Review report of independent registered public accounting firm

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras Rio de Janeiro - Brazil

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet of Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras and subsidiaries as of September 30, 2011, the related condensed consolidated statements of operations, cash flows and changes in shareholders' equity for the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2011 and 2010. These condensed consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modification that should be made to the condensed consolidated financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

1. Basis of Financial Statements Preparation

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. -Petrobras and its subsidiaries (together referred as “the Company”) have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for interim financial statements. Accordingly they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. These unaudited consolidated financial statements and the accompanying notes should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2010 and the notes thereto.

The balance sheet at December 31, 2010, presented for comparison purpose, has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements at that date but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2011 and for the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2011 and 2010, included in this report, are unaudited. However, in management's opinion, such consolidated financial statements reflect all normal recurring adjustments that are necessary for a fair presentation. The results for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of trends or of results expected for the full year ending December 31, 2011.

The preparation of these financial statements requires the use of estimates and assumptions that reflect the assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses reported in the financial statements, as well as amounts included in the notes thereto. Management reviews its estimates periodically, including those related to oil and gas reserves, pension and health care liabilities, depreciation, depletion and amortization, abandonment costs, fair value of financial instruments, contingencies and income taxes. While the Company uses its best estimates and judgements, actual results could differ from those estimates as further confirming events occur.

Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to current period presentation standards. These reclassifications are not significant to the consolidated financial statements and had no impact on the Company's net income.

The Company is currently working on discontinuing U.S. GAAP and adopting IFRS, as issued by the IASB, as the basis to prepare and disclose its financial statements for SEC filings purposes for the year ending December 31, 2011, as previously mentioned in its Form 20-F of 2010, filed on May 25, 2011.

Subsequent events to September 30, 2011, were evaluated until the time of the Form 6-K filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Pursuant to Rule 436 (c) under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Act”), this is not a “report” and should not be considered a part of any registration statement prepared or certified within the meanings of Sections 7 and 11 of the Act and therefore, the independent accountant’s liability under Section 11 does not extend to the information included herein.

2. Derivative Instruments, Hedging and Risk Management Activities

The Company is exposed to a number of risks arising from its normal course of business. Such risks principally involve the possibility that changes in interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates or commodity prices will adversely affect the value of the Company’s financial assets and liabilities or future cash flows and earnings.

Petrobras’ risk management is performed by means of its Board of Directors pursuant to a corporate policy risk management. In March 2010, regarding the new corporate governance model developed by the Company, the Financial Committee, in place of the Risk Management Committee, was organized by the Executive Board. Such a Committee is sponsored by the Financial Board and made up of all executive managers from the Financial area, and executive managers of Business can also be called to discuss about specific subjects. Among the Financial Committee responsibilities, it shall evaluate risk exposures and establish guidelines to measure, supervise and manage the risk concerning the Company's operation. The Board of Directors shall be responsible to decide about those risk management issues.

The risk management policy of Petrobras aims at contributing towards an appropriate balance between its objectives for growth and return and its level of risk exposure, whether inherent to the exercise of its activities or arising from the context within which it operates, so that, through effective allocation of its physical, financial and human resources the Company may attain its strategic goals.

The Company may use derivative and non-derivative instruments to implement its corporate risk management strategy. However, by using derivative instruments, the Company exposes itself to credit and market risk. Credit risk is the failure of a counterparty to perform under the terms of the derivative contract. Market risk is the possible adverse effect on the value of an asset or liability, including financial instruments that results from changes in interest rates, currency exchange rates, or commodity prices. The Company addresses credit risk by restricting the counterparties to such derivative financial instruments to major financial institutions. Market risk is managed by the Company's executive officers. The Company does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading purposes.

a) Commodity price risk management

The Company is exposed to commodity price risks as a result of the fluctuation of crude oil and oil product prices. The Company's commodity risk management activities are primarily undertaken through the uses of future contracts traded on stock exchanges; and options and swaps entered into with major financial institutions. The Company does not use derivative contracts for speculative purposes.

The Company usually does not use derivatives to manage overall commodity price risk exposure, taking into consideration that the Company's business plan uses conservative price assumptions associated to the fact that, under normal market conditions, price fluctuations of commodities do not represent a substantial risk to achieve strategic objectives.

The decision to enter into hedging or non-hedging derivatives is reviewed periodically and recommended, or not, to the Risk Management Committee. If entering into derivative is indicated, in scenarios with a significant probability of adverse events, and such decision is approved by the Board of Directors, the derivative transactions should be carried out with the aim of protecting the Company's solvency, liquidity and execution of the corporate investment plan, considering an integrated analysis of all the Company's risk exposures.

Outstanding derivative contracts entered into in order to mitigate price risk exposures from specific transactions, in which positive or negative results in the derivative transactions are totally or partially offset by the opposite result in the physical positions. The transactions covered by commodity derivatives are certain cargoes traded from import and export operations and transactions between different geographical markets.

As a result of the Company's current price risk management, derivatives are contracted for short term operations, to mitigate the price risk of specific forecasted transactions. The operations are carried out on the New York Mercantile Exchange (NYMEX) and the Intercontinental Exchange (ICE), as well as on the international over-the-counter market.

The Company's exposure from these contracts is limited to the difference between the contract value and market value on the volumes contracted. Crude oil future contracts are marked-to-market and related gains and losses are recognized in current period earnings, irrespective of when the physical crude sales occur.

The main parameters used in risk management for variations of Petrobras' oil and oil products prices are the cash flow at risk (CFAR) for medium-term assessments, Value at Risk (VAR) for short-term assessments, and Stop Loss. Corporate limits are defined for VAR and Stop Loss.

The main counterparties of operations for derivatives for oil and oil products are the New York Stock Exchange (NYMEX), the Intercontinental Exchange, BNP Paribas, Shell (STASCO), Morgan Stanley, BP North America Chicago and Vitol Inc.

The commodity derivative contracts are reflected at fair value as either assets or liabilities on the Company's consolidated balance sheets, recognizing gain or losses in earnings, using market to market accounting, in the period of change.

As of September 30, 2011, the Company had the following outstanding commodity derivative contracts:

Commodity Contracts Maturity in 2011	Notional amount in thousands of bbl* As of September 30, 2011
Futures and Forward contracts	(10,994)
Option contracts	(7,578)

Embedded derivatives

Derivatives embedded within other financial instruments or other host contracts are treated as separate derivatives when they have a price based on an underlying that is not clearly and closely related to the asset being sold or purchased. The assessment is made only at the inception of the contracts. Such derivatives are separated from the host contract and recognized at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in earnings.

Sale of ethanol

Petrobras through its subsidiary, Petrobras International Finance (PifCo), entered into a sales contract of 143,000 m<sup>3</sup> per year of ethanol, with Toyota Tsusho Corporation, for ten years subject to renegotiation of prices and termination after the first five years. The sales price formula is based on both quotations: ethanol and naphtha.

Naphtha is an extraneous underlying to the cost and fair value of the asset being sold. The embedded derivative was bifurcated from the host contract and recognized at fair value through earnings.

The Company determined the fair value based on the difference between the spreads for naphtha and ethanol. The market quotations used in the measurement were obtained from the CBOT (Chicago Board of Trade) future market. In accordance with ASC 820, fair value was classified at level 3.

b) Foreign currency risk management

Exchange risk is one of the financial risks that the Company is exposed to originating from changes in the levels or volatility of exchange rate. With respect to the management of these risks, the Company seeks to identify and handle them in an integrated manner, seeking to assure efficient allocation of the resources earmarked for the derivative.

Taking advantage of operating in an integrated manner in the energy segment, the Company seeks, primarily, to identify or create “natural risk mitigation”, benefiting from the correlation between its income and expenses. In the specific case of exchange variations inherent to the contracts with the cost and remuneration involved in different currencies, this natural risk mitigation is carried out through allocating the cash investments between the Brazilian Real and the US dollar or another currency.

The risk management is based on the Company’s net exposure. Periodical analyses of the exchange risk are prepared, assisting the decisions of the executive committee. The exchange risk management strategy involves the use of derivative instruments to minimize the exchange exposure of certain of the Company’s obligations.

BR Distribuidora (wholly owned subsidiary) entered into an over the counter contract, not qualified as hedge accounting, for covering the trading margins inherent to exports (aviation segment) for foreign clients. The objective of the operation, contracted contemporaneously with the definition of the cost of the products exported, is to lock the trading margins agreed with the foreign clients. Internal policy limits the volume of derivative contracts to the volume of products exported.

The volume of hedge executed for the exports occurring between January and September 2011 represented 59,5% of the total exported by BR Distribuidora. The settlements of the operations that matured between January 1 and September 30, 2011 generated a positive result for the Company of US$7.

The over the counter contract is presented at fair value as either assets or liabilities on the Company’s consolidated balance sheets, recognizing gains or losses in earnings, using market to market accounting, in the period of change.

As of September 30, 2011, the Company had the following foreign currency derivative contracts, not qualified as hedging accounting:

Foreign Currency	Notional Amount US$ million
Sell USD / Pay BRL	(112)

Cash flow hedge

In September 2006, the Company contracted a hedge known as a cross currency swap for coverage of the bonds issued in Yens in order to fix the Company's costs in this operation in dollars. In a cross currency swap there is also an exchange of interest rates in different currencies. The exchange rate of the Yen for the US dollar is fixed at the beginning of the transaction and remains fixed during its existence. The Company does not intend to settle these contracts before the end of the term.

The Company has qualified its cross currency swap as a cash flow hedge. Both at the inception of a hedge and on an ongoing basis, a cash flow hedge is expected to be highly effective in achieving to offset cash flows attributable to the hedged risk during the term of the hedge. Derivative instruments qualified as cash flow hedges are reflected as either assets or liabilities on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. Change in fair value, to the extent the hedge is effective, is presented in accumulated other comprehensive income until the cash flows of the hedged item occurs.

Effectiveness tests are conducted quarterly in order to measure how the changes in the fair value or the cash flow of the hedged items are being absorbed by the hedge mechanisms. The effectiveness calculation indicated that the cross currency swap is highly effective to offset the variation in the cash flows of the bonds issued in Yens.

c) Interest rate risk management

The Company's interest rate risk is a function of the Company's long-term debt and to a lesser extent, its short-term debt. The Company's foreign currency floating rate debt is principally subject to fluctuations in LIBOR and the Company's floating rate debt denominated in Reais is principally subject to fluctuations in the Brazilian long-term interest rate (TJLP) as fixed by the Central Bank of Brazil. The Company currently does not use derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure to fluctuations in interest rates.

3. Income Taxes

Income taxes in Brazil comprise federal income tax and social contribution tax. The statutory enacted tax rates for income tax and social contribution have been 25% and 9%, respectively, for the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2011 and 2010.

The Company's taxable income is substantially generated in Brazil and is therefore subject to the Brazilian statutory tax rate.

The following table reconciles the tax calculated based upon the Brazilian statutory tax rate of 34% to the income taxes expenses recorded in the consolidated statements of income.

	Nine-month periods ended September 30,

(1) On May 10, 2007, the Brazilian Federal Revenue Office recognized Petrobras' right to deduct certain tax incentives from income tax payable, covering the tax years of 2006 until 2015. During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2011, Petrobras recognized a tax benefit in the amount of US$95 (US$95 on September 30, 2010) primarily related to these incentives in the Northeast, within the region covered by the Northeast Development Agency (ADENE), granting a 75% reduction in income tax payable, calculated on the profits of the exploration of the incentive activities, which have been accounted for under the flow through method.

a) Accounting treatment of Assignment Agreement (“Cessão Onerosa”)

On September 3, 2010, Petrobras entered into an agreement with the Brazilian federal government (Assignment Agreement), under which the government assigned to the Company the right to conduct research activities and the exploration and production of fluid hydrocarbons in specified pre-salt areas, subject to a maximum production of five billion barrels of oil equivalent up to 40 years renewable for more five years upon certain conditions.

The Assignment Agreement provides for a subsequent revision of the volume and the price, based on an independent third party assessment. If the contract parties determine that the value of the rights acquired is higher than the initial purchase price, the Company may either pay the difference to the Brazilian federal government, in which case is expected the recognition of the difference as Property Plant & Equipment (long-term asset), or reduce the total volume acquired under the contract, in which case there would be no impact on the balance sheet. If the contract parties determine that the value of the rights acquired is lower than the initial purchase price, the Brazilian federal government will pay for the difference in cash and/or bonds, dependent of Government Budget conditions and it is expected a reduction of the amount originally recorded as Property Plant & Equipment (long-term asset) by the amount received from the Brazilian federal government.

The agreement also establishes minimum commitments with respect to local acquisition of goods and services from Brazilian suppliers in the exploration stage and in the development stage of production, which will be subject to proof with ANP. In the event of non-compliance, ANP will be able to apply administrative and pecuniary sanctions established in the contract.

The Company will record any adjustment to the acquisition cost, when it is probable and determinable it will pay or receive in the future, amounts as a result of the subsequent revision.

9. Petroleum and Alcohol Account - Receivable from Federal Government

At September 30, 2011, the balance of the Petroleum and Alcohol Account was US$448 (US$493 on December 31, 2010), which may be paid as follows: (1) National Treasury Bonds issued at the same amount as the final balance of the Petroleum and Alcohol account, pursuant to Provisional Measure n° 2,181, of August 24, 2001; (2) offset of the balance of the Petroleum and Alcohol account, with any other amount owed by Petrobras to the Federal Government, including taxes; or (3) by a combination of the above options.

In order to conclude the settlement of accounts with the Federal Government, Petrobras provided all the information required by the National Treasury Office - STN, seeking to settle all the remaining disputes between the parties.

As Petrobras considers the negotiation process between the parties at administrative level has been exhausted, the Company's Management decided on judicial collection of the aforementioned credit for settlement of the balance of the Petroleum and Alcohol Account, and in order to do so, it filed a lawsuit in July 2011.

10. Financing

The Company has utilized project financing to continue its development of exploration, production and related projects.

The VIE's associated with the project financing projects are consolidated based on ASC Topic 810-10-25 ("Variable Interest Entities").

The weighted average annual interest rates on outstanding short-term borrowings were 2.19% and 2.31% at September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively.

15. Commitments and Contingencies

Petrobras is subject to a number of commitments and contingencies arising from its normal course of business. Additionally, the operations and earnings of the Company have been, and may be in the future, affected from time to time in varying degrees by political developments and laws and regulations, such as the Federal Government's continuing role as the controlling shareholder of the Company, the status of the Brazilian economy, forced divestiture of assets, tax increases and retroactive tax claims, or environmental regulations. The likelihood of such occurrences and their overall effect upon the Company are not readily predictable.

a) Litigation - Legal proceedings provisioned

The Company is a defendant in numerous legal actions involving civil, tax, labor, corporate and environment issues arising from its normal course of business. Based on the advice of its internal legal counsel and management's best judgment, the Company has recorded accruals to provide sufficiently for losses that are considered probable and reasonably estimable.

At September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the respective amounts accrued by type of claims are as follows:

	September 30, 2011	December 31, 2010
Labor claims	164	119
Tax claims	332	361
Civil claims	152	214
Commercials claims and other contingencies	25	66
Total long-term contingencies	673	760

As of September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, in accordance with Brazilian law, the Company had US$1,573 and US$1,674 respectively, into federal deposit accounts to provide for certain claims until they are settled. These amounts are reflected in the balance sheet as restricted deposits for legal proceedings and guarantees.

b) Proceedings classified as possible losses

The relevant changes in contingent liabilities related to principal proceedings, disclosed in the Company's consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2010, are described below:

b.1) Processes included in the period

• Plaintiff: State Revenue Service of Rio de Janeiro

Rio de Janeiro state finance authorities filed a Tax Assessment against the Company in connection with the non payment of ICMS/Tax Substitution on the purchase of natural gas used for the production of electric power that will be sold to the distributors. There is a state decree that authorizes payment of the tax directly by the distributor. The lower court considered the assessment to have grounds. The Company filed a spontaneous appeal which is awaiting a hearing. The maximum exposure for the Company, including monetary restatement, as September 30, 2011 is US$141.

• Plaintiff: Brazilian Federal Revenue Department

Brazilian Federal Revenue Department filed a Tax Assessment against the Company in connection with the collection of IOF (Tax on financial operations) due on "foreign credit" loans made during 2006. No decision handed down in the lower court. The maximum exposure for the Company, including monetary restatement, as September 30, 2011 is US$209.

• Plaintiff: State Revenue Service of São Paulo

São Paulo state finance authorities filed a Tax Assessment against the Company in connection with the withdrawal of collection of ICMS and fine on imports (Temporary Admission - Drilling Rig - Admission in São Paulo - Clearance in Rio de Janeiro). Closed at the administrative level. A tax debt annulment action was filed, where advance relief was granted to suspend the demandability of the tax credit, without an offer of collateral. Ruling handed down in favor of Petrobras, upholding the request made in the annulment action. The decision is not yet final. The maximum exposure for the Company, including monetary restatement, as September 30, 2011 is US$849.

• Special participation in the Albacora, Carapeba, Cherne, Espadarte, Marimbá, Marlim, Marlim Sul, Namorado, Pampo and Roncador Fields- Campos Basin

This special participation was established by Brazilian Petroleum Law 9478/97 and is paid as a form of compensation for oil production activities and is levied on high volume production fields. The method used by Petrobras to calculate the special participation due for the abovementioned fields is based on a legally legitimate interpretation of Ordinance 10 of January 14, 1999, approved by the National Petroleum Agency (ANP).

On February 7, 2011, Petrobras received notice from ANP, which instituted an administrative process and established payment of new sums of money considered to be owed for the period between the first quarter of 2005 and the first quarter of 2010, referring to amounts that had been underpaid by the concessionaire.

On February 22, 2011, Petrobras presented a defense for the administrative process, requesting that the notice of infraction be considered invalid, since the facts which ANP used as a basis for concluding on the irregularity of the payment of the Special Participation do not correspond to the reality.

The assessment was upheld in the first instance. The Company filed an administrative appeal which is awaiting a hearing.

The maximum updated exposure for Petrobras as at September 30, 2011 is US$304.

• Plaintiff: State Revenue Service of Rio de Janeiro

Rio de Janeiro state finance authorities filed a Tax Assessment against the Company in connection with the exclusion of the LNG transfer operations in the ambit of the centralizing establishment from the ICMS taxation. Unfavorable administrative decision for Petrobras. Spontaneous appeal filed in the Taxpayers' Council, which denied approval of the appeal. The Company filed a tax debt annulment action with a petition for advance relief which, through the presentation of guarantee insurance, was granted with suspension of demandability of the tax credit. The maximum exposure for the Company, including monetary restatement, as September 30, 2011 is US$1,325.

• Plaintiff: National Agency for Petroleum, Natural Gas and Biofuel - ANP

Fine for non-compliance with minimum exploration programs - "Rodada Zero". The execution of the fines is suspended through an injunction, pursuant to records of the suit lodged by Petrobras. Through a civil suit, the Company is claiming recognition of its credit resulting from article 22, paragraph 2 of the Petroleum Law, requesting the offsetting of the eventual debt that Petrobras may have with ANP. Both the legal processes, which are being handled jointly, are in the evidentiary stage.

The maximum exposure including monetary restatement for Petrobras as of September 30, 2011 is US$332.

• Plaintiff: Internal Revenue Service of Rio de Janeiro - Withholding Income Tax related to charter of vessels

The Internal Revenue Service of Rio de Janeiro filed two Tax Assessments against the Company in connection with Withholding Income Tax on foreign remittances of payments related to charter of vessels of movable platform types for the years 1999 through 2002.

• Plaintiff: Internal Revenue Service of Rio de Janeiro - Withholding Income Tax related to charter of vessels (Continued)

The Internal Revenue Service, based on Law No. 9,537/97, Article 2, considers that drilling and production platforms cannot be classified as sea-going vessels and therefore should not be chartered but leased. Based on this interpretation, overseas remittances for servicing chartering agreements would be subject to withholding tax at the rate of 15% or 25%.

Petrobras submitted new administrative appeals to the Higher Chamber of Tax Appeals, which denied approval. The Company considers that it applied the prevailing tax legislation correctly, which is why it will resort to judicial means to pursue its defense. The maximum exposure including monetary restatement for Petrobras as of September 30, 2011 is US$2,505.

• Plaintiff: Rio de Janeiro state finance authorities - II and IPI Tax related to Termorio equipments

Rio de Janeiro state finance authorities filed a Tax Assessment against the Company in connection with II (Import Tax) and IPI (Federal VAT) contesting the tax classification as Other Electricity Generation Groups for the import of the equipment belonging to the thermoelectric power station Termorio S.A.

On August 15, 2006, Termorio filed in the inspector's department of the Federal Revenue Department of Rio de Janeiro a refutation against this tax deficiency notice, considering that the tax classifications that were made were based on a technical report of a renowned institute. On October 11, 2007, the 1st Panel of Judgment dismissed the assessment. The Federal Revenue Department filed an ex-officio appeal to the Taxpayers' Council of Porto Alegre - in the state of Rio Grande do Sul. Notices heard on September 2, 2011, when the appeal was partially approved by majority and only the fine of administrative control was reduced. Awaiting publication of the court decision. The maximum exposure including monetary restatement for Petrobras as of September 30, 2011, is US$307.

• Plaintiff: Federal Revenue Service - Contribution of Intervention in the Economic Domain - CIDE

The Federal Revenue service filed a Tax Assessment against the Company due to non-payment in the period of March 2002 to October 2003 of the Contribution of Intervention in the Economic Domain - CIDE, the per-transaction tax payable to the Brazilian government, required to be paid by producers, blenders and importers upon sales and purchases of specified oil and fuel products at a set amount for different products based on the unit of measurement typically used for such products, pursuant to court orders obtained by Distributors and Fuel Stations, protecting them from levying of this charge. The lower court considered the assessment to have grounds. The Company filed a spontaneous appeal which was denied approval. As soon as it is summoned, Petrobras will examine the possibility of filing motions to stay the execution of the respective court decision, with requests for filing of a special appeal to the Superior Chamber of Tax Appeals. The maximum exposure for Petrobras, including monetary restatement, as of September 30, 2011 is US$660.

• Plaintiff: Municipal governments of Anchieta, Aracruz, Guarapari, Itapemirim, Linhares, Maratáizes, Vila Velha and Vitória

Some municipalities located in the State of Espírito Santo have filed notices of infraction against Petrobras for the supposed failure to withhold service tax of any nature on offshore services. Petrobras withheld the service tax of any nature; however, it paid the tax to the municipalities where the respective service providers are established, in accordance with Complementary Law 116/03. The Company presented administrative defenses with the aim of canceling the assessments and the majority are in the process of being heard. Of the municipalities with respect to those that have already exhausted the discussion, only the municipality of Itapemirim has filed tax collection proceedings. In this judicial case, the Company has offered a guarantee and filed an appeal. In the municipality of Linhares it was considered to have grounds in the first instance. Petrobras filed a spontaneous appeal, which was denied, thus upholding the official notification. The Company is evaluating the judicialization. The maximum exposure for the Company, including monetary restatement, as of September 30, 2011 is US$862.

• Plaintiff: State Revenue Service of São Paulo

São Paulo state finance authorities filed a Tax Assessment against the Company in connection with termination of collection of ICMS and a fine for importing and non-compliance with an accessory obligation. Temporary admission - Drilling rig - Admission in Sao Paulo - Customs clearance in Rio de Janeiro (ICMS agreement 58/99). The lower court considered the assessment to have grounds. The decision was upheld at the second instance. Awaiting a hearing at the second administrative level of the ordinary appeal filed by the Company. The maximum exposure for the Company, including monetary restatement, as of September 30, 2011 is US$1,117.

• Plaintiff: Finance and Planning Department of the Federal District

Federal District finance authorities filed a Tax Assessment against the Company in connection with payment of ICMS due to omission on exit (Inventories). The lower court considered the assessment to have grounds. Petrobras filed a spontaneous appeal, which was considered void. The Company is awaiting the publication of the decision in order to assess eventual judicialization. The maximum exposure for the Company, including monetary restatement, as of September 30, 2011 is US$83.

• Presidente Getúlio Vargas refinery oil spill

On July 16, 2000, an oil spill occurred at the Presidente Getúlio Vargas refinery releasing crude oil in the surrounding area. The Federal and State of Paraná Prosecutors have filed a civil lawsuit against the Company seeking US$1,176 in damages, which have already been contested by the Company. Additionally, there are two other actions pending, one by the Instituto Ambiental do Paraná (Paraná Environmental Institute) and by another civil association called AMAR that have already been contested by the Company. Awaiting initiation of the expert investigation to quantify the amount. The court determined that the suits brought by AMAR and the Federal and State Prosecutors be tried as one. The maximum exposure including monetary restatement for Petrobras as of September 30, 2011 is US$92 related to AMAR, US$104 related to Instituto Ambiental do Paraná and US$3,499 to the Federal and State of Paraná Prosecutors.

The Company is involved in a number of legal and administrative proceedings with expectations of possible losses, whose total as at September 30, 2011 is broken down as follows: US$166 for civil actions, US$571 for labor actions and US$767 for tax actions.

c) Environmental matters

The Company is subject to various environmental laws and regulations. These laws regulate the discharge of oil, gas or other materials into the environment and may require the Company to remove or mitigate the environmental effects of the disposal or release of such materials at various sites.

The Company's management considers that any expenses incurred to correct or mitigate possible environmental impacts should not have a significant effect on its operations or cash flows.

d) Asset contingencies

d.1) Recovery of maintenance costs –Barracuda & Caratinga

In 2006, Petrobras, as representant of Barracuda & Caratinga Leasing Company B.V. (BCLC), resorted to arbitration abroad against Kellogg, Brown Root, LLC (KBR), to obtain compensation for maintenance costs carried out on flexible lines of the Barracuda and Caratinga field, in the period covered by contractual guarantee.

On September 21, 2011, the Court of arbitration ruled in favor of BCLC, definitively, condemning KBR to indemnify it in the amount of US$183, pleaded in the arbitration, plus internal costs of Petrobras in conducting the arbitration, in addition to legal fees and costs of the arbitration. After the definitive decision, Petrobras recognized the amount of US$183 in non-current assets.

d.2) Recovery of PIS and COFINS

Petrobras and its subsidiaries filed a civil suit against the Federal government referring to recovery, through offsetting, of the amounts paid as PIS on financial revenue and exchange gains in the period between February 1999 and November 2002 and COFINS between February 1999 and January 2004, in light of the ruling that paragraph 1 of article 3 of Law 9718/98 is unconstitutional.

On November 9, 2005, the Federal Supreme Court considered that the respective paragraph 1 of article 3 of Law 9718/98 is unconstitutional.

On November 18, 2010, the Superior Court of Justice considered the action by Petrobras, filed in 2006 to recover the COFINS for the period from January 2003 to January 2004, as justified. After res judicata, Petrobras recognized the amount of US$186, restated by the Selic rate until September 2011, as recoverable taxes in non-current assets.

At September 30, 2011, the Company had US$1,246 related to these suits which are not yet reflected in the interim financial statements due to the absence of a definitive favorable decision.

18. Acquisition/Sales of Assets and Interests

a) Business combination

• Acquisition of Gás Brasileiro Distribuidora S.A.

On July 29, 2011, Petrobras Gás S.A.- Gaspetro acquired 100% of the shares of Gas Brasileiro Distribuidora S.A. “GBD”, by US$271. The appraisal of the fair value of the assets and liabilities has not been concluded and, therefore, preliminarily, a goodwill of US$12 was recognized.

The transaction was authorized by the São Paulo regulatory agency in April 2011 and the addendum to GBD's concession agreement was signed in July 2011, complying with the conditions established in the agreement entered into with Ente Nazionale Idrocarburi S.p.A. (ENI) in 2010.

GBD holds the concession for the natural gas distribution service in the northwest region of the State of São Paulo. The concession agreement began in December 1999 with duration of 30 years and may be renewed for another 20 years.

b) Acquisition of interests in affiliated companies

• BSBIOS Indústria e Comércio de Biodiesel Sul Brasil S.A.

On July 1, 2011, Petrobras Biocombustível S.A., S.L., acquired 50% of the capital of BSBIOS Indústria e Comércio de Biodiesel Sul Brasil S.A, through payment of US$27 and a contribution of US$31 referring to an interest in BSBIOS Marialva Indústria e Comércio de Biodiesel Sul Brasil S.A. (MARIALVA). The remaining payment will be made after the conclusion of a due diligence, limited to the total of the transaction of US$108.

c) Acquisition of noncontrolling interest

• Innova S.A.

As from March 31, 2011, Petrobras now holds 100% of the capital of Innova, a petrochemical company located in the industrial park of Triunfo in the State of Rio Grande do Sul, previously indirectly controlled by Petrobras Argentina (Pesa). The amount of the transaction was US$332, with the payment of US$228 in April of 2011 and US$104 due on October 30, 2013, restated by 12 month LIBOR as from the date of signing of the share purchase agreement (SPA). This transaction resulted in a decrease of US$54 in the equity attributable to the shareholders of Petrobras, as a result of the decrease in the non-controlling interest in this venture.

• Purchase option and merger of Companhia Mexilhão do Brasil - “CMB”

On January 12, 2011, Petrobras exercised its purchase option for 100% of the shares of the Variable Interest Entity (“VIE”), Companhia Mexilhão do Brasil - “CMB”, as contractually established. In accordance with ASC 810, this acquisition resulted in an increase in equity attributable to Petrobras, as “Additional paid in capital”, in the amount of US$72.

On April 4, 2011, the merger of CMB by Petrobras was approved in the Special Shareholders' General Meeting as it is the most efficient way of dissolving the company and absorbing its assets.

d) Sale of assets and other information

• Cia Energética Suape II

Petrobras holds a 20% interest in Energética Suape II S.A., the purpose of which is the construction of a thermoelectric power station in Cabo de Santo Agostinho, in the state of Pernambuco with an output 380 of MW. The remaining 80% interest is held by Nova Cibe Energia S.A.

On May 31, 2011, Petrobras deposited US$31 for the shares not subscribed by Nova Cibe, for which the exercise of the purchase option occurred on May 5, 2011, as established in the Suape II Shareholders' Agreement.

Petrobras recorded the deposit as a right to acquisition of an equity interest under “Investments”, until the resolution of the conflict in a seat of arbitration.

• Operations in Ecuador

On July 26, 2010, the new hydrocarbon law in Ecuador, established, the obligatoriness of migration introduced of the November 24, 2010, exploration before agreements entered into to service agreements.

Petrobras Argentina S.A. (PESA), through its subsidiary Sociedade Ecuador TLC S.A., held a 30% interest in the exploration agreements for block 18 and the unified Palo Azul field, located in the Oriente basin of Ecuador, and decided not to accept the final proposal to migrate its agreements to the new contractual model, thus it is the responsibility of the Ecuadorian Government to indemnify the investments made in those exploration blocks.

The Company disagrees with the criteria established for the indemnification of the amounts invested and, although it is not renouncing its rights, it recognized a loss in an amount equivalent to US$53, due to the uncertainties involving the process.

PESA has a ship-or-pay agreement entered into with Oleoducto de Crudos Pesados Ltd (OCP) for transporting oil in Ecuador, in force since 2003 with an effective term of 15 years. On account of the commitments assumed for the transport capacity contracted and not used, at September 30, 2011, the Company has a liability in the amount equivalent to US$77.
