Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) On December 11, 2014, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of WellCare Health Plans, Inc. (the “Company”) determined that David J. Gallitano, the Company’s Chairman and interim Chief Executive Officer will end his interim role as Chief Executive Officer, effective January 1, 2015. Mr. Gallitano will continue to serve as the Chairman of the Board.

(c) On December 11, 2014, the Board appointed Kenneth A. Burdick, the Company’s President and Chief Operating Officer, to the role of Chief Executive Officer, effective January 1, 2015. In connection with his promotion, effective January 1, 2015, Mr. Burdick’s salary will be $1,000,000, with a short-term incentive target, expressed as a percentage of his base salary, of 150%, and a long-term incentive target, expressed as a percentage of his base salary, of 500%.

The Compensation Committee of the Board (the “Compensation Committee”) also determined that Mr. Burdick’s annual long-term incentive awards will consist of an award of performance stock units representing half of his long-term incentive target and an award of market stock units representing the other half of his long-term incentive target. The terms and grant date of these awards will be the same as the annual long-term incentive awards of performance stock units and market stock units granted to the Company’s other executive officers at the conclusion of the Company’s annual performance review process, which is expected to be in March 2015.

The Compensation Committee views short-term incentive awards, performance stock unit awards and market stock unit awards as performance-based compensation because payouts are based on the achievement of internal goals in the case of short-term incentive awards and performance stock unit awards and stock price performance in the case of market stock units. Accordingly, all of Mr. Burdick’s incentive compensation is performance-based.

All other terms of Mr. Burdick’s employment remain consistent with the description included in the in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed on January 27, 2014, which 8-K is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety including exhibits, except for Exhibit 99.1 to such report.

(d) On December 11, 2014, the Board elected Mr. Burdick as a director. Because he is an employee of the Company, he is not independent under the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. Mr. Burdick will not receive any additional compensation in connection with his service as a director. Mr. Burdick has not been, and is not expected to be, appointed to any committees at this time.
