6.1.1 It is hereby understood that the obligation to tender the acquired Shares as provided above also encompasses the transactions carried out by the Parties Affiliates, as well as their successors, so that the Parties have broad access to the acquisition of the Shares and are able to maintain their respective proportions.

6.1.2 In the event set out in this Clause 6.1, the acquiring Party shall, within the term established in the main paragraph of this Clause, send to the other Shareholders a notice informing about the execution of an acquisition transaction as per the terms of Clause 6.1, specifying the terms and conditions of such acquisition, as well as the price paid per share and the payment conditions. The other Shareholders shall, within thirty (30) days counted from the receipt of such notice, exercise their right set out in this Clause 6.1.

6.1.3 If the acquisition price of the Shares has not been established in the purchase and sale agreement executed with the third party seller, or if the price is undeterminable, the price shall be determined through an evaluation to be carried out within thirty (30) days as of the other Shareholders' manifestation of interest in exercising the acquisition right within the term set out in Clause 6.1.2 above, by 2 (two) specialized firms, investment banks or internationally renowned first-tier consulting firms, each one chosen and paid by one Party (Petroquisa and/or Petrobras, on one side, and the Controlling Shareholders, on the other side), and the criterion to be used shall be the so-called "discounted cash flow" included in a report that fulfills the requirements of Article 8, paragraph 1 of the Corporation Law and the responsibility provided in paragraph 6 of the same article, taking into consideration internationally accepted criteria for the petrochemical sector in relation to companies, projects or developments of a similar nature and size of the ones carried out by Braskem, which shall be substantiated in the valuation report.

6.1.4 In case the valuations referred to in Clause 6.1.3 have variations among them of 10% (ten percent) or less, the price shall be the average of both valuations. In case the valuations show variations between them of more than 10% (ten percent), the price shall be determined, within 30 (thirty) days, by a specialized company (investment banks or internationally renowned first-tier consulting firms), chosen in common agreement by the Parties, and the price shall be the one determined by such third company, provided that the price shall not be higher than the highest value determined by the aforesaid valuations or lower than the lowest value of the aforesaid valuations. In case no agreement in relation to such third company is reached within 05 (five) days after the conclusion of the last valuation set out in Clause 6.1.3, the parties shall submit this matter to arbitration as set out in Clause 9.2.

6.1.5 Until the actual transfer of the Shares or the term for the right set out in Clause 6.1.2 or 6.1.3 is expired, as applicable whichever occurs first, the Parties shall maintain the same political rights held thereby prior to acquisition of the new Shares by the other Party. Any economic rights received by the holder of the Shares to be tendered shall be discounted from the price to be paid by the other Party upon exercise of its right.

6.1.6 The transfer of the Shares of the acquiring Party to the other Shareholders which have exercised the right set out in this Clause 6.1 shall occur within 10 (ten) days counted from (i) the receipt of the notice of exercise set out in Clause 6.1.2 above or (ii) the date of the acquisition price determination, in the event set forth under Clause 6.1.3 above.

6.2.1 In case of sale of an indirect interest in Braskem's voting capital, the Parties shall follow the procedures set out in Clauses 6.1.3 and 6.1.4 to determine the amount to be utilized for the exercise of the right of first refusal.

Proceeding for the Exercise of the Right of First Refusal

6.3 In the situations set out in Clause 6.2 above, if any of the Parties ("Assigning Shareholder") intends to sell its Shares, the Assigning Shareholder shall notify the other Party(ies) (Controlling Shareholders, on one side, and Petrobras and Petroquisa, on the other side), in writing, of its intention ("Sale Notice"), and such Sale Notice must contain information related to the offer, including, but not limited to, the quantity of tendered Shares, the general terms and conditions of the offer, and the price and payment conditions.

6.3.1 The Sale Notice shall be sent to the other Party(ies), according to the procedure set out in Clause 8.1 below and shall be considered received as per the terms set out in Clause 8.1.1 below.

6.3.2 The Party that receives the Sale Notice shall, within 90 (ninety) days counted from the receipt of the Sale Notice, exercise its right of first refusal and acquire all of the tendered Shares in the same conditions of the Sale Notice, without any changes or amendments thereto.

6.3.3 Having received the other Party(ies) notice on the acquisition of the totality of the tendered Shares by it, the Assigning Shareholder shall call the other Party that wishes to acquire the Shares, in writing and at least ten (10) business days in advance, to attend the place to be determined in such call notice, at the scheduled date and time, to proceed with the transfer of the Shares.

6.3.4 If, at the scheduled date and time, the acquiring Party does not appear at the place indicated in the call notice set out in Clause 6.3.3 above for the completion of the transfer of the tendered Shares, such absence shall be considered, for all effects, as an express manifestation, by the absent Party, regarding its waiver of its right of first refusal, when the provisions set forth in Clause 6.4. below shall automatically apply.

6.4 Once the terms set forth in the precedent clauses have expired and in case the tendered Shares have not been acquired by the other Party(ies), the Assigning Shareholder may sell them to third parties, within a maximum term of one hundred and eighty (180) days, in the same conditions and for a price equal or higher than the price of the Sale Notice.

6.4.1 The third party acquiring the totality of the joint equity interest held by Petroquisa and Petrobras in Braskem shall be entitled to join the Shareholders Agreement, provided that it shall not be a Braskem's competitor and represents, in writing, that it is able to assume and maintain, directly or through its Affiliates, all and any rights, benefits, responsibilities and obligations of Petroquisa and Petrobras in this Shareholders Agreement, and, in this case, it shall expressly, unconditionally and unrestrictedly be bound by the rights and obligations contained herein, as an essential condition for joining this Shareholders Agreement.

6.5 In case the sale is not concluded within the one hundred and eighty (180) day-term established under Clause 6.4 above and the Assigning Shareholder intends, again, to sell its respective Shares, the procedure indicated in Clauses 6.3 and 6.4 above shall be observed, since it will be a new and different sale which may only be contracted after a new sale offer, so as to fully assure the right of first refusal of the other Party(ies).

6.6 If any of the Parties receive a firm offer to tender, directly or indirectly, its Shares to third Parties, the other Parties (Remaining Shareholders) shall be assured the right to require that the sale of the Shares by the Assigning Shareholder includes the Shares then held by the other Parties (Tag Along Right), in a quantity that is proportional to the one of the Assigning Shareholder, in case the sale occurs. If the offer involves the direct or indirect sale of Braskem's Control by the Controlling Shareholders, Petroquisa and Petrobras shall be entitled to the Tag Along Right for the sale of the totality of its stake in Braskem.

6.6.1 In case of indirect interest sale, the acquisition price of the shares held by the Parties that exercised the Tag Along Right provided herein shall be determined according to the procedures set out in Clauses 6.1.3 and 6.1.4 above.

6.6.2 For the purposes of the provisions of this Clause 6.6, the Assigning Shareholder shall notify the Remaining Shareholders of the receipt of a firm offer for the tender of its Shares to third parties, informing the number of the Shares to be tendered, the price to be paid per Share, the term and payment form, other sale conditions or the proposed transfer and the complete name and identification of the potential buyer (Terms of the Offer).

6.6.3 Within 30 (thirty) days as of the receipt by the Remaining Shareholders of the notice from the Assigning Shareholder containing the Terms of the Offer, the Remaining Shareholders shall inform, in writing, the Assigning Shareholder whether they will exercise or not their respective Tag Along Right. In case the Remaining Shareholders exercise the Tag Along Right, the Remaining Shareholders shall fully adhere to the terms and conditions of the sale agreed to by the Assigning Shareholder. The exercise of the Tag Along Right shall be irreversible and irrevocable. All costs and expenses incurred in the preparation and the actual sale, including legal and professional fees, to the extent previously approved in writing by the Remaining Shareholders, shall be shared by the Shareholders in the proportion of the amount received by them in connection with the sale.

6.6.4 In case the Remaining Shareholders exercise the Tag Along Right, the Remaining Shareholders shall take or cause to take the necessary or reasonably intended actions so that the completion of the sale of their Shares pursuant to the terms of this Clause occurs within 10 (ten) days counted from the delivery of the notice referred to in Clause 6.6.3 above.

6.7 None of the Parties is allowed to create a security interest in or otherwise encumber or pledge their Shares as collateral without the creditor's or beneficiary's expressly declaring in the guarantee agreement their knowledge of the Shareholders' Agreement and undertaking before both Parties in the guarantee agreement to comply with the Shareholders' Agreement, unconditionally and unrestrictedly, in case of enforcement of the guarantee.

6.8 The Parties are not allowed to grant their Shares in fiduciary disposal, or create usufruct over the Shares in favor of third parties, except for exclusively the creation of usufruct over economic rights attributed to the Shares.

6.9 Subject to Clause 6.1, about the acquisition of new Shares by the Parties, the preemptive and adhesion rights and the restrictions to the sale, transfer or encumbering of Shares provided hereunder do not apply to transactions between the Parties and their Affiliates, provided that the purchaser thereof is not a petrochemical company competing with Braskem and, provided, further, that the purchaser thereof adheres unrestrictedly, unconditionally and expressly to this Shareholders' Agreement, and the assigning Party shall continue to be jointly responsible with the assignee for the compliance with the obligations established hereunder. For the purposes of this Shareholders' Agreement, the Affiliates that received Shares from the Parties pursuant to this Clause 6.9 shall be considered Parties, to which all provisions related to the Parties from which the Affiliates have received the Shares shall fully apply.

6.10 For purposes of this Shareholders' Agreement, a fiduciary transfer of one voting share of Braskem's capital stock, owned by the Parties, to each of the persons appointed to compose the Board of Directors for compliance with the requirement provided in article 146 of the Corporation Law shall not be considered as a sale, transfer or encumbering of Shares.

6.11 Notwithstanding the provisions set forth under Clause 6.2, the transfer of Braskem's Control by the Controlling Shareholders to a third party purchaser is conditioned upon the prior and express adhesion of the third party acquiring the Control to the terms hereof, unconditionally, irreversibly and irrevocably, subject to the transfer being considered null and void, and such transfer shall not be registered in the applicable corporate books of Braskem.

6.12 Any sale, transfer or encumbering of Shares, issuance of Braskem's convertible securities, subscription rights and/or any rights inherent thereto shall be considered null and void before Braskem and third parties if made in violation to the provisions hereof, in which case it shall result in the application, including, without limitation, of the provision set forth under Clause 8.12. related to specific performance of this Shareholders' Agreement.

7 CONFLICT OF INTERESTS/CONFIDENTIALITY

7.1 The Parties undertake to keep strictly secret and shall not use, in petrochemical companies competing with Braskem, in any form or on any pretext, Braskem's confidential information (trade secrets), including, but not limited to any financial, commercial, operational and strategic information to which the Parties could have access.
