Description of Terms

Linked to the Russell 2000® Index

Unlike ordinary debt securities, the securities do not pay interest, do not repay a fixed amount of principal at maturity and are subject to potential automatic call upon the terms described below. Any return you receive on the securities and whether they are automatically called will depend on the performance of the Index

Automatic Call. If the closing level of the Index on any call date is greater than or equal to the starting level, the securities will be automatically called, and on the related call settlement date, you will receive the original offering price plus the call premium applicable to that call date. The call premium applicable to each call date will be a percentage of the original offering price that increases for each call date based on a simple (non-compounding) return of approximately 8.25% to approximately 9.25% per annum (to be determined on the pricing date)

Call Date	Call Premium
May 6, 2020	8.25% – 9.25% of the original offering price
May 6, 2021	16.50% – 18.50% of the original offering price
May 6, 2022	24.75% – 27.75% of the original offering price
May 1, 2023 (the “final calculation day”)	33.00% – 37.00% of the original offering price

 the actual call premium applicable to each call date will be determined on the pricing date

Maturity Payment Amount. If the securities are not automatically called, you will receive a maturity payment amount that could be equal to or less than the original offering price per security depending on the closing level of the Index on the final calculation day as follows:

o

If the level of the Index decreases but the decrease is not more than 15%:

You will receive the original offering price of your securities at maturity

If the level of the Index decreases by more than 15%:

You will have full downside exposure to the decrease in the level of the Index from the starting level, and you will lose more than 15%, and possibly all, of the original offering price of your securities

Investors may lose some, or all, of the original offering price

Any positive return on the securities will be limited to the applicable call premium

All payments on the securities are subject to credit risk, and you will have no ability to pursue any securities included in the Index for payment; if Wells Fargo Finance LLC, as issuer, and Wells Fargo & Company, as guarantor, default on their obligations, you could lose some or all of your investment

No periodic interest or dividends

No exchange listing; designed to be held to maturity

On the date of the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement, the estimated value of the securities is approximately $959.43 per security. While the estimated value of the securities on the pricing date may differ from the estimated value set forth above, the issuer does not expect it to differ significantly absent a material change in market conditions or other relevant factors. In no event will the estimated value of the securities on the pricing date be less than $939.43 per security. The estimated value of the securities was determined for the issuer by Wells Fargo Securities, LLC using its proprietary pricing models. It is not an indication of actual profit to the issuer or to Wells Fargo Securities, LLC or any of the issuer's other affiliates, nor is it an indication of the price, if any, at which Wells Fargo Securities, LLC or any other person may be willing to buy the securities from you at any time after issuance. See "Estimated Value of the Securities" in the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement.

The securities have complex features and investing in the securities involves risks not associated with an investment in conventional debt securities. See "Selected Risk Considerations" in this term sheet and "Risk Factors" in the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement.

This introductory term sheet does not provide all of the information that an investor should consider prior to making an investment decision.

Investors should carefully review the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement, market measure supplement, prospectus supplement and prospectus before making a decision to invest in the securities.

Hypothetical Payout Profile

The profile to the right illustrates the potential payment on the securities for a range of hypothetical percentage changes in the closing level of the Index from the pricing date to the applicable call date. The profile is based on a hypothetical call premium of 8.75% for the first call date, 17.50% for the second call date, 26.25% for the third call date and 35.00% for the final call date (based on the midpoint of the ranges specified for the call premiums) and a threshold level equal to 85% of the starting level.

This profile has been prepared for purposes of illustration only. Your actual return will depend on (i) whether the securities are automatically called; (ii) if the securities are automatically called, the actual call premium and the actual call date on which the securities are called; (iii) if the securities are not automatically called, the actual ending level of the Index; and (iv) whether you hold your securities to maturity or earlier automatic call.

Hypothetical Returns

If the securities are automatically called:

Hypothetical call date on which securities are automatically called	Hypothetical payment per security on related call settlement date	Hypothetical pre-tax total rate of return
1st call date	$1,087.50	8.75%
2nd call date	$1,175.00	17.50%
3rd call date	$1,262.50	26.25%
4th call date	$1,350.00	35.00%

Assumes the call premiums are equal to the midpoints of their specified ranges. Each security has an original offering price of $1,000.

If the securities are not automatically called:

Hypothetical ending level	Hypothetical percentage change from the hypothetical starting level to the hypothetical ending level	Hypothetical maturity payment amount per security	Hypothetical pre-tax total rate of return
95.00	-5.00%	$1,000.00	0.00%
90.00	-10.00%	$1,000.00	0.00%

Edgar Filing: WELLS FARGO & COMPANY/MN - Form FWP

85.00	-15.00%	$1,000.00	0.00%
84.00	-16.00%	$840.00	-16.00%
80.00	-20.00%	$800.00	-20.00%
70.00	-30.00%	$700.00	-30.00%
50.00	-50.00%	$500.00	-50.00%
25.00	-75.00%	$250.00	-75.00%
0.00	-100.00%	$0.00	-100.00%

Assumes a hypothetical starting level of 100.00. The hypothetical starting level of 100.00 has been chosen for illustrative purposes only and does not represent the actual starting level. The actual starting level will be determined on the pricing date and will be set forth under “Summary of Terms” above. For historical data regarding the actual closing levels of the Index, see the historical information set forth under the section titled “The S&P 500® Index” in the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement. Each security has an original offering price of $1,000.

The above figures are for purposes of illustration only and may have been rounded for ease of analysis. The actual payment per security upon automatic call or maturity payment amount and the resulting pre-tax rate of return will depend on (i) whether the securities are automatically called; (ii) if the securities are automatically called, the actual call premium and the actual call date on which the securities are called; and (iii) if the securities are not automatically called, the actual starting level and actual ending level.

Call Dates and Call Premiums

The call premium applicable to each call date will be a percentage of the original offering price that increases for each call date based on a simple (non-compounding) return of approximately 8.25% to approximately 9.25% per annum (to be determined on the pricing date). The actual call premium and payment per security upon an automatic call that is applicable to each call date will be determined on the pricing date and will be within the ranges specified in the table below. The last call date is the final calculation day, and payment upon an automatic call on the final calculation day, if applicable, will be made on the stated maturity date.

Call Date	Call Premium	Payment per Security upon an Automatic Call
May 6, 2020	8.25% – 9.25% of the original offering price	$1,082.50 – $1,092.50
May 6, 2021	16.50% – 18.50% of the original offering price	$1,165.00 – $1,185.00
May 6, 2022	24.75% – 27.75% of the original offering price	$1,247.50 – $1,277.50
May 1, 2023 (the final calculation day)	33.00% – 37.00% of the original offering price	$1,330.00 – $1,370.00

Any positive return on the securities will be limited to the applicable call premium, even if the closing level of the Index significantly exceeds the starting level on the applicable call date. You will not participate in any appreciation of the Index beyond the applicable call premium.

How The Maturity Payment Amount Is Calculated

If the securities are not automatically called, then on the stated maturity date you will receive a cash payment per security equal to the maturity payment amount. The maturity payment amount per security will equal:

If the ending level is less than the starting level but greater than or equal to the threshold level: $1,000; or

If the ending level is less than the threshold level: $1,000 minus

If the securities are not automatically called and the ending level is less than the threshold level, you will lose more than 15%, and possibly all, of the original offering price of your securities at maturity.
