CenturyTel Announces Stock Repurchase Program

MONROE, La.... CenturyTel, Inc. (NYSE:CTL/CTL.A) announced today that its board of directors approved a stock repurchase program that will allow the Company to repurchase up to an aggregate of $400 million of either its common stock or convertible equity units.

"Our solid balance sheet, stable investment grade credit ratings and strong free cash flow generation enable us to repurchase shares at attractive prices that will be accretive to earnings," Glen F. Post III, president and chief executive officer, said. "This program allows us to continue to comfortably service debt while maintaining the flexibility to consider other investment opportunities as they become available."

CenturyTel has outstanding approximately 142 million common shares and $500 million stated value of convertible equity units. Repurchases under the program may be made in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions at such times and in such amounts as management deems appropriate, depending upon market conditions and other factors. The program will expire in December 2005 unless extended by CenturyTel's board of directors. Today's closing prices of the Company's common stock and convertible equity units (CUSIP 156700403) were $26.33 and $23.43 per share, respectively.

In addition to historical information, this release includes certain forward-looking statements, estimates and projections that are based on current expectations only, and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions, many of which are beyond the control of the Company. Actual events and results may differ materially from those anticipated, estimated or projected if one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or if underlying assumptions prove incorrect. Factors that could affect actual results include but are not limited to: the timing, success and overall effects of competition from a wide variety of competitive providers; the risks inherent in rapid technological change; the effects of ongoing changes in the regulation of the communications industry; the Company's ability to effectively manage its growth, including integrating newly-acquired businesses into the Company's operations, hiring adequate numbers of qualified staff, and successfully upgrading its billing and other information systems; possible changes in the demand for, or pricing of, the Company's products and services; the Company's ability to successfully introduce new product or service offerings on a timely and cost-effective basis; the Company's ability to collect its receivables from financially troubled communications companies; other risks referenced from time to time in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission; and the effects of more general factors such as changes in interest rates, in accounting policies or practices, in operating, medical or administrative costs, in general market, labor or economic conditions, or in legislation, regulation or public policy. These and other uncertainties related to the Company's business are described in greater detail in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this release. The information contained in this release is as of February 3, 2004. The Company undertakes no obligation to update any of its forward-looking statements.
