NOTICE TO THE MARKET

CSN hereby informs the market and its shareholders that yesterday (April 12, 2016) it entered into a Conduct Adjustment Agreement with the Rio de Janeiro State Environment Department, the Rio de Janeiro State Environment Control Commission and the Rio de Janeiro State Environment Institute (INEA) comprising the resolution of all pending environmental issues related to the Presidente Vargas Plant (UPV), thereby ensuring the continuation of operations at UPV.

By September 2017, CSN will invest R$178 million in production process improvements and will pay R$22 million to INEA to be used in environmental programs in the Volta Redonda region.

This agreement reiterates CSN's commitment to the sustainability of its activities, the communities in Volta Redonda and surrounding region, as well as the creation of value for shareholders, employees and stakeholders.
