spin-off. It is anticipated that the capital structure of the Genie entity to be spun-off will mirror our capital structure at the time of such spin-off. However, as we often explore potential transactions to benefit IDT and our stockholders, we cannot predict the precise method of such spin-off transaction, the ultimate class structure of the to-be spun-off entity or whether the contemplated spin-off transaction will be actually consummated. Thus, whether or not the Amendment is approved and the conversion is effected may impact the equity you would receive in any future spin-off transaction effected by us. If the Amendment is approved and the conversion effected, if you are a record holder of Class B Common Stock as of the record date of the Genie spin-off, you will be entitled to receive a Genie security with rights of our Class B Common Stock. If the Amendment is not approved and the conversion is not effected, upon the spin-off of Genie, if you are a record holder of Common Stock, you would receive shares of Genie with rights corresponding to our Common Stock.

Trading History, Illiquidity of, and Confusion Surrounding Our Common Stock

The principal reason for the conversion is, and for the Exchange Offer was, to provide holders of our Common Stock with a class of stock which is more liquid than their holdings in Common Stock, and which we feel better reflects the inherent value of a share of our capital stock. In addition, we want to remove the confusion we believe exists due to our having two classes of publicly traded stock. The conversion, we anticipate and believe, will complete the effecting of these purposes that has largely been completed via the completion of the Exchange Offer.

There has been for some time a lack of liquidity in the Common Stock trading market, due, we believe, to the relatively small number of shares of Common Stock that are held by non-affiliates and the resulting low volume of trading activity. At the same time, the trading volume of our Class B Common Stock has been at substantially greater levels, due to the greater number of shares of Class B Common Stock that are outstanding and the greater number of shares of Class B Common Stock that are held by non-affiliates. For the thirty and ninety trading day periods preceding our announcement of the Exchange Offer on November 5, 2010, the average daily trading volume of the Common Stock was 3,930 shares and 9,154 shares, respectively, while the average daily trading volume of the Class B Common Stock was 221,847 shares and 400,823 shares, respectively. Over the same time periods, the average closing prices for the Common Stock were $12.91 and $13.22, respectively while the average closing prices for the Class B Common Stock over the same periods were $15.99 and $16.24, respectively. We do not believe that the difference in value of the Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock is due to a difference in the relative fundamental rights of those classes of equity. The Common Stock and Class B Common Stock share the same equity rights. While the Common Stock has one vote per share and the Class B Common Stock has one-tenth of a vote per share (which, all other factors being equal would argue for a relatively higher value on the Common Stock than the Class B Common Stock), due to the control by Howard Jonas, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, of approximately 76.1% of the voting rights of all of our outstanding shares of capital stock (at the time we commenced the Exchange Offer and which represents his current voting rights as per his agreement described above), and thereby over substantially all matters to be voted upon by our stockholders, we do not believe that the disparate voting rights is given significant weight by our stockholders. We, therefore, concluded that the price disparity is related to relative illiquidity in the trading market for the Common Stock. We believe that this was a penalty being borne by the holders of Common Stock and that an exchange of shares of Class B Common Stock that were held in our treasury and which did not form a part of the public float of the Company for outstanding shares of Common Stock, would benefit the Common Stockholders without any negative impact on the Class B Common Stockholders. In fact, following our announcement of the Exchange Offer (as well as several other items) on November 5, 2010, the closing price for the Common Stock increased from $11.85 on November 4, 2010, to $17.17 on November 8, 2010 (the first trading day after the announcement of the Exchange Offer) and to $22.00 on December 1, 2010, with no corresponding decrease in the closing price for the Class B Common Stock, which was $14.66 on November 4, 2010, $17.29 on November 8, 2010 and $22.20 on December 1, 2010.

In addition, anecdotal evidence suggests that there has been confusion among shareholders, potential shareholders, the financial media and other members of the financial community with respect to our capital structure and the identity of the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. We believe that the use of different trading symbols for the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (IDT.C and IDT) has contributed to the confusion, given that these trading symbols have been reproduced, recorded or described in different ways by various sources. This confusion, we believe, has led to certain investors purchasing a class of stock they did not wish to own, particularly in light of the lower price for the Common Stock as compared to the Class B Common Stock. Given the lack of liquidity in the trading market for the Common Stock and the inability to convert from Common Stock to Class B Common Stock, this has resulted in frustrated investors.

Based on the above, our Board of Directors authorized our commencement of the Exchange Offer, which resulted in stockholders exchanging 1,916,547 shares of Common Stock for 1,916,547 shares of Class B Common Stock. Now, as authorized by our Board as well, we seek to complete the exchange of the remaining shares of Common Stock, including those held by Mr. Jonas, for our Class B Common Stock, as well as completely eliminate the illiquid Common Stock, via the conversion. We believe that the conversion is in the best interests of IDT and the holders of both the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. The conversion will eliminate the illiquid Common Stock, and, we expect, also to further improve the liquidity profile of our Class B Common Stock overall, allow for easier analysis and valuation of the Class B Common Stock, and eliminate confusion within the financial community regarding the current dual-publicly traded classes of common stock structure. However, we cannot guarantee that the benefits of a simplified capital structure will be accomplished to the extent and in the manner we currently expect, if at all.

Considerations Involving the Proposed Conversion

In order to try to rectify the trading volume and price disparity and the apparent confusion surrounding our two publicly traded classes of common stock, as well as to remove what we believe is a penalty being borne by the holders of Common Stock, we have in the past considered attempts to provide our Common Stockholders with the opportunity to hold the more liquid Class B Common Stock, including the possibility of eliminating the Common Stock from our capital structure altogether. However, we were prevented from taking any action due to Rule 313 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual which restricts corporate actions that disparately reduce or restrict voting rights of shareholders of publicly traded common stock registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act. We believed that an exchange of shares of Class B Common Stock that were held in our treasury and which did not form a part of the public float of the Company for outstanding shares of Common Stock would benefit the Common Stockholders without any negative impact on the Class B Common Stockholders and initiated contact again with the NYSE in August 2010 to seek its approval and confirmation that it would not object on the basis of Rule 313 to our taking such corporate action. At various dates, our Board of Directors meetings included discussions regarding the disparity in stock prices and liquidity between the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock and what could be done about it. On November 3, 2010, our Board of Directors held a meeting, with members of management attending, where they discussed and authorized management to engage in an exchange offer for all outstanding shares of the Common Stock on the terms of the Exchange Offer, in light of the fact that there was indication from the NYSE that it would not object to an exchange offer if so structured. On November 5, 2010, the NYSE notified us that it did not object to the Exchange Offer. On December 1, 2010, the Board of Directors unanimously ratified its authorization to engage in the Exchange Offer, its determination that the Exchange Offer was fair to IDT's stockholders and also authorized, in principle, the Amendment and the conversion thereunder.

In a meeting on January 20, 2011, following the consummation of the Exchange Offer, the Board of Directors approved the Third Restated Certificate and authorized the conversion. The Board considered the fairness of the proposed conversion to each class of stockholders, including consideration of the lesser trading price of the Common Stock as compared to the Class B Common Stock, the improvement in the liquidity position of the Common Stock holders Class B Common Stock in the event of the conversion, particularly in light of the consummation of the Exchange Offer and the relatively low number of outstanding shares Common Stock remaining. Furthermore, the Board considered the expected benefits of eliminating investor confusion and the resulting management distraction regarding the two publicly traded classes of common stock and the trading price disparity. Finally, the Board also took into account the probability of the Common Stock's being delisted from the NYSE and the termination of its registration under the Exchange Act.

After a review of all the factors, and the successful consummation of the Exchange Offer, the Board determined to propose the conversion to IDT's stockholders at a special stockholders meeting, and to recommend to the stockholders that the Third Restated Certificate be approved.

The foregoing discussion of information considered by the Board in determining to authorize and recommend approval of the conversion is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Board in making its decision. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Board and the complexity of these matters, the Board did not consider it practicable to, nor did it attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the Board may have given different weight to different factors. We do not expect that any cost savings resulting from conversion of the Class B Common Stock will be material. We cannot assure you when or if any specific potential benefits considered by the Board will be realized.

Other Proposed Amendments

The Amendment will also include revisions to our Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation described below, which we believe are needed, upon the conversion, to conform other provisions that were related to our Common Stock and to remove possible confusion, as well as to better reflect the relative rights of the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

The provisions proposed to be eliminated and/or revised include, among others:

- eliminating references to the Common Stock;
- eliminating provisions defining the rights of holders of shares of Common Stock;
- eliminating what would be obsolete provisions regarding the conversion of Class B Common Stock into Common Stock;
- revising provisions regarding the conversion of Class A Common Stock into Common Stock to provide for conversion into Class B Common Stock;
- reducing the authorized shares of capital stock from 345,000,000 to 245,000,000 (based on the elimination of the 100,000,000 shares of Common Stock); and
- revising the current dividend restrictions to allow for a dividend of stock of a company affiliated with IDT (such as a subsidiary) to holders of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, whereby holders of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will receive different classes of such affiliate company's stock provided that the differences in classes of the affiliate company's stock will correspond to the differences between the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

Except as specifically provided above, we do not intend this proposal to make any substantive change to our Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation. Other than as described herein, adoption of this proposal will have no effect upon our future operations or capital structure or on the substantive rights of holders of shares of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock.

Certain Effects of the Amendments

If the proposed amendments to our Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation become effective, each share of our outstanding Common Stock will automatically be converted and reclassified into one share of our Class B Common Stock, and the Common Stock will be eliminated altogether. Such conversion will have the following effects, among others, on the holders of our Common Stock:

Voting Power. Holders of shares of Common Stock are currently entitled to cast one vote per share on any matters subject to a stockholder vote. Following the conversion, if it is approved and effected, each share of Common Stock will be converted into a share of Class B Common Stock which is only entitled to one-tenth of a vote per share in matters subject to a stockholder vote. On matters subject to a vote of stockholders, the holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are currently entitled to cast approximately 13.5%, 73.2% and 13.3% of the vote, respectively. After the conversion and exchange by Mr. Jonas of 1,698,000 shares of Class A Common Stock (which is entitled to three votes per share) for shares of Class B Common Stock promptly thereafter, the holders of outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock would be entitled to cast approximately 68.8% of the vote and holders of outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock would be entitled to cast approximately 31.2% of the vote (2.6% of which represents the vote of the current holders of Common Stock whose shares of Common Stock were converted into shares of Class B Common Stock pursuant to the Amendment). In addition, our Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Delaware law require a separate class voting right if an amendment to our Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation would alter the aggregate number of authorized shares or par value of either such class or alter the powers, preferences or special rights of either such class so as to affect these rights adversely (which requirement is not being altered by the Amendment). However, due to the control by Howard Jonas of approximately 76.1% of the voting rights of all of our outstanding shares of capital stock, and thereby over substantially all matters to be voted upon by our stockholders, which percentage shall remain immediately following the conversion and the above noted exchange by Mr. Jonas of shares of Class A Common Stock, the conversion should not have any practical effect on the voting control over matters subject to a stockholder vote.

Economic Equity Interests. The proposed conversion will have no impact on the economic equity interests of holders of our Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and our Class B Common Stock, including with regard to dividends, liquidation rights or redemption. As of February 18, 2011, the shares held by the holders of our Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock represented [7.9%, 14.2%, and 77.9%], respectively, of the total outstanding shares of our common stock. After the conversion and exchange by Mr. Jonas, there would no longer be any shares of Common Stock outstanding, and the shares held by the holders of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock would represent [6.8%, and 93.2%], respectively, of the total outstanding shares.

Capitalization. The conversion will eliminate the 100,000,000 authorized shares of Common Stock and reduce the total number of authorized shares of capital stock from 345,000,000 to 245,000,000, consisting of 35,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, 200,000,000 shares of Class B Common Stock and 10,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock. No shares of preferred stock are currently outstanding or will be outstanding immediately following the conversion. As of February 18, 2011, there were [22,989,923] shares of common stock issued and outstanding, consisting of [1,812,121] shares of Common Stock, [3,272,326] shares of Class A Common Stock and [17,905,476] shares of Class B Common Stock. After the conversion, and the exchange by Howard Jonas of 1,698,000 shares of Class A Common Stock for 1,698,000 shares of Class B Common Stock so that, following all such steps, the voting power of shares of our capital stock over which Mr. Jonas exercises voting control will remain the same as it was immediately prior to the commencement of the Exchange Offer, there would be the same number of total shares of common stock outstanding as of such date, but there would be no shares of Common Stock, [1,574,326] shares of Class A Common Stock and [21,415,597] shares of Class B Common Stock.

NYSE Listing. Upon effectiveness of the conversion proposal, we will seek to have our Common Stock, trading symbol IDT.C, delisted from the NYSE, resulting in there no longer being any trading in our Common Stock. Our Class B Common Stock will continue to trade on the NYSE under the symbol "IDT."

Operations. The conversion will have no impact on our operations, except to the limited extent that we are able to realize some or all of the potential benefits from the proposed conversion which are described above.

Resale of Class B Common Stock. Shares of Class B Common Stock may be sold in the same manner as it is currently sold. Our affiliates and holders of any shares that constitute restricted securities will continue to be subject to the restrictions specified in Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Equity Incentive Plans. Upon the conversion, outstanding options, stock appreciation rights and restricted stock and performance share awards denominated in shares of Common Stock issued under any of our equity incentive plans will remain unchanged, except that they will represent the right to receive shares of Class B Common Stock rather than Common Stock.

Interests of our Officers and Directors in the Conversion. In considering the recommendation of our Board, you should be aware that Howard Jonas, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, may have interests in the conversion that are or may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of some or all of our public stockholders. None of our directors or officers, other than Mr. Jonas, holds any shares of Common Stock.

Conditions Precedent to Effectiveness of the Third Restated Certificate of Incorporation

The effectiveness of the conversion and the related amendments to the Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation as described above are conditioned upon the approval by holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, voting together as a single body and also as separate classes.

If approved, the Third Restated Certificate will become effective upon filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, which we expect to occur on the day following the Special Meeting.

Stockholder Action if Proposal is Approved

If the proposed Third Restated Certificate is approved, the conversion will be automatically effective and no additional stockholder action will be required. Upon effectiveness of the conversion, physical stock certificates representing currently outstanding shares of Common Stock will automatically become certificates for an equal number of shares of Class B Common Stock. Holders of physical certificates who wish to exchange their certificates for new physical certificates for Class B Common Stock may surrender their old certificates to our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC (“AST”). AST may be reached at (877) 248-6417.

Reservation of Rights by our Board of Directors

Our Board reserves the right to abandon the adoption of the Amendment being proposed at the Special Meeting without further action by our stockholders at any time before their effectiveness (as described above), even if the proposal has been approved by the stockholders and all other conditions to such adoption have been satisfied. Although the Board does not anticipate exercising its rights to abandon the amendments nor does it contemplate specific events that would trigger abandonment, the Board will defer or abandon the amendments if, in its business judgment, the conversion is no longer in the best interests of IDT or our stockholders. By voting in favor of the Amendment, you will also be expressly authorizing the Board to determine not to proceed with, and abandon, the amendments (including the conversion) if it should decide to do so.

No Appraisal Rights

Holders of our Common Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock do not have appraisal rights under Delaware law or under our Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation in connection with the conversion.

Recommendation of the Board

Our board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the approval of the Third Restated Certificate.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

We have summarized below certain federal income tax consequences of the conversion based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the “Code”). This summary applies only to our stockholders that hold their Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as a capital asset within the meaning of section 1221 of the Code. Further, this summary does not discuss all aspects of federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your individual circumstances. In addition, this summary does not address any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the proposed conversion. This summary is included for general information purposes only and is not intended to constitute advice regarding the federal income tax consequences of the proposed conversion. Since the tax consequences to you will depend on your particular facts and circumstances, you are urged to consult your own tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of the conversion, including tax reporting requirements.

We believe that as a result of the conversion:

- no gain or loss will be recognized for federal income tax purposes by any of the holders of our Common Stock or any of the holders of our Class B Common Stock upon the conversion of Common Stock into Class B Common Stock;
- a stockholder's aggregate basis in its shares of Class B Common Stock received will be the same as the stockholder's aggregate basis in the Common Stock converted pursuant to the conversion;
- a stockholder's holding period for Class B Common Stock will include such stockholder's holding period for the Common Stock converted; and
- no gain or loss will be recognized for federal income tax purposes by us upon the conversion of our Common Stock into Class B Common Stock.

OTHER BUSINESS AND MISCELLANEOUS

The Board and management do not know of any other matters to be presented at the Special Meeting. If other matters do properly come before the meeting, it is intended that the persons named in the accompanying proxy vote the proxy in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

Submission of Proposals for the 2011 Meeting of Stockholders

Upon the Effective Time, there will no longer be any shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and all authorized shares of Common Stock will be eliminated. Upon the filing and effectiveness (the "Effective Time") pursuant to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware of the Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation, each three (3) shares of the Corporation's (i) Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Common Stock"), (ii) Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Class A Common Stock"), (iii) Class B Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Class B Common Stock"), and (iv) Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Preferred Stock"), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall automatically be combined into one (1) validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, and Preferred Stock, respectively, without any further action by the Corporation or the holder thereof, subject to the treatment of fractional share interests as described below (the "Reverse Stock Split"). Stockholders who otherwise would be entitled to receive fractional share interests of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, or Preferred Stock, as the case may be, shall, with respect to such fractional share interests, be entitled to receive cash, without interest, in lieu of fractional shares of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, or Preferred Stock, as the case may be, upon the surrender of the stockholders' Old Certificates (as defined below), in an amount equal to the proceeds attributable to the sale of such fractional shares following the aggregation and sale by the Corporation's transfer agent of all fractional shares otherwise issuable. No certificates representing fractional shares of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, or Preferred Stock, as the case may be, shall be issued in connection with the Reverse Stock Split. Each certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented shares of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, or Preferred Stock, as the case may be (the "Old Certificates"), shall thereafter represent that number of shares of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, or Preferred Stock, as the case may be, into which the shares of Common Stock, Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, or Preferred Stock, as the case may be, represented by the Old Certificate shall have been combined, subject to the elimination of fractional share interests as described above.

If the Corporation shall in any manner subdivide, combine or reclassify the outstanding shares of Class A Stock or, Class B Stock or Common Stock, the outstanding shares of the other classes of common stock shall be subdivided, combined or reclassified proportionately in the same manner and on the same basis as the outstanding shares of Class A Stock, Class B Stock or Common Stock, as the case may be, have been subdivided, combined or reclassified.
- (2) Consideration in Merger and Similar Transactions. The Corporation shall not be a party to a merger, consolidation, binding share exchange, recapitalization, reclassification or similar transaction (whether or not the Corporation is the surviving or resulting entity) (an "Extraordinary Transaction"), unless the per share consideration, if any, that the holders of Common Stock and Class B Stock receive in connection with such Extraordinary Transaction or are entitled to elect to receive in such Extraordinary Transaction is the same as the per share consideration that the holders of the other of such classes of common stock are entitled to receive or elect to receive in connection with the Extraordinary Transaction.
- (d) Optional Conversion.
- (1) The shares of Common Stock and Class B Stock are not convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Class A Stock.
- (2) Each share of Class A Stock may be converted, at any time and at the option of the holder thereof, into one fully paid and nonassessable share of CommonClass B Stock.

As used in this Section 2(e), the term "control" means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the controlled person or entity.

As used in this Section 2(e), the term "Holder" means any holder of Class A Stock or of the proxy to vote shares of Class A Stock.

As used in this Section 2(e), the term "person" shall mean both natural persons and legal entities, unless otherwise specified. The relationship of any person that is derived by or through legal adoption shall be considered a natural relationship.

Each joint owner of shares or owner of a community property interest in shares of Class A Stock shall be considered a "Holder" of such shares. A minor for whom shares of Class A Stock are held pursuant to a Uniform Transfer to Minors Act or similar law shall be considered a Holder of such shares.

As used in this Section 2(e), a "Transfer" shall mean any type of transfer of shares of Class A Stock, whether by sale, exchange, gift, operation of law, pledge, or otherwise, and shares of Class A Stock shall refer to either (i) such shares of Class A Stock so transferred, (ii) the power to vote such shares so transferred or (iii) shares of Class A Stock for which the power to vote was so transferred, as the case may be.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, any Holder may pledge the shares of Class A Stock belonging to such Holder to a pledgee pursuant to a bona fide pledge of such shares as collateral security for indebtedness due to the pledgee, provided that such pledgee does not have the power to vote such shares and such shares remain subject to the provisions of this Section. (5) The Corporation may, as a condition to the transfer or the registration of transfer of shares of Class A Stock to a purported Permitted Transferee, require the furnishing of such affidavits or other proof as it deems necessary to establish that such transferee is a Permitted Transferee. Each certificate representing shares of Class A Stock shall be endorsed with a legend that states that shares of Class A Stock are not transferable other than to certain transferees and are subject to certain restrictions as set forth in this SecondThird Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation.

(6) This Section 2(e) may not be amended without the affirmative vote of holders of the majority of the shares of the Class A Stock and, the affirmative vote of holders of the majority of the shares of the Class B Stock and the affirmative vote of holders of the majority of the shares of the Common Stock, each voting separately as a class.

(f) Conversion Procedures.

(1) EachThe conversion of shares pursuant to Section 2(d)(2) hereof will be effected by the surrender of the certificate or certificates, duly endorsed, representing the shares to be converted at the principal office of the transfer agent of the Class A Stock, in the case of conversion pursuant to Section 2(d)(2), or of the Class B Stock, in the case of conversion pursuant to Section 2(d)(3), at any time during normal business hours, together with a written notice by the holder stating the number of shares that such holder desires to convert and the names or name in which he wishes the certificate or certificates for the Common Class B Stock to be issued. Such conversion shall be deemed to have been effected as of the close of business on the date on which such certificate or certificates have been surrendered, and at such time, the rights of any such holder with respect to the converted shares of such holder will cease and the person or persons in whose name or names the certificate or certificates for shares are to be issued upon such conversion will be deemed to have become the holder or holders of record of such shares represented thereby.

Promptly after such surrender, the Corporation will issue and deliver in accordance with the surrendering holder's instructions the certificate or certificates for the Common Class B Stock issuable upon such conversion and a certificate representing any Class A Stock, in the case of conversion pursuant to Section 2(d)(2) which was represented by the certificate or certificates delivered to the Corporation in connection with such conversion, but which was not converted.

(2) The issuance of certificates upon conversion of shares pursuant to Section 2(d) hereto will be made without charge to the holder or holders of such shares for any issuance tax (except stock transfer tax) in respect thereof or other costs incurred by the Corporation in connection therewith.

(3) The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Class B Stock or its treasury shares, solely for the purpose of issuance upon the conversion of the Class A Stock and the Class B Stock, such number of shares of Common Class B Stock as may be issued upon conversion of all outstanding Class A Stock and the Class B Stock.

(4) Shares of the Class A Stock and Class B Stock surrendered for conversion as above provided or otherwise acquired by the Corporation shall be canceled according to law and shall not be reissued.

(5) All shares of Common Class B Stock which may be issued upon conversion of shares of Class A Stock and Class B Stock will, upon issue, be fully paid and nonassessable.

(4) Shares of the Class A Stock and Class B Stock surrendered for conversion as above provided or otherwise acquired by the Corporation shall be canceled according to law and shall not be reissued.

(5) All shares of Common Class B Stock which may be issued upon conversion of shares of Class A Stock and Class B Stock will, upon issue, be fully paid and nonassessable.

FIFTH: The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors consisting of not less than three (3) and not more than seventeen (17) directors, the exact number of which shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

A director shall hold office until the next occurring annual meeting of stockholders following his or her election and until his or her successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death or incapacity, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office.

The directors are hereby empowered to exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Corporation, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the GCL, this Second Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and any By-Laws adopted by the stockholders; provided, however, that no By-Laws hereafter adopted by the stockholders shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such By-Laws had not been adopted.

Subject to the terms of any one or more classes or series of Preferred Stock, newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors and any vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting from death or incapacity, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and directors so elected shall hold office until the next occurring annual meeting of stockholders following appointment and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, or until their earlier death or incapacity, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office.

SIXTH: No director shall be personally liable to the Corporation or any of its stockholders for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) pursuant to Section 174 of the GCL or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Any alteration, amendment or repeal of this Article SIXTH by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such alteration, amendment or repeal with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such alteration, amendment or repeal.

SEVENTH: The Corporation is to have perpetual existence.

EIGHTH: The By-Laws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed in whole or in part, or new By-Laws may be adopted, by the stockholders or by the affirmative vote of the directors of the Corporation. As used in this Second Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the term "entire Board of Directors" means the total number of directors which the Corporation would have if there were no vacancies.

NINTH: Special meetings of stockholders may be called by any of (i) the Chairman of the Board of Directors, (ii) the President, (iii) any Vice President, (iv) the Secretary, or (v) any Assistant Secretary, and shall be called by any such officer at the request in writing of a majority of the entire Board of Directors or at the request in writing of stockholders owning a majority of the capital stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote.

A-9

TENTH: The Corporation elects not to be governed by Section 203 of the GCL.

ELEVENTH: The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this SecondThird Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and all rights conferred upon stockholders hereby are granted subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Corporation has caused this Second Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to be executed on its behalf this 24th__ day of FebruaryMarch, 20112009.
