Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events

TSR, Inc. (“TSR” or the “Company”) has received notice of two recently filed lawsuits. The Company is reviewing the complaints and intends to vigorously defend itself against any and all allegations against the Company and current and former directors and officers of the Company.

On November 1, 2018, TSR was served with a complaint filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery by Fintech Consulting LLC (“Fintech”). The complaint purports to be a stockholder derivative lawsuit on behalf of the Company against all current members of the Board of Directors (the “Board”). Fintech claims that the Board breached its fiduciary duties owed to the Company’s stockholders by approving certain anti-takeover measures. Fintech seeks relief in the following forms: (1) a declaration that the anti-takeover measures are invalid; (2) a declaration that no change in control of the Company has occurred for purposes of the Company’s stockholder rights plan or the employment agreement between the Company and the Company’s Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, (3) unspecified money damages; and (4) attorneys’ fees and costs. Fintech also seeks an expedited trial. In the complaint, Fintech alleges that it is a stockholder of the Company beneficially owning 376,100 shares of the Company’s common stock.

On October 16, 2018, TSR was served with a complaint filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Queens County, by Susan Paskowitz, a stockholder of TSR, against the Company; Joseph F. and Winifred M. Hughes; current and former TSR directors Christopher Hughes, Raymond A. Roel, Brian J. Mangan, Regina Dowd, James J. Hill, William Kelly, and Eric Stein; as well as stockholders Zeff Capital, L.P. (“Zeff”), QAR Industries, Inc. (“QAR”), and Fintech Consulting LLC (“Fintech”) (together, the “Zeff Group”). The complaint purports to be a class action lawsuit asserting claims on behalf of all minority TSR stockholders. Ms. Paskowitz alleges the following: the sale by Joseph F. and Winifred M. Hughes of an aggregate of 819,491 shares of the Company’s common stock (“controlling interest”) to Zeff, QAR and Fintech was in breach of Joseph F. and Winifred M. Hughes’ fiduciary duties and to the detriment of the Company’s minority stockholders; the members of the Board named in the complaint breached their fiduciary duties by failing to immediately adopt a rights plan that would have prevented Joseph F. and Winifred M. Hughes from selling their shares and preserved a higher premium for all stockholders; Zeff, QAR, and Fintech are “partners” and constitute a “group.” Ms. Paskowitz also asserts that the Zeff Group aided and benefited from Joseph F. and Winifred M. Hughes’ conduct and may ultimately be aimed at buying out the remaining shares at an unfair price.

The complaint seeks declaratory judgment and unspecified monetary damages. The complaint requests declarations from the court that: (i) Joseph F. and Winifred M. Hughes’ sale of their controlling interest to the Zeff Group was in breach of their fiduciary duties, and that those shares may not be voted or sold back to the Company pending further court order; (ii) the members of the Board named in the complaint breached their fiduciary duties by failing to timely adopt a rights plan, which resulted in the loss of the ability to auction TSR off to the highest bidder without interference from the Zeff Group; and (iii) the Zeff Group must make a number of disclosures regarding their plans for the company, their relationships with one another, and any agreements with Joseph F. and Winifred M. Hughes. The complaint has not assigned any monetary values to alleged damages, but it seeks: (i) for Joseph F. and Winifred M. Hughes, and the Zeff Group, to disgorge any benefit they received from the sale of the Hughes' controlling interest; (ii) for the Board to pay damages equal to the reduced value of the class members' shares as auctionable assets; and (iii) reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Although the Company is named as a defendant, there are no claims or damages allegations against the Company, and the complaint states that it names the Company solely to effectuate equitable relief if granted.
