Section 1 – Conflict Minerals Disclosure

Item 1.01 Conflict Minerals Disclosure Report

The Middleby Corporation (“Middleby” or the “company”) has evaluated its current product lines and determined that tin, tungsten, tantalum, or gold (or so-called “conflict minerals” by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission) are necessary to the functionality or production of certain products that the company manufactured or contracted to manufacture during 2014. Accordingly, Middleby is filing this Form SD, along with a Conflict Minerals Report, to disclose the measures that it has taken to determine the origin of the conflict minerals contained in its products.

Conflict Minerals Disclosure

The company undertook extensive due diligence measures, including surveying its direct suppliers via an industry-standard survey template for conflict minerals, to try to determine the sources of these minerals, which are purchased through a complex supply chain.

The company did not have sufficient information from its suppliers or other sources to determine the country of origin of the conflict minerals contained in its products or identify the facilities used to process those conflict minerals.

A copy of Middleby’s Conflict Minerals Report for the reporting period from January 1, 2014 to December 31, 2014 is filed as Exhibit 1.01 hereto and is publicly available at www.middleby.com under the heading, “Investor Relations.” The content of any website referred to in this Form SD is included for general information only and is not incorporated by reference in this Form SD.
