NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary in order not to make the financial statements misleading have been included. Results for the three months ended December 31, 2008 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2009. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in Synergx Systems Inc. (“Synergx” or “the Company”) and Subsidiaries’ annual report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended September 30, 2008.

NOTE 2. REVENUE RECOGNITION

Product sales include sales of systems, which are similar in nature, that involve fire alarm, life safety and security (CCTV and card access), transit (train station platforms and on board systems) and communication (paging, announcement and audio/visual). Product sales represent sales of products along with the integration of technical services at a fixed price under a contract with an electrical contractor or end user customer (building owner or tenant), or customer agent. Product sales for long term contracts are recognized, using the percentage-of-completion method of accounting. The effects of changes in contract terms are reflected in the accounting period in which they become known. Contract terms provide for billing schedules that differ from revenue recognition and give rise to costs and estimated profits in excess of billings, and billings in excess of costs and estimated profits. Costs and estimated profits in excess of billing were $344,000 and $747,000 at December 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively and have been included in other current assets. Billings in excess of costs and estimated profits were $889,000 and $98,000 at December 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively and have been included in deferred revenue. Product sales for short term contracts are recognized when the services are performed or the product has been delivered, which is when title to the product and risk of loss have been substantially transferred to the customer and collection is reasonably assured.

Subcontract sales principally represent revenues related to electrical installation of wiring and piping performed by others for the Company when the Company acts as the prime contractor and sells its products along with electrical installation. Revenue is recognized when these services are performed at the job site.

Service revenue from separate maintenance contracts is recognized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the respective contract, which is generally one year. The unearned service revenue from these contracts is included in current liabilities as deferred revenue. Non-contract service revenue is recognized when services are performed.

Accounts receivable from a significant customer amounted to $868,000 at December 31, 2008.

The Credit Facility is secured by all assets of the Company and all of its operating subsidiaries. No accrual for interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions was required as of December 31, 2008. NOTE 10. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In February 2008, the FASB staff issued Staff Position No. 157-2, Effective Date of FASB Statement No. 157 (“FSP 157-2”). FSP 157-2 delayed the effective date of SFAS 157 for nonfinancial assets and non-financial liabilities, except for items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis (at least annually). The provisions of FSP 157-2 are effective for the Company’s fiscal year beginning October 1, 2009; however, the Company does not expect the provisions to have a material impact, if any, on our financial statements.

In May 2008, the FASB issued Statement No. 162, “The Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles,” (“SFAS 162”) which identifies the sources of accounting principles and the accounting framework for selecting the principles to be used in the preparation of financial statements of non-governmental entities that are presented in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”). SFAS 162 is effective 60 days following the SEC’s approval of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board amendments to AU Section 411, “The Meaning of Present Fairly in Conformity with GAAP.” The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS 162 to have an impact on its financial statements.

Other recently issued accounting pronouncements are not expected to have a material impact on the Company’s financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 11. NASDAQ CONTINUED LISTING

On April 21, 2008, the Company received a letter (the "Letter") from The NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ") notifying the Company that for the last 30 consecutive days, the bid price of the Company's common stock has closed below the minimum $1.00 per share requirement for continued inclusion in the NASDAQ Stock Market. The Company had been provided with 180 calendar days (until October 20, 2008) to regain compliance.

NASDAQ has subsequently suspended the enforcement of rules requiring a minimum $1.00 closing bid price or a minimum market value of publicly held shares. NASDAQ has said it will not take any action to delist any security for these concerns during the suspension. NASDAQ has stated that, given the current extraordinary market conditions, this suspension will remain in effect through Friday, April 17, 2009 and will be reinstated on Monday, April 20, 2009.

As a result, if, at any time before April 23, 2009, the bid price of the Company's common stock closes at $1.00 or greater per share for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, then NASDAQ will provide the Company with written notification that it has complied with the Marketplace Rule 4310(c) (4) (the "Rule"). If compliance with the Rule cannot be demonstrated by April 23, 2009, then NASDAQ will decide whether the Company meets NASDAQ's listing criteria set forth in the Rule, except for the bid requirement. The notification states that, if the Company meets these criteria, then the Company will be granted an additional 180 calendar day compliance period. If the Company is not granted an additional 180 calendar period, then NASDAQ will provide written notification that the Company's securities will be delisted.

Management and the Board of Directors will consider available strategies in order to satisfy the minimum bid price requirement, however there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to maintain the listing of its common stock on the NASDAQ Global market.

In the event the delisting of the Company's common stock would occur, the Company would look to have its common stock trade on a different platform or exchange. The Company is analyzing what effect, if any, a delisting would have on the Company's financial condition and liquidity.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

On September 30, 2008, the Company had a $3.5 million dollar revolving credit facility with TD Banknorth, N.A. (the Bank”) (the “Credit Facility”). This Credit Facility had an annual interest rate of prime plus ¼% and was to expire in January 2009. On December 23, 2008, the Credit Facility was amended to extend the expiration date of the Credit Facility through October 1, 2009, and to revise the facility to $2.5 million with an increased interest rate of prime plus 2% (3.50% at December 31, 2008 and 5.25% at September 30, 2008). As a result, the bank debt is being classified as a current liability at December 31, 2008. Advances under the Credit Facility are measured against a borrowing base calculated on eligible receivables and inventory. The Credit Facility is secured by all assets of the Company and all of its operating subsidiaries.

The Credit Facility includes various covenants, which among other things, impose limitations on declaring or paying dividends, and making acquisitions and capital expenditures. The Company is also required to maintain certain financial ratios and tangible net worth covenants. At December 31, 2008 and September 30, 2008, the full amount of the Credit Facility was available under the borrowing base calculation and $1,130,292 and $518,000, respectively, was owed under the Credit Facility.

Net cash used in operations for the three months ended December 31, 2008 was $8,855 compared to $119,619 of cash provided by operations for the comparable prior year period, an increased use of $128,474. This $128,474 increase was primarily due to an increase of $352,346 in the net use in cash for operating assets and liabilities in 2008 as compared to 2007, partially offset by an increase of $214,867 in net income in 2008. Cash used for operating assets and liabilities in 2008 was used to fund certain projects that will be delivered after December 31, 2008.

In 2008, the net cash outflow of $8,855 from operations, cash used for equipment purchases of $9,690 and note payments of $6,824 were financed by bank borrowing of $25,369. Additional bank borrowing of $587,050 increased the Company’s cash balance at December 31, 2008.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)

The ratio of the Company's current assets to current liabilities (current ratio) decreased to approximately 1.56 to 1 at December 31, 2008 compared to 1.83 to 1 at September 30, 2008. Working capital declined to $3.6 million at December 31, 2008 compared to $3.8 million at September 30, 2008. This decline and the decrease in the current ratio are related to $1.1 million of bank debt being classified as a current liability at December 31, 2008.

Revenues

The Company's product sales decreased slightly during the three months ended December 31, 2008 to $3,794,000 compared to $3,801,000 for the prior year period. The decline in product sales was from decreases in sales of audio/visual and security products (primarily from transit projects). However, during the 2008 period, additional fire alarm revenue almost entirely offset these declines as product sales benefited from higher fire alarm revenue from the installation of a fire alarm system from the building owner and tenants at a major new retail outlet center in our Long Island, NY territory amounting to $635,000 (a job of this size is unusual for this area and is not expected to occur often) and from the installation of the Company's new Comtrak system upgrade at a large building in New York City. Revenue from this upgrade program began in December, 2008 and is expected to continue in future periods.

Subcontract sales increased during the current three month period to $569,000 from $150,000 in the comparable prior year period. During the 2008 period, the Company was responsible as prime contractor for the electrical installation of a major new retail outlet center amounting to sales of $387,000 and for several other large electrical installations projects compared to a few small electrical installations in 2007.

Service revenues decreased 2% during the current three month period (2008) as compared to the comparable prior year period due to declines in both call-in-service on fire alarm systems (replacement parts and service required by buildings) and service contract revenue.

Gross Profit

Gross profit from product sales for the three months ended December 31, 2008 increased 38% to $920,000 compared to $667,000 for the prior year period. The improvement in absolute gross margin and the 6% increase in gross margin percentage are primarily attributable to a shift in product mix to higher margin sales of fire alarm projects in 2008 whereas the 2007 period included sales from a very low gross margin public address system. Gross profit margin as a percentage of product sales was 24% in 2008 compared to 18% in 2007.

Gross profit related to subcontract sales for the three months ended December 31, 2008 increased in absolute terms as the Company was responsible for a greater number of electrical installations by third parties (subcontract work) which included one large installation at a major retail outlet center in 2008 (noted above). The higher gross profit margin percentage in 2008 is due to higher margin percentage received on the major retail outlet center project compared to the three months of 2007 as mark ups on electrical installations were lower on the few small electrical installation in 2007.

Gross profit from service revenues decreased $245,000 to $499,000 during the three months ended December 31, 2008 as a result of a decline in both call-in-service on fire alarm systems (replacement parts and service required by buildings) and service contract revenue and from certain additions in the number of service technicians as the Company increased its customer support staffing levels (during 2008) and rebalanced it's staff to better serve customer requirements. In addition, the Company added certain service administration staff in 2008, which included a dedicated operating executive whose expenses are included in cost of service.

Profit Before Taxes

The $215,000 increase in income before income taxes during the three months ended December 31, 2008 includes $112,000 of higher gross profit, $77,000 of lower selling, general and administrative expenses compared to 2007, and $39,000 of lower interest expense. The improvement in gross profit was primarily due to a shift to higher margin sales of fire alarm projects in 2008, primarily attributable to a large installation at a major retail outlet center (noted above), which increased gross profit $357,000 from product and subcontract sales and partially offset a $245,000 decline in gross profit from service revenue (noted above). The decrease selling, general and administrative expenses resulted from savings related to certain reductions in administrative and information technology personnel. Interest expense decreased $39,000 due to the effect of both lower interest rates as a result of a lower prime rate lower borrowing levels during 2008.

Tax Provision

The Company's income tax expense for the three month periods of 2008 and 2007 represents minimum state and local income or franchise taxes. No income tax expense was recorded for the operating profit for the three months ended December 31, 2008 and 2007 due to the expected use of the net operating loss carryforwards.

Order Position

The Company's order position, excluding service, at December 31, 2008 was $11,900,000 as compared to $12,500,000 at September 30, 2008 and $9,800,000 at December 31, 2007. The Company expects to fulfill a significant portion of its order position over the next twelve months. Due to the fact that the Company's products are sold and installed as part of larger mass transit construction projects, there is typically a delay between the booking of the contract and its revenue realization. The order position includes, and the Company continues to bid on projects that might include, significant subcontractor labor (electrical installation performed by others). The Company expects to be active in seeking orders where the Company would act as a prime contractor and be responsible for management of the project as well as electrical installation.

Significant Customers and Suppliers

The Company does business directly and indirectly through various electrical contractors to New York City Transit Authority. Net sales to this authority represented approximately 24% and 32% of total net sales in the three months ended December 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

One customer provided sales of 10% or more of total sales (amounting to 15%) in the three months ended December 31, 2008 and no customer provided sales of 10% or more for the three months ended December 31, 2007. Accounts receivable from a significant customer amounted to $868,000 at December 31, 2008.

Three suppliers each accounted for more than 10% of the Company's cost of sales for the three months ended December 31, 2008 (those suppliers amounted to 17%, 15% and 14%) One supplier accounted for more than 10% of the Company's cost of sales for the three months ended December 31, 2007 (amounting to 13%).

The Company and Firecom have entered into several transactions that are not financially material to the revenues, gross profit or net income of the Company. Firecom has provided certain sales leads to the Company for products Firecom does not sell. These sales leads have resulted in additional sales of products to customers. The Company has paid Firecom a 2% sales commission related to these sales which amounted to $6,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2008 and there were no such transactions for the three months ended December 31, 2007. Firecom has manufactured and sold to the Company certain fire alarm equipment made to the Company's specifications. This equipment was sold to the Company for $3,000 during the three months ended December 31, 2008 and there were no such transactions during the three months ended December 31, 2007. Other

On April 21, 2008, the Company received a letter from the NASDAQ Stock Market notifying the Company that for the last 30 consecutive days, the bid price of the Company's common stock has closed below the minimum $1.00 per share requirement for continued inclusion in the NASDAQ Stock Market. The Company had been provided with 180 calendar days (until October 20, 2008) to regain compliance.

NASDAQ has subsequently suspended the enforcement of rules requiring a minimum $1.00 closing bid price or a minimum market value of publicly held shares. NASDAQ has said it will not take any action to delist any security for these concerns during the suspension. NASDAQ has stated that, given the current extraordinary market conditions, this suspension will remain in effect through Friday, April 17, 2009 and will be reinstated on Monday, April 20, 2009.

Management and the Board of Directors will consider available strategies in order to satisfy the minimum bid price requirement, however there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to maintain the listing of its common stock on the NASDAQ Global Market.

In the event the delisting of the Company's common stock would occur, the Company would look to have its common stock trade on a different platform or exchange. The Company is analyzing what effect, if any, a delisting would have on the Company's financial condition and liquidity.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures.

At the period end of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, the Company's management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. Based on that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded, as of the end of the quarter covered by this report, that:

The Company's disclosure controls and procedures are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified.

That Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, and made known to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, to allow timely decision regarding the required disclosure.

There have been no changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting that have materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect the Company's internal controls over financial reporting during the period covered by this Quarterly Report.

A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control systems are met. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems no evaluation of control can provide absolute assurance that all control issues, if any, within a company have been detected. Such limitations include the fact that human judgment in decision-making can be faulty and that breakdowns in internal control can occur because of human failures, such as simple errors or mistakes or intentional circumvention of the established process.
