Item 1. Security and Issuer
This Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 13D on the Common Stock of Dover Motorsports, Inc. (the "Issuer") is being filed on behalf of the undersigned to amend the Schedule 13D, as amended (the "Schedule 13D") which was originally filed on March 18, 1990. Unless otherwise indicated, all capitalized terms used herein but not defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Schedule 13D.

Item 2. Identity and Background
This statement is being filed by Mario J. Gabelli ("Mario Gabelli"), Marc J. Gabelli ("Marc Gabelli") and various entities which either one directly or indirectly controls or for which either one acts as chief investment officer. These entities, except for Lynch Corporation ("Lynch"), Western New Mexico Telephone Company ("Western New Mexico"), Lynch Telephone

Edgar Filing: DOVER MOTORSPORTS INC - Form SC 13D/A

Corporation ("Lynch Telephone"), Lynch Interactive Corporation ("Interactive"), Brighton Communications Corporation ("Brighton") and Inter-Community Telephone Company ("Inter-Community") (collectively, "Lynch and its affiliates"), engage in various aspects of the securities business, primarily as investment adviser to various institutional and individual clients, including registered investment companies and pension plans, as broker/dealer and as general partner of various private investment partnerships. Certain of these entities may also make investments for their own accounts.

The foregoing persons in the aggregate often own beneficially more than 5% of a class of a particular issuer. Although several of the foregoing persons are treated as institutional investors for purposes of reporting their beneficial ownership on the short-form Schedule 13G, the holdings of those who do not qualify as institutional investors may exceed the 1% threshold presented for filing on Schedule 13G or implementation of their investment philosophy may from time to time require action which could be viewed as not completely passive. In order to avoid any question as to whether their beneficial ownership is being reported on the proper form and in order to provide greater investment flexibility and administrative uniformity, these persons have decided to file their beneficial ownership reports on the more detailed Schedule 13D form rather than on the short-form Schedule 13G and thereby to provide more expansive disclosure than may be necessary.

Exhibit A

August 15, 2002

Mr. Henry B. Tippie
Chairman
Dover Motorsports, Inc.
1131 North DuPont Highway
Dover, Delaware 19901

Dear Henry:

It was good chatting with you today. I have been a long admirer of all that you accomplished.

We have been accumulating Dover Motorsports and Dover Entertainment since the death of John Rollins and since the company was split into two parts.

However, not all is rosy. The sale of 1.2 million shares at $4.30 to four insiders on August 9, requires analysis and our comment.

While I am sure that your lawyers and investment bankers opined this transaction was legal, and economic and cash conditions made it expedient, I don't think the transaction passes the smell test. It certainly doesn't pass mine. (Normally, I would say this transaction stinks to the high paddocks!)

Since the Board felt it needed the money and concluded it was necessary to do it immediately, I will echo my comment to bring fairness back to the process. You should have a non-transferable rights offering for all the shareholders who did not participate in this transaction.

For purposes of discussion, assume that there are 40 million shares outstanding, that insiders who participated in the transaction own 8 million shares, or 20% (your statement). You would offer all shareholders other than the insiders a non-transferable right to purchase one share of stock for every eight shares they own at the same price, or $4.30 per share.

A rights offering could be accomplished without an underwriter, at an extraordinary low per share cost. Since our firm has participated in rights offerings, we will share with you at no fee and at any time, our knowledge.

We know that you will examine our proposal and suggestions in light of what is fair and in light of what is appropriate.

Edgar Filing: DOVER MOTORSPORTS INC - Form SC 13D/A

Sincerely,

/s/
Mario J. Gabelli
