Fox Entertainment Group Files Universal Shelf For Up To
$2.5 Billion In Securities

New York, NY, April 10, 2002: Fox Entertainment Group today filed a universal shelf registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to issue up to $2.5 billion of equity or debt securities to the public.

The registration statement allows the Company flexibility as to the type of securities it could choose to sell, including Class A common stock and debt securities, and will enable the Company to react quickly to market opportunities as they arise.

Copies of the registration statement and the Company's other SEC filings are available at <http://www.sec.gov>.

The registration statement relating to these securities has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission but has not yet become effective. These securities may not be sold nor may offers to buy be accepted prior to the time the registration statement becomes effective. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.

Fox Entertainment Group, Inc., 85% owned by The News Corporation Limited (NYSE: NWS, NWS.A), is principally engaged in the development, production and worldwide distribution of feature films and television programs, television broadcasting and cable network programming. Fox had total assets as of December 31, 2002 of approximately US$24.3 billion and total annual revenues of approximately US$9 billion. The Company's studios, production facilities and film and television library provide high-quality creative content, and the Company's broadcasting and cable networks provide extensive distribution platforms for the Company's programs.
