Separation and Consulting Agreement with Thomas M. Metzger

On November 17, 2015, National Bank Holdings Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a Separation and Consulting Agreement with Thomas M. Metzger (the “Separation and Consulting Agreement”), the Company’s Chief of Enterprise Technology & Integration, in connection with his retirement from the Company, effective December 18, 2015. Under the Separation and Consulting Agreement, Mr. Metzger will, subject to his execution and non-revocation of a release of claims in favor of the Company, receive a separation payment equal to $883,000. During the period commencing on his retirement date and ending on December 31, 2016, Mr. Metzger will serve as a consultant to the Company and will receive a monthly consulting fee of $5,000. The Separation and Consulting Agreement also requires Mr. Metzger to abide by certain restrictive covenants during the consulting period and for one year after he ceases to provide services to the Company. Mr. Metzger’s decision to retire was not the result of any disagreement with the Company or its management.

The foregoing description of the Separation and Consulting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to such agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The press release issued by the Company in connection with Mr. Metzger’s retirement is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers

On November 17, 2015, the Company entered into an Amended and Restated Employment Agreement with Richard U. Newfield, Jr., the Company’s Chief Risk Management Officer, and Employment Agreements with each of Brian F. Lilly, the Company’s Chief Financial Officer and Chief of M&A & Strategy, and Zsolt K. Besskó, the Company’s Chief Administrative Officer & General Counsel (collectively, the “Employment Agreements”). The Employment Agreements were entered into, in part, to make the employment arrangements of the Company’s named executive officers consistent with one another and the Employment Agreement with each executive replaces and supersedes the employment or letter agreement the executive was previously a party to with the Company.

The Employment Agreements with Messrs. Lilly, Newfield, and Besskó provide for an initial term through December 31, 2016, which will automatically renew for successive one-year terms unless either party gives at least 90 days’ written notice prior to the expiration date of the current term, a base salary of $375,000, $325,000, and $315,000, respectively, and a target bonus opportunity of 75% of base salary, 60% of base salary, and 55% of base salary, respectively. If the executive is terminated by the Company without cause or the executive resigns with good reason (each, a “qualifying termination”), then, subject to his execution and non-revocation of a release of claims in favor of the Company, the executive will be entitled to receive (a) one times (two times, in the case of a qualifying termination within two years following a change in control) the sum of his base salary and the greater of his target annual bonus and actual bonus for the previous year, and (b) a prorated bonus for the year of termination. In addition, in the case of Messrs. Newfield and Lilly, certain performance-based restricted stock held by them will vest in full if the executive experiences a qualifying termination within two years following a change in control.

The Employment Agreements also restrict the executives from competing with or soliciting employees or customers of the Company during their employment with the Company and for either (a) two years following the executive's termination of employment, in the case of a qualifying termination within two years following a change in control, or (b) one year following the executive's termination of employment, in the case of all other terminations of employment.

Also on November 17, 2015, the Company entered into an amendment to the employment agreement with G. Timothy Laney, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer (the "Laney Amendment"). The Laney Amendment extends the term of Mr. Laney's employment agreement to December 31, 2016 (subject to automatic renewal as provided in Mr. Laney's employment agreement), provides for a target bonus opportunity of 90% of base salary, and provides that, if Mr. Laney experiences a qualifying termination within two years following a change in control, certain performance-based restricted stock held by him will vest in full. The Laney Amendment also extends the duration of Mr. Laney's noncompetition and nonsolicitation obligations to three years in the case of qualifying termination within two years following a change in control, and includes certain conforming updates to make Mr. Laney's employment agreement consistent with the Employment Agreements entered into with Messrs. Lilly, Newfield, and Besskó.

The foregoing description of the Laney Amendment and the Employment Agreements with Messrs. Lilly, Newfield, and Besskó does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to such agreements, copies of which are filed as Exhibit 10.2, 10.3, 10.4, and 10.5 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
