ITEM 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 3, 2015, Briggs & Stratton Corporation (the “Company”) and Joseph C. Wright entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release and Waiver (the “Agreement”) in connection with Mr. Wright’s previously disclosed departure from the Company. The Agreement will become effective and enforceable seven days after its execution unless otherwise revoked.

Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Wright irrevocably and unconditionally releases the Company and all persons acting by, through, under, or in concert with the Company, from certain complaints, claims, liabilities, costs and expenses, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, arising out of his employment with the Company, the termination of that employment, and the execution of the Agreement, up to the date of the Agreement, subject to customary exceptions.

In connection with his departure from the Company, Mr. Wright is receiving payments and benefits through December 31, 2016 commensurate with those payable upon a nonrenewal by the Company of his employment agreement, which are substantially similar to those payable upon a termination without cause, as described in the Company’s proxy statement for its 2014 annual meeting, provided that Mr. Wright will also be entitled to continue participating in the Company's retirement and 401(k) plans and its Key Employee Savings and Investment Plan through December 31, 2016 and will receive continued life insurance coverage, financial/tax consulting expense reimbursement and an executive physical during such time.
