The Purchase Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereby are not subject to approval by the shareholders of the Company. The Purchase Agreement contains standard representations and warranties regarding the Seller and the Business and certain limited representations and warranties regarding the Company. The Purchase Agreement also contains indemnification provisions for the benefit of the Company and the Seller. Neither the Company nor the Seller shall be liable for more than $2,000,000 under the indemnification provisions except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct. The Seller and the Seller’s Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer agreed to 5-year non-compete provisions as part of the Purchase Agreement, subject to the exceptions set forth below.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company and the Seller entered into two reseller agreements whereby the Seller shall continue to utilize certain technology relating to the Business with respect to portions of the Seller’s operations and business which the Seller will be retaining after the Effective Date. The reseller agreements each have five-year terms and may be extended for an unlimited number of one-year terms thereafter. The Company will receive 35% of all revenue generated from these reseller agreements for the first two years and then receive 50% of all revenue for the final three years and during any extension of the term of the reseller agreements. The Seller’s performance under the terms of these reseller agreements will not be violations of the non-competition requirements set forth above. Also in connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company agreed to exclusively use the Seller’s teleconferencing service for a period of five years which may be extended for an unlimited number of one-year terms thereafter for a discounted pricing rate.
