Top of the Form*Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 27, 2011, CHS Inc. (the "Company") entered into (i) a 2011 Credit Agreement (5-year Revolving Loan) (the "5-year Credit Agreement") with CoBank, ACB ("CoBank"), as administrative agent for all syndication parties thereunder, as bid agent, as the letter of credit bank, and as a syndication party thereunder, and the other syndication parties party thereto and (ii) a 2011 Credit Agreement (3-year Revolving Loan) (the "3-year Credit Agreement") with CoBank, as administrative agent for all syndication parties thereunder, as bid agent, and as a syndication party thereunder, and the other syndication parties party thereto. The 5-year Credit Agreement and the 3-year Credit Agreement are referred to collectively as the "2011 Credit Agreements."

The 5-year Credit Agreement creates a new, five-year, committed revolving credit facility in the amount of $1,250,000,000 (subject to increase under the 5-year Credit Agreement to an amount not exceeding $1,750,000,000) that expires on September 27, 2016. The 3-year Credit Agreement creates a new, three-year, committed revolving credit facility in the amount of $1,250,000,000 (subject to increase under the 3-year Credit Agreement to an amount not exceeding $1,750,000,000) that expires on September 27, 2014. Each credit facility includes a letter of credit facility in the amount of up to $200,000,000, the outstanding amount of which decreases the available commitment under the related credit agreement. The Company's obligations under each 2011 Credit Agreement are unsecured, except with respect to (i) certain cash collateral required to be deposited under certain circumstances in connection with issued letters of credit, and (ii) certain statutory liens in favor of CoBank and Farm Credit System Institution relating to equity interests in such syndication parties which have been or may in the future be purchased by the Company.

Borrowings under each 2011 Credit Agreement will bear interest at the Base Rate (as defined in each agreement, which in each case is a base rate plus an applicable margin) or, if the Company requests and receives a LIBO Rate under such agreement, at the LIBO Rate (as defined in each agreement, which in each case is the per annum rate for the LIBO Rate Period selected by the Company plus an applicable margin). The applicable margin under each agreement is based on the Company's leverage ratio and ranges between 1.125% to 1.25% for LIBO Rate loans and between 0.125% and 0.240% for Base Rate loans. The proceeds of the loans under the 5-Year Credit Agreement will be used by the Company (a) on September 27, 2011, to pay off any outstanding obligations under the 2010 Credit Agreement and 2010 364-Day Credit Agreement referred to below, (b) to fund working capital requirements, (c) for general corporate purposes, (d) to support the issuance of letters of credit, (e) to pay off overnight advances made pursuant to the related 2011 Credit Agreement and (f) to support the Company's commercial paper program. The proceeds of the loans under the 3-Year Credit Agreement will be used by the Company (a) on September 27, 2011, to pay off any outstanding obligations under the 2010 Credit Agreement and 2010 364-Day Credit Agreement referred to below, (b) to fund working capital requirements, (c) for general corporate purposes, (d) to pay off overnight advances made pursuant to the related 2011 Credit Agreement and (f) to support the Company's commercial paper program.

Each 2011 Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants, including financial covenants (i) to maintain at all times and measured as of the end of each fiscal quarter, a consolidated net worth equal to or greater than $2,500,000,000; (ii) to have at all times and measured as of the end of each fiscal quarter, a ratio of consolidated funded debt divided by consolidated cash flow, as measured on the previous consecutive four fiscal quarters, of no greater than 3.00 to 1.00; and (iii) to not permit the ratio of adjusted consolidated funded debt to adjusted consolidated equity to exceed at any time .80 to 1.00. Each agreement also restricts the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries from creating or incurring any Priority Debt (as defined therein) if after giving effect thereto the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all Priority Debt would exceed 20% of consolidated net worth at the time of such creation, issuance, incurrence or assumption. In addition, each 2011 Credit Agreement includes customary events of default, including cross-defaults relating to other indebtedness. The occurrence of certain events of default will, at the option of the related administrative agent or at the direction of syndication parties whose aggregate individual commitments under the related agreement constitute 51.0% of the total commitment thereunder, result in the entire debt under the related 2011 Credit Agreement becoming immediately due and payable. The occurrence of certain other events of default involving the insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company will result in the entire debt under the related 2011 Credit Agreement becoming immediately due and payable without any action by or on behalf of the administrative agent.

The 2011 Credit Agreements replace the 2010 Credit Agreement (Revolving Loan), dated as of June 2, 2010, by and between the Company and CoBank, as administrative agent for all syndication parties thereunder, and as a syndication party thereunder, and the other syndication parties party thereto (the "2010 Credit Agreement") and the 2010 364-Day Credit Agreement, dated as of November 24, 2010, by and between the Company and CoBank, as administrative agent for all syndication parties thereunder, and as a syndication party thereunder, and the other syndication parties party thereto (the "2010 364-Day Credit Agreement"). The 2010 Credit Agreement established a $900,000,000 revolving credit facility (subject to increase as provided therein) that was scheduled to expire on June 2, 2015, and the 2010 364-Day Agreement established a $1,300,000,000 revolving credit facility (subject to increase as provided therein) that was scheduled to expire on November 23, 2011. Borrowings under each of these agreements bore interest at the Base Rate provided for in the appropriate agreement (which in each case was a base rate plus an applicable margin) or, if the Company requested and received a LIBO Rate thereunder, at the LIBO Rate provided for in each agreement (which in each case was the per annum rate for the LIBO Rate Period selected by the Company plus an applicable margin). The applicable margin in each case was based on the Company's leverage ratio and ranged between 1.750% and 1.875% for LIBO Rate loans and between 0.750% and 0.875% for Base Rate loans under the 2010 Credit Agreement, and between 1.550% to 1.625% for LIBO Rate loans and between 0.550% and 0.626% for Base Rate loans under the 2010 364-Day Credit Agreement. Each of the 2010 Credit Agreement and the 2010 364-Day Credit Agreement contained customary representations, warranties, covenants (including financial covenants) and events of default that are substantially the same as the representations, warranties, covenants (including financial covenants) and events of default under the 2011

Credit Agreements.

Each party to the 5-Year Credit Agreement is also a party to the 3-Year Credit Agreement. CoBank and certain syndication parties that are parties to the 2011 Credit Agreements were also parties to one or more of the Company's other outstanding credit facilities, including the 2010 Credit Agreement and the 2010 364-Day Credit Agreement. In addition, certain syndication parties that are parties to one or more of the 2011 Credit Agreements, the 2010 Credit Agreement and the 2010 364-Day Credit Agreement and their affiliates have from time to time engaged, and in the future may engage, in various financial advisory and investment banking transactions with, and provide services to, the Company and its subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business for which they received or will receive customary fees and expenses.

The foregoing descriptions of each 2011 Credit Agreement are only summaries and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the related 2011 Credit Agreement, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Upon execution of the 2011 Credit Agreements described under Item 1.01 above and effective on September 27, 2011, the Company terminated the 2010 Credit Agreement and the 2010 364-Day Credit Agreement. The Company did not incur any early termination penalties in connection with the termination of these agreements. A brief description of the Company's material relationships with the parties to these agreements, other than with respect to such agreements, and of the material terms of these agreements, is provided under Item 1.01 above and is incorporated by reference into this Item 1.02.
