Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) On December 16, 2017, Samuel E. Miceli, a named executive officer in the most recent proxy statement filed by Federal Signal Corporation (the “Company”) on March 10, 2017, resigned from his position as a principal officer of the Company, effective January 15, 2018. Mr. Miceli will transition from his role as Senior Vice President, Environmental Solutions Group to Vice President and General Manager of the Company’s Vactor Manufacturing, Inc. subsidiary.

(c) On December 15, 2017, the Company appointed Mark D. Weber, 60, as Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, effective January 15, 2018. Mr. Weber rejoins the Company after four years at Supreme Industries, Inc. (“Supreme”). Mr. Weber joined Supreme in May 2013 as President and Chief Executive Officer, serving in that capacity up to the sale of Supreme to Wabash National Corporation, which was completed on September 27, 2017. Prior to joining Supreme, Mr. Weber worked for 17 years as an executive within the Company’s Environmental Solutions Group, including a decade as Group President. Mr. Weber holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from Rose Hulman Institute of Technology and a Master of Business Administration degree from Indiana University.

There is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Weber and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Weber was appointed as the Company’s Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. There are no related party transactions between the Company and Mr. Weber, and there are no family relationships between Mr. Weber and any of the directors or officers of the Company.

In connection with Mr. Weber’s appointment, the Company and Mr. Weber executed an employment offer letter (“the Weber Employment Letter”) setting forth the terms of Mr. Weber’s employment. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete terms of the Weber Employment Letter, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and which is incorporated herein by reference. The material economic terms of Mr. Weber’s compensation as Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, included in the Weber Employment Letter, are summarized below:

▲Annual Base Salary: Mr. Weber will receive an annual base salary of $450,000.

Annual Cash Incentive Bonus: Mr. Weber will be eligible for an annual cash incentive bonus equal to 65% of his annual base salary at target and capped at 130% of his annual base salary, calculated and paid according to the Company’s Short-Term Incentive Bonus Plan, prorated for 2018 based on the effective date of his employment.

Long-Term Incentive Bonus: Subject to the approval of the Company’s Compensation and Benefits Committee (the “CBC”), Mr. Weber will be eligible to receive long-term equity incentive compensation awards beginning in 2018 with a target value of approximately $500,000.

Other Benefits: Mr. Weber’s compensation package also includes a monthly car allowance, eligibility to participate in the Company’s non-qualified Savings Restoration Plan in 2018, and eligibility to participate in the Company’s standard benefit package including group health benefits, 401(k) plan and other benefits. In addition, Mr. Weber will be eligible for Tier I Change-in-Control benefits under the terms of the applicable agreement. Mr. Weber will not be eligible to participate in the Company’s Executive General Severance Plan (the “Severance Plan”), unless and until both of the following pre-conditions are satisfied: (i) he has worked for the Company as its Chief Operating Officer for a period of one year from his start date; and (ii) Jennifer L. Sherman is no longer serving as Company’s President and Chief Executive Officer. If Mr. Weber becomes eligible, his eligibility shall automatically end and discontinue notwithstanding any terms set forth in the Severance Plan to the contrary, without any severance payment or other obligation owed to him, on August 1, 2022. During any period that Mr. Weber is eligible to participate in the Severance Plan, his eligibility shall be as a Tier I Executive. Mr. Weber is not eligible to participate in the Company's General Severance Pay Plan at any time.

A copy of the Company's press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Weber is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and the information contained therein is incorporated herein by reference.

(e) In connection with Mr. Miceli's new role, the Company and Mr. Miceli executed an employment offer letter ("the Miceli Employment Letter") setting forth the terms of Mr. Miceli's employment in his new position. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete terms of the Miceli Employment Letter, which is attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and which is incorporated herein by reference. The material economic terms of Mr. Miceli's compensation in his new role, included in the Miceli Employment Letter, are summarized below:

•Annual Base Salary: Mr. Miceli will continue to receive his current annual base salary of $291,748.

Annual Cash Incentive Bonus: Mr. Miceli will be eligible for an annual cash incentive bonus equal to 40% of his annual base salary at target and capped at 80% of his annual base salary, calculated and paid according to the Company's Short-Term Incentive Bonus Plan, prorated for 2018 based on the effective date of his new position.

Long-Term Incentive Bonus: Subject to the approval of the CBC, Mr. Miceli will be eligible to receive an annual long-term equity incentive compensation award in 2018 with a target value of approximately $125,000.

All other economic terms of Mr. Miceli's employment will remain as in effect prior to his change in position.
