On December 19, 2014, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) and the Board of Directors of Bank of Hawaii Corporation (respectively the “Board” and “Company”) adopted a resolution amending, restating and superseding the Clawback Policy approved by the Committee and the Board on November 14, 2014. The amended and restated Clawback Policy provides: “To the extent permitted by law, if the Human Resources and Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) determines that any bonus, incentive payment or equity based compensation has been awarded or received by an executive officer and that such compensation was based on any financial results or operating metrics that were satisfied as a result of such officer’s fraudulent or intentional illegal conduct, as defined by applicable law, then the Committee shall recover from the officer such compensation (in whole or in part) as it deems appropriate under the circumstances. In determining whether to recover such payment, the Committee shall take into account such considerations as it deems appropriate, including whether the assertion of a claim may violate applicable law or prejudice the interests of the Bank in any related proceeding or investigation. Further, following a restatement of the Bank’s financial statements, on the recommendation of the Audit and Risk Committee, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee shall cause the Bank to recover any compensation that is required to be recovered by Section 304 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.”
