Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

a. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

(i) On January 9, 2004, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Portland General Electric Company (PGE) dismissed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC) as PGE's independent public accountants. The decision to replace PwC was not related to its conduct of the audit of PGE, but rather the consideration of a potential claim against PwC by Enron Corp. (Enron) or its affiliates that could potentially raise concerns about PwC's independence at some future point. PGE is a wholly owned subsidiary of Enron, but PGE is not a debtor in the Enron bankruptcy proceedings.

(ii) The reports of PwC on the financial statements of PGE as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and for the years then ended contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle.

(iii) The Audit Committee of PGE's Board of Directors approved the change in certifying accountants on January 9, 2004.

(iv) In connection with its audits of the financial statements of PGE as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and for the years then ended and through January 9, 2004, there have been no disagreements with PwC on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of PwC, would have caused them to make reference thereto in their report on the financial statements for such years.

(v) During the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 and through January 9, 2004, there have been no reportable events as defined in Regulation S-K Item 304(a)(1)(v).

(vi) PGE has requested that PwC furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. A copy of the letter from PwC will be filed by amendment to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 16 in a Form 8-K/A.

(b) Deloitte & Touche LLP

PGE engaged Deloitte & Touche LLP (D&T) as its new independent accountants as of January 12, 2004. During the two most recent fiscal years and through January 9, 2004, neither PGE nor any one on behalf of PGE has consulted with D&T regarding (i) the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on PGE's financial statements; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement, as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions to Item 304 of Regulation S-K, or a reportable event, as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.
