Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 1, 2014, UDR, Inc. (the "Company") entered into indemnification agreements, each of which is in the form of the Company's standard form of indemnification agreement, with Mark R. Patterson, who was appointed to the Board of Directors effective January 1, 2014 (as reported in the Form 8-K filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 18, 2013), and Thomas M. Herzog, Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer.

In general, the form of indemnification agreement provides that the Company will, to the fullest extent permitted by Maryland law and subject to certain limitations, indemnify the director and the designated officer against certain expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and settlement amounts that may be incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, criminal, civil or administrative action or proceeding to which the director and the designated officer becomes subject in connection with the director's service as a director of the Company or the designated officer's employment with the Company. The agreement provides for indemnification rights regarding both third-party claims and proceedings brought by or in the right of the Company. In addition, the agreement provides for the mandatory advancement of expenses incurred by the indemnitee in connection with any proceeding covered by the agreement to the fullest extent permitted by Maryland law. The agreement also establishes certain procedures and presumptions that apply in determining whether the director and the designated officer are entitled to indemnification. The agreement does not exclude any other rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses to which the indemnitee may be entitled, including any rights arising under the charter or bylaws of the Company, or Maryland law.

The form of indemnification agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 8, 2006, and is incorporated herein by reference.
