

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 2, 2018, the US District Court for the District of Massachusetts dismissed all federal securities law claims filed against all defendants in the case of Lee Vardakas, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated (“Plaintiffs”) against American DG Energy Inc. (“ADGE”), Tecogen, Inc. (the “Company”), and various individuals (“Defendants”) (Case No. 17-cv-10247-LTS) relating to the merger of ADGE with the Company. The US District Court took the position that the Plaintiffs’ allegations did not support any viable claim that Defendants had failed to disclose material facts regarding the merger. The US District Court denied Defendants’ motion to dismiss Plaintiffs’ Massachusetts state law claims based on alleged breaches of fiduciary duties to the ADGE shareholders based on the same facts as the dismissed federal securities claims. Defendants will continue to vigorously defend their position that they have no liability with respect to the remaining claims in the case.
