Euroseas Ltd. Reports Results for the Year and Quarter Ended December 31, 2011

Maroussi, Athens, Greece February 9, 2012 Euroseas Ltd. (NASDAQ: ESEA), an owner and operator of drybulk and container carrier vessels and provider of seaborne transportation for drybulk and containerized cargoes, announced today its results` for the three month period and full year ended December 31, 2011.

Fourth Quarter 2011 Highlights:

Net income of $1.1 million or $0.04 earnings per share basic and diluted on total net revenues of $15.3 million. Excluding the effect of unrealized gain and realized loss on derivatives and unrealized loss on trading securities, the net income for the period would have been $1.1 million or $0.04 earnings per share basic and diluted.

Adjusted EBITDA was $6.2 million. Please refer to a subsequent section of the Press Release for a reconciliation of adjusted EBITDA to net income.

An average of 16.00 vessels were owned and operated during the fourth quarter of 2011 earning an average time charter equivalent rate of $12,099 per day.

Declared a quarterly dividend of $0.05 per share for the fourth quarter of 2011 payable on or about March 9, 2012 to shareholders of record on March 2, 2012. This is the twenty-sixth consecutive quarterly dividend declared.

Full year 2011 Highlights:

Net income of $1.1 million or $0.04 net income per share basic and diluted on total net revenues of $61.4 million. Excluding the effect of unrealized and realized loss on derivatives, unrealized loss on trading securities and amortization of fair value of charters acquired, the net income for the period would have been $1.5 million or $0.05 net income per share basic and diluted.

Adjusted EBITDA was $21.6 million. Please refer to a subsequent section of the Press Release for a reconciliation of adjusted EBITDA to net income.

An average of 16.00 vessels were owned and operated during the first twelve months of 2011 earning an average time charter equivalent rate of $11,525 per day.

Declared four quarterly dividends for a total of $0.26 per share during full year 2011.

Aristides Pittas, Chairman and CEO of Euroseas commented: Containership and drybulk markets remained depressed during the fourth quarter of 2011 and year-to-date 2012 due to slowdown of demand and increase of vessel supply due to new vessel deliveries. The macroeconomic uncertainty that was mainly responsible for the slowdown in demand has remained high because of Eurozone's drawn-out handling of the sovereign debt issue.

Although our drybulk fleet has continued to provide us with significant cash flow contributions, renewals of our containership vessel charters were completed at lower levels and, in fact, two of our vessels have been looking for employment for over a month. We anticipate our upcoming containership charter renewals to also be at lower levels but we are optimistic that the containership market will improve towards the middle of the year. In parallel, throughout the fourth quarter of 2011 and since the beginning of 2012, we have continued to monitor the secondhand markets in the containership and drybulk sectors and evaluate acquisitions opportunities as we expect to see quite attractive investments as vessels prices have declined.

In view of the challenging market conditions and our desire to preserve cash to take advantage of new investment opportunities, our Board decided to reduce our a quarterly dividend to $0.05 per share which still represents a healthy annual yield of about 7.0% on the basis of our stock price on February 8, 2012.

Tasos Aslidis, Chief Financial Officer of Euroseas commented: The results of the fourth quarter of 2011 partly reflect the deteriorating state of the market which influenced the charter rates earned by our containership vessels that had their charters renewed during the last quarter. Additionally, an accelerated drydocking of one of our vessels influenced our fourth quarter results which were also only marginally affected by derivative losses compared to about $2.5 million derivative gains of the fourth quarter of 2010. However, our vessels earned on average about $2,000 per day per vessel more in the fourth quarter of 2011 as compared to the fourth quarter of 2010 resulting in a net income of $1.1 million versus a net loss of $0.9 million in the fourth quarter of last year.

Total daily vessel operating expenses, including management fees, general and administrative expenses but excluding drydocking costs, registered a decrease of about 0.5% during the fourth quarter of 2011 compared to the same quarter of last year and an increase of about 15.5% for the full year of 2011 over 2010; these increases are primarily due to the fact that in the first nine months periods of 2010 we had two laid-up vessels (out of a total of about 15.53 vessels on average for 2010) that incurred much lower daily running expenses and management fees. Drydocking expenses expressed on per vessel per day basis were lower by 53.3% in 2011 and 89.4% lower for the fourth quarter of 2011 as compared to the same periods in 2010 primarily because fewer of our vessels were drydocked in the fourth quarter and full year of 2011 as compared to the respective periods in 2010. As always, we want to emphasize that cost control remains a key component of our strategy.

As of December 31, 2011, our outstanding debt was $74.9 million versus restricted and unrestricted cash of about $36.9 million. As of the same date, our scheduled debt repayments over the next 12 months amounted to about $13.3

million a number low enough to provide us with significant operational cash flow comfort. All our debt covenants were satisfied as of December 31, 2011.

Fourth Quarter 2011 Results:

Excluding the effect on the earnings for the quarter of the unrealized gain and the realized loss on derivatives and unrealized loss on trading securities and amortization of fair value of charters acquired, the earnings per share for the quarter ended December 31, 2011 would have been $0.04 per share basic and diluted compared to losses of $0.12 per share for the quarter ended December 31, 2010. Usually, security analysts do not include the above items in their published estimates of earnings per share.

Full Year 2011 Results:

and a $0.8 million net realized loss on derivatives as compared to a $8.1 million net unrealized gain on derivatives and trading securities and $12.4 million net realized loss on derivatives for the same period of 2010.

Adjusted EBITDA for the twelve months of 2011 was $21.6 million, a 49.4% increase from $14.4 million achieved during the twelve months of 2010. Please see below for Adjusted EBITDA reconciliation to net income/loss and cash flow provided by operating activities.

Basic and diluted net income per share for the twelve months of 2011 was $0.04, calculated on 31,054,197 and 31,104,692 weighted average number of shares outstanding basic and diluted, respectively, compared to basic and diluted loss per share of $0.21 basic and diluted per share for the twelve months of 2010, calculated on 30,900,122 weighted average number of shares outstanding basic and diluted.

Excluding the effect on the earnings for 2011 of the unrealized and realized loss on derivatives, unrealized loss on trading securities and amortization of fair value of charters acquired, the earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2011 would have been $0.05 per share basic and diluted compared to losses of $0.14 per share basic and diluted for 2010. Usually, security analysts do not include the above items in their published estimates of earnings per share.

(1) Average number of vessels is the number of vessels that constituted our fleet for the relevant period, as measured by the sum of the number of calendar days each vessel was a part of our fleet during the period divided by the number of calendar days in that period.

(2) Calendar days. We define calendar days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession including off-hire days associated with major repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys or days of vessels in lay-up. Calendar days are an indicator of the size of our fleet over a period and affect both the amount of revenues and the amount of expenses that we record during that period.

(3) The scheduled off-hire days including vessels laid-up are days associated with scheduled repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys or days of vessels in lay-up. The shipping industry uses available days to measure the number of days in a period during which vessels were available to generate revenues.

(4) Available days. We define available days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession net of scheduled off-hire days including days of vessels laid-up.

(5) Commercial off-hire days. We define commercial off-hire days as days waiting to find employment.

(6) Operational off-hire days. We define operational off-hire days as days associated with unscheduled repairs or other off-hire time related to the operation of the vessels,

(7) Voyage days. We define voyage days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession net of commercial and operational off-hire days. The shipping industry uses voyage days to measure the number of days in a period during which vessels actually generate revenues.

(8) Fleet utilization. We calculate fleet utilization by dividing the number of our voyage days during a period by the number of our available days during that period. The shipping industry uses fleet utilization to measure a company's efficiency in finding suitable employment for its vessels and minimizing the amount of days that its vessels are off-hire for reasons such as unscheduled repairs or days waiting to find employment.

(9) Fleet utilization, commercial. We calculate commercial fleet utilization by dividing our available days net of commercial off-hire days during a period by our available days during that period.

(10) Fleet utilization, operational. We calculate operational fleet utilization by dividing our available net of operational off-hire days during a period by our available days during that period.

(11) Time charter equivalent, or TCE, is a measure of the average daily revenue performance of a vessel on a per voyage basis. Our method of calculating TCE is consistent with industry standards and is determined by dividing revenue generated from voyage charters net of voyage expenses by voyage days for the relevant time period. Voyage expenses primarily consist of port, canal and fuel costs that are unique to a particular voyage, which would otherwise be paid by the charterer under a time charter contract, as well as commissions. TCE is a standard shipping industry performance measure used primarily to compare period-to-period changes in a shipping company's performance despite changes in the mix of charter types (i.e., spot voyage charters, time charters and bareboat charters) under which the vessels may be employed between the periods.

(12) Daily vessel operating expenses, which includes crew costs, provisions, deck and engine stores, lubricating oil, insurance, maintenance and repairs and management fees are calculated by dividing vessel operating expenses by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period. Drydocking expenses are reported separately (see Note 15 below). Daily vessel operating expenses excluding vessels laid-up excludes the vessels that were laid-up for part of or the entire period reported as they provide a better estimate of the trends in the operating costs of the fleet.

(13) Daily general and administrative expense is calculated by dividing general and administrative expense by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

(14) Total vessel operating expenses, or TVOE, is a measure of our total expenses associated with operating our vessels. TVOE is the sum of vessel operating expenses excluding drydocking expenses and general and administrative expenses. Daily TVOE is calculated by dividing TVOE by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

(15) Drydocking expenses, which include expenses during drydockings that would have been capitalized and amortized under the deferral method divided by the fleet calendar days for the relevant period. Drydocking expenses could vary substantially from period to period depending on how many vessels underwent drydocking during the period.

Adjusted EBITDA Reconciliation:

Euroseas Ltd. considers Adjusted EBITDA to represent net earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation, amortization, gain / loss in derivatives and amortization of deferred revenues from above or below market time charters acquired. Adjusted EBITDA does not represent and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or cash flow from operations, as determined by United States generally accepted accounting principles, or U.S. GAAP, and our calculation of Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to that reported by other companies. Adjusted EBITDA is included herein because it is a basis upon which we assess our financial performance and liquidity position and because we believe that it presents useful information to investors regarding a company's ability to service and/or incur indebtedness. The Company's definition of Adjusted EBITDA may not be the same as that used by other companies in the shipping or other industries.
