PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Vishay Precision Group, Inc. (the "Company") is filing this Form 12b-25 with the Securities and Exchange Commission because additional time is needed for the Company to complete its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 27, 2015 (the "Form 10-Q"), which was due on August 6, 2015.

As reported in its Current Report on Form 8-K, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 4, 2015 (the "Form 8-K"), the Company issued a press release (the "Press Release") announcing that it will reschedule the full release of its second quarter financial results and related earnings conference call from August 4, 2015, as originally scheduled. The Company also noted in its Form 8-K that the earnings release and conference call were being rescheduled because the Company required additional time to complete a review and analysis of certain potential adjustments to its historical financial statements, relating to functional currency accounting at a subsidiary located in India, in prior periods extending back to 2011.

The Company is working diligently to resolve this review and analysis, including quantifying and assessing the significance of the impact of the Indian subsidiary functional currency accounting issue on prior period results, and the Company expects to file the Form 10-Q on August 11, 2015 (within the extension period of five calendar days provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended). Because the assessment is ongoing, we can give no assurances that we will be able to file our Form 10-Q by August 11, 2015.

PART IV - OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification:

(Name)	(area code)	(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s). [X] Yes [] No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? [X] Yes [] No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Reference is made to the Press Release, which sets forth preliminary unaudited financial results for the second quarter and six months ended June 27, 2015, which are subject to change. The Company anticipates that, when filed, the Form 10-Q will reflect a decline in results of operations for the second quarter and six months ended June 27, 2015 as compared to the corresponding periods for the last fiscal year by virtue of several factors, including the decrease in net revenues and gross margins in each of the Company's product segments as disclosed in the Press Release, the fact that our operating expenses in those periods did not decrease to the same degree as the decrease in net revenues, and the impact of potential adjustments related to functional currency accounting for our Indian subsidiary.
