The engagement of KPMG was approved by the Audit Committee of Linn Energy, the indirect parent of Berry.

During each of Berry’s fiscal years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, and during the subsequent interim period through March 17, 2014, neither Berry nor anyone acting on its behalf consulted with KPMG with respect to either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on Berry’s financial statements for the periods prior to December 16, 2013, and no written report or oral advice was provided by KPMG to Berry that KPMG concluded was an important factor considered by Berry in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing, or financial reporting issue, or (ii) any matter that was the subject of either a disagreement as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) and the related instructions of Regulation S-K or a reportable event as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.
