Item 8.01 Other Events.

RealNetworks, Inc. is announcing that Robert Glaser, its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, has entered into a trading plan with Goldman, Sachs & Co. This trading plan is intended to comply with the requirements of Rule 10b5-1 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and complies with RealNetworks' insider trading policy. The trading plan covers the potential sale of shares of RealNetworks Common Stock during the period commencing on May 2, 2007 and ending on April 22, 2009, unless terminated earlier under certain circumstances.

Mr. Glaser currently holds over 49 million shares of RealNetworks Common Stock. The maximum number of shares that could be sold under the trading plan is 7.92 million shares, which is less than 16% of Mr. Glaser's holdings. The actual number of shares that may be sold under the plan is dependent upon several factors, including the attainment of certain share price targets. Mr. Glaser has implemented this plan for diversification and financial planning purposes. If plan conditions are met and all potential sales take place, Mr. Glaser would retain approximately 42 million shares of RealNetworks Common Stock representing approximately 26% of RealNetworks' shares currently outstanding. Mr. Glaser remains personally committed to, and confident in, RealNetworks' future prospects.

Except as otherwise required by law, RealNetworks does not undertake to disclose specific plans by other executives of RealNetworks or to disclose terminations, modifications or other activities under the trading plan described herein or any other plan.
