PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Oregon Steel Mills, Inc. (the "Corporation") to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at the Double Tree Hotel, Jantzen Beach Complex, 909 N. Hayden Island Drive, Portland, OR 97217, on Thursday, May 1, 2003, at 9:30 a.m. Pacific Time, and any adjournments thereof.

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 10, 2003 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting. At the close of business on that date, the Corporation had 25,789,854 shares of Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share ("Common Stock"), outstanding. Holders of Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held. There are no cumulative voting rights.

When a proxy in the form accompanying this proxy statement is properly executed and returned, the shares represented will be voted at the meeting in accordance with the instructions specified in the proxy. If no instructions are specified, the shares will be voted FOR Proposal 1 and Proposal 2 in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and such votes will be counted toward determining a quorum. Shares held of record by the Trustees of the Corporation's Employee Stock Ownership Plan Trust (the "ESOP") will be voted by the Trustees in accordance with instructions received from ESOP participants or, if no such instructions are received, the Trustees shall vote or take other action as they deem appropriate. Any person giving a proxy in the form accompanying this proxy statement has the power to revoke it at any time before its exercise. A stockholder may revoke a proxy by (i) written notice of such revocation to the Secretary of the Corporation at the above address; (ii) a later-dated proxy received by the Corporation; or (iii) attending the meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the meeting will not by itself revoke a proxy.

Each share of Common Stock outstanding on the record date is entitled to one vote per share at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting (including abstentions and broker non-votes) will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting and will be counted in determining that a quorum is present. For Proposal 1, (i) the nominees receiving a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting are elected as directors; (ii) withholding authority to vote for a director will be treated as a vote cast against the nominee; and (iii) a broker non-vote will not be treated as a vote cast. For Proposal 2, (i) the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares of the Corporation's stock outstanding on the Record Date is required for approval; and (ii) abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes cast against Proposal 2.

The approximate date on which this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card are being mailed to the Corporation's stockholders is March 25, 2003. Solicitation material will be furnished to brokerage houses, fiduciaries, and custodians holding shares in their names that are beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by one or more telephone, telegram or personal solicitations by directors, officers, or employees of the Corporation. No additional compensation will be paid for any such services. Except as described above, the Corporation does not intend to solicit proxies other than by mail. Costs of solicitation will be borne by the Corporation.

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION, MEETINGS AND STANDING COMMITTEES

The Board has standing Executive, Audit, and Nominating and Compensation Committees. Directors who are full-time employees of the Corporation do not receive fees for serving on the Board or on committees.

The Board established, effective April 26, 2002, the Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan (the "Directors' Stock Option Plan"). The Directors' Stock Option Plan provides for outside directors to receive initial grants of options to purchase 4,000 shares of common stock on the effective date and annual grants of options to purchase 1,500 shares of the common stock on the day of the annual meeting, at an exercise price equal to the closing price on the grant date, and vesting over three years. New directors receive an initial grant of options to purchase 2,000 shares on the day after their appointment. On April 26, 2002, each non-employee director received initial grants of options to purchase 4,000 shares.

In 2002, the functions of the Nominating Committee and Compensation Committee were combined into the Nominating and Compensation ("Compensation") Committee. During 2002, the Board held 4 meetings, the Audit Committee held 4 meetings, and the Compensation Committee held 4 meetings. During 2002, such transactions amounted to approximately $7 million. Mr. Walker is the president and Chief Executive Officer of Feralloy.

PROPOSAL 2: AMENDMENT OF THE CORPORATION'S RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES OF COMMON STOCK

Paragraph 1 of the Fourth Article of the Corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, is proposed to be amended to read as follows:

(1) The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the Corporation has the authority to issue is 46,000,000, consisting of two classes of shares of stock, to be designated Common Stock and Preferred Stock. The total number of shares of Common Stock to be issued is 45,000,000 shares, $0.01 par value per share, and the total number of shares of Preferred Stock authorized to be issued is 1,000,000 shares, $0.01 par value per share.

Edgar Filing: OREGON STEEL MILLS INC - Form DEF 14A

The Corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, currently authorizes the Corporation to issue up to 30,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share and 1,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, $0.01 per share. As of March 10, 2003, there were 25,789,854 outstanding shares of Common Stock, 1,748,400 unissued shares of Common Stock reserved for issuance and 2,461,746 unissued and unreserved shares of Common Stock. As of March 10, 2003, there were no outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, but 600,000 shares of Preferred Stock are reserved for issuance in connection with the Corporation's Rights Agreement.

On February 6, 2003, the Board of Directors unanimously determined that it would be advisable and in the best interest of the Corporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock in order to provide the Corporation with an adequate supply of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock for general corporate needs, including additional financing, payment of stock dividends, stock splits, acquisitions of other businesses and employee incentive and benefit plans. While the Corporation currently has no arrangements, understandings, or commitments with respect to the issuance of any of the additional shares, it is considered advisable to have sufficient authorized and unissued shares available to enable the Corporation, as the need may arise, to move promptly to take advantage of market conditions and the availability of other favorable opportunities without the delay and expense involved in calling a special meeting of stockholders. Unless otherwise required by applicable law or regulation, the additional shares of Common Stock will be issuable without further authorization by vote or consent of the stockholders and on such terms and for such consideration as may be determined by the Board.

The amendment increasing the authorized capital of the Corporation, could, under certain circumstances, discourage or make more difficult an attempt to gain control of the Corporation or the Board by tender offer or proxy contest, or to consummate a merger or consolidation with the Corporation after acquiring control, and to remove incumbent management, even if such transactions were favorable to the stockholders of the Corporation. In certain circumstances, the issuance of the additional shares may be used to create voting impediments or to frustrate persons seeking to gain control of the Corporation, especially if the shares were issued in a private placement to persons sympathetic to management and opposed to any attempt to gain control of the Corporation. Accordingly, this proposal to amend the Restated Certificate of Incorporation may be deemed (under certain circumstances which may or may not occur) to be an antitakeover measure. However, the proposal is not being presented as, nor is it part of, any plan to adopt a series of antitakeover measures.

The additional authorized shares of Common Stock would, when issued, have the same rights as the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock. There are no preemptive rights with respect to any shares of Common Stock. Although the Board would authorize the issuance of additional shares of Common Stock based on its judgment as in the best interests of the Corporation and its stockholders, the issuance of Common Stock could have the effect of diluting the voting power and book value per share of the outstanding Common Stock. THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE AMENDMENT TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED

COMMON SHARES.

DEFINED BENEFIT RETIREMENT PLANS

The Corporation's pension plans are defined benefit plans qualified under section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"). Executive officers and most other domestic employees of the Corporation are eligible to participate in the Oregon Steel Mills, Inc. Pension Plan (the "Plan") or similar plans. Normal retirement is at age 65.

The amount of an employee's pension benefit and the resulting monthly payments an employee receives upon retirement are based upon the level of the employee's prior annual compensation, the employee's number of years of benefit service, and other factors. The employee's annual pension benefit is equal to the sum of:

- (i) for each full or partial year of benefit service prior to January 1, 1994, 1% of the first $22,800 of Past Service Compensation, plus 1.6% of Past Service Compensation in excess of $22,800. ("Past Service Compensation" is the employee's average compensation for the years 1991, 1992, and 1993); plus,
- (ii) for each full or partial year of benefit service beginning on or after January 1, 1994, 1.2% of the employee's compensation during such year up to the employee's "Covered Compensation" amount for the year, plus 1.7% of the employee's compensation in excess of such "Covered Compensation" amount. ("Covered Compensation" for each year is determined by the employee's age and is taken from a Social Security Covered Compensation Table published annually in accordance with IRS regulations. For any given age, the "Covered Compensation" amount in the Table represents the average of the Social Security taxable wage bases over the 35-year period ending in the year someone that age will reach Social Security normal retirement age.)

In addition to the Plan, the Corporation initiated effective May 1, 1994, a Supplemental Retirement Plan (the "SERP") to supplement the Plan and ESOP and make up for benefits which were lost because of the dollar limits imposed by sections 401(a)(17) and 415 of the Code on benefits and contributions under those plans. The SERP results in highly compensated employees receiving retirement benefits calculated on the same basis as other employees. Employees become eligible for benefits under the SERP whenever: (a) the employee has service after the effective date; (b) the employee becomes eligible for benefits under the Plan or an allocation under the ESOP; and (c) the employee's benefit or allocation is limited by section 401(a)(17) of the Code or by the dollar amount under section 415 of the Code, or both. The benefit paid under the SERP is the difference between the Plan benefit calculated as described above and the amount that would have been paid under the Plan in the absence of the dollar limits in sections 401(a)(17) and 415 of the Code; plus the difference between the amount of ESOP benefit allocated to the participant under the ESOP after 1988 and the amount that would have been allocated in the absence of the dollar limits in sections 401(a)(17) and 415 of the Code, plus dividends that would have been paid on such shares after May 1994. Such benefit payments are made at the time that the benefits under the Plan or ESOP, as applicable, are paid, or earlier upon an adverse IRS ruling. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors may amend or terminate the SERP at any time so long as rights already accrued at the time of such amendment or termination are preserved.

The following Pension Plan Table shows the estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement at age 65 (including benefits under the SERP) in the specified compensation and years of service classifications.

- =====
- (1) Represents at least 125% of the maximum compensation for the year ended December 31, 2003.
 - (2) Estimates assume all service is after January 1, 1994, and Social Security Covered Compensation as defined above is $60,000 for all years. The estimates do not include the ESOP benefit pursuant to the SERP, which is not determined by years of service and final compensation.

The portion of an employee's benefit attributable to years of benefit service in excess of 35 years, is limited to 1.0% of his Past Service Compensation for purposes of (i), above; and to 1.2% of his annual compensation for purposes of (ii), above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an employee's compensation taken into account for any Plan year after 1993 shall not exceed $150,000 (or such other amount as may be prescribed for the relevant plan year by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to section 401(a)(17) of the Code). As previously described, the SERP will pay benefits on the additional compensation above that amount. The plan benefits are not subject to deduction for Social Security or other offset amounts.

For each named executive officer listed on the Summary Compensation Table, the applicable compensation each year is the sum of the "Salary" and "Bonus" compensation shown, limited as described above. Upon their retirement, assuming retirement at age 65 and no increase in current rates of annual compensation, and based upon years of service at December 31, 2002, Messrs. Corvin, Adams, Lawrence, Buckentin, and Simon would receive lifetime annual payments under the Plan and pension benefits pursuant to the SERP combined of $171,757, $105,950, $77,112, $107,376, and $94,908, respectively. Their credited years of service as of December 31, 2002, are thirty-three, fifteen, fifteen, fourteen and eleven respectively. In addition, ESOP benefits pursuant to the SERP would include dividends and the equivalent value of shares of Common Stock accrued through December 31, 2002, of $2,516, $1,101, $296, $110 and $0, respectively. Future ESOP benefit additions, if any, would be derived from discretionary annual ESOP allocations set by the Board of Directors.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS AND TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE IN CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

In July 2000, the Corporation entered into change-in-control agreements ("Agreements") with Messrs. Corvin, Adams, Buckentin, and Lawrence and certain other key employees ("Employees"). Change in Control is defined to include, among other things, the transfer of 25% or more of the Corporation's voting securities to any person or entity other than the ESOP or the election of a majority of directors who were not nominated by the then current Board. The Agreements provide, among other things, for severance compensation in the event that an Employee's employment is terminated by the employer without cause or by the Employee with good reason, all as defined in the Agreements, during the three-year period following a Change in Control. Severance compensation is to be calculated as the sum of (i) three times the Employee's annual base salary as of the date of termination or immediately prior to the Change in Control, whichever is greater; (ii) an amount equal to the lump sum present actuarial value of the excess, if any, of the normal retirement allowance to which the Employee would have been entitled under the Pension Plan, assuming that the Employee continued as an active participant under such plan, without change in his rate of annual pay, until the earlier of his 65th birthday or the tenth anniversary of the date of the Change in Control, over the normal retirement allowance to which the Employee is actually entitled under such plan as of the date of termination; and (iii) group health benefits substantially similar to what the Employee was receiving immediately prior to the date of termination. In addition, the Corporation will pay an additional amount to the Employee to compensate for excise taxes the Employee is required to pay on "excess parachute payments."

The Corporation has entered into Indemnification Agreements with each director and certain executive officers (an "Indemnified Person"). Each agreement provides that the Corporation shall indemnify the Indemnified Person to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law or the Corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, including if and when the Indemnified Person is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit, arbitration, investigation, administrative hearing, or any other proceeding (a "Proceeding") because of the Indemnified Person's status or former status as a director, officer, or other agent of the Corporation or because of anything done or not done by the Indemnified Person in such capacity, against all expenses and liabilities actually and reasonably incurred by the Indemnified Person or on the Indemnified Person's behalf in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement, or appeal of such Proceeding. The Corporation will advance to the Indemnified Person all reasonable defense expenses incurred in defense of any Proceeding. Further, each agreement provides that upon the acquisition of 30% or more of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, other than by the Corporation or the ESOP, without approval by a majority of the Corporation's Board prior to such acquisition, the Corporation will obtain and maintain over the term of the agreement an irrevocable standby letter of credit on terms satisfactory to the Indemnified Person in an appropriate amount (but not less than $500,000) naming the Indemnified Person as the beneficiary in order to secure the Corporation's obligation under the agreement. Finally, each agreement provides that the Corporation will purchase and maintain director and officer insurance with coverage at least comparable to its then current insurance for the Indemnified Person for the term of the agreement. The Corporation may elect to not purchase the required insurance if the insurance is not reasonably available or if, in the reasonable business judgment of the directors of the Corporation, either the premium cost for such insurance is disproportionate to the amount of coverage or the coverage provided by such insurance is so limited that there is insufficient benefit from such insurance.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

During 2002 the Compensation Committee members were Stephen P. Reynolds, Chairman, James E. Declusin, and Frank M. Walker and William Swindells was an ex officio member.

BOARD COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Subject to approval of the Board, the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board establishes the general compensation policies of the Corporation and the compensation plans and specific compensation levels for executive officers and establishes guidelines for the compensation of other personnel. The 2002 Committee was composed of independent, non-employee directors.

COMPENSATION PRINCIPLES

The Corporation believes that the compensation program should be designed to attract, retain, and motivate talented employees to contribute to the Corporation's long-term success. To ensure that compensation is competitive, the Corporation periodically collects and analyzes compensation practices of companies and competitors in its location and industry and uses that information as the basis to determine whether the Corporation's compensation program is in a competitive range.

The Corporation maintains the philosophy that compensation of all employees should be directly and materially linked to operating and financial performance of the Corporation, and that incentive compensation should be a greater part of total compensation for more senior positions. To achieve this linkage, incentive compensation programs are provided based upon performance measures relevant to the employee or executive participants, for example quality production, cost reduction, operating income, or return on assets.

These principles align all employee compensation with the Corporation's objectives, operating strategy, management initiatives, and financial performance. Within this overall philosophy, the Corporation's objectives are to:

- (BULLET) Offer a total compensation program that takes into consideration the compensation practices of comparable companies with whom the Corporation competes for executive talent.
- (BULLET) Support a performance-oriented environment in which everyone is working together in pursuit of the Corporation's short-term and long-term goals.
- (BULLET) To maximize the Corporation's long-term growth and profitability and the enhancement of stockholder value.

COMPARATIVE EVALUATION

The Corporation seeks to align total compensation for its employees and executive officers with that of comparable executive positions in other manufacturing and steel companies.

In 2000, the Corporation retained an independent outside consulting firm to review total compensation and incentive compensation elements compared to those utilized at other manufacturing companies. As a result, the consultants observed that base salaries were competitive but incentive opportunities were below market, and certain performance-based incentive plans were recommended for executives.

In 2001, the Corporation again retained an independent consulting firm to review and benchmark executive and employee compensation. Overall, employee compensation was found to be at or slightly above market. The consultant's report to the committee on executive compensation compared the base salary, incentive compensation, and other benefits of the Corporation to other durable goods manufacturing companies (the "Report"). The Report focused on total compensation for the eight most senior executive positions. In preparing the Report, the consulting firm reviewed the executive position descriptions and competitive practices and pay levels for numerous durable goods manufacturing companies (including steel companies). The Report concluded that while executive base salaries were competitive, the Corporation's incentive compensation for executives was below market for comparable positions. As a result, the Corporation plans to gradually increase the opportunity for incentive compensation.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION ELEMENTS

There are four elements in the Corporation's executive officer compensation program, all determined by position, individual performance, and corporate performance and profitability.

BASE SALARY

The Committee sets base salary levels for all officers at levels that are competitive with similar positions at other comparable companies, and that reflect the responsibilities and performance of the individuals.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

Since 2000, executive officers participate in the Annual Incentive Plan ("AIP") and are excluded from the employee profit participation and gainsharing incentive plans. The AIP is designed to reward participants with an annual bonus if return on assets meets or exceeds the benchmark set by the Board of Directors. The annual incentive compensation is determined based upon the Division's and Corporation's actual return on assets for the year, and calculated for each participant at a predetermined percentage of base salary.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE (STOCK OPTION) PLAN

In April 2000, stockholders approved a long-term incentive plan which is a non-qualified stock option plan. No options were granted during 2002. See section entitled "Option Grants During Fiscal 2002" on page 8.

EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN (ESOP)

The Corporation has an ESOP for qualified employees of Oregon Steel Mills, Inc. Annual contributions to the ESOP, which are at the discretion of the Board, are based upon the financial performance of the Corporation. The annual contribution may be in cash or Common Stock but historically has been in Common Stock. No contributions have been made to the ESOP since 1997.

The Corporation also has a SERP (as discussed previously under the heading "Defined Benefit Retirement Plans") whereby the SERP supplements pension and ESOP benefits, making up for benefits which were lost because of the dollar limits imposed by sections 401(a)(17) and 415 of the Code.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER ("CEO") COMPENSATION

The Committee has used the aforementioned compensation principles with respect to the salary of Mr. Corvin who became CEO of the Corporation on January 1, 2000. Mr. Corvin's base salary for 2002 was the same as for 2001 and 2000. In 2002, Mr. Corvin received no options to purchase shares under the stock option plan. During 2002, Mr. Corvin did not receive any compensation under the AIP or ESOP, [but Mr. Corvin was entitled in 2003 to an AIP payment in the amount of $200,000 as a result of the Corporation's 2002 performance.]

The Corporation does not have any "Excessive Employee Remuneration" as defined in section 162(m) of the Code.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors maintains an Audit Committee comprised of outside directors. The Board of Directors and the Audit Committee believe that the Audit Committee's current member composition satisfies the rule of the New York Stock Exchange that governs audit committee composition.

The Audit Committee oversees the Corporation's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the Corporation's audited financial statements to generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Corporation's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards, including Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, COMMUNICATION WITH AUDIT COMMITTEES. In addition, the Audit Committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and letter required by Independence Standards Board No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and discussed with them their independence from the Corporation and its management. The Audit Committee has considered whether the independent auditor's provision of non-audit services to the Corporation is compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence.

The function of the Audit Committee members is not intended to duplicate or to certify the activities of management and the independent auditor, nor can the Committee certify that the independent auditor is "independent" under applicable rules. The Committee serves a board-level oversight role, in which it provides advice, counsel, and direction to management and the auditors on the basis of the information it receives, discussions with management and the auditors, and the experience of the Committee's members in business, financial and accounting matters.
