Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 13, 2013 (the “Closing Date”), LPL Financial Holdings Inc. (“Holdings”, and together with its subsidiaries, the “Company”) entered into a First Amendment and Incremental Assumption Agreement (the “Agreement”) among Holdings, LPL Holdings, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation (the “Borrower”), the other Credit Parties signatory thereto, the several Lenders parties thereto, Bank of America, N.A. as Administrative Agent, and the other parties thereto. The Agreement supplements and amends the Company's Credit Agreement, dated as of March 29, 2012 (“Credit Agreement”), among Holdings, the Borrower, the Lenders from time to time party thereto, Bank of America, N.A. as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, Letter of Credit Issuer and Swingline Lender, and the other parties thereto.

Pursuant to the Agreement, among other things, the Lenders made incremental tranche B term loans to the Borrower in the aggregate principal amount of approximately $1,084 million (the “New Term Loan B”). The Borrower used the proceeds of New Term Loan B to (i) refinance all initial tranche B term loans outstanding under the Credit Agreement on the Closing Date (the “Prior Term Loan B”) and (ii) repay tranche A term loans outstanding under the Credit Agreement (“Term Loan A”) on the Closing Date in an aggregate principal amount of approximately $239 million (the “Term Loan A Repayment”). The remaining loan proceeds of approximately $236 million, before fees and expenses (the “Remaining Proceeds”), will be available for the working capital requirements and other general corporate purposes.

Term Loan	Maturity	March 31, 2013		(Repayments) Proceeds(1)	March 31, 2013
		Balance(1)	Interest Rate		Balance(1)	Interest Rate
Term Loan A	3/29/2017	$698.2	2.70	% (2) $(238.9)	$459.3	2.70	% (2)
Prior Term Loan B	3/29/2019	608.9	4.00	% (3) (608.9)	—	—	%
New Term Loan B	3/29/2019	—	—	% 1,083.9	1,083.9	3.25	% (4)
Total Debt		$1,307.1		$236.1	$1,543.2

(1) Dollars in millions.

(2) As of March 31, 2013, the variable interest rate for the Term Loan A was based on one-month LIBOR of 0.20%, plus the applicable interest rate margin of 2.50%.

(3) As of March 31, 2013, the variable interest rate for the Prior Term Loan B was based on the greater of one-month LIBOR of 0.20% or 1.00%, plus the applicable interest rate margin of 3.00%.

(4) Under the Agreement, as of March 31, 2013, the variable interest rate for the New Term Loan B would have been based on the greater of one-month LIBOR of 0.20% or 0.75%, plus the applicable interest rate margin of 2.50%.

The New Term Loan B has a maturity date of March 29, 2019, and quarterly repayments of principal will total 1% per year with the remaining principal due upon maturity, consistent with the terms of the Prior Term Loan B. The New Term Loan B bears interest at a rate per annum equal to either (x) a base rate (subject to a floor of 1.75%) plus a 1.50% margin or (y) a LIBOR rate (subject to a floor of 0.75%), plus a 2.50% margin. The Prior Term Loan B bore interest at a rate per annum equal to either a base rate (subject to a floor of 2.00%) or a LIBOR rate (subject to a floor of 1.00%), in each case plus an applicable margin. As of the Closing Date, immediately prior to the effectiveness of the Agreement, the applicable margin for borrowings with respect to the Prior Term Loan B was 2.00% for base rate borrowings and 3.00% for LIBOR borrowings.

Quarterly repayments of principal for the Term Loan A total 5% for the twelve months ending March 31, 2013 and 2014 and 10% for the twelve months ending March 31, 2015, 2016 and 2017 (the “Mandatory Amortization”), with the remaining principal due upon maturity on March 29, 2017. The Term Loan A Repayment prepaid the Mandatory Amortization.

Item 8.01 Other Events

Holdings expects to use the Remaining Proceeds primarily to fund repurchases of shares of its common stock from time to time in the future, as well as a possible increase in Holdings' quarterly dividend, subject in each case to authorization by the Board. As of May 13, 2013, the Board had not authorized use of any of the Remaining Proceeds. Any future determination to use the Remaining Proceeds to fund future share repurchases or a future increase in Holdings' quarterly dividend will be made at the discretion of the Board and will depend on a number of factors, including without limitation those described in the following paragraph.

Statements in this Item 8.01 regarding the future uses of the Remaining Proceeds constitute forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's expectations as of May 13, 2013, including the expectation that the Company will continue to generate sufficient cash flow to warrant future share repurchases or the payment of a quarterly dividend.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees and should not be regarded as a representation by the Company that all or any portion of the Remaining Proceeds will be used to fund future share repurchases or future dividends, including any increases to the size of future dividends. The declarations of any future quarterly dividends, including the dividend amount and the timing of record and payment dates, remain subject to approval by the Board. Matters subject to forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including economic, legislative, regulatory, competitive and other factors, and the actual uses of the Remaining Proceeds may differ significantly from the uses expressed in the forward-looking statements. Important factors that may cause or contribute to such differences include the Company's future liquidity and working capital requirements, alternative short- and long-term uses of capital and the Board's determination, in its sole discretion, to approve future share repurchases or dividends. In authorizing the use of any of the Remaining Proceeds for future share repurchases or dividends, the Board may consider in particular the Company's financial condition, strategic plans and prospects; the Company's operating plans, including expected future cash flows; general economic and financial market conditions, including retail investor sentiment; requirements under Delaware law and limitations under the Credit Agreement, as applicable; in the case of repurchases, the price and availability of shares of Holdings' common stock, as well as trading volumes; and such other factors as the Board may deem relevant, including those described in the "Risk Factors" section of the Holdings' annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012. Except as required by law, the Company specifically disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, even if the Company's expectations change, and you should not rely on those statements as representing the Company's view as of any date subsequent to May 13, 2013.
