Post Holdings Announces Pricing of Common Stock and Tangible Equity Units Offerings

St. Louis, Missouri - May 21, 2014 - Post Holdings, Inc. (NYSE:POST) (the “Company”) today announced the pricing of its previously announced common stock offering of 5,500,000 shares at $47.70 per share. The size of the common stock offering was increased from 4,500,000 shares to 5,500,000 shares. The Company also granted the underwriters a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 825,000 shares of common stock at the public offering price less the underwriting discount. The common stock offering is expected to close on May 28, 2014, subject to customary closing conditions.

The Company also announced the pricing of its previously announced offering of 2,500,000 5.25% tangible equity units (the “Units”), with a stated value of $100.00 per Unit. The size of the Units offering was increased from 2,000,000 Units to 2,500,000 Units. The Company also granted the underwriters an option to purchase within 13 days beginning on, and including, the date of the initial issuance of the Units, up to an additional 375,000 units. The Units offering is expected to close on May 28, 2014, subject to customary closing conditions. Each Unit will consist of a prepaid stock purchase contract and an amortizing note. Unless earlier settled, each stock purchase contract will automatically settle on June 1, 2017 (subject to postponement in limited circumstances) for a number of shares of the Company’s common stock that will equal at least 1.7114 shares and not more than 2.0964 shares (subject to adjustments in certain circumstances). The amortizing notes will pay proportionally equal cash quarterly installments of $1.3125 per amortizing note (except for the first such installment, which will be $1.35625 per amortizing note), which will constitute a payment of interest and a partial repayment of principal, and which in the aggregate will be equivalent to a 5.25% cash payment per year with respect to each $100.00 stated amount of the Units. The amortizing notes will have a final installment payment date of June 1, 2017 and will be unsecured senior obligations of the Company.

The common stock and Units offerings are being conducted as separate offerings from the Company’s previously announced offering of $630 million in aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2022. None of the offerings is contingent upon any other offering. The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the proposed offerings, together with cash on hand and approximately $625 million of new term loan borrowings (a decrease from its previous estimate of approximately $735 million), to fund the previously announced acquisition of MFI Holding Corporation (“Michael Foods”) and to pay related fees and expenses. The final terms of the debt components of the acquisition financing will be subject to market and other conditions, and may be materially different than current expectations.

The common stock and Units offerings are not contingent on the consummation of the acquisition of Michael Foods, and in the event the acquisition does not close, all of the proceeds of the offerings would be used for general corporate purposes, which could include, among other things, financing the previously announced PowerBar and Musashi acquisition and financing additional acquisition opportunities, working capital and capital expenditures. Separately, the Company also intends to borrow approximately $260 million of additional new term loan borrowings (in addition to the approximately $625 million described above) and to use the net proceeds of such additional borrowings for general corporate purposes, including the purposes described in the preceding sentence. In total, the Company would have approximately $885 million of term loan borrowings after the completion of the Michael Foods acquisition.
