Item 8.01: Other Events

San Rafael, CA: Westamerica Bancorporation (NASDAQ: WABC), parent company of Westamerica Bank, provides the following update on environmental conditions and expected operating results. Management expects a stable net interest margin in the second quarter 2009 relative to the prior quarter. The provision for loan losses will be increased to $2.6 million to compensate for increased net loan losses. Noninterest income will approximate $16.4 million. Noninterest expense will approximate $38.7 million, reflecting industry-wide increases in FDIC insurance assessments; the increase in Westamerica's FDIC assessments relative to the first quarter 2009 is equivalent to $0.06 diluted earnings per common share (EPS). The Company expects to report second quarter 2009 EPS of $0.75 and annualized return on average common equity of 19 percent.

Westamerica anticipates a second quarter 2009 provision for loan losses of $2.6 million, compared to $1.8 million in the first quarter 2009. Annualized net loan losses to average non-covered loans will approximate 0.56 percent in the second quarter. The increase in net charge-offs in the second quarter is generally attributable to one commercial borrower. Non-covered nonperforming assets will approximate $35 million at June 30, 2009. The June 30, 2009 loan loss reserve as a percentage of non-covered loans is expected to be 1.86 percent, unchanged from 1.86 percent at March 31, 2009.

Westamerica Bank recently amended its March 31, 2009 Call Report to reduce the regulatory risk-weighting for loans and other real estate owned covered under a loss-sharing agreement with the FDIC. This adjustment to risk-weighted assets resulted in higher March 31, 2009 regulatory total capital ratios of 14.46 percent and 13.90 percent for Westamerica Bancorporation and Westamerica Bank, respectively. Net income is expected to exceed shareholder dividends during the second quarter, increasing the Company's capital levels. Investment portfolio liquidity and an approximate 2 percent decline in average loan volumes since March 2009 have reduced risk-weighted assets during the second quarter. The Company expects higher capital ratios at June 30, 2009 compared to March 31, 2009. Management anticipates applying operating cash flow to redeem TARP preferred stock in installments as early as July 2009. Second quarter 2009 TARP preferred stock dividends of $1.1 million are equivalent to $0.04 EPS.

Non-interest expense will be impacted by increased FDIC insurance assessments. On February 27, 2009, the FDIC modified the risk-based assessment system and set higher assessment rates beginning April 1, 2009. Additionally, Westamerica's average total deposit assessment base increased in the second quarter due to County bank deposits assumed from the FDIC on February 6, 2009. Further, on May 22, 2009, the FDIC adopted a final rule imposing a special assessment to address the under-funded status of the Deposit Insurance Fund. Westamerica's second quarter 2009 special assessment is estimated to be $2.3 million. As previously disclosed, Westamerica Bank's assessment credits will become fully exhausted in the second quarter 2009. The second quarter 2009 regular and special assessments, net of assessment credits, are estimated to total approximately $3.2 million, compared to total net assessments of $157 thousand in the first quarter 2009. Based on current assessment rates and deposit volumes, Management expects regular quarterly assessments of approximately $1.5 million, equivalent to $0.03 EPS. In FIL-23-2009, the FDIC stated "an additional special assessment later in 2009 is probable, but the amount is uncertain."
