MID PENN BANCORP, INC.

CURRENT REPORT ON FORM 8-K

ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On March 29, 2017, Mid Penn Bancorp, Inc. (“Mid Penn”), Mid Penn Bank, and The Scottdale Bank & Trust Company (“Scottdale”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Scottdale will merge with and into Mid Penn Bank, with Mid Penn Bank as the surviving bank (the “Merger”). The Merger Agreement was approved unanimously by the boards of directors of Mid Penn, Mid Penn Bank and Scottdale.

If the merger is completed, Scottdale shareholders will have the right to receive for each share of Scottdale common stock they own, at their election, (i) $1,166 in cash or (ii) a fraction of a share (the “exchange ratio”) of Mid Penn common stock determined by dividing (y) $1,166 by (z) the 10 trading day per share volume-weighted average price for Mid Penn common stock ending on the date that is five business days prior to the closing of the merger (the “Average Price”), provided that in no event may the exchange ratio be less than 38.88 or greater than 44.86, respectively. Scottdale shareholders may also elect to receive a combination of cash and Mid Penn common stock. The Merger Agreement provides that 90% of the outstanding shares of Scottdale common stock will be converted into right to receive shares of Mid Penn common stock and the remainder of the outstanding shares of Scottdale common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash. However, the percentage could be adjusted down to 85% in the event that shareholders perfecting their dissenters’ rights reaches 15% of the outstanding shares of Scottdale common stock.

The Merger Agreement provides that Mid Penn will appoint Donald F. Kiefer, President and Chief Executive Officer and a director of Scottdale, to the board of directors of Mid Penn and Mid Penn Bank effective upon closing of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both Mid Penn and Scottdale that are qualified by the confidential disclosures provided to the other party in connection with the Merger Agreement, as well as matters included in Mid Penn’s most recent annual report on Form 10-K filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), and each party has agreed to customary covenants between execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger, including in the case of both Mid Penn and Scottdale a covenant to convene a meeting of shareholders to consider the Merger Agreement and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its shareholders approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, and, in the case of Scottdale, a covenant, subject to certain exceptions, not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals, provide information to third parties or engage in discussions with third parties relating to an alternative acquisition proposal.

Completion of the Merger is subject to a number of customary conditions, including, among others, (i) the approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of each of Scottdale and Mid Penn, (ii) the effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by Mid Penn with the SEC relating to the Mid Penn common stock to be issued in the Merger, (iii) approval of the listing on The Nasdaq Stock Market of the shares of Mid Penn common stock to be issued in the Merger, (iv) the absence of any order or other legal restriction prohibiting the closing of the Merger, (v) receipt of required regulatory approvals without the imposition of any condition or requirement, excluding standard conditions that are normally imposed by the regulatory authorities in bank merger transactions, that would, in the good faith reasonable judgment of the board of directors of either Mid Penn or Scottdale, materially and adversely affect the business, operations, financial condition, property or assets of the combined enterprise or materially impair the value of Scottdale to Mid Penn or the value of Mid Penn to Scottdale, and (vi) Lawrence J Kiefer and Mid Penn Bank entering into a mutually acceptable employment agreement effective as of the closing. Each party's obligations to complete the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including: (a) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (b) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, (c) not more than 15% of the outstanding shares of Scottdale common stock have properly effected their dissenters rights, (d) the absence of any material adverse effect (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement) with respect to the other party, and (e) the receipt by each party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Mid Penn and Scottdale, including, among others, if the Merger has not been completed by March 31, 2018 or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing by Mid Penn and Scottdale. Scottdale may also terminate the Merger Agreement in the event of certain declines in the Average Price measured against, among other things, the Nasdaq Bank Index over the period from the last trading day before the date of the Merger Agreement to the fifth business day prior to the closing unless Mid Penn contributes sufficient additional cash, shares of Mid Penn common stock or a combination thereof to a predetermined level to partially offset the reduction in the value of the consideration attributable to such decline. Scottdale and Mid Penn each also has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances relating to other permitted acquisition proposals and, in the event of such termination, Scottdale would be obligated to pay Mid Penn a termination fee of $2,365,500. In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated by either Mid Penn or Scottdale if Scottdale shareholders fail to approve the Merger Agreement, Scottdale shall pay Mid Penn the lesser of (i) the amount of Mid Penn's actual and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with due diligence, negotiation, execution of the Merger Agreement and undertaking the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including, without limitation, all financial advisor, accounting, counsel and third party review firm fees), and (ii) $500,000. However, if Scottdale enters into a definitive agreement relating to, or consummates, a Scottdale Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) within 12 months after the occurrence of any of the following termination events: (a) by Mid Penn because of a willful breach by Scottdale or (b) by Mid Penn or Scottdale if Scottdale shareholders fail to approve the Merger Agreement, Scottdale shall pay to Mid Penn a fee of $2,365,500, with a credit for any previously paid expense reimbursement.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties, and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties will not survive completion of the Merger, and were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding Mid Penn or Scottdale, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Mid Penn, Scottdale, and their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a joint proxy statement of Mid Penn and Scottdale and a prospectus of Mid Penn, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that Mid Penn makes with the SEC.

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, each of the directors and executive officers of Scottsdale have entered into separate affiliate letters with Mid Penn pursuant to which such individuals have agreed, subject to the terms set forth therein, to vote their shares of Scottsdale common stock that they are entitled to vote for the Merger and related matters and to become subject to certain transfer restrictions with respect to their holdings of Scottsdale common stock. Such affiliate letters represent 28,913 shares of Scottsdale common stock, or approximately 57% of the issued and outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock. In addition, concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, the directors and executive officers of Mid Penn entered into separate affiliate letters with Scottsdale pursuant to which such individuals have agreed, subject to the terms set forth therein, to vote their shares of Mid Penn Common Stock that they are entitled to vote for the Merger and related matters and to become subject to certain transfer restrictions with respect to their holdings of Mid Penn Common Stock. Such affiliate letters represent 320,789 shares of Mid Penn common stock, or approximately 7.6% of the issued and outstanding shares of Mid Penn common stock. Each of these affiliate letters terminates in accordance with its terms if the Merger Agreement is terminated, and in other specified circumstances. The foregoing summary of the affiliate letters does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the text of such agreements, which are attached as Exhibits 99.1 (Form of Scottsdale Affiliate Letter) and 99.2 (Form of Mid Penn Affiliate Letter) to this Current Report on Form 8-K filed the date hereof by Mid Penn, and are incorporated herein by reference.
