INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT TO AMENDMENT NO. 2

This Amendment No. 2 to Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO dated as of June 5, 2003, relates to an offer by Corning Incorporated ("Corning"), a New York corporation, to purchase for cash up to $834,000,000 aggregate principal amount at maturity of its Zero Coupon Convertible Debentures due November 8, 2015 (the "Notes") at a purchase price of not greater than $750 nor less than $725 per $1,000 principal amount at maturity of the Notes. This amount includes 2% of the outstanding principal amount at maturity of the Notes in addition to the principal amount at maturity originally sought in the offer. Reference to a Note in the singular refers to a Note representing $1,000 principal amount at maturity.

This Amendment No. 2 to Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO is being filed by Corning and amends and supplements certain provisions of Corning's Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on May 7, 2003, and amended on May 20, 2003 (as amended and supplemented, the "Schedule TO") and Corning's offer for the Notes set forth in the Offer to Purchase for Cash Up to $800,000,000 Aggregate Principal Amount at Maturity of its Outstanding Zero Coupon Convertible Debentures Due November 8, 2015 (CUSIP No. 219350 AJ 4) (as amended and supplemented, the "Offer to Purchase"), and the related Letter of Transmittal, as amended (as amended and supplemented, the "Letter of Transmittal") which, together with the Offer to Purchase, constitute the "Offer") and both of which are filed as Exhibits to the Schedule TO with the SEC. The Offer expired at 12:00 midnight, Eastern Time, on June 4, 2003. The Schedule TO, as amended and supplemented hereby, is intended to satisfy the reporting requirements of Rule 13e-4(c)(2) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Capitalized terms used in this amendment and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Offer to Purchase and the Schedule TO.

Item 1. Summary Term Sheet

The Summary Term Sheet set forth in the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended to substitute as the offered amount to be purchased $834,000,000 aggregate principal amount at maturity for $800,000,000 in each place where it appears.

Each other place in the Offer to Purchase or Letter of Transmittal or any other document which is an Exhibit to Corning's Schedule TO, as amended, is hereby amended to substitute as the amount offered to be purchased, $834,000,000 aggregate principal amount at maturity for $800,000,000.

Edgar Filing: CORNING INC /NY - Form SC TO-I/A

Item 4. Terms of the Transaction

Item 4 of the Schedule TO is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following language:

The Offer expired at 12:00 midnight, Eastern Time, on Wednesday, June 4, 2003. Approximately $848 million aggregate principal amount at maturity of the Notes were validly tendered and not withdrawn, at or below the purchase price in the Offer, including approximately $35 million aggregate principal amount at maturity tendered by notice of guaranteed delivery. Corning will accept for purchase up to $834 million aggregate principal amount at maturity of the validly tendered and not withdrawn Notes at a purchase price of $747.50 per $1,000 principal amount at maturity of Notes, subject to satisfactory delivery of Notes tendered by notice of guaranteed delivery. Because more of the Notes were validly tendered at or below the purchase price and not withdrawn, than are being accepted for payment, Notes validly tendered at or below the purchase price will be purchased on a pro rata basis. Corning expects that the proration factor will be approximately 98%. The proration factor and the principal amount at maturity of Notes to be purchased are preliminary and are subject to verification by the Depository. The final proration factor and the actual principal amount at maturity of Notes to be purchased will be announced promptly following completion of the verification process. Corning expects to make payment to the Depository for the Notes accepted for purchase, and return all other Notes tendered but not accepted, promptly after completion of such verification process. Corning expects final verification and payment for the Notes accepted for purchase to occur by June 12, 2003. On June 5, 2003 Corning issued a press release announcing the preliminary results of the Offer. A copy of this press release is filed as Exhibit (a) (5) (C) to the Schedule TO and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 12. Exhibits

Item 12 is hereby amended and supplemented to add Exhibit (a) (5) (C) as follows:

- (a) (1) (A) Offer to Purchase, dated May 7, 2003.*
- (a) (1) (B) Revised form of Letter of Transmittal, including taxpayer I.D. guidelines.**

Corning Tender Oversubscribed

Corning Announces Preliminary Results of Tender Offer

CORNING, N.Y.-- Corning Incorporated (NYSE:GLW) today announced the preliminary results of its modified Dutch auction tender offer for up to $800 million aggregate principal amount at maturity of its outstanding zero coupon convertible debentures. The offer expired at midnight, Eastern Time, on June 4, 2003.

Based on preliminary information, Corning will accept for purchase up to $834 million aggregate principal amount at maturity of debentures validly tendered and not withdrawn at a purchase price of $747.50 per $1,000 of principal amount at maturity, subject to satisfactory delivery of debentures tendered by notice of guaranteed delivery. The purchase price applies to all debentures accepted for payment pursuant to the offer. Based on preliminary information, approximately $848 million principal amount at maturity of debentures were validly tendered at or below the purchase price and not withdrawn, including approximately $35 million of debentures tendered by notice of guaranteed delivery.

Because more of the debentures were validly tendered at or below the purchase price and not withdrawn, than are being accepted for payment, Corning expects to apply a proration factor of approximately 98% to all debentures accepted for payment in the offer. The final proration factor is subject to verification by the depositary.

Payment for the debentures accepted for purchase is expected to occur by June 12, 2003, when we announce final results. Corning will use up to $623 million in cash to complete the tender. All debentures not accepted for payment will be promptly returned to holders.

James B. Flaws, vice chairman and chief financial officer, said, "We are delighted with the strong response to our tender offer. The debt reduction from this tender offer combined with our other actions has allowed Corning to reduce its debt by approximately $2 billion over the past 17 months. This reduction in leverage combined with our objective of returning Corning to profitability later this year, is all part of our plan to regain investment-grade ratings."

J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Banc of America Securities LLC acted as joint dealer managers for the tender offer. Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. served as information agent and Alpine Fiduciary Services, Inc. as depository.
